SENATE

MONDAY, June 6, 1955.

The Senate met at 2:30 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Roy E. Furman) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. ROBERT W. ORVIS, Rector of Trinity Memorial Episcopal Church, Erie, offered the following prayer:

Three short prayers; first, let us pray for our Country.

Almighty God, Who hast given us this good land for our heritage, we humbly beseech Thee that we may always prove ourselves a people mindful of Thy favor, glad to do Thy will. Bless our land with honorable industry, sound learning and pure manners. Save us from violence, discord and confusion, from pride and arrogancy and from every evil way.

Defend our liberties, preserve our unity, fashion into one united people the multitude brought hither out of many kindreds and tongue. Endue with spirit of wisdom those to whom in Thy name we entrust the authority of government, to the end that there be justice and peace at home and that through obedience to Thy law we may show forth Thy praise among the nations of the earth. In the time of prosperity, fill our hearts with thankfulness and in the day of trouble suffer not our trust in Thee to fail. All of which we ask through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Let us pray for all State Legislature, especially for our own.

O God, the fountain of wisdom, Whose statutes are good and gracious and Whose law is truth, we beseech Thee so to guide and bless all State Legislatures, particularly the Legislature of this Commonwealth. Particularly, we pray for this Senate now in order, for the officers, for the Members of the Senate and those who serve them, that they may ordain for our Government such things as shall be agreeable to Thy will, to the glory of Thy name and the welfare of Thy people. Through Jesus Christ, our Lord, Amen.

Now, let us pray for our own individual selves.

O Lord, we beseech Thee mercifully to hear our prayers and spare all those who do confess their sins unto Thee, that they whose consciences by sin are accused, by They merciful pardon may be absolved. Through Christ, our Lord, Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present, the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. MAHANY and Mr. PECHAN, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

STUDENTS FROM RIDLEY TOWNSHIP JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL, DELAWARE COUNTY PRESENTED TO SENATE

Mr. WATKINS. Mr. President and Gentlemen of the Senate, it gives me a great deal of pleasure today to introduce 110 students from the seventh grade of Ridley Township Junior High School, in Delaware County.

They are accompanied by their teachers, Mr. Calvarese, Mr. Starrantino, Mrs. Pugh, Mrs. Reilley, Mrs. Ford and Miss Sullivan.

In their behalf, I would also like to thank the Governor for spending a few minutes with them. They just told me how they deeply appreciated his time, knowing that he was so busy. It does, indeed, Mr. President, help a lot when our students come up here and see how we operate the Senate of Pennsylvania and the House and the various other institutions that they have visited. It is with a great deal of pleasure, Mr. President, that I introduce them.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair wishes to say, on behalf of himself and the other Members of the Senate, that the Senate certainly welcomes this group of students from Ridley Township Junior High School, Delaware County, from the District represented by Senator Watkins. We hope you enjoy your stay here with us today.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 480, entitled:

An Act amending the act of May 25, 1951 (P. L. 415), entitled "An act relating to habeas corpus; conferring jurisdiction upon the judges of the courts of common pleas; prescribing venue; defining procedure in all cases; authorizing service to be made upon persons anywhere in the Commonwealth; providing for the imposition of costs; allowing appeals; specifying the appellate court to which appeals may be taken ;and repealing inconsistent legislation, including that conferring jurisdiction on courts of quarter sessions," extending jurisdiction as to habeas corpus to courts of quarter sessions.

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. YOSKO asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, because the bill I am about to introduce has something to do with the financial condition of the Commonwealth, I think it requires a little explanation.

Mr. President, a great deal has been said about budgets, tax programs, economies and all that sort of thing, not only during this Session but during previous Sessions. Our attention was called to the fact that a number of promises were made during the campaign to reduce expenditures for personnel and in the general administration of the State Government. In that connection, I have been doing a little bit of research and, as I have already informed the Senate, according to the records there was a substantial decrease in expenditures for salaries and wages.

I looked further, Mr. President, and although I have not had the figures for previous periods to make an analysis. I must give the Leader Administration credit for a reduction in expenditures in accordance with the promises made during the campaign.

Mr. President, on General Fund expenditures during the last month the Fine Administration was in power, according to the records, they spent $75,245,526.80. As of the month of April of 1955, these expenditures were reduced to $60,395,659.33, or a reduction of about $15,000,000. At the end of the biennium, Mr. President, I checked to find out what the balance in the General Fund was of May 31, 1955. I was told that the balance was $60,559,075.12. I followed up with a question to determine just how much was committed against that $60,000,000 and, frankly, I knew the answer before it was given to me. The answer was, "I don't know and nobody else knows." That is all because, Mr. President, we do not have a sound fiscal policy in operation here in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Mr. President, we could have made that determination if the Accountant General bill had been approved when it was recommended following a study by the Joint State Government Commission, but for some reason or other, that bill was always turned down. I propose to re-introduce it either tomorrow or in a short time.

Mr. President, since we are on the budget and since we are on the tax program, I think it is very important that we find out just how much of this $60,000,000 can be lapsed. It is important for us to find out how much is committed against that $60,000,000 so that we can balance our accounts. The bill I will introduce proposed to do that very thing. I trust the committee to which it is assigned will give it immediate study and report it out so that it can be approved at the earliest possible date.

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

PETITIONS AND REMONSTRANCES

Mr. WEINER. Mr. President, last Sunday, in the Philadelphia Bulletin, there appeared a small article, a news story, wherein they quoted one of the Members of this Senate with having made a statement which I think not only attacked the integrity of the Members of this body, but I feel attacked the very philosophy of our government. One of the things which has been held sacred, along with the Constitution and our statutes, has been the separation of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial Branches of our government.

Mr. President, one of the Members of this Senate saw fit—he may have been misquoted because sometimes in reporting these stories, they often leave out a word or two or somtimes a word or two is changed. So, sometimes we are quoted as saying certain things which we never meant or the sense of the meaning of the statment is changed.

For the purpose of ascertaining facts, before I proceed, I wonder if the gentleman from Armstrong would allow himself to be interrogated?

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Armstrong, Mr. Pechan, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. PECAN. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. WEINER. Senator Pechan, in the Sunday Philadelphia Bulletin, under a by-line dated Harrisburg, June 4, wherein they state your name, Senator Albert R. Pechan, Armstrong, the statement is attributed to you wherein you speak about Laurelton and the investigation that was held there. You stated that the supplemental report, which was introduced by Senator Dent, was drafted in the Department of Welfare and that Shapiro is the man who was accused and he is putting in his own report.

I would like from you, Senator Pechan, an answer to that question. Is that the statement you made?

Mr. PECAN. Will you give the last part over again, where you talk about Secretary Shapiro?

Mr. WEINER. This is the second paragraph of the quote, attributed to you:

"Shapiro is the man who is accused and he is putting in his own report."

Mr. PECAN. I did not see the story. I did not say that in those words but, perhaps, you can interpret that that is what I meant. I did say that the report was made in the Welfare Department I did not say that Harry Shapiro wrote the report In other words, what you are inferring—

Mr. WEINER. Senator, I am not inferring anything. I am just asking a question, for which I would like an answer of either "yes" or "no," if you can explain to us what you mean.

In other words, am I correct in assuming that you mean that this supplemental report was prepared in the Department of Welfare? Is that what you are saying?

Mr. PECHAN. So I was reliably informed; yes, sir.

Mr. WEINER. Senator—and you may avail yourself of the Fifth Amendment if you so see fit—would you tell us how you came to this conclusion?

Mr. PECHAN. I do not mind incriminating myself, but I am not going to incriminate anybody else.

I said that I got the information from a very reliable source.

Mr. WEINER. In other words, you do not know this of your own knowledge. This has come to you by a report which we might even say is hearsay. Is that correct?

Mr. PECHAN. I did not see the person who prepared the report; no, sir.

Mr. WEINER. Did you know that it was even typed in the Department of Welfare?

Mr. PECHAN. No, I do not know that it was typed there.

Mr. WEINER. Actually, you were quoted correctly, but the statement might be wrong?

Mr. PECHAN. Yes.

Mr. WEINER. Thank you, Senator.

Mr. President, the problem that we are presenting here, and the one that really shocks me, is to think that a Member of this body, after having been here the previous week and heard one of the Members take this floor and make a statement wherein he said, and I quote —Senator Dent stood at this microphone and said: "I, in conjunction with one of the other Senators of our Caucus, after the report and after all the testimony was in, saw fit to prepare a report." The innuendo in the Senator's remarks—and he admits that he was quoted correctly—is that Senator Dent was either mistaken about what he was saying or possibly was not telling the truth, that probably this was prepared somewhere else and was handed to him. That innuendo I think is absolutely erroneous, for one, and, second of all, I think would not be called cricket.

Mr. President, if we are merely here as automatons or catspaws, where people hand us things and we get up on the floor and read them, there is really no need for us to be here. Whether Harry Shapiro, the Laurelton quiz or whether the Department of Welfare is right, wrong or indifferent and regardless of what our views are, I certainly think that the Senator from Armstrong was completely out of order in making this remark to the newspapers and having himself quoted as doubting the integrity of any of the Members who presented the report.

Mr. President, in order to keep the record straight—and Senator Pechan has been quoted or misquoted on numerous occasions about the inhumane treatment, about whether there was or was not any. We have also talked here from time to time about ghost writers. I can assure you that I have no notes in front of me, other than the report which Senator Dent and myself prepared. I am so familiar with the report, having written it, along with Senator Dent, that I can turn the page and I can read you book and page and if the good Senator had taken the trouble to do likewise, he would have found out that this was not prepared by anyone other than those people who took the trouble to read the notes of testiony and also went to the trouble to prepare this.

Mr. President, I would like to quote from a few of the parts of the supplemental report and let the gentleman sitting here—most of them have been here a good while and are intelligent enough to understand and to decide what is wheat and what is chaff—decide whether these charges of inhumanity are or are not so.

Mr. President, I am reading from the supplemental report, Senator Pechan, so that you can follow me. On page 36, I just want to read a part previous to that; page 35 of the supplemental report submitted by Senator Dent. The following is from the notes of testimony at pages 1436, 1437 and 1438, answers to questions put by Representative Tompkins, Member of the House, and Senator Pechan, and are particularly revealing as well as shocking, wherein Mr. Tompkins asked the witness who was on the stand—and the witness at that time was Mrs. Spangler. He said to her:

"Q. What do you mean by the commode?"

Mrs. Spangler's answer: "Each girl has a commode and a washbowl in her room, and we had to go into the room to give her her medication and she refused to take it. We coaxed her and talked nice to her and asked her and she refused, and we had to—they told us, Mrs. Hooker—one of the persons working at the institution—"told us that if she wouldn't take it we were to wet towel her, dip it in the commode and put it around her face."

The following is by Senator Pechan, immediately thereafter:

"Question. Was there waste in the commode at the time?

"Answer. No, there was no waste in the commode.

"Question. Are you still there?

"Answer. I am.

"Senator Pechan: I'd say you don't belong there. Anybody that would—" and then there was a break Question by Mr. Tompkins: "Did you ever protest the dipping of this in the commode?

"Answer: We didn't dare to.

"Question: Well, did you?

"Answer: We didn't like to do it, but we were told to do it and we done our duty.

"Question: Did Doctor Edgett ever tell you to dip it in the commode?

"Answer: I don't know who gave our matrons orders, but I'm sure that Mrs. Hooker never gave them herself. She got them from her superiors.

"Question: Didn't you go to Doctor Edgett and Doctor Ireland and tell them about it?

"Answer: No, but I think they knew about it because when we done things like that, there was special reports that we had to make out and that went down to Doctor Edgett."

"Question: It never appeared on those reports and went down on the pink sheets, did it?

"Answer: Not on the pink sheets. We had special reports with Doctor Edgett's name on that we had to fill out when anything like that—when we done anything like that.

"Question: Did you report that you dipped towels in the commode?

"Answer: I'm sure I did.

"Senator Pechan: I can't understand why if you had a commode and a wash basin—I mean, from the sense of being human, orders or no orders from any attendant, why you, as a human being, would take another human being and dip a towel in a commode when you had clean water there which would probably be colder because that water that was in the commode was probably sitting there all day, warm. That wouldn't have the effect that you would want it to have but you, inhumanely—and I don't think you belong to work up there, any place, where there are human beings if you'll dip a towel in the commode and put it on a persons' face."

This is direct quotes from the notes of testimony and Senator Pechan is doing the speaking.

Mr. President, we then come to another little part in the report which was completely left out of the report submitted by the Chairman which deals with apomorphine. Mr. President, being only a lay person, not a doctor, I took the trouble to look up a textbook on the use of apomorphine and exactly what that does. I would like to read just a part of it to you. This is from page 29 of the Supplemental Report. This book was written by Goodman and Gillman in 1955, and both these men are neuropsychiatric men. The book is entitled, "The Psychological Basis of Therapeutics." In there they state, "The use of this drug upon mentally defective persons in disturbed state would be improper and harmful." The use of this drug, throughout the testimony contained therein and also in the notebooks which were kept at the institution, showed that these drugs were used as a means of punishment and not as means of curing the people who were there.

Mr. President, for the information of the Members of this Senate, this is a very strong emetic. It causes the person who receives a dosage to vomit and continue to do so until they are absolutely exhausted and cannot move any longer. There were cases which were brought out in the notes of testimony, which were testified to by people who work at the institution, that this was administered to patients who were in restraints. By restraints we mean they were strapped hand and foot to a bed. When you take a human being and you strap him hand and foot and you give him a dosage of an emetic which would cause him to throw up, it will only cause him to do one thing and that is throw up all over himself or herself, as in this case. How that would help cure a person who is deranged or mentally unsound, I do not know.

Mr. President, there are other instances—I do not want to take up the time of the Senate to go into these different phases, but there were instances here where water was limited, where commodes were not flushed for days at a time, where people were given dry diets and where their bedding was removed and they were made to lie on hard springs or lie on the floor.

Mr. President, I think that all of us, as mature adults, hearing some of these things for ourselves and if some of us will take the trouble to read some of the testimony—you do not have to read the supplemental report, read some of the testimony—I think you, yourselves, will decide whether this is or is not inhumane treatment.

I also think that Senator Pechan was completely out of order by claiming that this report was prepared for us and given to us. I think the innuendo that the Executive Branch is telling the Legislative Branch how to handle problems, when they have appointed a committee themselves to look into these problems and to decide for themselves what is going on, is really in poor taste. I think it does nothing other than make the Members of the Senate seem nothing more or less than puppets, which I am sure that none of us are. I am sure that all of us are anxious to do the right thing. I think that it behooves Senator Pechan, if he was misquoted, to get the gentlemen of the press, who I am sure never get anything wrong, straightened out on this statement. If he was quoted correctly, I think it further behooves him to apologize to Senator Dent because, in a sense, he has doubted Senator Dent's integrity and I do not think Senator Pechan has any basis for that.

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I do not want to take the time to ask Senator Dent whether or not he wrote this report. I feel as certain as I am standing here that that report was prepared in the Department of Welfare. I do not have the report before me, nor do I have last week's proceedings, and I do not recall just how he presented the report, but I thought that he said that he was doing it on behalf of himself and Senator Weiner.

Now the reason that I made that statement over the week end, Mr. President, was because one of the newspapermen called me and wanted to know if I had any comment to make. He had heard that I knew that the report was partly prepared in the Department of Welfare.

Now I want to say this, Mr. President and Members of the Senate, we had a Joint Investigating Committee to study conditions at Laurelton in order to ascertain whether or not they were inhumane or in dark ages style, as was brought out by Secretary of Welfare Shapiro, when Doctor Ireland resigned her position at Laurelton. A committee of four Republicans and four Democrats was selected in the House and in the Senate to investigate the charges. The eight of us, for seven days and nights, heard testimony. We signed a unanimous report, let us say, on scratch paper. There had to be some corrections made, but the eight members of the Laurelton Investigating Committee signed this report. When I had my Secretary type the official report to be presented in the Senate and a copy to be presented in the House, I found reluctance on the part of three members from the Democratic side to sign the report, I said, "Well, boys, you have already signed it." One of the members of the Committee in the House came to me and said, "Al, we are being pressed by the 'brass' not to sign that report as they have a supplemental report," and I said, "Well, how could they make a supplemental report? They did not hear one word of testimony; we sweat it out," and he agreed with me. He said, "I am going alone, I have been fighting with them and they have no business doing such a thing. It makes us look as though we do not know what we are doing or saying." However, the next week, all eight members signed the report as was presented here.

Now I knew about this supplemental report for two weeks, Mr. President. In fact, the week before is was presented here to the Senate I saw Senator Weiner in the barbershop. I do not remember the exact words, but I read in one of the newspapers where Senator Weiner was sent to Laurelton by Secretary of Welfare, Harry Shapiro, to make an investigation. So, I said to Senator Weiner, "Is that true?" and, truthfully, I do not recall what he said but it was something like, "Well, use your own judgment" or, "Think whatever you will," but he gave me an evasive answer.

Mr. President, until we were presented with the report, which was given to us by Senator Dent, I had not seen it. I think some of the other members of the committee saw it. In fact, I have not read it fully, I did read half of it and I think I got to about page 35.

Mr. President, getting back to some of the inhumane practices that were supposedly condoned by Doctor Ireland and the Board of Trustees, we, as a committee felt—and I am very happy that Senator Weiner brought out my questioning of Mrs. - - I cannot think of the lady's name - who dipped the towel in the commode. Because of the inhumane treatment where a matron had the choice of a commode and a washbowl, and she elected to take the commode, I said it was inhumane treatment and that she had no business being there and, as I understond, she is still there. Now, it was never brought out in the testimony that Doctor Edgett asked her to dip that towel in the commode. She did it of her own volition. She did it because, I would say, she is a sadist. I, along with the other seven members of the committee, said that that was inhuman.I do not disagree with you on this point.

The other case of inhumane treatment, which I do not know whether you mentioned in your report as I have not seen it, was where the Assistant Superintendent supposedly dragged a patient by the hair across the floor. I questioned Doctor Edgett and Doctor Reikstins who, I believe it was, made the testimony and brought this charge out. I then, in my report, said that I thought that it was inhuman.

Mr. President, when I talked to the Democratic House Member who talked about the "brass," he said something about Senator Dent and Senator Barr and he said, "You know, the 'brass.'" I said, "Who is the 'brass'?" "Oh," he said, "you know who the 'brass' is." Now, I do not know. I am just as presumptuous as this whole report of yours is. I underscored the word "presume." Well, you are presuming, presuming, presuming. Therefore, I am presuming that maybe Harry Shapiro was the other part of the "brass," I do not know. However, I do know that one of the first requests for all of the transcribed testimony was made by Harry Shapiro. As chairman of that committee, I gave orders to the people who were taking the testimony that nobody should get a copy of that testimony except the eight members of the committee and, brother, let me tell you that it did not mean anything, because Harry Shapiro had the first copy.

Mr. President, Senator Dent, the other day, made a report about the geraniums that are now blossoming out at Laurelton Village. I think that fifty Members of the Senate were made to believe that it was Harry Shapiro's report, made after he had investigated. I was going to get up, but I did not. However, it was Doctor Cox who made that investigation, who reported it to Secretary of Welfare Shapiro, and that is the report. It was not Secretary of Welfare, Shapiro's report; it was Grace Cox's report.

Mr. President, I do not want to go into this thing. Incidentally, for the information of this group, I was just told by the newspapermen, when I came in from Caucus, that the entire Board of Trustees at Laurelton State Village resigned as of an hour ago in body. They said that they could not continue to function under a man in whom they had no confidence.

Mr. President, before I sit down I do want to say this, that I did not mean to infer that Senator Dent or yourself did not have anything to do with this report. I do not mean to infer that at all. You certainly had something to do with it, because Senator Dent presented it. How much of it you fellows wrote, I do not know.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, I suppose I am one of the fellows who likes to do my talking on the Senate floor and whatever I say about the actions of the Senate are usually said on the Senate floor, therefore, I seldom get in the papers with quotes outside of what I say here where all can hear it.

Mr. President, there is one thing which I want to correct before it gets too far. The Senator says that he is just as sure as the fact he was standing over there that this report was prepared in the Welfare Department. Senator, for your information, this report was prepared at my suggestion, and my instigation and with what help I could give by going through the 1600 odd pages of testimony in marking the features of that testimony which I thought substantiated the supplemental report's findings, handing it over to Charlie Weiner, a Member of this Senate, who devoted the best part of two week ends, working through the day and part of the night at no charge to the State of Pennsylvania, in making the report up in such a manner that it would be easily understood. The one thing that I said to Senator Weiner, and I would like to repeat it to the Members of the Senate, was that he was not de deviate it from the testimony that was given in the public hearings. He followed what few instructions I gave him to perfection. He has done a masterful job of preparing a case for the people of Pennsylvania.

Mr. President, I might say that I just heard from the Senator that the entire Board at Laurelton has just quit. Whatever their reasons, it is the best thing they have done at Laurelton since they were appointed as the Board.

Mr. President and Members of this Senate, I would like to just quote a few little charges. Most of you know that I very seldom, if ever, put into the record newspaper articles, because I do not believe that they have any right to do my thinking for me. However, when that newspaper article directly quotes a Member of this Senate, I think that it is time that we ought to review it.

Last week when I presented the report, I was interrogated by the gentleman from Armstrong County and if he will remember, and the Members of the Senate will remember, the reason that I started on the quest of making out a report was because this same Senator from Armstrong County gave to the newspapers a statement in which he said that "the hearings did not substantiate the charges of cruelty and inhumane treatment at Laurelton Village." Based upon that, I started to read the testimony. For the benefit of this Senate, I do not get paid any more than any other Members of this Senate get paid and when you start whipping through 1600 pages of testimony to get at the truth, I think that you are going into public service and doing public duty far beyond the call of the duty that you are elected to perform. However, it was done for the simple reason that if it had not been challenged, the people of Pennsylvania would have layed at the door of the Secretary of Welfare, Harry Shapiro, the charge that his action up at Laurelton was not substantiated by facts.

Mr. President, all that we have presented to this Senate—and again I repeat and I will not mention it again, I never consulted with Shapiro about the supplemental report. It was made at my instigation, as the Floor Leader of the Democratic Party, and it was caused by the statement of the gentleman from Armstrong County when he whitewashed the charges in public print. We took his own questioning, we took his own statements to those being interrogated and compiled them into a report to show that he, himself, said that there was inhuman treatment and cruelty at Laurelton.

Mr. President, to stand before this Senate and insinuate that any employe of any mental institution would be able to carry on the widespread practice of dipping towels in commodes so that a poor deranged person would have to gag and, therefore, open their mouth to receive a poisonous dose of medicine that was never intended to cure but was more apt to kill; that any person employed in this institution or any institution could continually do a thing like that and not have his superiors know it is preposterous. Certainly the superiors knew it,, all the way to Doctor Ireland, and that is where I disagree with the signatures on the original report submitted by the eight members of the investigatory committee.

Mr. President, if that Board and Doctor Ireland did not know that this was happening, they should have resigned long ago. They are charged with the responsibility for the welfare of persons unable to take care of themselves. We, the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, pay them good salaries for so doing.

Mr. President, I would also like to read this little statement, which is accredited to the gentleman from Armstrong, and I submit that it is in quotes. So, therefore, he must have said it or at least the newspaper man who reported it then is in error and ought to be corrected by the gentleman. Senator Pechan said:

"A Democratic House member of the committee told him that the 'heat' had been put on to get the four Democratic members of the Joint Committee to sign the supplemental report, adding," and I quote:

" 'He said that Dent and Democratic State Chairman Senator Barr and the Democratic "brass" ' "—I will comment on that later—" "I don't know whether he meant Governor Leader and Shapiro— had put the heat on Senator Miles R. Derk, the Democratic senator on the committee, to get them to sign Dent's report. They refused to sign it although they did sign the Joint Committee's findings.'

"Pechan, chairman of the joint fact-finding group, said the supplemental report 'was issued for political reasons,' adding:

" 'The thing that irks me is that this supplemental report was drafted in the Welfare Department.

" 'He (Shapiro) is the man who is accused and he is putting out his own report. The important thing is that the four Democratic members refused to sign it.'

"The Joint Committee's findings cleared former Superintendent Effie C. Ireland and the Laurelton Trustees of condoning any mistreatment but did not absolve Assistant Superintendent Catherine D. Edgett."

Mr. President and Members of this Senate, when a man makes a statement he ought to at least try to find out if he is right. I say to Senator Pechan, in all kindness, that when he said that I did not write the report he was right, but if he said that I did not direct the writing of this report and participate in the findings that were used to write the report, he is wrong. When he says that Shapiro wrote the report, he is wrong. When he says that the Welfare Department had anything to do with the report, he is wrong. The only reason that the report came into being was bacause, as chairman of that committee, without consulting the members of that committee, he gave the newspapers an interview in which he absolved the Trustees and the Superintendent of that institution from any knowledge or participation in the inhuman treatment.

Now, Mr. President and Members of this Senate, I know why the Democratic members signed the report put out by Senator Pechan, because it was starting to tell tales. Why, all of us have tales and all of us have the other side of every story. Whether or not he was told by some member that I applied pressure, is a question for he and that member to answer. I cannot help what anybody told you. If talking to a member of this Senate and a Member of the House of Representatives about the facts contained within the hearings held by this committee is applying pressure, then pressure was applied, but I resent a little where you name Senator Barr and Senator Dent and then leave us out of the classification of "brass," because there are a great many fellows who think Senator Barr is part of the "brass" and I know he resents not being up in that high echelon. In so far as his pressure was applied to the case, I do not know when Senator Barr talked to any of the members. He certainly never talked to them in my presence, other than when the entire group of Democratic Senators discussed the political implications of a statement by the chairman that was not concurred in by at least the four members that I talked to, on the grounds that the Trustees were absolved of all blame.

Mr. President and Members of this Senate, the question at Laurelton is one that goes back far, far into the ideology, as it were, of the treatment of persons who suffer from a disease that up until very, very recent years was considered a scourge and one that never should be mentioned in polite company. Members of families were whisked away and hidden in the dark dungeons of the mental institutions, there to be completely forgotten by their fellowman, with little or no attention paid to the care given them, little or no attention paid to their welfare either by the public, their families or the government. Of recent years we have tried to change that. In many of the enlightened institutions in other States of this great Union, they have stressed the care and the cure of mentally deficient persons with the result that many of them have taken their proper place in society. Of recent years we, in Pennsylvania, have attempted to institute that type of treatment, that type of consideration for the patients in this Commonwealh, some 40,000 of them, who are incarcerated in mental institutions. We have spent untold millions of taxpayers' dollars, creating the kind of institutions that would lend themselves to a program of cure.

Mr. President, the Governor of this Commonwealth has named a Secretary of Welfare whose only sin seems to be that he is acting instead of talking. He is moving in and attempting to institute the kind of administration that we, the taxpayers, are paying for. I do not mind being ridiculed in the newspapers. That does not interest me; so long as the job is done and so long as Senator Shapiro keeps tending to his knitting, namely, the care and cure of the peoples in Pennsylvania for whom the State Legislature has provided funds, whom the State Legislature has directed should be taken care of, whom the State Legislature is apropriating millions of dollars to build proper housing for them, get them proper medical care and, where possible, proper attendant care. You cannot blame the caretakers or the attendants in an institution on a matter of policy. If we can hear about these violations of human welfare this many miles from that institution, certainly the boards of trustees, certainly the superintendent, must have had some inclination or indication of what was transpiring within the institution that she headed up and that they were compelled by their oath to administer.

I do not care, Senator Pechan, whether you agree or disagree with the method or the means employed to bring to the attention of the people of Pennsylvania that there was a severe lack of administrative ability and administrative authority at Laurelton. I do not particularaly care whether we are ever praised for the work that we have done in the supplemental report. I only know that there is not one line of that report that does not quote a specific incident that occurred, according to your own testimony, taken before your own committee. I know that if the board up there at Laurelton has quit today, and if the Republican Senators will cooperate enough to allow the new board to be confirmed, that we will assume full responsibility for the actions of the new boards of trustees and the new superintendents.

Now, Mr. President, let us get down to the geraniums. You say that the report that I read gave off the impression that it was Senator Shapiro's report. Evidently, you were not listening to what I said at that time because you are just as wrong in that impression as you were in the impression that this report was written over in the Department of Welfare. If you wish, I will be glad to give you the record of the remarks that I made. I gave credit to the doctor who sent the report to Secretary Shapiro. You have in your possession the same report that I have. In that report, Senator Shapiro clearly states that this is a report from Doctor Cox, I think it is, up at Laurelton. He did not take credit for planting the geraniums or for pruning them. All he took credit for was the fact that, under his administration, they have opened the windows and left fresh air into the dungeons at Johnston Cottage and three other cottages. They have taken the locks from the doors; they have debarred the windows and doors and put up curtains. They have allowed living things to grow in the dank, damp cellars that they called rooms. They have allowed bright sunlight to enter in upon these poorly afflicted people who, through no fault of their own, find themselves in a position that we all pray that we nor none of our friends or families will ever be found in. Unless you have had the direct touch of this dread disease enter into your own family, you cannot know what it means to walk into an institution such as Johnston Cottage was prior to Secretary Shapiro's time and then walk in after a few short months of the Shapiro type of administration.

Mr. President, Secretary Shapiro is a man who does not need State Government work or the salary in order to live. He is a successful attorney. He is an attorney who has made, through his practice of law, considerable amount of this world's goods. He is giving to the State of Pennsylvania at this time, at a great personal sacrifice, all of his energies, all of his imagination, all of the honest effort that any one man can give. He will make mistakes and I will be one of the first to condemn him when he does. However, in condemning him for his mistakes, I will also have the decency to congratulate him upon the good work that he accomplishes.

I do not care whether you believe whether I wrote or helped to write this report; I do not care whether you believe that Senator Weiner devoted at least seven days that I know of, because I consulted with him daily on the telephone two or three times. That does not interest me, but I do want you to admit this. There is not anything in that supplemental report that is not contained in the testimony itself given by your committee.

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, Senator Dent made a statement that to shock this patient with a wet towel in order to give her a drug that was poisonous and tended to kill rather than to treat. I do not know where Senator Dent gets that information. Usually, you give these pills—it may be a sedative; it may be a seconal; it may be sodium amytal; it may be a slight sedative. During the testimony, the drug that was most inhuman in nature, according to some members of the committee, was the use of apomorphine which was given intramuscularly.

Mr. President, in talking about apomorphine, the impression was given that apomorphine was being given to patients perhaps every day, or to any number of patients. However, throughout the testimony it was brought out that apomorphine, before it was discontinued last August, had been administered fifteen times, in a one-tenth of a grain dose, over a period of nineteen months. It was given on orders of a physician, to some person who had gone berserk, who had become disturbed, who they could not control in any other way. I am not going into the merits of apomorphine. I do not know that much about it. However, I do know that, in the defense of Doctor Ireland, as early as last August—and we are all familiar with the newspaper stories that we read. I think in today's Philadelphia Inquirer, the headline on page 1 is where this new drug has returned to society a very bad boy who was uncontrollable. The drug that was used in Laurelton State Village was thorazine. It was tried there and once they got to use thorazine, they discontinued the use of apomorphine.

I want to say one thing. Senator Dent mentioned Senator Derk. I, too, saw Senator Derk's name mentioned in this statement, and I want to say that I have never once talked to Senator Derk about the supplemental report. Whether he was going to sign it or whether he was not going to sign it, I never once discussed it with Senator Derk. The newspaperman got the name wrong. I talked to a House Member who gave me the information. He gave me the information not when I was alone, but another member of the committee was with me who can substantiate the statements that he made about Senator Dent and Senator Barr and the other "brass." I certainly—if Senator Barr was belittled in the statement that I made that he is not included in the "brass," I apologize because I certainly appreciate his position and recognize that he is part of the "brass."

Mr. President, Senator Dent said that the four Democratic Members did not sign my report. I want it strictly understood that I did not make a report. This report was worked up by all eight members of the committee. I would say that fifty per cent of the recommendations and the findings, as were reported to this Senate, were made by the Democratic Members. I can see why, after not only did we listen for seven days and nights to the testimony that was given, but we spent three or four days going over this testimony in preparing our report. I want it understood that I personally had very, very little to do with this report. We all sat around the table in my office and the report was worked up in that manner

In talking about the commode, again, Mr. President, as Senator Dent brought out, I want to stand here and say that I certainly think that it is inhuman for any attendant to dip a towel into a commode in order to shock a patient in order that they be forced to take a pill. I said so in my report; I said so to Mrs. Spangler during the hearings. I told her that she should be ashamed of herself and that she had no business in an institution. I am surprised to know that Secretary Shapiro still keeps her there.

Mr. President, Senator Dent mentioned something about Secretary Shapiro doing a wonderful job. I am not going to delve into that, but I want to say this. When he made his newspaper release on February 17, immediately after coming from a board of trustees meeting—and this was testified to by three or four members of the board—Secretary of Welfare Shapiro told the Board of Trustees, "We are going to blow this up; we are going to shock the public; we are going to give this a lot of publicity and in that way we are going to be able to get the added money that we need in the Department of Welfare."

Mr. WEINER. Mr. President, I am sure the gentleman from Armstrong would not want to leave this discussion end without knowing the full facts and if his memory is a little bit hazy, I would like a sort of refresh it for him.

The newspaper he was speaking about when we spoke in the barbershop—and I did not know that those conversations were the ones that we produce here, and I will be very careful what I say in the barbershop from now on—was a little article in the Observer which quoted someone unknown, as it is in most of those columns which supposedly deal in the inside scoop on politics, wherein they said that I was preparing a report on Laurelton. When the Senator from Armstrong asked me if that was so and was I going to give the report on the floor, I said, "No, I have nothing to do with giving a report on Laurelton," and that ended the conversation. Where he got the impression, and I am sure that probably he was misquoted, that I had taken a trip up to Laurelton or that I had been sent there under the auspices of the Secretary of Welfare, I do not know and I think that he is in error there and I would like to correct that impression.

Mr. President, I also think the Senator is a little bit late in worrying about whether the public is going to be outraged or whether the families who have people up there are going to be outraged. I think he has tried his case in the newspapers constantly after, as I understand, some of the members were told to make no statements to the newspapers in regard to this quiz or this probe which was going on, whereupon he appeared with an article which appeared over the week end, on Sunday. I guess that somebody must have called him then, also, and he felt inclined, or that it was incumbent upon him, to give a statement.

Mr. President, I woud also like to—since we have gone so far into this probe and as long as we have gone into some of the problems which I never intended would go this far—point out to the Members of this body about apomorphine and its use. I am quoting from Doctor Bengs statement in the supplemental report and also the one he gave in testifying before the committee. Doctor Bengs explained that "although apormorphine may, in nominal dosage, be used as a sedative at full strength, which is one-tenth of a grain, as it was used at Laurelton it created nausea, vomiting and the physiological effect on the strength of a person by making him very sick. Its usage in most uncommon, if at all existent at other mental institutions."

Also, had we decided to be a little bit political in the supplemental report, which we could have been very easily, some of the people who testified could not explain to the committee, or to the satisfaction of the chairman, why right after the election in November certain files were moved to a certain, unavailable and unaccessible part of the building. Also, these notebooks, in which daily sheets were kept of what was going on in the institution, were removed from the institution and taken to the home of one of the employees. When this employee was questioned about this, her answer was that she was afraid the termites would get to these books and, therefore, had removed them from the institution.

Also, Mr. President, I would like to just mention to the Senator, who is worried about this woman who is still at the institution, I believe that the Board hires and fires these people. I believe also that the people who run the institution do so through the Board and now that the Board has resigned, I think that we ought to ,once a new Board is appointed, straighten out some of these little problems which have evolved there.

We also would like to point out to the Senator, Mr. President, that this matter would never come about, and we would never have taken the floor in regard to this problem, had he not brought it up and used the newspapers as his sounding board in the hope that once these statements were said on a Sunday and nobody was around to answer them, they would be forgotten by Monday or Tuesday.

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. President, I was one of that eight man committee and my name was signed to the report. I signed it because I though that it was a good report and brought out the facts as we saw them. I certainly know that Senator Dent or Senator Weiner, in fact any Member of this body, has a perfect right to disagree with us or with the committee that worked on it. That is your right, that is your privilege. I would be one of the first to defend your right to disagree with the report we brought in.

Now everybody, Mr. President, today seems to be reading articles from newspapers so I would like to read one, an editorial which appeared in the Pittsburgh Post Gazette, on June the 3rd, 1955. It is headed, "The Facts at Laurelton," and reads as follows:

"When the new Secretary of Welfare, Harry Shapiro, made sensational charges of 'inhuman' and 'dark ages' treatment against the administration of the Laurelton State Hospital last February, we wondered how well they would stand up under the cold light of a legislative investigation.

"Now the results of a bipartisan investigation are in and the answer is that Mr. Shapiro exaggerated his case, apparently for political, or at least budget, purposes.

"The eight-member bipartisan legislative committee cleared Doctor Effie C. Ireland, former superintendent of the institution for mentally defective women, of charges of condoning inhuman treatment of patients. It also gave a clean slate to the institution's board of trustees.

"Although Democratic Senator John Dent has released a supplemental report condemning 'cruel and inhuman' treatment and punishment at Laurelton, the official report held that 'there was nothing produced at the hearings either by way of testimony or evidence to substantiate' the accusations made against Doctor Ireland's administration.

"While we are sympathetic with Secretary Shapiro's desire to focus attention upon the State's mental health program and the need of more funds to improve it, we question sensational tactics which do perhaps irreparable damage to the careers of professional people like Doctor Ireland who, in this particular case, appears to have been done a grave injustice.

"Surely there must be better and fairer ways of going about the improvement of Pennsylvania's mental health program."

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I stated that I very seldom read newspaper articles and, particularly, I never read editorials because, you see, editorials are usually biased one way or another and mostly, as far as Democrats are concerned, the other way.

Mr. President, we have had, over the years, to fight not only the facts as we know them in cases, but we have had to fight public opinion which has been built up largely by those who know little or nothing about the facts. If the man who wrote this editorial would have taken as much time to read the supplemental report, and if he had an ounce of honesty in his system he would immediately write another editorial. Certainly the investigation did not point directly to Doctor Ireland. She did not administer the wet towel procedure, she did not administer the dry diet procedure, she did not administer the drugs, she did not drag anybody across the floor by their hair but, as head of that institution, everything that was done in repetition by the attendants might as well have been done by her own hands. If it was an isolated case of an attendant dipping a towel in a commode, then that attendant, as the gentleman has said, is a sadist.

How many interrogations did you have about such situations? In your own testimony, the girl that administered the wet towel, I think her name was Spangler, said that it was done often and that Mrs. Hooker had given her orders to do it, and that Mrs. Hooker had orders from above. I suppose if someone else had dragged the patient across the floor by the hair, that even Doctor Edgett would have been cleared by this committee. No one wants to injure the reputation of a professional or nonprofessional person. To me, the reputation of Mrs. Spangler is just as important as the reputation of Doctor Ireland and if that woman had orders to do that, and she had to work there for a living, she is not to blame any more than Doctor Ireland who gave the orders. I accuse, right here on the floor, that Doctor Ireland did know what was going on, and if she did not know what was going on, she should have never been head of the institution.

Mr. President, the editorial does not particularly flavor this argument with any new intelligence. I could have written the editorial a week before you made the report. That is the kind of canned heat that we have had on us for twenty years. It is not what we say or do in the Senate that the people hear about; it is what somebody says we say or do in the Senate that people hear about.

How many honest interpretations have been given to the tax bill by these same editorialists? How many of them are hidden behind a so-called tax on wages of the lower income brackets, to hide the real tax and the real purpose behind the classified income tax? Next week I guess we will start reading the editorials from the newspapers telling us that it is a bad tax bill. We know that they are going to write them, and there is not a tax bill within the thinking of the human mind, sponsored by a Democrat, which will ever get a kindly editorial in the Post Gazette. The Republicans had this tax bill under another guise and in far more unreasonable terms. They wrote no editorials because it was under Republican sponsorship. Therefore, I do not care too much about the opinion of a newspaper editorialist who refuses to read only that side of the argument that favors their way of thinking.

Mr. President, I challenge anybody to read the supplemental report and come before this Senate and tell the Members of this Senate that there was no inhuman treatment in Laurelton State Village. I challenge any Member of this Senate to read that report and stand upon the floor and say that, according to the testimony in the report, there was not inhumane treatment at that institution. If you read the report, and I will be glad to read it from cover to cover, and I will if necessary to prove to the Members of this Senate that there was, and up until an hour ago when the Board of Trustees resigned there was, every chance that there still would be inhuman and inhumane treatment at Laurelton. We are hopeful that the Republican Senators will allow us the confirmation of the new Board, which will be named, and then we will take full responsibility for any treatment to these innocent victims.

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. President, I have not read the supplemental report, but as I understand the statements from both Senator Dent and Senator Weiner, it was taken from the testimony given at the hearings. On that basis, I certainly will accept the challenge issued by Senator Dent, and here is one Senator who will come before this body and say that I am absolutely satisfied that at no instance, or at no time, during the hearings that went on down in the House Caucus Room was it ever established that either Doctor Ireland or the Board of Trustees were guilty of condoning inhuman treatment at Laurelton State Village. I certainly will say that. I will stand on that.

I believe that the seven other members of the committee have signed such a report. I accept that challenge, Senator Dent, yes, sir. I want to say to you, sir, that there was not one bit of testimony offered that in any manner, shape or form, said or implied or gave us reason to believe that Doctor Ireland or the Board of Trustees condoned any inhuman treatment that was going on at that institution.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Fleming.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Fleming, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. FLEMING. I shall, Mr. President.

Mr. DENT. Do you believe it possible that a Board of Trustees, and a superintendent of a public institution, could operate that institution intelligently and administratively correct and not know what was going on.

Mr. FLEMING. I believe that, for the most part, they would know what was going on. I certainly do believe that they did not, either the Board of Trustees or Doctor Ireland, in any instance know or condone the accusations that were made on the inhuman treatment at Laurelton.

Mr. DENT. Thank you, Senator.

It is inconceivable to me, Mr. President, and it must be to a great many of you, that over the years a person charged with the responsibility of an institution of this nature would not have heard somewhere, in some corridor or in some room, the whimpering of an ill-treated and maltreated patient. It is inconceivable to me that the Board of Trustees, who lived close to the scene over the years, would not have heard of something that reached our ears in Harrisburg and back out on the byways and highways of the hamlets and villages of this great State. If they can honestly say that at no time during their careers did they ever hear of any inhumane treatment at Laurelton State Village, then I, for one, will in one breath apologize to you for thinking that they knew and, in the second breath, commend them for resigning.

Mr. President, I do not believe that any man in this room, Senator Fleming to the contrary, honestly believes that anybody could be the head of an institution of this nature and not have heard about the treatment given to the patients. Prior to the accusations by the Secretary of Welfare in the public print, was it not true that he asked whether or not these incidents were taking place and was given the profound assurance by not only Doctor Ireland but by Doctor Edgett, who you, yourselves, proved not only knew about the inhuman treatment but participated in it? Did they not deny to the Secretary of Welfare that such happenings were going on at Laurelton? If they denied it to him then, would you in any way conceive the idea that they would admit it publicly to us? I say that they were either the most ignorant trustees that ever graced the board, or the dumbest trustees that ever graced the board. There is no middle ground. Either they knew and did not stop it, or did not know and denied it. Either premise is untenable.

Mr. President and Members of this Senate, this is important, and it is important to the people of Pennsylvania, because we are called upon year after year to contribute great sums of money that come from the taxes paid by the citizens, to the health and welfare of the less fortunate among us. If any person or group of persons deliberately or unknowingly allows that money to be used wrongfully, it is a proper place to come before this Senate and so expose these great, grave charges.

I voted for the Laurelton quiz and I put upon that committee, in my capacity as Democratic leader, a man whom I had a great deal of confidence in his fairness. I have had quite a few discussions with Doctor Derk and I know that, as I stand here today, Doctor Derk cannot honestly say to this committee nor can he dishonestly say to this Senate that I at any time applied the pressure of the "brass." I do not depend upon my leadership being maintained by applying pressures. For sixteen years we had no pressures to apply and to date, although it has been the custom in the past perhaps on the other side, in the Democratic Caucus there has never been a hint, a suggestion or even an inference that pressure would be applied to any member of the Democratic Caucus to vote for, to vote against, to agree with or to dissent with any person, any administration leader or any vote upon this Senate floor. The only pressure that is applied in the Democratic Caucus is the pressure of logic, the pressure of principle and the pressure of an honest approach.

Mr. WEINER. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Fleming.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Fleming, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. FLEMING. I would say to the Senator that my Floor Leader suggested that I say "no" However, I will not say "no." I will say "yes," Mr. President.

Mr. WEINER. Senator, do you remember the books that were introduced during the testimony? I think they were known as "Tour of Duty" books. Do you remember those books? They were little copy books. They were notebooks.

Mr. FLEMING. I remember them, yes.

Mr. WEINER. Did you read anything out of those books yourself?

Mr. FLEMING. I did.

Mr. WEINER. Would you say that the person who ran the institution should have known about those books or at least have taken the trouble to read them?

Mr. FLEMING. It was established that they were not official records of the institution, Senator Weiner. It was established that they were records kept by the attendants themselves, and they gathered whatever was in those books together and put them on a supplemental—I believe it was a pink sheet, is that correct—report sheet.

Mr. WEINER. Senator, do you think that it was the duty of the person who was running the institution to acquaint themselves with these books or sometime during her administration to pick up one of these books and read it?

Mr. FLEMING. No, I would not think so.

Mr. WEINER. Thank you very much, Senator Fleming.

Mr. President and Members of the Senate, in the notes of testimony at page 937, Doctor Ireland stated that she never did check the contents of these "Tour of Duty Books." She also stated in the notes of testimony, page 938, that she almost had a stroke when she first read the contents of these books.

Do you not think that any person who runs an institution, or is in charge of an institution and maintains what is known as a security cottage, should take the trouble to go over and find out what is going on in those cottages? Do you not think it is incumbent upon people who run hospitals to check from time to time the reports that are made by the interns and nurses on each of these floors for each of the patients, even though they do not go through the entire report, but sometime during their administration?

Mr. President, I would also like to point out to Senator Fleming that this all took place before Secretary Shapiro took office. Secretary Shapiro is merely going to the trouble to do what the superintendent, and the people who run the institution, never did. He went to the trouble to look at these notes of testimony and these "Tour of Duty Books" and these other pink sheets. When he found that some of these things were going on which almost caused Doctor Ireland, the head of the institution, to have a stroke when she read about them, he did something about them. He did not have a stroke.

Mr. President, I feel that in pointing out this inhumane treatment, Secretary Shapiro has done a great duty not only for the people at Laurelton but for the State of Pennsylvania as well.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I wish that the editor of the Harrisburg Patriot might be here to observe the decorum of the Senate. I am sure he would be quite proud of the attention that has been given to this ping-pong type of debate which has gone back and forth across the Senate floor. I presume that if we had adopted that splendid Laurelton Village report that the newspaper correspondents prepared, the one they had in their program at the Legislative Correspondents' Dinner, perhaps we would not have had all this. As I remember it, in that report the Democrats pointed with pride to the outstanding work of Harry Shapiro and so forth. However, even they did not have anything in it about the geraniums that have been planted up there.

Mr. President, the thing that has not been brought out here very forcibly is the fact that almost all of those people who were sent up there were court committed patients. The worst ones they put over there in Johnston Cottage. I happened to go up there one day and stopped off to see Johnston Cottage which, by the way, was a building that was authorized and constructed by the General State Authority, of which Senator Dent was a member at the time, I believe. I looked the cottage over and tried to find out what the type of treatment was at that place, and they said that the doctor had ordered certain medicine to be given to these people from time to time. There was a young doctor there from Danville. I have forgotten his name at the present time. He was a very nice, young, efficient fellow and he said, when I asked him if that was medical practice to put a wet towel over someone's eyes when they were given medicine, "Well, if that was the way to get someone's mouth open, then that would be it." In other words, it is like trying to give a little boy castor oil. He just does not like it and so he keeps his mouth shut. Mother usually takes care of that by holding his nose and opening his mouth, and putting the spoonful of castor oil down. You might call that inhuman treatment. However, it accomplishes the desired result. Sometimes we have to do those things when you do not really want to.

Instead of having this type of direct treatment with the toilet water on the towels to make the person gasp so that they will open their mouth, we are now having a psychological treatment. I hope it works out. It is like the story of the young boy who went into the department store with his mother, and went up to the toy department. Little Junior got on the horse up in the toy department and his mother could not get him down off of it. She threatened him and so on, and could not get him down. She had read all kinds of books on what to do in cases like that, but the young clerk who was there said, "Well, Mrs., you are fortunate. Today, down in our book department, one of the outstanding psychologists, child psychologists, of the Country is here. He has just written a book and he is down there autographing his latest work. We will send down and have him come up and see what he can do about your little boy, in trying to get him down off the horse." So, they did and the psychologist came up and he whispered something in the child's ear, and the child got down off the horse and followed his mother out of the store. She tried to find out what had been said. She said, "Junior, what did the doctor say to you?" He said, "Oh, I don't like to tell," She said, "Well, I will give you a quarter if you tell me." He said, "All right." The mother gave Junior the quarter and then asked, "What did the doctor tell you?" He said, "He came up and whispered in my ear and he said, 'Listen ,if you don't get down off of that horse, I will knock your ears off.'" Perhaps, that is the correct type of psychology.

Now, Mr. President, I hope we have finished with Laurelton and I just want to talk a little bit about the Governor's Plan No. 1.

As you remember, Mr. President, I think it was about three weeks ago that we got Plan No. 1, and then we took a recess and we came back and on the first day it was on our Calendar, We in the Senate approved it on Senator Dent's motion. Governor Leader, when we came here last January, demanded from the Legislature the broadest kind of powers to reorganize the State Government. He said, in his Inaugural Address that we had been surveyed and resurveyed and now it was time for action. He claimed he needed authority, contained in House Bill No. 1, to give the people the economies he had promised them as a candidate.

Mr. President, the Administration bill was enacted with Republican support, even though we believed that there was grave doubt of the constitutionality of by-passing the normal legislative procedures. We gave him his bill, so that he could never charge that it was the Republican Party which was obstructing economy in government. Although the Governor has had this power since April 7, the Legislature so far has received only one Reorganization Plan from the Governor. That was after I had asked Senator Barr and the Governor, week after week, to just send over one little plan so we could take a look at it, and so he did.

Mr. President, what does this plan do, this Plan No. 1? It splits the State Planning Board from the Department of Commerce, and divides the Planning Board's functions between the two agencies, without saving a single, solitary dollar for our taxpayers. Instead, it is our belief that it will probably add thousands of dollars in more expense.

Mr. President, the Senate, where the Republicans are in the majority, received Reorganization Plan No. 1 from the Governor on May 11 and it was unanimously approved by the Senate on the first day it was possible to do so. But has it become effective? Is it now the law? The answer to that is that it is not. Two weeks after the Republican senate passed it, this plan of the Governor is still on the calendar in the Democratic controlled House of Representatives because of some unknown reason or another, the Democratic leadership refuses to act upon it. This certainly is a graphic example of government by fraud and fake. If the rest of this reorganization plan is the same as Plan No. 1, I defy anyone to make any comparison to it.

Mr. President, I think it is high time that the House, which now has this Plan No. 1 on its calendar, should take some action and certainly show that the Republican controlled Senate is not the reason why Plan No. 1 has not gone into effect. We, over in the Senate, have said time and time again that we were willing, if the Governor would send over his plans, to take immediate action on them. We were willing, before House Bill No. 1 became law, to receive any suggestions which the Governor might have to carry out his plans for economy. If he had sent over suggestions that we might have written into law and put the bills in as we have for years, ever since the Constitution of Pennsylvania has been adopted, and referred the bills to committee, I am sure we would have gotten them out and we would have given them a lot more speedy action in the regular course of procedure than he has gotten under this plan which he has espoused under the Reorganization Bill and which he plead so long and eloquently for.

Mr. President, I hope that now since Plan No. 1 has been disposed of in the Senate, pretty soon we may get Plan No. 2 and I assure the Governor that we over here in the Senate will give it speedy consideration when he desires to send one over to us.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I am happy to inform the gentleman from the other side that Reorganization Plan No. 1 was called up today in the House without any prodding from the Republican Majority Leader in the Senate. I think that he knows that there are certain courtesies which extend from the Majority to the Minority, particularly when the Minority asks that certain legislation be held up for further consideration or for at least a time until they can become better acquainted with some of the impact of that legislation. Let it never be said that simply because they have the votes over in the House, they would ride roughshod over the demands of the Minority for delay in action upon any piece of legislation where such a delay is both reasonable and within the giving of the Majority.

Now, Mr. President, I do not think that we need to become unduly alarmed over the fact that Reorganization Plan No. 1 was held on the Calendar for two weeks. I think that we have been in Session well around five months or more, and the supplemental bill to the reorganization plan, which would set up the commission, is still resting in committee over here in the Senate. If that is speedy action, then I have no idea of what speed is. The only speedy action that we can get out of the Republican side is after they have decided exactly what they want and then we can take what they give us.

Mr. President, we are asking now publicly, as we have asked many times before both publicly and privately, that you bring out the reorganization commission bill which would not only give the Governor Reorganization Bill No. 1, which sets in motion the machinery, but gives him the machinery to work with. I think that all of us know that without this supplemental legislation, the reorganization plans of the Governor, himself, will not be in effect as quickly as they could be, because if you set this commission up you will have a full time commission working on nothing but that reorganization. As it is now, the Governor has to work within the structure of the departments that he has and within his own personnel office. True, he has added a few men over in that office to expedite matters, but, certainly, no reasonable person can expect the Governor of the Commonwealth to undo in five months the things which have been built up over sixteen years. It takes more than five months to undo these things, and I think that the Governor is perfectly right in wanting to move deliberately, intelligently and in the best interest of the people.

Suppose it does take two or three more months and he does come up with reorganization plans that are workable. That, my friends, will be a worthwhile gain for the people. If, after all the studies, he cannot find anything which needs organized or ought to be reorganized in the interest of the people, he will also tell us that. However, for him to barge right in and do something just because someone is prodding him into haste, I think would be a serious mistake to the people. The Majority Leader himself knows that it would not be fair either to the Governor or to the people of the Commonwealth, for with the small working organization which he has at his disposal, who are devoting their time in the main in these days to establishing procedures in their administrative offices in order to try to iron out some of the difficulties they found there and in order to cut down where they can on the expense of government, that it is impossible for him to really go into reorganization until this speedy Republican Majority in the Senate acts upon a bill which has been in their committee for over five months.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, before I made this statement about the delay in the House, I went over to ask the Republican leadership in the House if they had asked for any postponement, and they definitely assured me that they had not asked for postponement. The Majority side had come over, through their leadership, and asked that the Republicans postpone it from day to day. Therefore, on the part of the Republicans postpone it from day to day. Therefore, on the part of the Republicans in the House, they have never asked for one day's delay on plan No. 1. As far as this reorganization commission bill is concerned, I understand that there is going to be some action taken on that bill tomorrow when the State Government Committee meets, at which time they will consider that bill.

I say, Mr. President, that I think it is nonsense for the other side to continually say that the Governor cannot do anything without that reorganization commission. The Governor has Mr. Charlesworth over there, who took quite an active part I understand in the Chesterman Committee work. He certainly knows a lot of things which could have been done had all of the Chesterman Committee recommendations been enacted into law, and it is not too much to ask him, through the Governor, to send over a plan or two for us to consider.

There is nothing in House Bill No. 1, the reorganization plan act, which says that the Governor must get these plans from any commission. He can get them made up in his own mind and send them over to us. As I keep saying time and time again, he said in his Inaugural that we have been surveyed and resurveyed and now it is time for action. He did not say that he needed a commission to be set up, at great expense to the taxpayers, in order to aid him in formulating those plans. If he had the plans that he said he did during his campaign and in his Inaugural Address, I said then and I say now, let him send them over to us and we will be glad to give them every consideration and we will act upon them with speed and dispatch. However, so far we only have one little plan, and I wanted to bring out, for the benefit of the Members, that we had acted on that one with a lot of speed.

Senator Barr, I see you are champing at the bit and I now turn the thing over to you.

Mr. McMENAMIN. Mr. President, it is good to hear the Republican Floor Leader's interest in the fine job that Governor Leader is doing, and it is good to hear of the fact that they are going to assist us in reorganizing the government. I would like to say a few words on that subject.

Government and economy in government, which was one of the big issues in last year's campaign, is a two-way street. Governor George Leader cannot do the job by himself. Democratic Senators have some time ago put in here a resolution asking for public hearings on the budget. I would like to add my voice to those who have signed that resolution and who have asked that it be brought out of committee. I think that we should plan now to take a full solid month of thirty working days—let us take the month of July—and meet with the House Appropriations Committee, which has been holding hearings on the budget, and get subpoena power and get people in from these institutions and find out from one end of the State picture to the other where we can economize. Governor George Leader cannot do the whole job himself. Certainly we in the legislative branch of the government, have equal responsibility with him. Sooner or later we are going to have to vote on the Governor's budget. We have been down here now almost five months, and we have made no progress as a group of Senators in determining what the budgetary requirements will be and how cheaply and efficiently this government can be run.

Mr. President, nobody in Pennsylvania is being fooled by what has been called a ping-pong type of debate as to whether or not in a particular institution the trustees knew what a superintendent, or an assistant doctor or the chief cook was doing. Everybody in Pennsylvania knows that there is need for change in Pennsylvania in all of our institutions. These boards of trustees have to be changed, and sooner or later they are going to be changed.

Mr. President, we have had a chance for five months now to have the Floor Leader on the other side give us the votes to put in new boards of trustees and let us try, under George Leader's dynamic leadership, to make real honest-to-God hospitals and mental institutions out of these institutions which the State has. The people of Pennsylvania do not want to wait any longer and I do not think that we, as Senators, should wait any longer to go along with Governor Leader whether it is on Reorganization Plans, boards of trustees, appointments to various boards and commissions, or to hold hearings on his budget, because he would be the first to seek and appreciate any help that we can give him in framing his budget and cutting out of it every last bit of waste and fat. Everyone of us has had some experience in government and if we, as Senators, in conjunction with the House Appropriations Committee, can go over that budget with a fine tooth comb, I think we can do a good job on it and help the Governor and help the people of Pennsylvania. The sooner we get started, the easier it is going to be for all of us and the better off we will all be.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I have observed the clock and I know that it is getting late, and most of the remarks that I was going to use today I will save until tomorrow. However, the Majority Leader's statement which he made is regarded by me about as seriously as I regard an undertaker in a white hat. There is something fascinating but not illuminating about such ignorance, when he knows so little about planning.

Mr. President, I do not know whether he is aware, but he should be for he has been around here quite a number of years, that the Planning Board, which was named by Governor James, was fired when Martin came in. The Planning Board that was named by Martin was fired when Duff came in. The Planning Board that was put in by Duff was fired when Fine came in. In other words, the plans were thrown away as the board went out. This Planning Board is what you might call the same system that we use in the Public Utility Commission, etc., where the board will not be thrown out every four years, and we will be continually planning and taking the work from the Planning Board and putting it into effect. Now if he thinks that that is costing more money, then he and I just do not add the same way.

Mr. President, there are lots of ways to reorganize, and I think the greatest job the Governor has done in reorganizing was told to you by Senator Yosko the week before last, when he told you that the payroll for the month of April was $1,338,000 less in that month than it was in the last month when Mr. Fine went out of office.

Mr. President, if they are so interested in good government, why do they not bring out the Governor's Workmen's Compensation Referees and confirm them? Now if they are not going to confirm them, we are going to tell the Secretary of Labor and Industry to put them on a per diem basis. These cases are piling up and piling up. We, as Democrats, know why they are not in any hurry to confirm the Workmen's Compensation Referees, because they do not honestly and sincerely believe in the Workmen's Compensation Act not only as it is written today, but the bill that is on the House Calendar today and it will be over here next week.

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. President, I have learned to admire at least one quality in the gentleman from Titusville, and that is that he has frequently stood on the floor and proceeded to give advice to George Leader and other Democrats, but particularly George Leader. I admire him for this because I am sure that he did not receive any extra pay for this, the advice was not even solicited I guess, but he was big enough to get up and offer that advice.

Just last week, Mr. President, he offered some advice. It seems that he took exception to something that was said by one of the members of Mr. Leader's official family. At that time he was magnanimous. He did not think that the Governor should muzzle his official family, but he thought that the Governor should see to it that they were a little careful with their press releases and a little careful with the facts.

Mr. President, I would like to just return the favor. This is the first opportunity I have had to reciprocate in kind to the gentleman from Titusville. As much as I have appreciated his free advice, I just am impressed today that perhaps one of the members of his entourage was blurting a little bit with press releases and was maybe just a little careless with the facts. I think if he has any influence with members on his side, particularly those in his immediate neighborhood, that I would advise him to take the advice which he gave to Governor Leader.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. WADE, from the Committee on Banking, reported as committed Senate Bill No. 267, entitled:

An Act amending the act of June 24, 1939 (P. L. 746), entitled "An act authorizing federal savings and loan associations to issue share accounts in the name of certain minors and in the joint names of two or more persons, and validating the acquittances of such minors and validating the acquittances of either person in a joint account, under certain conditions; and outlining the procedure for the payment of share accounts issued in the name of a trustee following the death of the trustee," further outlining the procedure for the payment of share accounts issued in the name of a trustee following the death of the trustee.

He also, from the Committee on Banking, reported as amended Senate Bill No. 268, entitled:

An Act amending the act of May 5, 1933 (P. L. 457), entitled "An act relating to the business of building and loan associations; providing for the organization and voluntary dissolution of such associations; defining the rights, powers, duties, liabilities, and immunities of such associations, and of their officers, directors, shareholders, solicitors, and other employes; prohibiting the transaction of business in this Commonwealth by foreign building and loan associations; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the courts recorders of deeds, and certain State departments, commissions, and officers; establishing limitations of actions; imposing penalties; and repealing certain acts and parts of acts," further defining and limiting the rights, powers, duties, liabilities and immunities of such associations and making further provisions governing the transfer of shares, the payment of trustee accounts, authorized investments, security for mortgage loans, and loans secured by chattel paper.

BILL ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading consideration of House Bill No. 130, entitled:

An Act amending the act of June twenty-four one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (P. L. 872) "An act to consolidate amend and revise the penal laws of the Commonwealth" prohibiting the wilful obstruction of emergency telephone calls directories

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, Senate Bill No. 192, Printer's No. 113, has been on our Calendar for sometime. It was on the Second Reading Postponed Calendar for several weeks, and has now been on the Second Reading Calendar since it was amended here a couple of weeks ago. Since that time, we have had many suggestions on the part of the Senators, both Democratic and Republican, as to amendments.

Last week, I think about half of the Members of the Senate had amendments to this Bill No. 192. It would almost be impossible to consider all of these amendments if they were offered here on the floor of the Senate. We would have to debate each at length, and probably would have to vote on many of them without fully understanding the impact which they might have on this vital nurses profession.

Mr. President, I think that the practical nurses of Pennsylvania want to have a good bill. We, in the Senate, would like to have a good bill for them, one that would protect their profession and protect them in it and also protect the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania without destroying any of the privileges which, we will say, the poorer people of the Commonwealth have in employing practical nurses to take care of them when they cannot afford registered nurses or registered nurses are not readily available.

So, Mr. President, with that idea of trying to come up with a piece of legislation which will do all of those things, and certainly not for the purpose of burial, I am going to move that Senate Bill No. 192, Printer's No. 113 be recommitted to the Committee on Public Health and Welfare and, if it is in order, I would suggest that the chairman of the committee appoint a very able and competent subcommittee to try to work out all the differences that now exist in this piece of legislation so that it may come back on our Calendar and then we can properly enact a good bill before this Session adjourns finally.

Therefore, Mr. President, I now move that Senate Bill No. 192, on second reading, entitled:

An Act providing for and regulating the licensing and practice of practical nursing; imposing duties on the State Board of Nurse Examiners and imposing penalties.

be recommitted to the Committee on Public Health and Welfare.

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I listened to the Majority Leader's statement here a little while ago and it seems unusual that Senator Mahany, Senator Dent, Senator Pechan, Senator Bane and Senator Schmidt, all experienced Senators, would write a bill which the Majority Leader now claims is almost impossible; that should be recommitted because of the fact that it needs so many amendments. To me, well, it just is not kosher.

In my opinion, Mr. President, this bill is being recommitted to get rid of a controversial problem which confronts the Senate of Pennsylvania. I have read this bill from cover to cover. I have studied it in detail today, during the long debate which went back and forth across the Senate. There is only about one thing that I see wrong with it, and that is in regard to the hours.

I have gone over it in detail and perhaps there are other things about this bill that I do not know about. However, it seems that we should resolve this problem here today. I have noticed that the ladies, representing the Nurses Association, have been around here for months, waiting for action by the Membership here in the Senate. I know that when a bill is recommitted, it very rarely ever sees the light of day. I think that what we should do now is try to amend it on the floor. Those who have amendments, submit them and let us vote them down or accept them. Since the hour is late, why can't we carry the bill over in order and have a conference tomorrow and decide on the amendments? If there are corrective measurers that have merit, let us accept them and proceed with our business.

Therefore, Mr. President, I request the Membership, who are sincere in trying to establish some standards for the nursing profession, to oppose this motion to recommit.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. LANE. I ask for a roll call, Mr. President.

Mr. MILLER. I ask for a roll call, Mr. President.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. LANE and Mr. MILLER, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—26

Barr,	Fleming,	McPherson, Jr.,	Van Sant.
Berger,	Harney,	Mullin,	Wade,
Blass,	Kopriver, Jr.,	Propert,	Watson,
Camiel,	Kessler,	Scott,	Whalley,
Diehm,	Madigan,	Stevenson,	Wolfe,
DiSilvestro,	Mahany,	Taylor,	Yosko,
Flack,	McGinnis,

NAYS—19

Bane,	Haluska,	Pechan,	Stiefel,
Chapman,	Lane,	Ruth,	Toole,
Dent,	Mallery,	Schmidt,	Watkins,
Derk,	McMenamin,	Seyler,	Weiner,
Donolow,	Miller,	Silvert,

So the question was determined in the affirmative.

BILLS OVER IN ORDER

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent the the following bills, on second reading, go over in their order:

The Senate adjourned at 5:59 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time, until Tuesday, June 7, 1955, at 12:30 o'clock p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MONDAY, June 6, 1955.

The House met at 3:30 p. m. EST.
The SPEAKER (Hiram G. Andrews) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Reverend Harold J. Crouse, Pastor of the Trinity Lutheran Church, York, offered the following prayer:

O Lord, my God, Thou who seest and knowest all things, we turn once more to Thee asking for Thy benediction of grace and peace to rest upon us.

Prosper, O Lord, all that is done by these representatives if it be in accordance with Thy will and be for the good of the citizens of this Commonwealth. Overrule all that is contrary to Thy divine blue prints of goodness and righteousness.

To all who are sick we pray Thy grace may be sufficient for them. Grant that in Thine own time and in Thine own way a complete return to health and strength Peny M. Paulhamus and all others who are sick. We place them in Thy care and keeping.

Now, to Thee, Father and Holy Spirit, be glory and praise for evermore. Amen.

The SPEAKER. Are there any corrections to the Journals of Tuesday, May 24, Wednesday, May 25 and Tuesday, May 31, 1955? If not, and without objection, the Journals are approved.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. WORLEY. Mr. Speaker, I rise on a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. WORLEY. In the Legislative Journal of Wednesday, May 25, 1955, on page 1651 and 1652 I am recorded as "not voting" on two appropriation bills. This record is not correct.

I was on the floor and in my seat, and I voted for both of those appropriation bills. I am not an absentee at any session and I am always here to vote on every issue before this House, I do not refuse to vote on legislation or any issue within my legislative duties. I voted for both of these appropriation bills.

BILL INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Mr. ZIEGLER. HOUSE BILL No. 1521.

An Act amending the act of May 28, 1937 (P. RESOLUTION INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Mrs. HENZEL. (Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 90.

In the House of Representatives, June 2, 1955.

The Division of Special Education in the Department of Public Instruction is charged with administrative, consultative and supervisory functions concerning the proper education of exceptional children in the Commonwealth. These children include the physically handicapped, the mentally handicapped, the mentally gifted, also children with emotional, vision, hearing and speech problems.

It is important that the field of Special Education be thoroughly appraised to insure that all exceptional children of the Commonwealth are being properly educated and trained; therefore be it

Resolved (the Senate concurring), That the Joint State Government Commission be directed to study and investigate the problem of special education on a Statewide and local basis with a view to appraising its cost, effect and utility, and recommending its extension or curtailment; and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission report its findings to the State Council of Education so that it may, in accordance with its duties as prescribed in subsection (b) of section 2811 of the School Code of 1949, report and recommend to the Governor and the General Assembly legislation needed in regard to said findings.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. ISAACS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. ISAACS. Mr. Speaker, on May 25th on page 1651 of the Legislative Journal I am recorded as "not voting" on House Bill 1316, and on page 1652 of the same date I am recorded as "not voting" on House Bill 1317. I was present in the House. This was a fast roll call, and the vote was announced by the Chair as 106 to nothing. I would have voted "aye" on both of these bills.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. The Chair has been asked to make the following announcement regarding the Governor and Mrs. Leader's Reception in honour of the General Assembly, at Indiantown Gap, Tuesday, June 7, 1955:

Busses to take to Indiantown Gap the Members and their wives who have requested transportation will be stationed at Third and State Streets, at the foot of the steps to the Main Capitol Building.

These busses will be ready at two-thirty o'clock, Eastern Standard Time.

The busses will remain at Indiantown Gap, and will return the Members and their wives to the Capitol when the Reception is over.

The Reception will be held regardless of the weather. In the event of rain, it will be held indoors.

The SPEAKER. The Chair might remark that the Members of the House, having returned to a state of solvency they have only one debt, and that is attendance to the business of the Commonwealth. With only one Member having asked for leave of absence. The chair is quite convinced that there are 209 Members present and in their seats.

The motion was agreed to.

SENATE MESSAGE

SENATE INSISTS ON AMENDMENTS NON-CONCURRED IN BY HOUSE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has insisted upon its amendments, nonconcurred in by the House of Representatives, to House Bill No. 35, entitled:

An Act amending the act of May twenty-first nineteen hundred thirty-one (P. L. 149) entitled as amended "An act imposing a State tax payable by those herein defined as distributors on liquid fuels used or sold and delivered within the Commonwealth which are practically and commercially suitable for use in internal combustion engines for the generation of power providing for the collection and lien of the tax and the distribution and use of the proceeds thereof requiring such distributors to secure permits to file corporate surety bonds and reports and to retain certain records imposing duties on retail dealers common carriers county commissioners and such distributors providing for rewards imposing certain costs on counties conferring powers and imposing duties on certain State officers and departments providing for refunds imposing penalties and making an appropriation" providing for full reimbursement of taxes paid on liquid fuels consumed in the operation of certain tractors and machinery for agricultural purposes for a limited period of time

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House insist upon its non-concurrence in the amendments made and insisted upon by the Senate and that a Committee of Conference be appointed.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

MOTION TO INSTRUCT CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

Mr. WORLEY. Mr. Speaker, I move that it is the sense of this House that the Conference Committee on the part of the House (when appointed) on House Bill No. 35, Printer's No. 38 request the Conference Committee on the part of the Senate (when appointed) to join in the holding of a public hearing on this bill.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. WORLEY. Mr. Speaker, in support of this motion for a public heaing I refer you to page 570 of the Legislature Journal of February 14, 1949, wherein I made a motion on the gasoline tax bill before this House at that time.

The purpose of that motion in 1949 was to grant the farmers and other people of this Commonwealth an opportunity to appear at a public hearing. Eighty-five members of this House supported my motion in 1949. Among those supporting me in 1949 was the present Speaker of this House, the present Majority Leader of this House, and the present Majority Whip of this House. The present Majority Whip was so kind as to address this House in support of my motion at that time, and he stated in part as follows:

> We have some suggestions and some ideas on these things, and I think if we have the opportunity of a public hearing we could possibly bring those things out before the public hearing.

Mr. Speaker, all I ask is that my good friends of 1949 all stick with me again today so that we will be able to hear the voice of the farmers and others on this question of whether we should have a 100 per cent refund on fuel used in agricultural production. I say that if there is reason for fifty per cent refund for fuel used in agricultural production, there is reason for the 100 per cent refund.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to oppose the motion made by the gentleman from Adams County.

We perhaps changed over the years, and perhaps we have changed during the last six years. Nothing stands still, including Members of the House.

No doubt what the gentleman has just said about various Members voting one way or another in this House is true. I do not dispute what he has said about it, but it seems to me that the six people who will be appointed on this Conference Committee on the part of the House and the Senate, being intelligent people, experienced legislators, no doubt will be able to consider all of the angles concerning this proposed 100 per cent refund on the gas tax.

It also seems to me that a public hearing is more or less in the nature of a candy store operator putting a sign in his window asking whether any of his customers would like to come in for some free candy. I do not have any doubt that most of the people who would come to the public hearing would come vigorously supporting a 100 per cent refund, and I dare say most of them would be farmers and they would make out a very good case.

However, I think we should proceed now to have this Conference Committee appointed without any instructions on the part of this House as to a public hearing, because I think the gentlemen who will be on that Committee will be able to analyze the whole situation and come back to us with the proper recommendation.

I am therefore asking the Members of this House to vote against the motion.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

On a rising vote, eighty-one Members having voted in the affirmative and ninety-eight in the negative, the question was determined in the negative and the motion was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion to non-concur in the amendments of the Senate and that a Committee of Conference be appointed?

The motion was agreed to.

APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON HOUSE BILL NO. 35

The SPEAKER. The Chair appoints as a Committee of Conference on said bill, Messrs. POLEN, SARRAF and WOOD.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 436, as follows:

An Act declairing and adopting the song "Pennsylvania" by a Pennsylvanian Gertrude Martin Rohrer as the State song of the Commonwealth

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 The song "Pennsylvania" the melody and words thereof copyrighted in 1931 by a Pennsylvanian Gertrude Martin Rohrer the composer of the music and words is hereby adopted as the State song of Pennsylvania and shall be the official song for all public purposes

The words of said song are as follows

Verse I
Pennsylvania my native state to you we pledge our devotion
Pennsylvania our loyalty is boundless as the ocean
Verse II
Pennsylvania we thrill with pride to be your loyal descendants
Pennsylvania all hail to you the foundation of indeuendence
Refrain
Pennsylvania Pennsylvania strong and true
Pennsylvania Pennsylvania hear our song to you
There is beauty in your mountains
There is peace upon your hills
And where-e'er I roam my only home is Pennsylvania

Section 2 This act shall take effect immediately

(Following the calling of the roll and before the result was announced)

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, may I state my reason for voting "aye" on this bill?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman may file his reasons in writing, not verbally.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. WATERHOUSE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, since as I could not make my reasons known other than in writing, what I was going to say was that I would not have voted for House Bill No. 436, except for the lovely rendition that was given by the Speaker when the song was introduced here.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 502, as follows:

An Act amending the act of June 24 1939 (P L 872) entitled "An act to consolidate amend and revise the penal laws of the Commonwealth" regulating the purchase etc of intra-muscular or subcutaneous hypodermic needles or syringes except in certain cases prescribing penalties and imposing mandatory prison sentence on second offenders

Section 1 The act of June 24 1939 (P L 872) known as "The Penal Code" is amended by adding after section 659 thereof a new section to read

Section 659.1 Purchase Etc of Certain Hypodermic Needles or Syringes Exception whoever purchases or obtains any intra-muscular or subcutaneous hypodermic needle or syringe shall sign a register therefor kept for that purpose by the person selling distributing or giving it away the register shall show the type of hypodermic needle or syringe purchased or obtained the name and address of the purchaser or person receiving it the written order or prescription issued by a physician dentist or veterinarian if any and the purpose or use to be made thereof any person who purchases or obtains any intra-muscular or subcutaneous hypodermic needle or syringe (1) by fraud deceit misrepresentation or subterfuge or (2) by the forgery or alteration of a prescription or of any written order or (3) by concealment of a material fact or (4) by the use of a false name or the giving of a false address or (5) for any other purpose other than that stated in the register is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500) or undergo imprisonment not exceeding one year or both for the first offense Any person convicted of a subsequent offense shall be sentenced to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years

The provisions of this act shall not apply to any person nor to his agent servant or employe who operates a laboratory under the provisions of the act of September 26 1951 (P L 1539) known as "The Analytical-Biochemical-Biological Laboratory Act"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BANKER. Mr. Speaker, I happen to be a graduate pharmacist by education, and spent a great part of my life in the drug business, both as an apprentice and as the owner of a pharmacy.

This bill to my mind does nothing but add to the already heavy burden of our pharmacists. It requires that all pharmacists when selling a hypodermic needle or syringe to a customer must make a record of that customers name, address and to what use he is going to put it, and for what purpose.

I can not see how this bill will curtail the activities of our narcotic addicts, which seems to me to be the purpose of the bill. Any narcotic addict can receive medical aid and be supplied a minimum amount of that narcotic to which he is addicted, if he goes to a physician and is registered with the Federal Narcotic Bureau. This I know from having in past years supplied such drugs to these unfortunates. As for needles and syringes, they are necessary in the administration of certain of the narcotics. I might add that the Federal narcotic officers are quite aware of most of the narcotic addicts in their areas, whether they are registered or not.

Now, how about the other people who have need for syringes and needles? Thousands of people in our state are victims of diabetes, asthma, hayfever and other maladies requiring intra-muscular or subcutaneous injections of medication. Every time they find it necessary to purchase a new needle or syringe they would have to go through this registration process for the pharmacist from whom they would make this purchase. It can be readily seen that as a pharmacist I might possibly have 100 such entries in my registry from the same individual in a year's time. This registry would mean nothing to anyone as I feel quite sure the Federal Narcotic Bureau operators would not be interested in the slightest degree.

I feel quite sure the Federal Narcotic Bureau operatives would not be interested in the slightest degree as they are far ahead on this information, they know all of it way ahead of time and they don't need to go to a drug store to find it out.

The bill is just a burden. I know that our pharmacists today have so many reports to make, quarterly and annually, on the already restricted drugs and narcotics, as to drive all of them to drink. I ask the Members of the House to consider these remarks, I am quite sure I know of what I speak.

Mr. MAXWELL. Mr. Speaker, I wish to oppose this bill. This is only my personal opinion, but I do not think that this bill is worth the time of this House, the time it will take to print this bill, and the time it will take to pass it. I don't think this bill is even worth that because I think it will accomplish absolutely nothing. The people are going to purchase narcotics and they are surely going to be able to supply them with a syringe. The people who sell these drugs illegally, if they can get away with selling the drugs are surely going to be able to supply them with a syringe and a needle. So, I think the bill is useless.

Mr. TOLL. Mr. Speaker, in connection with this bill I feel that those who have raised the question of the burden and the uselessness of the bill have failed to raise the question of whether anything which is done to stamp out the narcotic problem, anything which is done to reduce the number of people who use narcotics, anything which is done to discover those who use it or to discover those who misuse or abuse the traffic, would be helpful to the community.

Druggists are no better than pawnbrokers who buy articles from people and have to register the articles which they buy, if they are contraband. Do you mean to tell me that it is too great a burden on the druggists who are now required to register the names of persons who buy drugs, to enter the people who buy these syringes in the same book or in another book? Dont they want to do anything to help to stamp out this vicious condition which is increasing from day to day? It seems to me that they would want to cooperate with this type of legislation in order to reduce the amount of traffic in narcotics. And, therefore, I think that this bill is worthy of your attention. Just because it will be a burden on one of the businesses of this Commonwealth is no reason why a good bill like this should be discarded. I think you ought to support this bill.

Mr. BANKER. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman's inquiry as to whether they would be willing to do anything to curb narcotic running and that sort of thing. I certainly would and every other pharmacist would but this is not a question of doing that. The Federal Narcotic Agent or Bureau is so well informed all the way through as to the use of narcotics, particularly in the illegal channels, that this information wouldn't mean a thing to them.

A man goes into the durg store and gets a needle—well, what does it mean? He only needs it for some purpose. This way he says what he needs it for. He could be in trouble right there by a clerk looking on the book, walking out and saying, "Mr. Banker was in here and got a hypodermic needle today, I wonder what that was for. We know he doesn't have diabetes. I wonder if he is taking dope." Things like that could get out and very readily injure a man. But the information supplied in that book doesn't give the Federal Narcotic Bureau any information. They have it. They come into your store every five or six months, they check your records, they have all your prescriptions. You show them those records. You keep a record of the narcotics you purchase. You have to supply right down to a minimum of error information as to where those tablets went.

Now, just what this would do as far as I can see, what is there to prevent a man who is a narcotic addict, even though he may be buying it from illicit sources, from coming into the store and saying "Well I need this for hay fever," sign his name, and that's all there is to it. The druggist cannot do anything about convicting that man or bringing him around to the attention of the Narcotic Bureau because there is nothing suspicious about the man. If he wanted a needle and a syringe to take his illegally bought narcotics, he can get those without any trouble and he won't have to go to a drug store and sign his name.

It isn't a question of not rying to help. The druggists in this country will do everything and as far as I am concerned, I would sign a bill if I thought it could be prosecuted, to make it a third degree sentence and the chair for any man who would be apprehended in the act of selling narcotics to anyone.

Mr. McCORMACK. Mr. Speaker, I would like permission to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Toll.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Toll, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. TOLL. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. McCORMACK. Mr. Speaker, does this bill make it a crime if a pharmacist or some other person who sells needles does not keep a register?

Mr. TOLL. No. Mr. Speaker.

Mr. McCORMACK. Mr. Speaker, I am informed by the sponsor that it does not.

Mr. Speaker, is it correct then that if the pharmicist fails to keep such a register and the person buys a needle and he, therefore, is unable to sign his name on the register, is that person who purchases the needle guilty of a crime?

Mr. TOLL. Mr. Speaker, I think the man would be.

Mr. McCORMACK. Mr. Speaker, well, I think this is obviously unfair to convict a man of a crime where he goes to a pharmacist and purchases a needle, wants to state the reason why he purchased it and is unable to because the pharmacist does not have a register. I think this bill should be looked into further before we vote on it finally.

Mr. BANKER. Mr. Speaker, I do not agree with that. I would like to see the bill voted on. A man could walk into a drug store under this bill and say, "I would like a hypodermic needle." "What is your name, what is your address? For what purpose?" "I want to take a shot of morphine." He can sell him a needle. The man isn't guilty of any crime and he can sell it to anybody that wants to buy it. That does not accomplish anything. I ask that the bill be voted on.

Mr. LEVEN. Mr. Speaker, I don't want to prolong the debate on this Bill 502. I would like to call to the attention of the Members on both sides of this House that the Philadelphia City Council has a bill similar to mine in the council at the present time. It was introduced on February 3, 1955. It is still in the committee. A councilman, Mr. Alexander, called me on the phone this morning and told me that they were going to keep it in committee because they would rather have a statewide bill instead of a city bill.

They point out the fact that the use of narcotics drugs by many residents of metropolitan Philadelphia and surrounding states has increased to alarming and dangerous proportions in each of the years following the close of World War II. The menace is not confined to any age group, but it has largely penetrated those between the ages of 18 and 40 years, with a heavy percentage of users in the ages just above 20 years of age.

This bill, of which I am sponsor, has been recommended by the American Medical Society and has been signed by Dr. C. O. Parmer. I have received an OK from the Thomas Laboratory which is an analytical and biological laboratory. I have received a call from Captain Limehouser from the Philadelphia Narcotic Squad who is very anxious to see this bill go through.

The only thing that I can understand right now is that the pharmacist thinks it is too much trouble to help the citizens of the Commonwealth in trying to aid the addicts of narcotics. One coming into a drug store today to try to buy paregoric has to sign a register, as it contains opium, and if it is too much for the druggists to try to help the citizens of this Commonwealth, then there is nothing else that I can say. I would like to see the Members of both sides of this House vote for this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

MEMBER VIRGINIA HOUSE OF DELEGATES WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. We have as a guest in the Hall of the House today, Mr. Tom Frost, a Member of the House of Delegates of the soverign state of Virginia. He is a guest of Senator Tom Harney, who, realizing that the House is the intellectual legislative superior here on Capitol Hill, wisely brings his guest to the Hall of the House.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would like to observe that apparently at the height of attendance today there were 197 Members present in their seats, two Members on leave of absence, and 11 Members absent without leave.

The Chair would like to ask the respective Whips to furnish the Chair with the names of the Members absent without leave.

The Chair would also like to observe to the Members that you can not advance a calendar by not calling up bills on second reading, you do not get ahead very fast.

One further observation, it is as much the duty of the Members of this House to attend Committee Meetings as it is to attend the sessions of the House.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 826, as follows:

An Act amending the act of June 23 1931 (P. L. 932) entitled "An act relating to cities of the third class and amending revising and consolidating the law relating thereto" changing the minimum age requirement for the retirement on pension of firemen

Section 1 Section 4321 of the act of June 23 1931 (P. L. 932) known as "The Third Class City Code" reenacted revised and amended June 28 1951 (P. L. 662) is amended to read

Section 4321 Retirement Final Discharge Such regulations shall prescribe a minimum period of continuous service not less than twenty-five years and a minimum age not less than [fifty-five] fifty years after which members of the department may be retired or elect to be retired on pension from active duty and such members as are retired shall be subject to service from time to time as a firemen's reserve in cases of emergency until unfitted for such service when they may be finally discharged by reason of age or disability

Section 2 This act shall take effect January 1 1956

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, I hesitate to arise in opposition to this bill for fear that certain people may get the impression that I am opposed to pensions or lowering the age at which people go on pension. That is not the case. However I must oppose this bill for the following reasons.

First of all, I would assume that the firemen's pension plan in the various third class cities had been set up upon actual data that was given to the actuary at the time the plan was set up. On the basis of the age of the various men working for the fire department certain rates of contribution were set up, relying upon a retirement age of whatever the plan in that particular city may call for. Under this particular bill without regard to the actuarial fact, without knowing how many firemen in each one of these communities are past fifty and eligible to receive these retirement benefits, without knowing what will happen to the plan, the soundness of the plan itself, we are asked to vote upon this bill arbitrarily reducing the age to fifty years. I think it is wrong, I think it is wrong for this Legislature to attempt to place an age limit upon retirement without first having before it all the facts.

It is conceivable that there are third class cities in our state with many firemen over the age of fifty who may suddenly desire to go on retirement, and as a result several of our pension plans may be put into bankruptcy within a period of a very few years.

I believe this is the wrong type of legislation to submit to this House. Before voting on anything of this sort we should have all the facts available and we should know the resulting effect this law would have upon the various community pension funds. I, therefore, ask that the Members of this House vote this bill down unless information can be shown or given to show that all the pension plans could afford this particular bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

Section 2 This act shall take effect January 1 1956

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. FRANK. Mr. Speaker, I would like to say a few words on this bill, I would like to also call your attention to the fact that this is the first time I have had the opportunity to get on the floor to speak on a bill. I would like to speak in behalf of this bill, which is a very important bill, House Bill 876.

This is a third class city bill further regulating the hours of service and sick leave of firemen. This bill would give a fireman a fifty-six hour week duty and a thirty day sick leave instead of fourteen days. I have been a great admirer of the work of public servants, the men who police the cities and the men who fight fires. I got to know them as people who would gladly give their lives to save others, and also as the most criticized when it comes to getting a living wage or regulating their services. They also are butts of jokes. Did you ever notice when they ask for an increase or betterment of service how the big headlines read Police and firemen, or any other public servants, when they ask for an increase of salary this is what the line says in the papers, "city authorities stated if we grant an increase or whatever it may be, we will have to raise taxes," Yes they are the headlines. But did you ever take notice in small type, about the firemen or policemen losing their lives or being injured? While we sleep the men in blue protect the lives of our loved ones and ourselves. Is it not about time we recognibed them as human beings? It is not about time somebody stuck up for them and for their rights.

On June 2nd there was a news item which was released from which I am going to read the head-lines, Cities League Raps Legislative Bill Fixing Fire-Police Pay Scale" In this article they state that the local government should be free to handle their own affairs and it should not be done by legislators or lobbies who are interfering in their way of conducting their form of government.

That article appeared on June 2nd in the Allentown Chronicle, which contained an editorial dealing with home rule, and from this I would like to read just a few lines, I would like you to bear with me for a moment or so.

> Home rule is a very desirable thing. It is far better, whenever possible, municipalities to solve their own problems than it is to have them solved by the legislative and administrative branches of the state government.
> It is difficult to see how the cities can argue honestly against any bill on those grounds, when it is common knowledge that the highly effective lobby of the League of Third Class Cities, predecessor of the present organization, has for more thn thirty years successfully resisted passage of legislation which would grant real home rule to those cities.

I am not going too far on this and I don't want to make it too long, but I would like to end by telling you that I would like very much for you to vote for this bill and let us theat the men in blue as human beings.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. READINGER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Houe.

Mr. Speaker, first I would like to inform the membership that our plans are to meet at 11:00 o'clock tomorrow morning because of the Governor's reception during the afternoon, and then to meet again on Wednesday morning at 11:00 o'clock for a working day, not a consent calendar day.

We spent some time this afternoon listening to a bill dealing with needles and we have spent quite a few months listening to the Minority Floor Leader needle the Democratic party, so while we are on the subject of needles I would like to make a few remarks relative to events that have taken place recently which, if you wish, you may consider a needle in your hide.

There were two important Republican meetings over the weekend. At a session of the Republican State Executive Committee here Friday it was agreed that Republicans, as a matter of political maneuvering, would continue absolute opposition to Governor Leader's classified income tax plan, notwithstanding the fact that a special Gallup poll, announced Sunday, disclosed that fifty-three per cent of our people would prefer such a tax to a three per cent sales tax.

At a meeting in Hershey the following day the newly formed Pennsylvania Republican Institute, apparently with an eye to the kind of politics played by the regular GOP organization, said it hoped to mobilize influential Republicans on a state-wide basis who are not associated with the "party hack" concept.

Now, it is rather obvious that if everything were running smoothly in the Republican Party, and its policies were universally accepted by other good Republicans, there would have been no necessity for the Pennsylvania Republican Institute, whose purpose, it is easy to see, is to clean up the party, to get rid of the political deadheads and stand-patters who are fouling up what precious little is left of the party's political integrity.

At the meeting of the Republican Executive Committee the reactionary whip-crackers ran into an unexpected piece of opposition from Andrew Gleason of Johnstown who had the good grace to say that the Democratic Party has the responsibility of balancing the budget and that Republicans should assist us in the enactment of our tax program.

Naturally from the stony reaction that greeted Mr. Gleason's proposal, he was far from being the most popular man at that conference. Gleason, in his own defense, had unkind things to say about the Republican leadership, especially a man he called "Marblehead Owlett."

It seems that the former Secretary of Internal Affairs, William S. Livengood, went along with Mr. Gleason on the idea that the Democratic tax program, once through the House, should be permitted to get through the Republican-controlled Senate, where GOP leaders have announced it will die in committee.

Also, over the weekend there was a rather vacuous statement made by Republican State Chairman, Miles Horst, who said we are confronted by a Democratic sit-down strike on the Governor's tax program. Since the matter has yet to come to a vote for an all-round show of hands, I am at a loss to understand how Mr. Horst can speak so glibly of sit-down strikes unless, of course, he is giving us a preview of what we can expect from the Republican side when the tax issue comes to a head.

In the last two weeks there has been a new birth of interest and confidence in the classified income tax plan for the simple reason that people are beginning to understand it and how it works, and they now realize that it is manifestly more equitable and more acceptable than a three and three-quarter per cent sales tax which will cost the average family twice as much.

I am sure that as this feeling gains momentum through the state public opposition will become an overwhelming voice of approval. This change in public sentiment will make it mandatory upon all legislators to go along on a tax program that is unquestionably the fairest in sight and that best serves the interests of the people as a whole.

In answer to the Republican critics who insist that it is the responsibility of the Leader administration to produce a tax program in order to balance the budget, I wish to remind those articulate gentlemen that the classified income tax proposal is the Democratic program to accomplish that goal.

That is the program we have devised to put the books in order and correct the grievious defects of Republican mismanagement over a period of sixteen years.

I repeat what was said before, if the Republicans are not satisfied with that proposal and they intend to sit back in the trenches and oppose it merely for the sake of opposing, they might as well face up to the fact that if our program is unacceptable they are going to have to come up with one of their own.

Mr. Smith—and I regret very much that he is not here today to hear these remarks—the forceful and personable orator from Philadelphia can make speeches until he begins to hate the sound of his own voice, but nothing is going to change the fact that Republicans, as the creators of the financial mess in which Pennsylvania now wallows, have a definite obligation to cooperate on a tax program we Democrats believe will balance the buduget and impose the least painful tax bite on the general public.

No one is holding a revolver at the heads of our Republican colleagues in this House. If they have any political conscience at all, and I certainly believe they do, they are going to realize sooner or later that we cannot play blind man's buff with the destiny of the Commonwealth, and, if they do not face up to their sworn obligations as representatives of the people, the people in their wisdom will know where to place the blame.

I might say also to Mr. Horst, who has shown an appalling lack of knowledge of our legislative processes, that before he or his ghost writer issue any more trivia on Democratic sit-down strikes when none is in progress, he should harken well to the storm signals posted by the Pennsylvania Republican Institute which left no doubt by its reference to "party hacks" that it has the Republican State Chaiman right at the top of the list.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. JOHNSON asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I do not happen to see the ghost writer who wrote that speech in the House at the present time, but I think he is probably just an office or two away.

Be that as it may, there are a few things that in the absence of our floor leader on this side I feel I must comment upon.

While Mr. Readinger was making the speech, I looked into a little history and I find that the classified income tax was introduced into this House on the 26th day of April. Anybody in Pennsylvania that reads the newspapers knows that there are 112 Democrats over on the other side. We might have had some absenteeism, but as the Speaker in a jocular vein pointed out today everybody certainly should be in their seats because it is pay day. Why don't you call a meeting of the Ways and Means Committee before we leave here today, trot that bill out on the floor, and let's see what you are going to do with it? We are not holding you up.

I will say that when we were in power last session we knew that we had to balance the budget and carry on the functions of our state government. We put through a measure which we thought at the time was the fairest bill within the framework of our constitution, and we stood up to it, we voted for it like men, and I think the people of Pennsylvania are wondering what kind of men you are over there. You have that bill fouled up and you are hitting everybody over the head trying to get it passed and blaming the Republicans for it. You just can't do that. Get it out and let us see what you can do with it.

Here is another thing, I have been looking over the roster of the Democrats over in the Senate and wonder how many votes you have over on the Senate floor. Have you got fifteen ,or sixteen, or seventeen? When you can say to Senator Mahany over there, "We have twenty-four votes on the line for this classified income tax," then I think Senator Mahany in all conscience probably will say to you, "Well, we will look around and see if we have a couple more votes on the Republican side." But there are quite a number of Senators over there on the Democratic side who have said already that they would not vote for that classified income tax on a bet. So you cannot chastise the Republican Senate until you can show twenty-four votes on the line over there and 116 on the line here in this House.

Get the bill out. Let's get this session over with. We are not holding this bill up five minutes and we do not intend to here on this side.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. WATERHOUSE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to compliment my colleague here on his statement, but I would like to add just a few things to it.

I noted with a great deal of interest the statements of the gentleman from Berks regarding the Republican Institute. I am quite surprised that he is as concerned as he is over the problems that we might face, when from all indications up in Erie County it may be that the Democrats might have some problems.

Sunday's paper, yesterday's paper, said that Senator Barr had fired Alden Phelps, the Democratic County Chairman, because he chose to run for County Commissioner. Now that is kind of a peculiar thing, too, because Senator Barr is the State Chairman. Alden Phelps only aspired to be a County Commissioner, but he was fired for it. They had the committee people up there sign a petition against Mr. Phelps petitioning the powers-that-be to get rid of him, but, lo and behold, nine or ten of the people who had signed that found they had been hoodwinked, they didn't know what they had signed. So they asked to have their names taken off. But Senator Barr fired him anyway. Now, we haven't fired anybody yet for running for office, we kind of think that is their privilege, Another thing, we have heard a lot about this tax bill. But we haven't heard a doggoned thing about what it does, mainly because we haven't seen the bill on the floor.

I wonder if I could ask the Majority Leader just a few questione about the bill, Mr. Speaker?

The SPEAKER. Will the Majority Leader consent to be interrogated?

Mr. READINGER. I shall be happy to be interrogated tomorrow.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, I would just like to ask the gentleman whether or not short term gains are deductible from a long term loss, or vice versa, whether a long term gain could stand and the profits from that might be offset some by a short term loss before figuring that you are going to pay your six per cent?

I will ask this in kind of a package. I would like further to ask, you are charging four per cent on rents, whether or not the maintenance and so on on the house is considered before the income from the house and if so, whether the cost of the house is to be figured down to its depreciated value in 1955, or whether it is going to be the initial cost of the property? There are a lot of things I would like to know about that.

Also, I would like to know if this bill were to be passed as a package, this tax program they are talking about, what would happen in many of these communities where they would be paying four income taxes? They might pay a non-resident income tax, they pay a resident income tax, they pay a state income tax and a federal income tax. If they are under 481, I wonder if they are going to amend the bill. What is going to happen there? I think there are a lot of things that the people don't know, and they should know. And sure as the dickens. Mr. Speaker, we shouldn't be clouted over the head with a program that they have, they are sitting on in Committee and not doing anything about.

I am on the Ways and Means Committee, and I would be very glad to stay here over a weekend, or any other time, to attend a committee meeting on Ways and Means. Maybe I would even help to get that bill out on the floor—I don't know, but I might—so the people would have a chance to vote on it.

Now, as for Senator Mahany, I don't know much about Senator Mahany, I'm a pretty good friend of his, and he is a nice fellow—

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is not privileged to discuss by name or reference a Member of the other House.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Well, that's kind of funny, but you know I just wrote this down here and it was talked about before, but we will leave the name out.

I do not know whether if you had twenty-four votes you could get any more or not. You might run into the same thing that we ran into in '51 and '53. We couldn't get any, but you might be better salesmen than we are.

Mr. Speaker, just as one farmer to another, I would like to get this bill out here and get a chance to do something about it, but I would like to know what is in it.

The SPEAKER. I want to say to the gentleman from Virginia that we are putting on this show to make him think he is at home.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. READINGER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I will be very brief. I would like to answer Mr. Johnsons' comment and tell him why we do not bring the bill out forthwith. He, of course, would like the public to believe we are afraid to bring it out, but we are not.

At the beginning of this sesssion the Speaker, among other things, stated that there would be no budget mysteries this session, and he knew what he was talking about because he had been Minority Floor Leader for some six or eight years and had been swamped with budget mysteries, because he could not get proper answers to budgetary questions prior to the time you were asking us to pass on tax programs.

As all of you must know, and many of you have attended Appropriations Comittee meetings, there have been hearings on the budget. They are still continuing. One is scheduled for this very moment, 7:30, and we Members haven't had time to have dinner. When we have finished those budget hearings and know all the facts concerning the budget, that is when we are going to discuss taxes and budgetary matters.

I dare say of we did bring the tax bill out here tomorrow as suggested by Mr. Johnson, you would be on your feet screaming that you should not be requested or asked to pass on the wisdom of a tax measure raising millions of dollars before you know all the facts about the budget.

So I say you are overly anxious. You just be patient. We will be here for some time to come in this session, and we will bring out our tax bill and we are going to pass our tax bill.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE

By unanimous consent leave of absence was granted as follows:

Mr. Kolankiewicz for Mr. BAZIN because of an accident.

Mr. KRANTZ for himself for tomorrow's session.

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, in reference to the remarks from the Chair as to absenteeism, I find we have four gentlemen absent from Philadelphia and I have ascertained the reason why they are absent. There is an important meeting in the wards of the Republican party in the city. Some of them were here and left early to go to the meeting in Philadelphia and I therefore would like to ask leave of absence for Mr. WILBUR H. HAMILTON, Mr. POMEROY, Mr. RUBEN and Mr. SIGMAN.

The SPEAKER. Leave is granted without objection. The Chair hears none.

Mr. EHRGOOD for himself for Wednesday's session.

Mr. Johnson for Mr. SPENCER for today's session because of illness.

Mr. Whitenight for Mr. CURWOOD for today's session.

Mrs. Varallo for Mrs. MONROE.

Mr. Lovett for Mr. ROSEN.

Mr. Lovett for Mr. PAULHAMUS because of illness.

Mr. Leisey for Mr. BROWN for today's session.

Mr. Willaredt for Mr. LAFORE for today's session.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Legislative Journal.

Session 1955. 141st of the General Assembly.

Vol. 34. HARRISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, JUNE 7, 1955. No. 54.

SENATE

TUESDAY, June 7, 1955.

The Senate met at 12:30 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Roy E. Furman) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain Rev. ROBERT W. ORVIS, Rector of Trinity Memorial Episcopal Church, Erie, offered the following prayer:

Let us ask for the spirit of prayer.

O Almighty God, Who pourest out on all who desire it, the spirit of grace and of supplication. Deliver us, when we draw night to Thee, from coldness of heart and wanderings of mind, that with steadfast thoughts and kindled affections, we may worship Thee in spirit and in truth, through Jesus Christ, our Lord, Amen.

Let us pray for social justice.

Almighty God, Who hast created man in Thine own image, grant us grace fearlessly to contend against evil and to make no peace with oppression and, that we may reverently use our freedom, help us to employ it in the maintenance of justice among men and among nations, to the glory of Thy Holy Name, through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Let us pray for the State Legislature and especially for this Senate.

O God, the fountain of wisdom, Whose statutes are good and gracious and Whose law is truth, we beseech Thee so to guide and bless the Legislature of this Commonwealth, especially the Senate in Session. Bless its officers, its Members and all of those who serve them, that they may ordain for our governance only such things as please Thee, to the glory of Thy name and the welfare of all Thy people, through Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord, Amen

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present, the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. MAHANY and Mr. KOPRIVER, JR., further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

HONORABLE THOMAS FROST

MEMBER OF THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES
COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA
PRESENTED TO SENATE

Mr. HARNEY. Mr. President, I have the honor to introduce a guest of mine from Warrington, Virginia, Mr. Tom Frost, who serves in the House of Delegates of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

The PRESIDENT. We are very happy to have such a distinguished visitor with us from the State of Virginia, who is also a Member of the House of Delegates of the State of Virginia. I hope that you will enjoy your visit with us.

HOUSE MESSAGES

HOUSE BILLS FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, presented for concurrence bills of the House, as follows:

House Bill No. 436, entitled:

An Act declaring and adopting the song "Pennsylvania," by a Pennsylvanian, Gertrude Martin Rhorer, as the State song of the Commonwealth.

Which was committed to the Committee on State Government.

House Bill No. 834, entitled:

An Act amending the act of May 9, 1949 (P. L. 927), entitled "An act fixing and regulating the fees, commissions, mileage and other costs chargeable by the sheriff in counties of the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes, for their official acts and the services of their deputies, watchmen, appraisers, and other agents; requiring prepayment of same, unless secured or chargeable to the county, and delivery of itemized receipts therefor; requiring certain payments by the county, including the compensation of special deputies, providing for the taxation and collection of fees, commissions, mileage and other costs; requiring salaried sheriffs to account to the county for certain fees and commissions collected; and repealing inconsistent laws, general special or local," changing fees, commissions, mileage and other costs chargeable by sheriffs.

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

House Bill No. 876, entitled:

An Act amending the act of June 23, 1931 (P. L. 932), entitled "Third Class City Law," further regulating the hours of service, and sick leaves of firemen.

Which was committed to the Committee on Local Government.

HOUSE CONCURS IN SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

He also informed the Senate that the House has concurred in resolution from the Senate as follows:

TIME OF NEXT MEETING

In the Senate, June 6, 1955.

Resolved (the House of Representatives concurring), That when the Senate adjourns this week, it reconvene on Monday, June 13, 1955, at two-thirty o'clock, p. m., E.S.T., and when the House of Representatives adjourns this week, it reconvene on Monday, June 13, 1955, at a time to be fixed by the House of Representatives.

HOUSE INSISTS UPON ITS NON-CONCURRENCE IN AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL No. 35 AND APPOINTS COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE

He also informed the Senate that the House insists on its non-concurrence in Senate amendments to House Bill No. 35, entitled:

An Act amending the act of May 21, 1931 (P. L. 149), entitled, as amended "Liquid Fuels Tax Law," extending for an additional period the right to partial reimbursement of taxes paid on liquid fuels consumed in the operation of certain tractors and machinery for agricultural purposes.

and has appointed Messrs. POLEN, SARRAF and WOOD as a Committee of Conference to confer with a similar committee of the Senate (if the Senate shall appoint such committee) to consider the differences existing between the two houses in relation to said bill.

HOUSE BILL No. 35 TAKEN FROM TABLE

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I call from the table House Bill No. 35, entitled:

An Act amending the act of May 21, 1931 (P. L. 149), entitled, as amended "Liquid Fuels Tax Law," extending for an additional period the right to partial reimbursement of taxes paid on liquid fuels consumed in the operation of certain tractors and machinery for agricultural purposes.

and move a committee of conference on the part of the Senate be appointed.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE APPOINTED ON HOUSE BILL No. 35

The PRESIDENT. The Chair announces, on behalf of the President pro tempore, the appointment of Messrs. MADIGAN, HARNEY and DENT as a committee of conference on the part of the Senate to confer with a similar committee of the House (already appointed) to consider the difference existing between the two houses in relation to House Bill No. 35.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

MEMBERS OF LEHIGH COUNTY SENIOR EXTENSION CLUB PRESENTED TO SENATE

Mr. VAN SANT. Mr. President, I have the pleasure to present today a visiting group from Lehigh County to my esteemed colleagues in the Senate. An Act making an appropriation to the Joint Committee appointed by the Senate and House of Representatives to investigate Laurelton State Village

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 The sum of six thousand five hundred twenty eight dollars and forty five cents ($6,528.45) seven thousand one hundrtd twenty-eight dollars and forty-five cents ($7,128.45) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated to the Joint Committee appointed by the Senate and House of Representatives to investigate the charges made by Harry Shapiro the Secretary of Welfare against the Board of Trustees and the Superintendent of the Laurelton State Village The money shall be used for the payment of expenses of the Committee and the members thereof incurred in the Performance of the functions and duties for which the committee was created

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I am going to vote for this bill, but I want to call to the attention of my colleague from Crawford, Senator Mahany, that back in the early part of the Session, when I introduced a bill asking for an investigation of the Hoxsey Cancer Clinic, he pointed out very vividly that the motive was all right but we had no money. He said that $5,000 was a lot of money, as contained within the bill.

Now, of course, Mr. President, they have had an investigation of Laurelton State Village, and money seems to be no object whatsoever. We just spend money as freely as possible. When I pointed out a worthy cause, Senator Mahany took to his feet and pointed out that it cost too much money to investigate a cause that should be properly investigated. People are dying by the thousands every day. I want to point out to the Majority Floor Leader how wrong he can be when he wants to be wrong, and right when he wants to be right. This may be a worthy cause, but as I pointed out that day, this Senate has disqualified itself for making investigations pertaining to curative values. This is one of them. The report shows that they were disqualified. They came back disunited. One party states that it was a worthy cause and the other states that they found nothing wrong at Laurelton. However, they are willing to spend the money very, very, freely.

Before this Session is over, Mr. President, I shall arise again and renew my charges, and ask this body to make a proper investigation, an impartial investigation of the Hoxsey Cancer Clinic.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, as I understand it, the Senator has established a Hoxsey Clinic now in his home county. If we want to investigate his cures, we can go up there and do it and we certainly are going to save the Commonwealth a lot of money. Instead of having to go clear to Texas, and spend a lot of our time and a lot of the State's money, we can journey to Portage, in Cambria County, and look over his installation and then we will know probably just as much by going up there as we would have had we gone to Texas.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Crawford, Senator Mahany.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Crawford, Mr. Mahany, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MAHANY. I will, Mr. President. However, I want to remind the gentleman from Cambria, Senator Haluska, that the barbecued chickens are beginning to get cold. I would like to get out there.

Mr. HALUSKA. Would you repeat that, please?

Mr. MAHANY. I said, the barbecued chickens, which the Governor is going to provide for us today, are getting cold and I would like to get out there and start in on them.

Mr. HALUSKA. If you eat too much of the chicken, you may be one of my patients.

Mr. MAHANY. May God forbid.

Mr. HALUSKA. Am I to understand from the gentleman from Crawford County, Senator Mahany, that from his last remarks now he is one who is willing to consider an investigation of the Hoxsey Cancer Clinic, which is now located in Penneylvania? Is he interested in making a trip to Portage to determine for himself as to whether the claims I made are right or wrong?

Mr. MAHANY. Senator Haluska, if I thought we could get some information by going to Portage, I would always be pleased to come up in your county and be your guest at any time.

Mr. HALUSKA. You mean by that, individually or collectively, or do you mean politically?

Mr. MAHANY. I cannot speak collectively and I assure you it would not be politically. I would just like to come up and see you in your own home environment. I understand that you are well regarded up there. I would like to come up.

Mr. HALUSKA. Thank you.

Mr. President, I want to now make a standing invitation to the fifty Members of this Senate, or any part of them, at their own discretion, at their own convenience, to come to Portage and see for themselves just what we are doing for suffering humanity. I invite them to talk to the people who come there, from the four corners of America, and who are told that they must die. I would be happy if my colleague from Crawford would select a committee from this Senate, with or without an appropriation. If the State cannot afford to pay for it, I will pay the expenses. I would like to have a group come up there and see, once and for all, just what we are doing. I am happy to know that Senator Mahany is interested and, therefore, I will vote this bill to pay these boys who held the investigation at Laurelton.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

And said bill having been read at length the second time, as amended.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading, as amended?

BILLS OVER IN ORDER

Mr. SILVERT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 355, Printer's No. 108, on second reading, go over in its order, as amended.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the following bills, on second reading, go over in their order:

Senate Bill No. 361, Printer's No. 109;
Senate Bill No. 365, Printer's No. 128, and
Senate Bill No. 366, Printer's No. 129.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL ON SECOND READING AMENDED

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 684, entitled:

An Act amending the act of May 1, 1929 (P. L. 905), entitled "An act for the protection of the public safety; regulating the use of highways, and the operation of vehicles, tractors, street cars, trackless trolley omnibuses, bicycles, pedestrians, and the riding of animals upon the highways of this Commonwealth; providing for the titling, including liens, encumbrances, and legal claims; registration of certain vehicles and licensing the operators thereof, upon payment of prescribed fees; prescribing and limiting the powers of local authorities to deal with the subject matter of this act; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue, the Department of Highways, peace officers, mayors, burgesses, magistrates, aldermen, justices of the peace, the courts and the clerks thereof, owners of vehicles, and garage keepers; providing that records are admissible as evidence; imposing upon owners, counties, cities, boroughs, incorporated towns, townships, within the Commonwealth, liability for damages caused by the negligent operation of their motor vehicles; imposing penalties; imposing certain costs upon counties; providing for the disposition of fines, forfeitures, fees, and miscellaneous receipts; making an appropriation and providing for refunds," regulating the use of multiple beam road lighting equipment.

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. McPHERSON, JR., offered the following amendments:

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 802.1), page 3, line 15, by striking out the bracket after "power"; Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 801.1), page 5, line 11, by inserting a bracket after "section"; Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 802.1), page 5, by inserting after line 11 the following: "(b) There shall be a lowermost distribution of light or composite beam so aimed and of sufficient intensity to reveal persons and vehicles at a distance of at least one hundred (100) feet ahead and on a straight level road under any condition of loading none of the high intensity portion of the beam shall be directed to strike the eyes of an approaching driver. (c) Every motor vehicle other than a motorcycle or motor driven cycle registered in this State which has multiple beam road lighting equipment shall be equipped with a beam indicator which shall be lighted whenever the uppermost distribution of light from the headlamps is in use and shall not otherwise be lighted. The indicator shall be so designed and located that when lighted it will be readily visible without glare to the driver of the vehicle so equipped.

Nothing in this act shall affect the continued use of headlighting equipment currently approved by the Secretary."

They were agreed to.

The section was agreed to as amended.

The second section and title were read and agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time, as amended,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading, as amended?

BILLS OVER IN ORDER

Mr. McPHERSON, JR. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that House Bill No. 684, Printer's No. 404, on second reading, go over in its order, as amended.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that House Bill No. 840, Printer's No. 261, on second reading, go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none

BILL SIGNED

The President (Lieutenant-Governor ROY E. FURMAN) announced that the Chief Clerk having reported that the following bill had passed both houses of the General Assembly and the same being correct, the title was publicly read as follows:

House Bill No. 719, entitled:

An Act amending the act of March 10, 1949 (P. L. 30), entitled "Public School Code of 1949," increasing maximum limits on per capita taxes, with certain limitations.

Whereupon,

The President (Lieutenant-Governor ROY E. FURMAN) in the presence of the Senate signed the same.

RECESS

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess for five minutes, for the purpose of holding a meeting of the Committee on Highways.

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed, the Senate will be in order.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. BARR asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I just attended a meeting of the Highways Committee, and during that meeting there was a discussion regarding the truck bill. After some detailed discussion, a vote was taken and the vote, with the Chairman of the Committee voting "aye," made a tie vote, 7-7. They are now attempting to report the bill to the floor.

Mr. President, there is a certain amount of reasonableness that should be exerted by any committee. I do not know what action the chairman intends to take. I saw them working on one of their members after the meeting was over, trying to change his vote.

I want to say to them that if that bill is reported to the floor, I will insist from now on that there be a First Reading Calendar in the Senate.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. WADE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, it is true that we have just had a meeting of the Highways Committee. Perhaps the only thing that was wrong was that we had the meeting on rather short notice. Certainly, if there is any one Member of this Senate for whom I have the highest respect, it is Senator Barr, who has just spoken and who made a statement that is not correct.

Mr. President, I did not vote in that meeting until the vote was tied. Then, too, I want to call the gentleman's attention to the fact that matters taking place in the committee are not usually used on the floor of the Senate. If he has a just complaint, certainly I, as Chairman of the Highways Committee, would be glad to hear him. I went over and approached him, when he was about to make the statement which he told me he was going to make, with the intention of telling him that the bill would not be reported out if he was not entirely satisfied, as a courtesy to him and only as a courtesy to him.

However, Mr. President, when Senator Barr makes the statement that I voted twice, I want him to understand that that is absolutely wrong and false. I did not vote twice.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Barr, will state his point of order.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I would like to have the remarks read back to the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Wade, where I said he voted twice. I would like to have the remarks read back to the gentleman.

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, I would be pleased to hear that. If I made a wrong accusation. I apologize to the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Bar. I certainly did not intentionally do so.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I raised a point of order and I said that the gentleman from Cumberland said that I said he had voted twice. I want that read back to him. If I said that, I am in error. I am positive that I did not say that, and I would like for the Chair to rule that the stenographer shall read the remarks back to Senator Wade.

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, if I may make this suggestion, if Senator Barr says that he did not say that, that is perfectly satisfactory to me. It will not be necessary for the stenographer to read that back at all. I will take Senator Barr's word for it anytime.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair thanks the gentleman from Cumberland, Mr. Wade, and I think that the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Barr, is satisfied.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I withdraw my point of order.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. WADE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, let me say further that Senator Barr, as well as many other Members—I think we had quite a full committee—were there, privileged to count the vote. The vote was even. Seven were for bringing the bill out on the floor and seven were for retaining the bill in committee, or against and for the motion.

Mr. President, it was my duty then, as Chairman, under the rules, to vote for it and I voted to bring the bill out.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. BARR asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I do not want to get personal about this, but I can count to fourteen. I do not have to use my hands. There were only fourteen members in there. He voted to make it a tie, and then threw the bill over to us to report it out, That is exactly what happened in the committee.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, if I may, I would like to make a suggestion to the Members of the Senate. At any time in the past when we have had matters of this kind come up, we can usually reach a common ground. If the vote was anywhere near that which has been reported to the floor at this time, I would suggest that perhaps it would be better if the chairman would call a meeting with a little more time as a notice to the members that such a controversial bill is coming up, in order that there would be no question whatsoever about the results of the vote.

Mr. President, I would also suggest, therefore, that the action of the committee be held in abeyance until Monday or Tuesday, whenever the Chairman sees fit, at his discretion, to call a meeting.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. MAHANY asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, before Senator Dent got up to make his suggestion, I was about to make the same suggestion. I am sure that is perfectly agreeable to all of us. We try to run these committees as fair as we know how. I am sure that nobody wanted to cast any aspersions on the chairman of this committee, and I think Senator George Wade has been very fair to all or us in the past and we are not trying to steamroll anything over on anyone.

Therefore, Mr. President, I certainly accept the suggestion made by Senator Dent, and that is what we will do.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. WADE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, I wish to thank Senator Dent and Senator Mahany. However, I think the bill is in possession of the committee until it is reported to the floor. While I do not like, under any conditions, to oppose my leader, I might say, too, that I agree with him. We will keep the bill in committee and have a meeting next week.

The principle reason for my making this statement at the moment, Mr. President, is the fact that we are all getting ready to break bread and have a good time down at Indiantown Gap, where the Indians first settled. If they promise to leave their bows and arrows at home, we certainly will follow that suggestion.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. BARR asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I just want to say to the gentleman that if it is still raining when they get out there, they have alternative plans whereby they will not even get wet. They have a place set up in the service center, and also a tent in case of bad weather.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, going out to Indiantown Gap, and the action that we have taken many times in this Senate, probably is the best proof that what is happening to us is what happened to the Indians too darn many chiefs and not enough Indians.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

TUESDAY, June 7, 1955

The House met at 10:00 a. m. EST.

The SPEAKER (Hiram G. Andrews) in the Chair.

PRAYER

Reverend Robert W. Orvis, Rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, Erie, guest Chaplain, offered the following prayer:

First, we will pray for the President of the United States and for all others in authority:

Almighty God, whose kingdom is everlasting and power infinite; Have mercy upon this whole land; and so rule the hearts of Thy servants the President of the United States, the Governor of this State, and all others in authority, that they, knowing whose ministers they are, may above all things seek Thy honour and glory; and that we and all People, duly considering whose authority they bear, may faithfully and obediently honour them, according to Thy blessed Word and ordinance; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with Thee and the Holy Ghost liveth and reigneth ever, one God, world without end. Amen.

Let us pray for the State Legislature:

O God, the fountain of wisdom, whose statutes are good and gracious and whose law is truth; we beseech Thee so to guide and bless the Legislature of this State, that it may ordain for our goverance only such things as please Thee, to the glory of Thy Name and the welfare of the people; through Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord, Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVAL POSTPONED

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection, the approval of the Journal for Monday, June 6, 1955, will be postponed until printed. The Chair hears none.

RESOLUTIONS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Mr. BOWER. (Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 91.

In the House of Representatives, June 6, 1955.

The various laws relating to elections are consolidated in what is known and cited as the Pennsylvania Election Code. It is of the utmost importance that the election code be clear, concise and consistent. There are, however, inconsistencies in the election code, which from time to time cause uncertainty in election contests; therefore be it

Resolved (the Senate concurring), That the Joint State Government Commission be directed to study and determine the extent of the inconsistencies which now exist in the Pennsylvania Election Code and how these inconsistencies may be remedied; and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission report to the next regular session of the General Assembly its findings and recommendations with drafts of legislation necessary to carry the recommendations into effect.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

By Mr. HENZEL and Mrs. DONAHUE.

(Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 92.

In the House of Representatives, June 6, 1955.

The use of alcoholic beverages and tobacco by minors has attained such widespread proportions as to create a health and moral problem among the juvenile population in Pennsylvania.

The use of intoxicants and tobacco by minors has been cited by courts as contributing to juvenile delinquency. The cost of these articles to very young people can easily lead to actions on their part which are major infractions of the law, thereby starting chain reactions which later stigmatize many persons as habitual criminals; therefore be it

Resolved (The Senate concurring), That the Joint State Government Commission be directed to study and investigate the problem of use of tobacco and intoxicants by minors and the laxity in law enforcement regarding such use; and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission report to the next regular session of the General Assembly its findings and recommendations, with drafts of legislation necessary to carry the recommendations into effect.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

REORGANIZATION PLAN NO. 1

Mr. READINGER asked and obtained unanimous consent to call up out of order on page 31 of today's calendar, Reorganization Plan No. 1.

Reorganization Plan No. 1 was read by the Clerk as follows:

REORGANIZATION PLAN NO. 1 OF 1955

Resolved, that Reorganization Plan No. 1 of 1955 transmitted to the General Assembly under date of May 11 1955 which is incorporated herein by reference be approved.

Section 1. State Planning Board. The State Planning Board together with its functions as set forth in Section 3 of the State Planning Code, the Act of May 20, 1949, P. L. 1608, except as is provided by Section 3 of this Reorganization Plan, is transferred from the Department of Commerce where it has been a departmental board to the Governor's Office where it shall be an advisory board with the same status under The Administrative Code of 1929, the Act of April 9, 1929, P. L. 177, as amended, as that of advisory boards.

Section 2. Organization. The State Planning Board shall consist of fifteen members to be appointed by the Governor from among the citizens of the State, who during their terms shall hold no other office in the executive branch of the State government to which any salary is attached. In addiion to these members there shall be three ex officio members—the Secretary of Commerce, the Secretary of Highways and the Secretary of Forests and Waters. The terms of office of those members, exclusive of the ex officio members, of the Board shall be for four years and until their successors are appointed and have qualified, except that of those members first appointed four shall be appointed for a term of one year; four for a term of two years; four for a term of three years, and three for a term of four years. In case of a vacancy, the Govenor shall make an appointment for the unexpired portion of the term. The Governor shall designate the Chairman and Vice-Chairman of the Board from among the members of the Board, other than the ex officio members.

Ten members of the Board shall constitute a quorum.

The members of the Board shall serve without compensation, but shall be entitled to receive traveling and other expenses incurred in the discharge of their duties.

The Board shall, with the approval of the Governor, appoint and fix the compensation of an executive director, who shall act as secretary of the Board, and who shall conduct the work of the Board under its supervision. The executive director shall hold no other position in the service of the Commonwealth or any political subdivision thereof to which any salary is attached, and shall be technically qualified for the duties of his office. The executive director shall, with the approval of the Board and the Governor, appoint and fix the compensation of such consultants, experts, technicians, stenographers, clerks and other assistants as may be required for the proper conduct of the work of the Board.

Section 3. Transfer of Certain Functions of the State Planning Board. The following functions of the State Planning Board are transferred to the Department of Commerce and shall be administered by the Secretary of Commerce:

(a) Those functions created by clauses (5), (7), (8), (9), (10), (11), (12), (13), (14) and (15) of Section 3; and Sections 4, 7, 8, 9 and 10 of the State Planning Code, the Act of May 20, 1949, P. L. 1608.

(b) Those functions created by subsection (e) of Section 4; Section 8; Section 9; subsection (e) of Section 11; Section 14; Section 22 and Section 24 of the Housing Authorities Law, the Act of May 28, 1937, P. L. 955, as amended.

(c) Those functions created by subsection (c) of Section 4; Section 8 and Section 19 of the Urban Redevelopment Law, the Act of May 24, 1945, P. L. 991, as amended.

(d) Those functions created by Section 3; first paragraph and subsection (a) of Section 4; Section 5; Section 6; Section 8; Section 9; Section 11; Section 12; Section 14; Section 15; Section 16; Section 17 Section 18; Section 19; Section 20 and Section 21 of the Limited Dividend Housing Company Law, the Act of May 18, 1937, P. L. 704, as amended.

(e) Those functions created by Section 510.3; Section 510.4 and Section 510.8 of the General County Law, the Act of May 2, 1929, P. L. 1278, as amended

(f) Those functions created by Section 2222; paragraph (c) and (d) of Section 2223; paragraphs (a) and (b) of Section 2227 of the Second Class County Code, the Act of July 28, 1953, P. L. 723.

(g) Those functions created by Section 2006 of the Second Class Township Code, the Act of May 1, 1933, P. L. 103, as amended.

(h) Those functions created by Section 1 and Section 2 of the Act of June 5, 1947, P. L. 406.

(i) Those functions created by the Housing and Redevelopment Assistance Law, the Act of May 20, 1949, P. L. 1633 as amended Section 4. Records, Property, Appropriations. There are hereby transferred to the Department of Cemmerce to be used, employed and expendd in connection with the functions transferred by Section 3 of this Reorganization Plan, the records, contracts, classified data files, maps, air photographs, and equipment now being used or held in connection with such functions; and the unexpended balances of appropriations, allocations and other funds, with specific reference to funds appropriated by Act No. 66-A, approved January 5, 1952, and the appropriation made by Section 17 of the Act approved May 20, 1949, P. L. 1633, available or to be made available for use in connection with such functions.

Section 5. Acts suspended.

(a) Section 202 of The Administrative Code of 1929, the Act of April 9, 1929, P. L. 177, as amended, as it affects the location of the State Planning Board in the Department of Commerce.

(b) Section 451 of The Administrative Code of 1929, the Act of April 9, 1929, P. L. 177, as amended.

(c) Section 2502-B of The Administrative Code of 1929, the Act of April 9, 1929, P. L. 177, as amended, in so far as same is in conflict with the provisions of this Reorganization Plan.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, this resolution that we are being asked to approve today is certainly an anti-climax.

Last January, the Governor informed the Legislature that it was of the utmost importance that we give him the broadest kind of power to reorganize the state government to promote efficiency and economy and to eliminate, merge or consolidate state agencies in order to save the taxpayers money. The Governor was given the authority he asked for in the form he wanted.

House Bill No. 1 was enacted virtually unchanged, even though it was our position that it was unconstitutional to make a law by a simple resolution, when our constitution requires that bills be read for three successive days in each branch of the legislature, with a roll-call on final passage. We now have before us Reorganization Plan No. 1.

This plan does two things. First, it makes the State Planning Board an advisory board in the Governor's office instead of a departmental Board in the Department of Commerce. Second, it strips from the State Planning Board most of its present powers and transfers them by simple resolution to the Secretary of Commerce.

Under the law as it now stands, the Planning Board has the supervision of housing authorities, redevelopment authorities and limited dividend housing companies. Under this plan one man will exercise this control instead of a majority of six on the Planning Board. Under present law the Planning Board has the power of eminent domain which it can exercise only on the vote of six of its members. Under the Governor's plan, one man will exercise this authority without being required to consult with anyone. Under the present law the State Planning Board can report directly to the Governor, in fact, it is required to report to the Governor on any recommendations it has for the economic improvement of Pennsylvania. This plan does not change that. It does give the Secretary of Commerce vast powers that this office does not now possess. When we look back into the purpose of the State Reorganization Act and then look over this plan, we can only ask, does this plan save the taxpayers any money? It not only does not save any money but it will increase costs.

I would like to call to your attention that the Department of Commerce appropriation is to be increased $100 thousand dollars. Does it consolidate two or more agencies? It does not. It makes two independent agencies where there was one before. Does it eliminate overlapping? No, it does not, because now we will have two department—the Department of Commerce and the Department of Internal Affairs, dealing with our political subdivisions. We cannot find that this plan carries out any of the purposes of the State Reorganization Act.

However, rather than be termed obstructionists we will vote for the plan even though the whole thing, we think, is a farce. Here in this plan on page five we find the Governor requesting the transfer to the Department of Commerce of all the powers now vested in the Planning Board on housing, under a 1949 law. But we have a bill, introduced with the Governor's blessing, which would do the same thing in the regular constitutional way.

Why are you doing this? The Governor tells us why. He says he needs House Bill 1486 and I recommend that all of you look at House Bill 1486 because he says contracts made by the planning board are involved. In other words, the Governor does not think his plan is any more constitutional than we think it is. He wants to be sure there will not be any court actions which will throw out the whole thing and confirm what we said here on the floor of this House last January when we passed the bill.

By the way, this press release from the Governor's office was dated May 25, 1955 when the administration bill was introduced in the House, wherein he says, "the bill seeks the approval of the General Assembly in transferring housing and redevelopment functions of the State Planning Board to the Department of Commerce." He says in his press release the bill is necessary for legal purposes, the Planning Board has many existing contracts and agreements with various housing and redevelopment authorities and private builder operators. Therefore, it is necessary, he said, to make the transfer legal or it will require legislative approval. We have an anamalous situation here of doing one thing by this reorganization plan, and then to make assurance doubly sure you have introduced House Bill 1486 to do practically the same thing which is what we said you would have to do anyhow in order to stay within our Constitution. If the Governor believes so much in this Reorganization Act, why doesn't he stand on this plan? Why introduce a bill to do the same thing? We know the answer, you know the answer and in the end the people will know the answer. This whole reorganization scheme has nothing but a political smoke screen in back of it, a red herring that has failed, but because we are now calling your bluff, we are going to vote for the plan. I might say that if I were an employe of this Commonwealth and would lose my job by reason of the Reorganization Plan, a ripper plan transferring one department to another, I certaintly would go into the courts and sue the Commonwealth for my salary because I had been fired under a reorganization act which the courts, I am sure, will say is unconstitutional.

Mr. READING. Mr. Speaker, I was glad to hear the gentleman say the Members of the Minority party are going to vote for this resolution. We think it is a step forward and, while the administration may not be moving as fast on reorganization as we would like, nevertheless we are making some progress.

So without further ado let us vote and adopt this plan and look forward to further reorganization under House Bill No. 1.

Mr. AUKER. Mr. Speaker, having voted against the original reorganization bill, I am not going to follow my party leaders. and vote for this. No one has been able to show me where it is going to save this Commonwealth any money. My stand now is the same as it was then. When the Governor comes in here and shows us plans of reorganization that will save this state money, then I will be for them. Until he does that, I am going to be against it.

Mr. AUKER. Mr. Speaker, I request a slow roll call and to ask that only those answering to their names be recorded.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

SENIOR ASSISTANT PARLIAMENTARY COUNSEL WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. We have the honor today of having as our guest the Honorable Henry P. Rowe, Senior, Assistant Parliamentary Counsel of London.

The Chair is quite certain that when the Honorable gentleman returns to his native habitat he will report to the world at large that the Pennsylvania House of Representatives was the most orderly parliamentary group he has ever had the experience of witnessing.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1288 MADE A SPECIAL ORDER

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 1288, Printer's No. 403, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act approved the first day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 905) entitled "An act for the protection of the public safety regulating the use of highways and the operation of vehicles tractors street cars trackless trolley omnibuses bicycles pedestrians and the riding of animals upon the highways of this Commonwealth providing for the titling including liens encumbrances and legal claims registration of certain vehicles and licensing the operators thereof upon payment of prescribed fees prescribing and limiting the powers of local authorities to deal with the subject matter of this act conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue the Department of Highways peace officers mayors burgesses magistrates aldermen justices of the peace the courts and the clerks thereof owners of vehicles and garage keepers providing that records are admissible as evidence imposing upon owners counties cities boroughs incorporated towns townships within the Commonwealth liability for damages caused by the negligent operation of their motor vehicles imposing penalties imposing certain costs upon counties providing for the disposition of fines forfeitures fees and miscellaneous receipts making an appropriation and providing for refunds" by increasing annual registration fees for certain commerical motor vehicles truck tractors trailers and semi-trailers prescribing additional equipment requirements for certain vehicles changing the maximum gross weights and axle loads allowed for certain vehicles changing the requirements for weighing vehicles and removal of excess loads prescribing and changing penalties providing for confiscation and sale of vehicles and the divestiture of titles liens and encumbrances in default of payment of certain fines and for disposition of their loads and imposing duties upon operators owners magistrates and sheriffs on page 28 of today's calendar, bills on third reading be made a special order of business immediately.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I feel that this is a pinch play on the big truck bill. I have always tried to be fair in my dealings in the House of Representatives. I know that the Governor is having his reception today and I know that if we make this a special order of business there will be a lot of debate on this particular measure.

I request that we vote this motion down and pass this bill over until tomorrow when we will not be troubled with the Governor's reception.

Mr. AUKER. Mr. Speaker, I have not always agreed with my friend on the other side, Mr. Lovett, but I certainly do in this case.

Yesterday there were two amendments put in this bill that raised the license fees on smaller trucks, as I understand it, trucks that are not affected by the weight limitations of the bill. I really think this bill should go over for a time until we get the sentiment from the people who are going to be affected by those amendments before we vote on this bill.

I sincerely ask the Members on my side of the House to vote down this motion.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, may I request that it be a slow roll call and only those answering to their name be recorded?

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman insist upon a roll call?

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I insist upon a roll call.

The SPEAKER. Is the insistence seconded?

Mr. AUKER. Mr. Speaker, I second the request for a roll call.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Section 4 Section eight hundred eleven of said act as last amended by the act approved the twenty-ninth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 2329) is further amended to read as follows

Section 811 Brakes

(a) Every [motor] vehicle using the highways of this Commonwealth except trailers and semi-trailers having chassis and body weights of less than one thousand (1000) pounds shall be equipped with brakes adequate to control the movement of and to stop and to hold such vehicle Brakes shall be capable of stopping the vehicle and its load if any traveling at a speed of twenty (20) miles per hour upon a dry hard approximately level stretch of highway free from loose material where the grade does not exceed one (1) per centum within the following distances namely fifty-five (55) feet for parking brakes forty (40) feet for service brakes effective upon less than all wheels and thirty (30) feet for service brakes effective upon all wheels Brakes shall be maintained in good working order and so adjusted upon vehicles other than motorcycles and bicycles with motors attached as to operate as equally as practicable with respect to the wheels on opposite sides of the vehicles [including]

(b) Every motor vehicle using the highways of this Commonwealth except motorcycles and bicycles with motors attached shall be equipped with two (2)separate means of applying the brakes [each of which means shall be effective to apply the brakes to at least two (2) wheels If these two (2) separate means of applying the brakes are connected in any way they shall be] so constructed that failure of any one (1) part of the operating mechanism shall not leave the motor vehicle without operative brakes on at least two (2) wheels One such means shall be a parking brake employing a ratchet and pawl or other suitable locking and releasing mechanism effective to lock at least two (2) rear wheels on opposite sides of the vehicle The other such means shall be a service brake effective upon all wheels of every such motor vehicle sold new in this Commonwealth on or after the first day of January one thousand nine hundred thirty-six and upon at least two (2) wheels of every other such motor vehicle

[(b)] (c) Every motorcycle and bicycle with motor attached using the highways of this Commonwealth shall be provided with at least one (1) brake which may be operated by hand or foot

[(c)] (d) Every combination of a commercial motor vehicle and trailer or truck tractor and semi-trailer [having a chassis and body weight of one thousand (1000) pounds or more] when operated upon a highway shall be equipped with brakes [adequate to control the movement of and to stop and to hold such vehicle for at least fifteen (15) minutes and] so designed as to be applied upon both vehicles by the driver of the towing motor vehicle from its cab [and said] The brakes shall be so designed and connected that in case of an accidental breakaway of the towed vehicle the brakes thereof shall be automatically applied and stop and hold such vehicle for at least fifteen (15) minutes

(e) The authority conferred by clause (d) of section four hundred nine of this act upon the secretary shall not operate to reduce the brake requirements of any commercial motor vehicle or combination of commercial motor vehicle and trailer or truck tractor and semi-trailer below the standards established for those types of vehicles by the Interstate Commerce Commission

[(d) Every new motor vehicle trailer or semi-trailer sold in this Commonwealth on and after January first one thousand nine hundred thirty-six and operated upon the highways shall be equipped with service brakes upon all wheels of every such vehicle except any motorcycle and except that any semi-trailer having a chassis and body weight of less than one thousand (1000) pounds need not be equipped with brakes

(e) On a day hard approximately level stretch of highway free from loose material where the grade does not exceed one (1) per centum the service brakes upon any motor vehicle or combination of vehicles except as herein provided shall be adequate to stop such vehicle or vehicles when traveling at a speed of twenty (20) miles per hour within a distance of thirty (30) feet or at a rate corresponding to such performance

(f) Under the above conditions the emergency brake shall be adequate to stop such vehicle or vehicles within a distance of fifty-five (55) feet and said emergency brake shall be adequate to hold such vehicle or vehicles stationary upon any grade upon which operated

(g) Under the above conditions the service brakes upon a motor vehicle equipped with two wheel brakes only and when permitted hereunder shall be adequate to stop the vehicle within a distance of forty (40) feet and the emergency brake shall be adequate to stop the vehicle within a distance of fifty-five (55) feet ,

(h) All braking distances specified in this section shall apply to all vehicles mentioned whether such vehicles are not loaded or are loaded to the maximum capacity permitted under this act

(i) All brakes shall be maintained in good working order and shall be so adjusted as to operate as equally as practicable with respect to the wheels on opposite sides of the vehicle]

Penalty Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of twenty-five ($25) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days

Section 5 Said act is further amended by adding thereto after section eight hundred twenty-one a new section to read as follows

Section 821.1 Minimum Engine Capacity Every commercial motor vehicle and every combination of a commercial motor vehicle and trailer or of a truck tractor and semi-trailer when used on a highway shall be equipped with an engine capable of propelling such vehicle or combination up a grade of two perc entupm (2%) at a speed of not less than twenty (20) miles per hour when such vehicle or combination is loaded to the maximum gross weight allowed by section nine hundred three of this act

Penalty Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days

Section 6 Section nine hundred three of said act as last amended by the act approved the twenty-seventh day of April one thousand nine hundred forty-five (Pamphlet Laws 328) and amended in part by the acts approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (Pamphlet Laws 1412) the twenty-eighth day of September one thousand nine hundred fifty-one (Pamphlet Laws 1557) the twenty-fifth day of July one thousand nine hundred fifty-three (Pamphlet Laws 554) and approved the twenty-sixth day of August one thousand nine hundred fifty-three (Pamphlet Laws 1455) is further amended to read as follows

[(i) Maximum gross weights provided in this section are permissible only under conditions where no other restrictions are provided in this act or in any other laws regulating the gross maximum weight of vehicles]

Penalty Any person operating any vehicle or combination of vehicles [except motor buses and motor omnibuses] upon any highway with a gross weight or with weight on any [pair of axles or on any one] axle or wheel exceeding by more than [five (5)] three (3) per centum the maximum weight allowed in that particular case [and not exceeding by more than ten (10) per centum the maximum weight allowed] shall [in each case] upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay the costs of prosecution and a fine [of twenty-five (25) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days and any person operating any vehicle or combination of vehicles except motor buses and motor omnibuses on any highway with a gross weight or with weight on any one pair of axles or on any one axle or wheel exceeding by more than ten (10) per centum the maximum weight allowed in that particular case shall in each case upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of fifty ($50) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than ten (10) days] for each and every pound of excess above the maximum weight allowed according to the following schedule

If the excess is	The fine for each and every pound of excess shall be
Not over 3,000 pounds	2 cents
Over 3,000 pounds but not over 4,000 pounds	4 cents
Over 4,000 pounds but not over 5,000 pounds	6 cents
Over 5,000 pounds but not over 6,000 pounds	8 cents
Over 6,000 pounds	10 cents

Provided that in any case in which there shall be concurrent violations of more than one of the clauses of this section prescribing maximum weights the penalty imposed shall be for violation of that clause which produces the greatest fine but no penalty shall be imposed for violation of any other such clause

Any person operating a vehicle or combination of vehicles in violation of clause (g) of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay the costs of prosecution and a fine of twenty-five ($25) dollars

In default of payment of any fine and costs of prosecution imposed pursuant to the foregoing provisions of this penalty clause the magistrate shall declare the vehicle or combination of vehicles confiscated and order the peace officer to seize them and the load The magistrate shall forthwith order the operator in custody of the peace officer to deliver said vehicle or combination of vehicles and load to such off-the-highway parking area or other storage facility as the magistrate shall designate Any operator who shall fail neglect or refuse to comply with such order shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to undergo imprisonment for thirty (30) days and in such case the magistrate shall employ a competent person at the expense of the Commonwealth to deliver the vehicle or combination of vehicles and load as aforesaid The cost of such employment and all parking or storage charges shall be deemed additional costs of presecution After confiscation as aforesaid title and possession of the vehicle or combination of vehicles shall be in the Commonwealth and the title of the former owner and all other liens encumbrances or other interests of other persons shall be divested Title to the load shall remain in the owner thereof and he shall be entitled to repossess it at any time upon presentation of proof of such ownership If the load shall consist of raw farm products or other perishable goods and the name and address of the owner thereof be known to the magistrate he shall send a notice to said owner by telegram informing him of the place where repossession of the load may be had upon proof as aforesaid provided that if the load shall spoil during possession by the Commonwealth the loss shall be upon the owner thereof subject to any right of recovery of damages at common law that he may have against the former owner of the vehicle or combination of vehicles and the cost of disposition thereof shall be deemed an additional cost of prosecution The magistrate shall forthwith issue an order to the sheriff of the county commanding him to sell at public sale such vehicle or combination of vehicles and the load also if the latter remain unclaimed as herein provided Within five (5) days after receipt of such order the sheriff shall begin the advertisement of said sale which advertisement shall appear once a week for three (3) successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation within the county provided that such sale shall be held not less than thirty (30) days after the beginning of advertisement as aforesaid At least thirty (30) days prior to such sale the sheriff shall post notices by registered mail to each person whose name and address are conspicuously marked upon the exterior of the vehicle or combination of vehicles or upon any registration card manifest waybill or other papers conspicuously placed within the vehicle or combination of vehicles as being the owner conditional vendor bailor lessor mortgagee or other party having an interest in the vehicle or combination of vehicles or load and such notice shall state the date time and place of public sale and the amount of the fine and all costs of prosecution and further that at any time prior to such sale any such person having an interest in the vehicle or combination of vehicles may have the title and possession thereof retransferred to the former owner by paying to the sheriff the amount of the fine and all costs of prosecution accrued to the date of payment and that at any time prior to such sale the owner of the load may repossess it upon presentation of proof of such ownership but that otherwise the load will be sold at said sale Unless such retransfer or repossession as the case may be shall occur the sheriff shall sell separately the vehicle or combination of vehicles and the load at public sale as aforesaid to the highest bidders and execute and deliver to them evidences of transfer of title The proceeds of sale of the vehicle or combination of vehicles shall be first devoted to the payment of all costs of prosecution including employment costs costs of disposing of perishable goods and parking and storage charges as aforesaid and the balance shall be disposed of as provided in section twelve hundred seven of this act The proceeds of sale of the load shall be transmitted to the owner thereof if known to the sheriff otherwise they shall be transmitted to the Department of Revenue for deposit to the Motor License Fund The magistrate and sheriff shall be entitled to the same fees to which they are entitled by law for similar services provided that the fee of the magistrate for arranging for parking or storage shall be five ($5) dollars and for each order of sale directed to the sheriff shall be five ($5) dollars and provided further that the fee of the sheriff for each notice of sale posted by registered mail as aforesaid shall be five ($5) dollars Neither the peace officer magistrate person employed by the magistrate to deliver the vehicle or combination of vehicles and load nor sheriff shall incur any liability whatsoever by virtue of any act done in pursuance of the provision of this section Violation of this section by any person shall not affect his operating privilege or his privilege to apply for an operator's license or learner's permit under any other section of this act

Section 7 Section nine hundred four of said act as last amended by the act approved the twenty-fourth day of August one thousand nine hundred fifty-one (Pamphlet Laws 1368) is further amended to read as follows

Section 904 Officers May Weigh Vehicles and Require Removal of Excess Load Any peace officer who shall be in uniform and shall exhibit his badge or other sign of authority having reason to believe that the gross weight of a vehicle or combination of vehicles or the weight upon any axle or pair of axles thereof [and load] is unlawful is authorized to weigh the same either by means of portable or stationary scales or may require that such vehicle or combination of vehicles be driven to the nearest stationary scales in the event such scales are within a distance of two (2) miles [The] If the gross weight or weight upon any axle shall exceed the maximum weight allowed therefor the peace officer may [then] and if such excess is more than three (3) per centum of such maximum weight allowed he shall require the operator to [unload immediately such portion of the load as may be necessary to decrease the gross weight of such vehicle or combination of vehicles] reduce or rearrange the load so as to bring the gross weight or weight upon an axle to not more than the maximum [gross] weight allowed [specifield in this act] except as herein provided for special permits [And further provided That no arrest shall be made or information brought in cases where the maximum gross weights provided in this act are not exceeded by more than five (5) per centum thereof] Provided however that the peace officer shall not require the operator to reduce or rearrange the load of any vehicle or combination of vehicles regardless of excess weight if he shall find that all of such load is being transported upon orders of the United States Government or consists of articles or substances which are explosive noxious or othewise dangerous to disturb

Penalty Any [person refusing to unload excess weight when so ordered or violating any of] operator who shall fail neglect or refuse to comply with the requirements of a peace officer given pursuant to the [other] provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of [fifty ($50)] one hundred ($100) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than [five (5)] thirty (30) days In addition to the foregoing penalty the Secretary may suspend the operating privilege of the operator for a period of thirty (30) days

Section 8 Sections one two and three of this act shall become effective the first day of the registration year commencing in one thousand nine hundred fifty-six Sections four and five of this act shall become effective the first day of the registration year commencing in one thousand nine hundred fifty-seven Section six and seven of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, may I ask unanimous consent of this House to have made part of today's Journal my remarks on House Bill 1288 contained within this statement?

The SPEAKER. Without objection the statement will be filed with the Clerk and will be printed in the Journal. The Chair hears no objection.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, there is no clear-cut answer to this problem of truck weights. At best we must weigh various and conflicting elements.

My part of Pennsylvania is more than ordinarily handicapped by adverse freight charge differentials. Naturally, locally we would stand to gain if these added weights could operate without exacting a penalty.

And as I see it, Mr. Speaker, ultimately and inescapably this bill will lead to increased gasoline taxes to meet the increased maintenance charges of our roads.

There is a wide range of opinion as to just how much heavy truck loads do damage our roads. There are many factors: weather, frost, wear, erosion and the like. Moreover, certain criticisms of the Maryland road tests are due considered reckoning.

However, making due allowances, it seems manifest to me that heavy truck loads do inflict great damage. The application of the loads are in the nature of what is known in physics as a dynamic application of load. A purely dynamically applied load in physics is held to be double the amount statically applied.

Now, Mr. Speaker, when a dynamically applied load works upon an area of road whose under foundation has been washed away, in other words, when pumping takes place, great damage is done. And our Pennsylvania hillside roads, subject to great run-offs of water, are especially vulnerable to pumping.

A significant test ground in support of these conclusions exists in my own county upon Route 62, the Allegheny Highway, which continues along the Allegheny River north of Tionesta. This concrete road is subjected to a heavy coal haulage from the Clarion County coal fields north of Warren. The heavily loaded trucks are all northbound; empties, southbound.

Although this observation is primarily impressionistic, still the damage on the right side of Route 62, the path of the heavily laden trucks, is so overwhelmingly greater than on the left side, looking north, the path of the less heavily laden vehicles, that the difference is immediately and patently evident to even the most casual observer.

For these reasons, and for many reasons too extended and lengthy to outline here today, I have personally felt that an initial error was committed in raising axle weights above 18,000 pounds.

In the light of these views, Mr. Speaker, the workings of House Bill 1288 spell added taxes to me. And, parenthetically, may I say that in the past I never was in the least influenced by arguments: railroads versus truckers. My reasons for past big truck opposition rest on the intrinsic facts and logic of the case.

It certainly would be a wonderfully constructive thing for our economy, indeed, if we could benefit from heavier and more efficient load carrying combinations, if we did not have to pay so heavy a price.

Now, I visualize the use of these extra weight limits to work out something along the following lines for my own county.

Penalties for violations have been drastically increased for overweights. This is a good thing.

However, although House Bill 1288 would change much, still it would not change human nature.

Inexorably, human nature will prevail. The tendency to overload will go on. Not even this bill meets some of the recorded violations of the past.

But with such severe penalties, the incentive to escape police surveillance will drive overweight malefactors of the future to take to the back roads.

Already our own countryside has been entertained by such "cops-and-robbers" kind of chases.

Logically, under House Bill 1288 such episodes should multiply.

And as they multiply, Mr. Speaker, so will the damage to our lighter constructed roads mount. Considered statewide, the aggregate damage can soar to enormous totals.

Then, of course, the Highway Department will be inexorably set to clamor for more money, which means higher gasoline taxes.

Ultimately, the chickens will come home to roost right here in this Chamber. We will face the unpalatable obligation of furnishing the monies to meet a greatly accelerated maintenance cost for our Highways.

We will face this unpleasant call to duty at a time when Pennsylvania's taxpayers are growing increasingly restive in the face of insatiable tax demands. I doubt that these taxpayers will feel that the economic gains for Pennsylvania which may accrue under House Bill 1288 will over-balance the onerous task of reaching for more taxes to foot the bill—the ultimate bill for added truck weights.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Lovett.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Moran.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Lovett, yields to the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Moran.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, the bill before us is House Bill 1288, or what we call the big truck bill. I rise to oppose this bill and, although we have this reception coming on this afternoon, I could stand here for two hours and a half with data showing why this bill should not be passed.

The SPEAKER. I would remind the gentleman, without the consent of the House he could not prevail for two hours and a half.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, if I talked for two hours and a half I understand that probably I would lose votes rather than gain them, therefore, I am going to be very brief.

Every Member of this House knows what this bill does, or should know. I ask my floor leader to pass this over for a time until we could study it and also get the reaction from our constituents, but he did not see fit to do that, so I am a little bit unprepared to really hit this on the nose.

For years the battle in the Legislature was the fight between the trucking industry and the railroads of Pennsylvania. These two giants of transportation practically came to blows in every session of the General Assembly over whether or not the "big box cars" should be taken from the tracks and placed on the roads and highways of this Commonwealth.

Today we read in the papers that a "truce" has been signed and the opposition to the big truck or "big box car" bills, by the railroads, is no more. In this case the home owner and the taxpayers of Pennsylvania will have to stand on their own feet and fight for their own rights.

To give permission to the trucking corporations of Pennsylvania to increase the weights of the trucks now used on the highway under the pretense of heavier fines for over-loading and a raise in license fees does not begin to solve the problem of what is to become of the roads and the streets maintained by our counties, boroughs, townships and cities in our Commonwealth.

The increase in monies received from the trucks does not begin to pay for the maintenance for what these trucks do to the streets and roads and the bridges of our local communities.

Regardless of what propaganda is sent out by the truck lobbies that increased weights, based on axle loads, does not destroy our highways and bridges, one need only compare the roads of the states permitting excessive weights to the fine network of roads that Pennslyvania has built up at terrific expense.

We must remember that the greater part of the monies collected from gasoline taxes that are used to build roads comes from the automobile owner. The automobile does not damage our roads but they do pay a very unfair share of the cost of maintaining our roads.

The little home owner in the local communities is the one who subsidizes our trucking industry. When their street is paved their property is assessed for their share of the cost of paving that street. They continue to pay real estate taxes at a high rate to maintain it, although their home or their private automobile does not destroy the street and they must continue to pay real estate taxes for the resurfacing of the street or the rebuilding of the street damaged by the big trucks. In other words, their taxes are used to subsidize the trucking industry. The little home owners cannot maintain a lobby to protect their interests, but the trucking industry through high profits in their business can afford to maintain a lobby in Harrisburg and in every capitol to keep on increasing truck weights until they have practically driven the individual car owner off the highway.

In view of the above, I believe that it is fair for the trucking industry of Pennsylvania, if it wants to increase the weights on the trucks to equal Ohio and New York state, to be called upon to pay the same taxes for the use of the bridges, the roads and the streets of Pennsylvania as they do in Ohio, New York and other states.

This statement that I am making now, while it fits the question of this bill before the House today, was prepared for use with a bill I presented, patterned after the same bills used in the states where heavier loads are permitted providing that trucks operating in Pennsylvania shall pay a mile usage tax based on the miles traveled and the load carried. The monies collected from this special tax would not be used on state maintained roads, but all monies would be distributed to the local boroughs, twonships and cities in proportion to the mileage of streets they have in their communities and their population.

Everybody here lives in a community that is confronted with streets badly in need of repair that cannot be resurfaced out of real estate taxes. If we permit the excessive weights asked for in the bill before you, ladies and gentlemen, which I understand has been presented without assuring the home owners back home that their streets are going to be taken care of, then I say to you the railroad opposition to this bill that has been experienced in the past will be nothing compared to what you will hear from the people in your districts demanding that money be supplied to properly maintain the streets and roads in your community.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny yield?

Mr. MORAN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Smith, take the Chair for a few moments?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH IN THE CHAIR.

I am sure honest political leaders will rise back home who will protect the little home owner from the truckers well-financed lobby.

I hope the Highway Committee will consider bill I have presented relative to mileage consideration, and I was hoping that bill would come out before this bill that is in front of you now.

Mr. Speaker, I have here data that goes back over the years relative to heavy trucking, damaging of roads. I am not going to go into that, it will take too much time. As I said when I started out, I could spend two hours and a half presenting this data, which I will not do.

I would like to call your attention, though, to the fact that in Pennsylvania there are more than forty-eight thousand bridges that are not capable of carrying the weights of the trucks as they are at present. What is going to happen to those bridges with the increased weights and who is going to pay for those bridges in case they have to be repaired or rebuilt?

Ladies and gentlemen, in all fairness to the people in your community, I urge you to vote against this bill.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. First, Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman from Allegheny as to the bridges. Township bridges, of course, can be posted the same as they are now. You know and I know that many bridges are posted three tons and are carrying thirty.

As far as this bill's increasing the weight-carrying capacity of trucks, I think we should get this straight, it does not. That seems to be the bugaboo in the bill, people think we are going to sixty-two thousand pounds. We have had sixty-two thousand pounds for twenty years and we have been hauling it on the same number of axles that we are asking to have legalized now.

I think probably the older Members of the House will remember that I have voted against the so-called big truck bill since 1949. The reason I voted against it was because I felt the bills lacked certain things that they should have contained, that they were not stiff enough in fines and that there were many other features that were objectionable.

I feel that 1288 is a good bill. I think the objectionable features have been removed. I was not exactly enthusiastic over the amendments offered yesterday and voted against them, but we have them and, if you want to study them, I do not think anybody is getting hurt too much. Passenger car fees are going to be raised, and certainly all they are asking for on the smaller trucks is not going to be painful and percentage-wise will be much less than the increase that will be asked for on passenger cars.

We in Pennsylvania have been very fortunate in our license fees. In New York state I had a fleet of trucks for a number of years, a small fleet I paid a very large amount of money in excess of what I pay here for the same kind of trucks, and, believe me, brother, that is not all you pay up there either.

I would like to discuss just briefly, and it will be brief, Mr. Speaker, the allowable load, in case some might not have it straight, of A truck and a trailer that has been legalized for a number of years at sixty-two thousand pounds. That is a double bottom, that is a truck that carries part of the load and the trailer carries the other part. Under our present law you can have two axles under a trailer and two under your truck and you are good for forty-five thousand pounds. That is on a tractor, but if that tractor is a truck and carries some of the load then you can haul sixty-two pounds.

There has been some argument as to whether the truck and trailer or the tractor and trailer was the most damaging to the highways. I think you will see here today evidence exhibited that will probably bring out very clearly that the tractor and trailer is less damaging to the highway with the same load. You do not get the same amount of switching. You follow these trucks and trailers and you will notice that the bodies, so to speak, are wobbling all over the highway.

I do not think that I am going to start reading this thing, there are a lot of facts here that I intended to bring out, but I think that can be done by others. I think the main part of this is that we need to do something in Pennsylvania about our truck weights. In other states these trucks can carry the amount of weight that we are asking for; here they cannot.

The fee for the license has been increased in proportion to the amount of increase in weight, except on those amendments that were offered yesterday, and, as I say, they are small. The fines have been increased to a degree that it discourages over-loading and I am of the sincere opinion that under 1288, if this law is passed and signed by the Governor, that your highways will be carrying less weight per unit than they are carrying today. Today, you can send a half dozen trucks out heavily over-loaded and you pay a fine on one or two of those trucks and still be money ahead. That is exactly what they are doing, but under 1288 that will not be possible.

I believe we will have lighter loads, a much better truck law, and I certainly hope the Members of the House see fit to support it.

Mr. HOCKER. Mr. Speaker, up until yesterday, I did not see too much wrong with this bill, and I had in mind voting for it. If you look back over the records, you will find I have voted against big truck bills and I had an idea maybe we were being a little out of order in penalizing our people, but yesterday something happened to this bill which in my mind makes it legal thievery.

This bill was strictly a big truck bill until yesterday. For the benefit of you people who have a lot of farmers in your section, or a lot of people who are using R, S and T tags, you are going to steal money out of those people's pockets and they are not going to receive one nickel's worth of benefit. They are not going to be able to haul more because a half-ton pickup is only capable of hauling so much and they are not going to be able to derive more money. If they wanted more money for truck licenses and passenger car licenses why did they not have enough gumption to put a bill in this House and increase all of them? Why did they tack it on to this so-called big truck bill?

For the benefit of you coal miners—and I hauled many a load of coal out of the hard coal region—you have a lot of boys up there with Y-tag trucks. Those boys are going to go from $120 to $190, and they are not going to derive any benefit unless they have money enough to buy a handsome big piece of equipment.

This is strictly a big man's deal. If you were sent here by big people, vote for it; if you were sent here by ordinary people the way I was, you had better pull in your neck and vote against this bill.

Mr. ANDREWS IN THE CHAIR

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, while I agree in part with the gentleman from Dauphin, I certainly do not agree with him that we should vote against this bill.

I have been for the fair truck bill every session. I am still for the fair truck bill, and I certainly hope that we can get as many votes on this side of the House for it as possible.

The only reason I am objecting to it, Mr. Speaker, is a matter of principle and if I had been here yesterday I would have spoken on the amendments.

Mr. Speaker, this is definitely an example of a bipartisan bill, and you know who I am talking about when I say bipartisan—the young gentleman stood here and talked bipartisan support for everything and what has he done with this bill? He has made it a politically backed bill.

I agree with the gentleman from Dauphin. He spoke about the R, S and T licenses, and I was going to interrogate the Majority Leader, but I don't believe he would have these figures at his finger tips. There would be no reason for him to have them. I would have told this House about these R, S and T tags, who are not going to benefit, and let me elaborate on the R, S and T licenses. An R license is an up to a ton license, an S license is from one ton to a ton and a half, and a T license from a ton and a half to two tons. And not one of those individuals is going to be benefitted by this bill and yet what are we going to do? It is going to bring in $2,500,000 in taxes and that's exactly what the Governor has done by insisting on these amendments.

I might say it seems very peculiar and I certainly don't want to put anybody on the spot, but if you don't play ball the Governor's way, you don't get things evidently. Because it has been threatened that the bill won't go through unless R, S and T are taxed. All I hope is this, that the Members on this side of the House vote for the bill. This bill was agreed upon by the railroads; it was agreed upon by the truckers and it is still agreed upon by them because unfortunately they can't get anything else.

R, S and T should have been put in a separate bill if the Governor needed the money and he should not have tagged it on to this. It isn't fair. It isn't morally fair, it isn't honest and I hope you vote for the bill and put it through and that the Republican Senate tears the R, S and T out and gives us the non-political, bipartisan bill that was originally intended for this House.

Mr. FILO. Mr. Speaker, I think we are forgetting one of the prime reasons why we should oppose this bill.

In the first place I might say that with these amendments we are sneaking through the big truck bill. It is a sneak upon the public of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Moran has stated that before it was a battle between the big railroads and the trucking concerns. I feel it is now a battle between the people of Pennsylvania and the big trucks. The topography of Pennsylvania is like no other state that surrounds us. True, they have big truck bills, big weight trucks in the surrounding states, but one has to look back just a few weeks where a big rig in San Francisco came down a hill and killed seven people. That particular area in San Francisco is the same as the topography in Pennsylvania. Hundreds of people are going to be maimed and killed. For that reason, Mr. Speaker, I am opposing the bill.

Mr. BOIES. Mr. Speaker, very briefly I just want to clarify one point. It seems that a good many Members of the House are under the impression that the Gore bill, presently in Congress, would have an adverse effect on Pennsylvania unless this big truck bill is passed before July 1st.

The only reason it would have an adverse effect is if you would try to pass the bill after July 1st and change the weights. If the weights of the trucks remain as they are now, Pennsylvania will get its fair share of Federal funds just the same. As a matter of fact, the reason that Congress is passing the Gore bill, according to my understanding, is to stop this raise in truck weights. That is the only purpose of passing the Gore bill, as I understand it, because the federal authorities have decided that the destruction of the roads must cease. Somewhere we must call a halt. Anybody who is under the impression that this thing must be rushed through before July 1st or Pennsylvania is going to suffer a loss of Federal Funds, is mistaken, and if we preserve the truck bill as it is now, we will get our funds.

Just one other thing, Mr. Speaker, I would like to say that the railroads have seen fit to sell the citizens of Pennsylvania down the river after their very heart-rending concern for the citizens during the past years. I sat here and almost burst into tears several times at the vast concern the railroads had for the citizens of this state and their roads. Now since that has all evaporated over a damage suit, some say, or something called "piggy backs" the only good thing I can see that will come out of it, is that those of us who are sincerely opposed to the truck bill because it is a bad bill, will not longer be labelled as the servants of the railroads.

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, a moment ago a Member of the House from Allegheny County, the Honorable Mr. Filo, inserted into the record the safety features.

He inserted the record regarding the accident that occurred in San Francisco a few days ago which would indicate to me and to other Members of this House that he definitely would be for this bill, because on pages 13 and 14 there exist the safety feature clauses regarding brakes which I am sure every individual in this Commonwealth desires to have incorporated into the motor trucks that travel our highways.

The safety features of this bill are certainly something that we can be proud of. I am sure that every Member wants to have the best safety regulations on every type of equipment. Most of all this bill would make the braking requirements for trucks as stiff as anywhere in the nation. This bill incorporates braking requirements recommended by the Interstate Commerce Commission, while retaining provisions of the present law in instances where present requirements are more stringent.

This is a typical example of safety features which should be on trucking equipment. The safety features of this bill also fix horsepower standards for the first time by requiring all trucks to be powered sufficiently to haul their loads up a two per cent grade at twenty miles an hour. Now, twenty miles an hour is a fairly decent speed in the transportation of weights. I do believe that with this particular move we are going in the right direction as far as the safety features of this bill are concerned.

I should like to state that at present any type of tractor, regardless of powering, can be used to haul trailers. The inclusion of the horsepower requirements in this bill is definitely a good step forward in the matter of truck safety.

Also, I should like to state that when I speak of stronger safety requirements for trucks, I am in no way casting reflection on the driving ability of our truck drivers. I at one time drove a truck for a living, interstate freight. I can truthfully say in my honest opinion of the men with whom I worked and the opportunity that I had to observe those men, that they are by far the greatest practitioners of safety that you will ever see in this world. There are those who cast reflection upon particular individuals who are engaged in any profession or occupation. You have such reckless people, there is no doubt about that. So do we in the automobile drivers. But it is a matter of those who practice and believe in the safety features. The men who actually drive the trucks, in my opinion, are the men who are deeply concerned with safety features. Those very men want the same provisions that are in House Bill 1288.

With regard to the action of this House, there are those of us who will at times see opposition to such a bill, but as the bill is now amended, with the features that are incorporated in this bill it is definitely a step in the right direction and its provisions should be in the trucking regulations and requirements in this Commonwealth.

As to the bulk of the truck companies today, I could say that Pennsylvania is a typical example of a motor truck association which definitely leads in the matter of safety. You and I, and many of us who travel the Turnpike each day have noticed throughout the past years the individual companies having safety trucks upon that great road, the Turnpike, taking care of their own particular house cleaning. They have done an outstanding job, because truthfully you must acknowledge the fact that the men who traverse that highway, who lead in the trucking industry, and who are deeply interested in this trucking bill, are the ones who want the incoorporation of these safety measures.

Mr. Speaker, while I am on the subject of safety, I believe it is fitting to give some credit to the different organizations and the different people that have worked with the safety features of this bill. Truthfully, it is a matter of record that over the years the trucking industry has endeavored to bring about a greater code of safety for their own operators. The point that is missed by many people is that there are many truckers and many truck owners who do not follow or abide by any safety regulations, or by any laws that you or I may have the opportunity to pass.

I might say, it was discussed here a moment ago by the gentleman from Dauphin, regarding the men who haul coal from the hard coal regions, that I come from the soft coal region, and I definitely come from a county in which I consider the people are humble, kind, and generous people. Those people elected me and they re-elected me. In my county, a small county, a rural county, a county that hopes to develop and advance so that it may have its proper place within the Comonwealth, we depend upon the trucking industry. We depend upon it in every walk of life, because as the years go on we continue to strive to accomplish the things that are connected with the trucking industry.

Therefore, those kind, humble, gentle people who elected me honestly believe that this legislation is the type that should be supported and enacted. The safety provisions of this bill are the safety provisions that I hope will be incorporated and be made more stringent as the years pass, and with that I sincerely hope that each of us shall see fit to support this bill and enact the fair truck bill.

Mr. FILO. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate Mr. McCann.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Greene permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McCANN. I shall Mr. Speaker.

Mr. FILO. Mr. Speaker, if this truck bill passes, how many of the trucks we have on the highways presently will be equipped with such safety measures as are required under this bill, and how long would it take?

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is well aware that it would be impossible to answer that question as to time and as to the number of trucks. This bill pertains to trucks registered within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, licensed by the Commonwealth. As to the time required to incorporate these features, I can say truthfully that the bona fide trucking organizations of this Commonwealth intend to incorporate these features as fast as possible. As to the other trucks that you speak about which are registered in the Commonwealth, I will agree that it will be a matter of years before some of these features would actually be incorporated on these particular vehicles. I can not answer your question as to definite time and definite numbers.

Mr. FILO: I might say this, Mr. Speaker that under the provisions of this bill we would have no jurisdiction over trucks that are registered out of the state. Is that true?

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, we will have no jurisdiction over trucks are registered out of the state, except those trucks or trailers which operate through the Commonwealth and receive their permits to travel through here. We would have some jurisdiction in that respect. Is that what you mean?

Mr. FILO. Mr. Speaker, In other words, there would be a lot of trucks in the state of Pennsylvania that would not have these safety features. Is that true?

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, they would be within the Commonwealth but they would not have the safety features operating in this Commonwealth, that is true.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. MAXWELL. Mr. Speaker, before the House votes on this bill I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. MAXWELL. Mr. Speaker, I understand that any Member of this House having a personal or private interest in any bill before this House should disclose that fact to the House and thereby disqualify himself from voting on the bill. Is that correct, Mr. Speaker?

The SPEAKER. The Chair informs the gentleman from Westmoreland that in order to be disqualified he must have such an interest as applies only to him. He would not be disqualified if he had an interest that applied to a class and he happened to be a member of that class. He is disqualified only in the event that his interests is personal and individual.

Mr. LEONARD. Mr. Speaker, I am just going to do the same thing that I have been doing ever since I have been a Member of the House when the "box car" truck bill came up. Not that I am against the trucking industry progressing in its business. I want to see them progress, I want to see them make good, but I don't want to see them make good at the expense of humanity. That is the same objection this time that I have had right along.

Carrying a big load and breaking up the roads does not mean a thing, only to create jobs for people who possibly are out of work. But once they run away like they did in San Francisco, which has already been referred to, and they knock off seven people, all the trucks in the United States will never pay for that and provide for the families that were affected by that run-away truck.

We are here for a certain period of time, over which none of us have any control, but while we are about it let us do the things that are going to perpetuate themselves and make life worth while.

I want to add, too, that trucks in the last few years, according to my information, do not need this bill. They are doing the very things they are asking for in this bill, and a lot more. Do you realize there is a human being sitting in that over-loaded truck with inefficient brakes, going down hills like we have in Pennsylvania the same as in San Francisco, and that human being sitting back of that wheel does not recognize his responsibility to stay there and try to bring it to a safe stop.

I am not against the trucking industry, please, but I am for safety. As already referred to by the gentleman from Greene, it is an indictment against the trucking industry when they say at this late date they are going to improve their braking systems something like twenty-five per cent. Why didn't they do that when they went into business? Everybody else knows that enough smash-ups have taken place in the last few years to have given them a good hint that something ought to be done with their brakes. How would you like to be a truck driver when the truck is being overloaded, which the truck driver himself knows, because he is on the job, that the brakes are not in order. The boss says "Now, go ahead, it is all right. I will take care of things," I have had truck drivers tell me that. I don't know it, I am no truck driver.

So I am going to do the same as I have in the past, I will vote "no' until such time as the trucking industry can tell us, "We can stop this truck." When that time comes, I am with them a hundred per cent.

Mr. AUKER. Mr. Speaker, I could if I wanted to by parliamentary procedure tie this House up the rest of the afternoon on this bill.

The SPEAKER. I would like to have the gentleman inform the Speaker as to how he would go about doing that?

Mr. AUKER. Mr. Speaker, by various parliamentary procedures; by appealing from the ruling of the Chair, by attacking the constitutionality of the bill asking for a roll call, and verification of the roll call, by moving to table this bill and asking for a roll call on motion, by verification on that roll call, and I think I can get seconds to do it.

The SPEAKER. Somebody might move the previous question.

Mr. AUKER. Mr. Speaker, I beg your pardon. You asked me how I could do it. I am telling you how I could do it.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman for the information.

Mr. AUKER. I still desire to debate the bill.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is in order to debate the bill and not quarrel with the Chair.

Mr. AUKER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker, I have no quarrel with the Chair, and I trust the Speaker has no quarrel with me.

Mr. Speaker, I have listened with a great deal of interest to the argument put forth by the gentleman from Greene, Mr. McCann, favoring the bill and as a proponent of the bill mainly in regard to the safety features attached to the bill as respects brakes.

That is entirely beside the point as regards this bill. This bill is a big-weight bill on trucks, nothing more and nothing less. We sat here and listened to past bills, discussions of safety of motor vehicles on the highway, and if these safety measures in regard to these big trucks are as important as the gentleman from Greene, Mr. McCann, would lead us to believe, why haven't there been separate bills before this? Why aren't there separate bills in this session to take care of this situation and not tack them on to this bill? It is a nice bait, and I hope it does not work.

Mr. GIBSON. Mr. Speaker, I will be very brief. Much has been said in regard to the safety measures of this bill, the size of the trucks and the hazards to the public, and so on.

However, I think an important fact has not sufficiently been emphasized, and that is the importance of increasing the capacity of the trucks in order to help the industry in Pennsylvania.

On these other points, safety and so on, I can not help feel that if other states surrounding Pennsylvania are able to survive and live with their trucks, and we do when we travel in these other states, I think we can do it in Pennsylvania.

I think we need relief. I think our industry needs relief in regards to increasing the capacity of their truck loads.

I have thought from time to time, and after seeing the trucks travel the roads of Pennsylvania it has reminded me shallow depth canals. With the 45,000 pound load limit it appeared to me our highways were like shallow canals carrying barges. We are unable to utilize the facilities we have today in modern transportation.

By increasing the weight limit on our trucks so that we are in a competitive position with the surrounding states, we are going to make more jobs for Pennsylvanians. We are going to help the home owners that Mr. Moran spoke about.

In today's transportation field the cooperation which is necessary between water transportation, air transportation, railroads and trucking, is recognized, I think, by everyone in this House. It is all part of a pattern that serves the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and serves the industry of this great state.

It is necessary in order to create jobs, it is necessary to give us consumer goods at competitive prices in our homes and our communities scattered throughout the state.

I would urge the membership of this House to do a little digging and deepen the depth of these canals so that we can carry our full share of commerce, and not handicap ourselves with an inadequate load limit which we have had in this state for many years.

Mr. COCHRAN. Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question.

The SPEAKER. The Chair does not believe that is necessary.

Mr. MOSCRIP. Mr. Speaker, is is unfortunate today that this issue has been clouded by a revenue raising measure. Basically this is a truck weight bill. From the standpoint of agriculture, the amendments of yesterday have created a difficult dilemma for a good many men and women in this House today.

I have some figures that have been handed to me hastily. I have not had an opportunity to examine them personally but I think the ratio which they show is accurate and interesting.

Commercial vehicles registered in Pennsylvania are 533,670. Of these 341,213 fall in the R S and T category. Now there is hardly a farm in existence in Pennsylvania today that does not have at least one vehicle on it which comes in this truck classification .

These farmers are going to have to pay more money to operate that truck if this bill passes today.

On the other hand, there is a great deal of merit in the increase of weights from the standpoint of the farmer. No one is more keenly aware of that than I because Bradford County, which is one of the leading producers of fluid milk, ships every drop of that fluid milk to market in tank trucks.

The main idea of the farmer today is to cut his operating overhead. In the long run it is submitted that the increase in weights will cheapen the cost of his transportation, thereby cutting his overhead.

By a political maneuver which makes this bill to a great extent a revenue raising measure, the margin of the cut in his overhead has been severely curtailed. If there is any martyrdom in this business of legislating it should be evident today because the Members of this House are going to be put in the dilemma of balancing the equities, of trying to figure out what is best, particularly for the farmers, and perhaps having to swallow some tactics that definitely go against the grain.

The SPEAKER. Will those who desire to speak consult their respective floor leaders in order that we may ascertain how many desire to speak, and reach an amicable agreement and understanding as to the allotment of time.

The SPEAKER. Does the Minority Floor Leader desire any further assignment of time?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. I understand the gentleman from Clarion, Mr. Varner, would like to speak.

The SPEAKER. What would be the desire of the Majority Leader as to time?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, it is my desire that this matter be debated fully and completely if it takes until midnight.

The SPEAKER. That is perfectly agreeable with the Chair.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I tried in the beginning of this debate to pass this very controversial bill over until tomorrow. But the House saw fit that we should debate the bill today.

I have always tried to be fair as a Member of the House. I realize that the Governor's reception is this afternoon and I would hate to do anything to affect in any way the success of that reception.

The SPEAKER. Might the Chair remark that the Governor cannot have any very sizeable reception until we get there.

The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. LOVETT. May I inform the Chair that the Governor's reception has been set for certain hours. Whether he will accept us at midnight, I do not know.

The debate on this bill comes about to a great extent on the amendments that were offered yesterday. I voted for those amendments. But I felt at the time that they should not be put into this particular bill.

That is the reason why we have this long debate on this bill today. The Minority Floor Leader has seen fit to criticize the administration for putting amendments into this bill for which I can find no fault.

I feel somewhat inclined to agree with the gentleman that the amendments should not have been put in the bill. The reason I make that statement is that we have not yet had an opportunity to vote on the tax program that will supply the money to give other services to the state of Pennsylvania.

I could see no reason why we should at this time raise revenues for the State ighway Department until we had found ways and means of raising the revenue to take care of the necessities of the state of Pennsylvania, because the money that goes into the Highway Department can only be used for highways, and highway improvements and safety on our highways.

That is one of the reasons why I objected to the Floor Leader's motion to make this a special order of business today.

I would like at this time to interrogate the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Waterhouse.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Waterhouse, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HOCKER. Mr. Speaker, The gentleman from Erie stepped out momentarily.

The SPEAKER. The Chair is informed that the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Waterhouse, is not in the Hall of the House.

Mr. LOVETT. We will pass the interrogation over until the gentleman arrives in the House.

The SPEAKER. Tomorrow?

Mr. LOVETT. If necessary, tomorrow.

I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Greene, Mr. McCann.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Greene, Mr. McCann, who is just now entering the Hall of the House permit himself to be interrogated by the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Lovett?

Mr. McCANN. I shall, Mr. Speaker. I was trying to comply with his first request and get Mr. Waterhouse, but if I must act as a substitute I shall try to do so.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, may I inform the gentleman that he is not acting as a substitute.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Greene is notified that he must function as a principal. The gentleman from Westmoreland will proceed.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman in his plea for this bill 1288 stated that he came from a county of people who were very simple and ordinary people—

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, — —

The SPEAKER. The Chair apologizes to the gentleman from Westmoreland and to the gentleman from Greene. he was conferring with the Parlimentarian. What is going on?

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Westmoreland says I come from a county in which the people were, as he quoted, "very simple". I said "very humble," sir. The people of Green County definitely are not simple.

The SPEAKER. In other words, they may be crazy but they are not dumb.

Mr LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, at this time I would like to thank the gentleman from Greene for the fact that he has cleaned the atmosphere in regards to the people of his county, that they are not simple, but he said they were very ordinary people. He said that was one of the reasons why he was voting for this bill, that he felt his people were in favor of this legislation.

May I ask the gentleman if he took any poll of the people of his county in regard to this bill?

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, May I answer the gentleman that I am of the same political party of which he is a member, and I most certainly polled those who had a deep interest in this bill in my political party, and they are for the bill—period—in Greene County.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker does the gentleman say that he only polled the people of his particular party in Greene County?

Mr. McCANN. In Greene County, Mr. Speaker, there are so few people who are of any other party than that to which I belong that it is hard to conduct any other poll.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I congratulate the gentleman from Greene in that he comes from such a wonderful county. May I ask if in the poll of the people he would give me the percentage of those for and against the big truck bill?

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman from Greene desire to answer that question?

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, Mr. Lovett knows quite well that I do not know the actual percentage, but I will give it to him in round figures.

Of the first 100 people I contacted, there were some that were against it, definitely a majority—no percentage figures—were for it.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, one other question I would like to ask the gentleman. I presume he travels the Turnpike, is that correct?

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I travel the Turnpike every week.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman said in his statement that the truck drivers were very safety-minded. May I ask the gentleman if in his travels over the Turnpike he has noticed time and time again that trucks pull out and stop the traffic on the turnpike and if he thinks that is safety?

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I have had the occasion to notice the very thing that he is talking about, but again I repeat, and affirmatively I repeat it, that the greater portion of those bona fide truck drivers who belong to bona fide trucking companies and organizations, are most definitely and fully conscious of every safety regulation, and enforce it twenty-four hours a day while they are driving or working.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman will admit that there are quite a number of them that do pull out and stop traffic?

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I am sure that it has happened to some of the Members of the House. I have not had occasion to have that very incident happen to me, but I would agree that it has happened.

Mr. SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Westmoreland confine his interrogation to those matters that are revelant to the provisions of this bill?

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, may I say that I think the safety question is a very important part of this bill.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. LOVETT. Now, Mr. Speaker, the bill itself was introduced on May 11th, I believe it was amended in this House yesterday. There seems to be a lot of dissatisfaction in regard to the amendments that were offered yesterday and what they mean to our people back home.

In all fairness, I think we should at least be given a period of time in order to hear from those people. I only ask that the bill be delayed for a period of time in order to give that opportunity to the people.

As I stated before, I oppose the idea that we raise revenue for the Highway Department until we have had an opportunity to raise the necessary revenue for the needs of Pennsylvania. That is one of the reasons why I am debating this bill today. I apologize for taking up the time of the House.

I would like if the gentleman from Erie is anywhere but Erie, he seemed to be here and to be very much interested in the legislation, and of course, I do not blame him for taking a walk.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Lovett, desire to interrogate the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Waterhouse?

Mr. LOVETT. I do, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Erie, having been refreshed, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WATERHOUSE. I shall Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, when the gentleman made his statements on the floor in regard to this bill, he said he voted against the amendments that were offered yesterday. Is that correct?

Mr. WATERHOUSE. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, he also said that the revenue that would be derived from this legislation would bring us much nearer, in comparison with the surrounding states, to the revenue that they had. Is that correct?

Mr. WATERHOUSE. That is substantially right, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Then I ask, Mr. Speaker, why did he vote against the amendments?

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, because I felt it would have been much better if the fee raisers had been applied possibly through another bill instead of the truck bill. However, the administration thought otherwise.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I do not wish to delay any further. While I have felt that we should always be fair and above board in our dealings, the amendments that were offered to my mind were not proper at the time.

I agree that if the revenue is needed, the increase in the fees on the trucks is needed in Pennsylvania for the Highway Department, we should vote for that revenue, but I again say to you I think it is unfair that we pass this legislation at this time before we have the opportunity to vote on the necessary taxes to run the state of Pennsylvania.

Mr. VARNER. Mr. Speaker, Mr. Lovett brought up the question of a poll in Greene County. I might tell the Members of the House that out in Clarion County last year on two occasions, once in the Republican primary and again in the general election in November, we had in effect a real poll on where I stood on the truck bill, because, as you may recall, in the 1953 session I sponsored that rather ill-fated measure that fell in this House.

My position on a truck weight bill today remains unchanged. I am still for a fair truck weight bill because I feel that the industries and the working people in my county will profit by a fair truck bill. We are in an isolated rural county, we depend on good motor truck transportation to keep our glass bottle industry alive and that is an undisputed fact.

Now, Mr. Speaker, it is my hope that this question will be finally resolved in this 1955 session of the General Assembly. The truck fees will bring in about $22 million more than are now being brought in—these figures might be a little bit conflicting because I got them out of the newspapers. We certainly can use this additional money on the highways and especially on the rural roads in my county. The extra $2.5 million that reputedly will be brought in by the increased fees on the licenses on the R, S and T trucks, I am not very fond of that provision in the bill, I must confess on the R, S and T increase..

But I am going to go along on this bill because I think it is good for Clarion County and I think it is good for Pennsylvania. I think this will be a great achievement, and probably the outstanding achievement of this session, if we pass this bill.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman who just spoke?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Clarion, Mr. Varner, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. VARNER. Mr. Speaker, I shall if it isn't personal.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman if I understood him correctly that he agrees to vote for an additional tax for the Highway Department under this bill?

Mr. VARNER. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman if he would vote for the tax program to help all the people of Pennsylvania?

Mr. VARNER. Mr. Speaker, that has absolutely nothing to do with this bill. I think this increased license fee on these trucks will help all the people of Pennsylvania.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, as I understood the gentleman, he was pleading for a particular section of the state of Pennsylvania that needs additional revenue in the Highway Department in order to supply the needs of industry in that particular district. Is that correct?

Mr. VARNER. Mr. Speaker, no, that is not correct.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, did the gentleman speak about the glass works and bottle works of his particular district?

Mr. VARNER. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, then was the gentleman not referring to the industry in his own particular section?

Mr. VARNER. Mr. Speaker, I was referring to the industry in my own particular area, but all industry in Pennsylvania certainly needs this truck weight bill.

Mr. LOVETT. I thank the gentleman.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

(Following the calling of the roll and before the result was announced)

Mr. WORLEY. Mr. Speaker, would the Chair direct the Clerk to read the negative votes for the information of the House?

The SPEAKER. There is no occasion for reading the negative votes unless the gentleman requests a verification of the roll and the request is seconded.

CONGRATULATIONS BY SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. The Chair wishes to congratulate the Members of the House upon the temper and the quality of the debate, and upon the decorum during the debate. You are a body today in which any observer could take pride, and in which the Chair is very much gratified. If the critics who criticize us when we are performing routine functions could have been here today to witness your performance, when we have matters of importance in which all Members must participate, they would change the temper of their silly editorials.

MOTION TO RECESS

Mr. GOLDSTEIN. Mr. Speaker, — — —

The SPEAKER. For what purpose does the gentleman from Allegheny rise?

Mr. GOLDSTEIN. For the purpose of making a motion for a recess.

Mr. Speaker, I move that the House take a recess after the current business and that we convene again at 8:00 o'clock p. m. June 7, 1955, Standard Time. We have a big calendar and ought to dispose of it tonight.

The SPEAKER. The Chair does not recognize the gentleman for that purpose.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Mr. LAWYER from the Committee on Judiciary, reported as committed, House Bill No. 511, entitled:

An Act providing for appellate review of sentences in in criminal cases.

Mr. KOLANKIEWICZ from the Committee on Rules, reported as committed, House Resolution No. 64.

Mr. SNIDER from the Committee on Appropriations, re-reported as amended, House Bill No. 794, entitled:

An Act amending the act of January 21 1947 (P L 3) entitled "An act relating to officers and employes of the General Assembly fixing the number qualifications compensation mileage and duties of the officers and employes of the Senate and of the House of Representatives providing for their election or appointment term of office or of service removal and manner of filling vacancies and making appropriations to the Senate House of Represenatives and Legislative Reference Bureau" changing the title of and compensation of certain House employes providing for the appointment of additional employes therein and making appropriations.

Mr. COCHRAN from the Committee on Appropriations, re-reported as committed, House Bill No. 1447, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation from the Motor License Fund to the Department of Property and Supplies for the payment of costs incurred by that Department in acting as purchasing agent for the Department of Highways.

Mr. COCHRAN from the Committee on Appropriations, re-reported as committed, House Bill No. 1448, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation out of the Motor License Fund to the Department of Public Instruction to promote highway safety education.

Mr. COCHRAN from the Committee on Appropriations, re-reported as committed, House Bill No. 1449, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation from the World War II Veterans' Compensation Fund to the Department of Military Affairs for certain administration expenses necessary for the payment of compensation to veterans, as provided by the "World War II Veterans' Compensation Act of 1947."

BILLS ON FIRST READING

Mr. COCHRAN asked and obtained unanimous consent for House Bill No. 1447 to be read for the first time.

Agreeably to order,
The House proceeded to the first reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1447, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation from the Motor License Fund to the Department of Property and Supplies for the payment of costs incurred by that Department in acting as purchasing agent for the Department of Highways.

And said bill having been read at length the first time,

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

WEDNESDAY, June 8, 1955

The House met at 10:00 a. m., Eastern Standard Time. The SPEAKER (Hiram G. Andrews) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. HAROLD J. CROUSE, Pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, York, offered the following prayer:

Grant, we beseech Thee, Almighty God, Thy divine help so that we may live courageously, so that duty may not be drudgery, so that our strength may not leave us, nor our vision fade in the heat and burden of the day.

O Lord, Thou who knowest that we have need before we ask, we pray Thou wilt be with all these servants of this government of the people, by the people and for the people. Refresh them, guide them, bless them and uphold them.

Save them from pride and arrogance. from overconfidence and failure. May they walk in the light of Thy obedience. In the Redeemer's name we pray it, Amen.

BLACK CREEK TOWNSHIP HIGH SCHOOL WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. The Chair welcomes to the Hall of the House a delegation of students from the Black Creek Township High School of Luzerne County who are here under the supervision of their teachers Miss Gertrude Hart and Mr. Joseph Podlesny. They are the guests of the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Meholchick.

FORMER MEMBER WELCOMED

The Chair notes the presence in the House of a former distinguished Member, Mr. George Schwartz, Philadelphia.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. LOPRESTI asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, last night when I returned from the Governor's party I went to a local fraternal association to watch TV. I understood that the distinguished Minority Leader was being interrogated by the press. This morning I regret that the time for introduction of bills has passed because if the time had not passed I would introduce a bill requiring that all television sets that portrayed the distinguished Minority Leader would have to be property adjusted. The set that I looked at was kind of low in height and wide, and the picture of our distinguished Minority Leader resembled that of a Hallowe'en pumpkin.

I listened with interest to the questions and answers up to a certain point, and while we were standing there very intently listening to the gentleman the man in charge of the set went over and turned it off. That is the second reason why I think that we should have a bill, and that bill should provide that when the Minority Leader is making an address the set should not be turned off while other Members of the Legislature are listening because I was very intently listening to the gentleman and was preparing to perhaps give him a little answer this morning. But I was not able to get the end of the program, and I do not know whether he corrected some of the things that he talked about or not.

However, I did hear the expression which I have heard, and I am sure you Members have heard, many times during this session, "fat in the budget." The gentleman referred to fat in the budget. I want to assure the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Smith, that I am just as much interested in economy in our government as he or any member of his party. And I am proud of one fact that this is the one session of the few that I have had a chance to attend, wherein the Members of both sides of the House were given the chance to interrogate or to listen to the interrogation of the various department heads when the budget is being gone over detail by detail. And so I at this time want to say to the Minority Leader and to the members of his party who are on the Appropriations Committee, that we on this side of the House hope that they are making note of the various items in the budget wherein the fat exists, and we hope that if they are economy minded, as we are, that they are making notes and will some day come back to this House and tell us what items they would like to reduce or what items they would eliminate, we will say from the Department of Welfare.

The Secretary of Welfare has been before the Committee and has been examined by that Committee, questions were asked, many of them, and I am kind of interested in knowing just what part of the program the minority would like us to cut out. If there is some fat in there we would like to have the minority give us suggestions. We are going to give them an opportunity, something which, if I recall correctly, we were not given in the last two sessions at least. I can remember at that time when the Speaker was Minority Leader asking repeatedly that we have hearings on the budget and that we on this side of the House be permitted to know what was contained in that budget.

Now, we are giving the minority all of the opportunities in the world to find out wherein the fat exists, wherein our program or the program of the various departments may be in error. Personally I would like to have the minority party come forth with some concrete suggestion. I do not like the general term "fat in the budget." I would like to have pointed out the particular parts of the budget wherein the "fat" lies and I can assure the gentleman from Philadelphia and the Members of the minority party that you will find a sympathetic ear on this side of the House when you bring forth the various parts of this program that should be cut out, or should be changed, or should be amended in some way or another.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

The SPEAKER. The Chair might interrupt to remark that he has read in scientific journals that television is an instrument that envisions and depicts the inner secrets of the human soul.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I think probably you are right, and being on the floor of this House and trying to confuse people probably brings forth the character of a man a lot more than television does.

In the first place, as the gentleman from Cambria just said, if we looked round flat and low, I might say to him that we were talking about probably the lowest subject that could be talked about in the state of Pennsylvania, the lowest and rottenest tax program that has ever been handed to us. I might say that if the gentleman is making a statement like other people have been making and not telling all of the truth, when he said there was fat in the budget, I would suggest to the gentleman that he get a hearing aid. The word "fat" was never mentioned at any time during last night's program and I defy him to show a record on it. If he would like to hear a record of it I have a tape recording, and I will eat these words if the word "fat" was used. Perhaps the gentleman is thinking fat himself, and he knows there is so much fat in the budget that his thoughts are entering into his mind, rather than what he hears.

Another thing I would like to say, if the gentleman had listened correctly, he would have heard us say that there was $200 millions to save in taxes. We still say it. And I would like the gentleman himself to prove some figures. Maybe one of the figures he can account for.

I would like to interrogate the gentleman, Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman so desires.

The SPEAKER. It was a short summer wasn't it?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. The summer is going to be a lot shorter, Mr. Speaker, if we keep getting these things thrown at us.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Lopresti, consent to be interrogated by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Smith.

Mr. LOPRESTI. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. I would like to interrogate the gentleman and ask him if he would know of any reason in the face of the fact that all analysts are saying that this is the best, or one of the best, if not the best, years this nation has ever had, why the Governor is saying that his budget will bring in $220 millions under corporate net, which is less, Mr. Speaker, than it has brought in in other years.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, I am not a financial expert and I do not know why the Governor has said what he has said, if he has said it.

I did not propose this morning to create a discussion of the nature that Mr. Smith has brought up. However, I will say this, if these things that he has mentioned are true, we believe that it is your duty to bring them out and that is all that I have pointed out in my address to the gentleman this morning, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I tried to bring that out last night but I seem to be criticized for bringing it out. Not being a financial expert myself but just a human being, perhaps the gentleman can tell us in regard to the inheritance tax, which means when people die, and parenthetically I think if this tax program goes through there will be a lot more dead from the shock—why the Governor would say that through inheritance taxes alone in the next biennium he estimates $55 millions when the actual take in the last biennium was $69 millions. Might I ask, does he think less people or less rich people are going to die?

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, in answer to that I would say that under the Democratic administration it is likely that less people will die than under the Republican administrations because we are going to feed them properly, and we are going to have a welfare program which will tend to increase their lifetime.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. That could be another little interesting subject, Mr. Speaker. The gentleman just spoke about the Secretary of Welfare—that will be all as far as the interrogation goes, Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman.

The gentleman spoke about the Secretary of Welfare in regard to saving—I think I quote correctly, although I do not have it written, but if my mind does not fail me, the Secretary's attitude has been in the public hearings, either he get his $44 or $45 millions or nothing.

It is the same principle that we had handed to us in the tax program in the big truck bill yesterday. It seems to be the philosophy of this administration that "You play ball my way or I pick up my toys and go home." The Governor's attitude has been, "You take this tax program or else." His program yesterday, from statements that were given to certain people that were interested in the truck bill, was "You either take this truck bill with political taxes on it or else." If we had been honest we would have referred it to the Ways and Means Committee because it was a tax bill by the time it came out of the Governor's office with amendments, "You either take this or else." Now the Secretary of Welfare has taken up this same slogan, "Either you take my program or else."

Well, Mr. Speaker, I want to say one thing for us on this side of the House, if the Secretary of Welfare thinks that he will ever get the Republican Members to approve $44 millions, with simple little facts in it like I brought out two weeks ago of $10,000 for postage to send out announcements for a dedication, and $30,000 for stationery, just for stationery, it will be "or else" as far as we are concerned, because I would not give him a cent.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. LOPRESTI asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

I am not a Member of the Appropriations Committee and I have not attended the meetings of that Committee very faithfully, but when I did have a few moments time I did go up and listen in.

One of the occasions I did listen in was when this $45 million question came up in the Appropriations Committee and the Secretary of Welfare was asked whether he could operate at a smaller figure. He made the reply that under the law he was required to give certain figures in his budget. He is setting forth a program and he was explaining that program to the Committee and to the Legislature. He felt that it was not his province to say which part of that budget should be eliminated, which one of the services proposed by the Department should be eliminated. He said that was a proper function for this Legislature and he asked this Legislature to investigate and inquire into various parts of the program and to set forth a new program if it desired to do so.

That was one of the points I wanted to make when I orginally took the floor this morning. The minority members on that Committee have the information, they had listened to the interrogation and they had an opportunity to ask questions. If there is any part of the program which they believe is unnecessary, or if there is any part of the program which is inequitable, or if there is any part of the program which should be revised, I am inviting the minority to give us the benefit of their experience, to give us the benefit of their thoughts, and I say that they will find a sympathetic ear on this side of the House if they can tell us just what part of the program can be eliminated without doing harm to the citizens of Pennsylvania.

I say in all sincerity, I invite the minority to trim the budget. If there are items in there which should not be in, if there is a program in there that should not be in and could be eliminated without affecting our citizens, without affecting our Commonwealth, I want them to point them out. I, as one, will join them if they do bring forth things which are improper and should not be in the budget.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. AUKER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I have had this on my mind for some little time. I did not think that today the opportunity would arise to make these remarks that I have in mind, but the question seems to have come up and been raised by the gentleman on the other side, Mr. Lopresti from Cambria County.

I was here in the 1943 session. After that I did not come back until 1953. I found in that time that this Commonwealth had moved awful fast and awful far in their financial commitments. As a matter of fact, in 1953 the state had gone into debt by over $1 billion, circumventing the constitution by various state authorities, principally the General State Authority and the General State School Authority. Much of it, of course, as regards education was necessary. I can got into that angle of it rather extensively. I believe that I can put up arguments to bear out the statement that very many of the school districts where consolidation has taken effect and where various expensive buildings have been built, probably way beyond the need of the district insofar as a lot of extras being put into the same, which extras were mandated by the State Education Department before they would grant any aid for those consolidated buildings, and wherein a group of architects over this state have been making money hand-over-fist as a result of that program, because the assessments for school purposes in those various school districts are not in any way comparable to the assessments in cities of the third class and cities of the first class and second class A. I believe the figures will amply bear that out.

However, be that as it may, the state was still in debt over a billion dollars and no special tax passed in all those years to take care of the program. Let us bear in mind, also, that both sides of this House, both parties, were equally—I won't say to blame or were guilty, I would say they all had an equal share in voting those various appropriations.

I realized and I became firmly convinced in 1953 that the time had come for Pennsylvania to absolutely have some kind of a broad base tax if we were to pay these bills and if we were to compete with other states in industrial expansion. We must keep in mind that Pennsylvania has the highest corporate tax structure of any state in the union. Certainly there is no state higher.

We must keep in mind also that practically all of the other states for many years have been paying for the necessary expenses of their welfare and educational requisites through a broad base tax and thus have lessened the tax on their corporations and businesses, and that, Mr. Speaker, certainly makes it more attractive, very much more attractive, for corporations and business to settle and to begin their businesses or change their businesses, or sites of their corporations from this state to one of the states where the corporate taxes are not nearly so high as in this state.

We are trying to get corporations and businesses to settle in this state and we cannot do it when we are going to raise the corporate tax structure so high that they certainly will not come in here. It is foolish for anyone to say that taxes—and I am saying this very emphatically and very advisedly because I have heard the Chief Executive of this Commonwealth say in so many words that taxes are not an integral part of the cost of a product put out by a business or a corporation. I say that is an absolute fallacy, it is absolutely not based on any logical reasoning. Taxes certainly are an integral part of the cost of any product put out by any corporation and business and it must be considered in the price of the product that reaches the consumer. It must be considered, also, that the corporations and businesses are going to sell their products in competition with corporations and businesses in other states.

So I became convinced, and I was thoroughly convinced in my own mind, that Pennsylvania had come to a point where we absolutely had to have a broad base tax structure. There are only two broad base tax structures, and that is the income tax and the sales tax.

Unfortunately in Pennsylvania, we cannot have a graduated income tax until the people pass upon that question, and at every opportunity that has been given to the people of Pennsylvania to pass upon that question they have very emphatically turned it down. I would prophesy that if another amendment would go before the people of Pennsylvania to amend our state Constitution to allow a graduated income tax they would again turn it down. It is just human nature, Mr. Speaker, that nobody is going to pass or vote in any way, shape or form to put a tax upon themselves, and that is the way the people of Pennsylvania look at it.

So we cannot have a graduated income tax in Pennsylvania, and we will not be able to have one in my opinion. So you come to a flat income tax, and let us not be facetious or funny about this flat income tax with this $1,000 exemption.

By way of amplifying on that, I have an excerpt from the Philadelphia Inquirer this morning: "Leader Pay Tax 'Deal' For Labor Aid Hinted." I ask the privilege of reading certain excerpts from this.

> "Under the terms of the so-called 'deal,' negotiated last Friday at a 2½ hour meeting, the Governor assured the union leaders that wage earners would receive benefits equivalent to the proposed $1,000 exemption in the income tax proposal even if the provision was declared unconstitutional by the courts."

So that leads me to believe, Mr. Speaker, that the Governor is at last coming out and saying, as he probably has known all along, and as the Attorney General of this State probably knows, and as we have declared on the floor of this House, that such a $1,000 exemption is plainly unconstitutional. So now he is coming out and laying the groundwork with the so-called union leaders to say, "This $1,000 exemption we feel is going to be declared unconstitutional, so we are going to throw you another sop by way of a benefit."

Let me read further, Mr. Speaker, this is very enlightening, this is something I have never heard of in all my legislative experience before.

> 2 Plans Considered. Two steps are being considered by the Administration to nullify an anticipated decision voiding the $1,000 exemption, it was said.

They are:

> "An administrative ruling by Attorney General Herbert B. Cohen to circumvent any court ruling."

Now that is very enlightening; that is very enlightening indeed. Is Mr. Cohen as Attorney General representing Mr. Leader, the Governor of this Commonwealth personally, or is he supposed to represent the people of the Commonwealth in making honest decisions and rulings when he gives out an opinion from his office?

I quote further:

> "Or, a special session of the Legislature to make necessary readjustments to assure the tax exemption benefits.
> Another rumored proposal, which one labor leader said had not been discussed with the Governor, calls for a special session of the Legislature to reduce the 1 percent tax to three-fourths of 1 percent to avoid an automatic increase in the tax bill if the exemption is ruled out

That is very, very enlightening to my mind, as I said, far the reasons I have just stated.

To get back to the two broad base taxes, as I said in 1953, I felt then and I am still thoroughly convinced now that the fairest broad base tax is the sales tax. You will recall, and there are statistics to prove it, that not one state in this United States has adopted an income tax since the year 1937.

You will recall that Governor Knight of California said that in the experience of California the income realized from the sales tax was much, much better and much more equitable than the income tax which they also have in that state. No matter what name you call it by, an income tax in this state, with the graduation not allowed by our constitution, is a wage tax. It is a wage tax.

Four hundred and some communities in this state have adopted either an income or a wage tax already under Act 481, and many of them both. In Blair County and Altoona we have both. I pay a professional tax, I pay an income tax or a wage tax, so does everybody else there, and if this thing passes I will pay three income taxes and two wage taxes and so would everybody else. If you think that is fair, or equitable, or just, it is on your conscience, it is not on mine. I am not for it and I will never vote for it.

So I am convinced that the best broad base tax is a sales tax, as I was convinced in 1953.

Now I am going to say something further that I believe is rather non-partisan, because it is probably going to hit at both parties and it is probably going to hit at both party leaders. In 1953 I feel absolutely sure there were various members of the minority party who felt as I did—and probably still feel, if the truth be known—that the sales tax is the best broad base tax, but their party leaders would not let them vote that way. That was practically said on the floor of this House by the Minority Floor Leader, who is now our Speaker:

"You will not get one vote. It is too bad," he said, "but you will not get one vote from this side of the House for a sales tax. Our party has taken that stand and every Member will stick by it."

Probably those are not his exact words, but I believe it is close enough that it cannot be refuted.

We have been guilty on this side of the House of the same thing, of trying by patronage, by the bludgeon from the executive offices in the way of jobs, by way of throwing various things into the counties, highways and roads, and things of that sort. It is a tremendous power that rests in the hands of the Governor of this Commonwealth, a tremendous power, a tremendous whip, a tremendous bludgeon. It has been used by our side and it is being used by your side right now, and I regret that it ever has had to be used by either party. It should not be so, bludgeoning Members of this House against what their constitutents really want, forcing them to vote for measures which their constitutent do not want. It has happened, and I suppose it will happen again. I know it happened on our side of the House in 1953, and I say it is happening on your side of the House right now.

But we had Members over here in 1953 who had the courage of their convictions, we had some who would not go along with the broad base sales tax, and I admire them for that conviction.

Let me say something else, The Speaker of this House, who was then Minority Floor Leader in 1953, needled us a little bit on this side of the House. At that time he said, "Now, don't you fellows over there be disturbed at all about being forced to vote against something for which you want to vote. You are not going to be thrown out of the party, they need you."

Brothers on the other side of the aisle, and sisters, I can say the same thing to you now, your majority is not much bigger than ours was in 1953 and do not be disturbed that Mr. Lawrence, or Mr. McCloskey, or Mr. Clarke, or Mr. Dilsworth, or anybody else in this Commonwealth, is going to throw you out of the party. They will not throw you out of the party, they need you very badly, just as badly as we needed them in 1953.

So, Mr. Speaker, I would like to see everybody on both sides of the House at all times, especially on appropriation measures, and especially on tax measures, be allowed to vote the way their constitutents back home want them to vote. That is the reason they sent them down here, to represent them and not to represent the party.

Let us bear in mind that we do, first of all, represent our people in our various districts who elected us—first, before we even represent the party, or before we represent the Governor, or anybody connected with the Governor's Office.

As I say, I would like to see that, so bring out your income tax package without any pressure being brought to bear on it. You may get some votes from this side of the House for it, I do not know. You will not get me, I know that, but you may get some. If that fails to pass, then bring out your sales tax at two per cent with the exemptions taken out of it, the same as Ohio has, for instance. You will get enough money on that to balance this budget, but not the budget that your Governor has proposed.

Let us say something about that budget, Mr. Speaker, and I am going to speak in broad and general terms of the budget.

There is mandated by law as I understand it, something around a hundred million dollars for the various departments, chiefly the Education Department, mandated by law in increases for transportation and certain welfare services something around a hundred million dollars. Even if we take your figures and say that the deficit, through no fault of our own, I must add that, was $75 million for the 1953-55 biennium, that leaves $175 million mandated by law. Now, even with certain proposed increases that may be necessary, let us say possibly $50 million, I say to you in all frankness that a two per cent sales tax would more than balance the budget, that would be ample to carry this Commonwealth through the next two years, but not with the proposed budget that Governor Leader has offered, not by any manner or means. If we are going to run a government in a businesslike manner, then let us run it in a businesslike manner. I cannot see where it is going to be any benefit to the people of Pennsylvania to have the Governor's executive department budget increased by some $660,000 over any other biennium. I can see that certain increases probably would be necessary in the Welfare Department, and I certainly would vote for a bill that you would bring in here appropriating, say, anywhere from two to four or five million dollars to build a new institution to take care of our handicapped and delinquent children in Pennsylvania, which has been a crying need of this Commonwealth for years. It is a shame to the Republican Party that they did not take care of it, and it will be a bigger shame to your party if you do not take care of it.

Be that as it may, Mr. Speaker, we are talking about balancing the budget. Let's balance it. Let's balance it with no increase except those mandated by law, and a two per cent sales tax will get you through. Let both parties release their members from any high pressure from their leaders on both sides of the House and let us vote as we really should be free to vote, and I assure you we will get out of here, Mr. Speaker, in the next four weeks.

The SPEAKER. The Chair requests the recording clerk, the respective party whips and the respective floor leaders to furnish the Speaker with the names of Members absent without leave.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. LEONARD. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. LEONARD. Just a short statement, Mr. Speaker. During the session yesterday House Bill 1288, known as the big truck bill was before the House. I participated in the discussion on the bill and let the membership know that I was against the bill. When the roll was called I hollered read loud, "No!" The Pittsburgh Post Gazette saw fit to have me listed as voting "aye." I just want you all to know that I voted "no."

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 765 as follows:

An Act amending the act of July 28, 1953 (P. L. 723) entitled "An act relating to counties of the second class amending revising consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto" regulating contributions made by county commissioners towards funeral expenses of deceased service persons

Section 1 Subsection (a) of section 2109 and subsection (c) of section 2111 act of July 28, 1953 (P. L. 723) known as the "Second Class County Code" are amended to read

Section 2109 Funeral Expenses of Deceased Service Persons (a) The county commissioners of the county are hereby authorized and directed to contribute the sum of seventy-five dollars ($75) towards the funeral expenses of each deceased service person in the cases enumerated below where in each case application therefor is made within one year after the date of his or her death and where the total expenses of the funeral does not exceed [six hundred ($600)] eight hundred dollars ($800) In the case of any deceased service person who died while in the service application need not be made within one year after the date of his or her death but may be made at any time thereafter

Section 2111 Payment * * *

(c) The application shall be on forms prescribed by the Department of Military Affairs and shall set forth whether or not the funeral expenses have been paid The application shall have attached thereto a certified copy of the death certificate and an affidavit by the undertaker who had charge of the burial of the body to the effect that the undertaker did render such service and that the cost of burial did not exceed the sum of [six hundred dollars ($600)] eight hundred dollars ($800)

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HOCKER. Mr. Speaker, first of all I want it definitely understood that I am not opposed to this bill. I want to make a brief statement in regard to the fairness of it.

To start with, speaking as a former Chairman of the Military Affairs Committee when we were in the driver's seat in our Military Affairs Committee about a month ago we had the same type of bill pertaining to first class counties—if you take notice, this is a second class county bill. The Military Affairs Committee saw fit to hold that bill because of the fact that we did not want to divide the veterans.

Gentleman, in all fairness, and I direct this to the majority side of the House, there was a bill presented in this House of this same nature, sponsored by four or five Republican Members, and, if my memory is correct, the Majority Leader of this House made the statement that at such time as they saw fit they would release those bills. We had a package of bills which were agreed upon by all the veterans groups in the Commonwealth. Somehow or other, this bill never got to Military Affairs Committee. It got shuffled around and got to the Committee on Cities—Counties Second Class.

In all fairness to these veterans groups, and I ask you again, Mr. Majority Leader, if you have a stick to wield over there, to get it out and use it. These men who belong to these veterans groups, they are all united in this, they went away together, they fought together and they came home together, the ones that were lucky. These gentlemen are united now as veterans groups. Please don't let this House and this great Commonwealth of Pennsylvania divide those groups and make political footballs out of them.

We don't play politics in the Legion, the VFW, or any other organization. We play our own kind of politics, not that the kind that we play when we run for office. Please don't do this to these groups; don't split them; don't give the ones in Pittsburgh more than your are going to give the other ones over the state.

I am going to vote for the bill, I think it is a good bill, but, Mr. Majority Leader, with tears in my eyes I ask you to get out that stick and use it.

Mr. WALSH. Mr. Speaker, I fully appreciate the words of the gentleman. At no time did I know that there was another bill along these lines. I am not on the Military Affairs Committee nor on Counties Second Classe. I have been a service officer for twenty years of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. I have seen the need for this bill, and it was for that reason I introduced it. I agree that we as veterans should not be divided, and I feel that this bill for Philadelphia should be brought out for the rest of the state. Representative Toll came to me and asked that I agree to an amendment to this bill for Philadelphia. I said yes. I think he is going to introduce a bill along that line.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. AUKER filed the following reasons for his vote against House Bill 765:

I do not believe in this kind of privileged legislation wherein veterans of one district are preferred over veterans of other districts in the state.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. AUKER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I voted "no" on this bill because I do not believe in this type of legislation, where you prefer one type of veterans in this State against another group of veterans in other districts of the State. No one can point a finger at me and say that I have not been for the veterans one thousand per cent right down the line. I am conscientious in my vote and for the reasons stated.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 870, as follows:

An Act to further amend Section 1101 of the act approved the first day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 905) entitled "An act for the protection of the public safety regulating the use of highways and the opeartion of vehicles tractors street cars trackless trolley omnibuses bicycles pedestrians and the riding of animals upon the highways of this Commonwealth providing for the titling including liens encumbrances and legal claims registration of certain vehicles and licensing the operators thereof upon payment of prescribed fees prescribing and limiting the powers of local authorities to deal with the subject matter of this act conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue the Department of Highways peace officers mayors burgesses magistrates aldermen justices of the peace the courts and the clerks thereof owners of vehicles and garage keepers providing that records are admissible as evidence imposing upon owners counties cities boroughs incorporated towns townships within the Commonwealth liability for damages caused by the negligent operation of their motor vehicles imposing penalties imposing certain costs upon counties providing for the disposition of fines forfeitures fees and miscellaneous receipts making an appropriation and providing for refunds" by further providing for signs on highways where certain restrictions are imposed by local authorities

Section 1 Section 1101 of the act approved the first day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 905) entitled "An act for the protection of the public safety regulating the use of highways and the operation of vehicles tractors street cars trackless trolley omnibuses bicycles pedestrians and the riding of animals upon the highways of this Commonwealth providing for the titling including liens encumbrances and legal claims registration of certain vehicles and licensing the operators thereof upon payment of prescribed fees prescribing and limiting the powers of local authorities to deal with the subject matter of this act conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue the Department of Highways peace officers mayors burgesses magistrates aldermen justices of the peace the courts and the clerks thereof owners of vehicles and garage keepers providing that records are admissible as evidence imposing upon owners counties cities boroughs incorporated towns townships within the Commonwealth liability for damages caused by the negligent operation of their motor vehicles imposing penalties imposing certain costs upon counties providing for the disposition of fines forfeitures fees and miscellaneous receipts making an appropriation and providing for refunds" as last amended by the acts approved the twenty-fourth day of August one thousand nine hundred fifty-one (P. L. 1348) and the twenty-fourth day of August one thousand nine hundred fifty-one (P. L. 1368) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 1101 When Authorities May Restrict Right to Use Highways

(a) The Secretary of Highways of this Commonwealth and local authorities may by ordinance or resolution or ruling prohibit the operation of vehicles upon any highway or impose restrictions as to the weight of vehicles and their loads when operated upon any highway under the jurisdiction of and for the maintenance of which the Secretary of Highways of this Commonwealth or local authorities are responsible whenever any said highway by reason of deterioration rain snow or other climatic conditions may be seriously damaged or destroyed unless the use of vehicles thereon is prohibited or the permissible weights thereof reduced The Secretary of Highways of this Commonwealth and local authorities enacting or making any such ordinance or resolution or rule shall erect or cause to be erected and maintained official signs designating the provisions of the ordinance or resolution or rule at each end of that portion of any highway affected thereby and at intersections thereof and the ordinance or resolution or rule shall not be effective until or unless such official signs are erected and maintained except that local authorities shall have no power or authority to prohibit the operation of vehicles upon a State highway without first obtaining the consent of the Secretary of Highways

(b) Whenever necessary for the protection of any highway or the safety of traffic thereon the Secretary of Highways of this Commonwealth or local authorities may also by ordinance or resolution or rule prohibit the operation of motor vehicles trailers or semi-trailers on designated highways as to the weights and loads thereon which prohibitions and limitations shall be designated by official signs placed on such highways at their intersections with highways on which heavier loads are permitted except that local authorities shall have no power or authority to prohibit the operation of vehicles upon a State highway or upon any portion of a highway under its jurisdiction which does not join with or intersect at each end another highway within the municipality or at the boundary thereof on which heavier loads are permitted without first obtaining the consent of the Secretary of Highways If the consent is given in the latter case the Secretary of Highways shall have the necessary official signs placed in the adjoining municipality at the first intersection with such highway giving adequate notice of the approaching weight limitations and warning that there is no other intersection before reaching the limited portion of the highway

Penalty Any person refusing to unload excess weight when so ordered by a peace officer in uniform or violating any of the other provisions of this section or violating any ordinance resolution or ruling promulgated under the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of fifty ($50) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

An Act fixing the salary of the clerk of the court of oyer and terminer quarter sessions of the peace and of the municipal court and the first and second deputies in Philadelphia and repealing certain legislation

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 The annual salary of the clerk of the court of oyer and terminer and quarter sessions of the peace and of the municipal court shall be at the rate of fifteen ($15,000) thousand dollars

The act of May 13 1927 (P L 982) entitled "an act relating to the clerk of the court of oyer and terminer and quarter sessions of the peace and municipal court of any county of this Commonwealth having a population of one million five hundred thousand or over providing for the salaries and compensation of the clerk of the court of oyer and terminer and quarter sessions of the peace and municipal court deputies clerks and employes thereof" The act of June 21 1947 (P L 849) entitled "An Act increasing the salaries of certain elected officers whose salaries are payable out of the treasury of cities of the first class"

Section 3 This act shall take effect January 2 1956

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. AUKER. I would like to ask whether or not this bill would just apply to Philadelphia County?

Mr. TOLL. It does, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. AUKER. I thought that was right, and I think some of the Members of the House would like to have known that too.

Mr. TOLL. I might add that the present incumbent is a former Member of the House, the Honorable Joseph Scanlon.

Mr. AUKER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Philadelphia need not have any worry, I am going to vote "aye" on the bill and the Republicans can use it down there to beat the Democrats over the head for asking for increases in salaries.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

BILL PASSED OVER

There being no objection

House Bill No. 1078, Printer's No. 376

was passed over temporarily at the request of the SPEAKER.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1081, as follows:

An Act to further amend the act approved the ninth day of April one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws 343) entitled "An act relating to the finances of the State government providing for the settlement assessment collection and lien of taxes bonus and all other accounts due the Commonwealth the collection and recovery of fees and other money or property due or belonging to the Commonwealth or any agency thereof including escheated property and the proceeds of its sale the custody and disbursement or other disposition of funds and securities belonging to or in the possession of the Commonwealth and the settlement of claims against the Commonwealth the resettlement of accounts and appeals to the courts refunds of moneys erroneously paid to the Commonwealth auditing the accounts of the Commonwealth and all agencies thereof of all public officers collecting moneys payable to the Commonwealth or any agency thereof and all receipts of appropriations from the Commonwealth and imposing penalties affecting every department board commission and officer of the State government every political subdivision of the State and certain officers of such subdivisions every person association and corporation required to pay assess or collect taxes or to make returns or reports under the laws imposing taxes for State purposes or to pay license fees or other moneys to the Commonwealth or any agency thereof every State depository and every debtor or creditor of the Commonwealth" by permitting the Treasury Department to deposit moneys in State depositories without segregation by funds authorizing the Treasury Department to invest moneys of the Commonwealth in short-term obligations of the United States government and repealing inconsistent acts

Section 1 Section three hundred one of the act approved the ninth day of April one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws 343) entitled "An act relating to the finances of the State government providing for the setlement assessment collection and lien of taxes bonus and all other accounts due the Commonwealth the collection and recovery of fees and other money or property due or belonging to the Commonwealth or any agency thereof including escheated property and the proceeds of its sale the custody and disbursement or other disposition of funds and securities belonging to or in the possession of the Commonwealth and the settlement of claims against the Commonwealth the resettlement of accounts and appeals to the courts refunds of moneys erroneously paid to the Commonwealth auditing the accounts of the Commonwealth and all agencies thereof of all public officers collecting moneys payable to the Commonwealth or any agency thereof and all receipts of appropriations from the Commonwealth and imposing penalties affecting every department board commission and officer of the State government every political subdivision of the State and certain officers of such subdivisions every person association and corporation required to pay assess or collect taxes or to make returns or reports under the laws imposing taxes for State purposes or to pay license fees or other moneys to the Commonwealth or any agency thereof every State depository and every debtor or creditor of the Commonwealth" as last amended by the act approved the thirtieth day of April one thousand nine hundred forty-three (Pamphlet Laws 138) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 301 Deposit of Moneys The Treasury Department shall deposit all moneys of the Commonwealth received by it including moneys not belonging to the Commonwealth but of which the Treasury Department or the State Treasurer is custodian in State depositories approved by the Board of Finance and Revenue The Treasury Department shall not be required to deposit or to keep on deposit moneys of the Commonwealth segregated by funds in State depositories

The Treasury Department shall not at any time have in all active depositories more than an aggregate of such total sum as the Board of Finance and Revenue shall by resolution have prescribed and shall not deposit in any one inactive depository an amount in excess of twenty-five per centum of its paid-in capital and surplus nor in excess of five hundred thousand dollars Provided however That in the case of any particular depository these limitations may be waived by the Board of Finance and Revenue so as to permit the State Treasury to deposit State moneys not in excess of one million dollars in any bank banking institution or trust company designated as an inactive depository

All departments boards or commissions having in their possession any moneys belonging to the Commonwealth shall deposit them in State depositories approved by the Board of Finance and Revenue In all such cases the depositing department board or commission shall forthwith upon opening the account notify the Department of Auditor General and the Treasury Department of the name of the depository and the nature of the funds to be deposited in the account

The [Board of Finance and Revenue with the approval of the Governor] Treasury Department may from time to time invest in direct short-term obligations of the United States government such amount of the moneys of the Commonwealth with the exception of moneys in any fund authorized by law to be invested by any [other] board commission or State officer on deposit from time to time in State depositories as shall have accumulated beyond the ordinary needs of various funds The [Board of Finance and Revenue with the Governor's approval] Treasury Department shall from time to time as necessary sell such short-term obligations and [credit the proceeds to the funds out of which the purchases were made] deposit the proceeds in State depositories as provided by this act The Treasury Department shall not at any one time have invested in short-term obligations of the United States government more than an aggregate of such total sum as the Board of Finance and Revenue shall by resolution with the Governor's approval have prescribed

Section 2 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

Section 3 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1199, as follows:

An Act making it unlawful for owners of certain property in cities of the first class to sell or agree to sell such property without first delivering to the purchaser a use registration permit and requiring such owners to insert in any agreement of sale of such property a statement concering zoning classification and use of such property and providing penalties for violations

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 Legislative Findings

(a) The General Assembly finds that in cities of the first class many owners of properties used as multiple dwellings and commercial properties in which are situate dwelling units are using such properties in violation of the zoning ordinances and regulation of such cities and are offering such properties for sale without revealing such illegal use Many innocent purchasers of such properties are not aware of the illegal use until after they have entered into agreements of sale or have consummated the purchase

(b) In order to prevent undue hardships and losses imposed on such innocent purchasers by owners who have failed to reveal the illegal use of the property being conveyed or who have made misrepresentations in that regard the General Assembly finds and declares that in cities of the first class all sellers of property shall be required to advise the purchaser of the legal use of such property and to deliver to the purchaser not later than at the settlement held for such property a use registration permit showing the legal use and zoning classification for such property

Section 2 Definitions

(a) "Owner" means any person co-partnership association corporation or fiduciary having legal or equitable title or any interest in any real property Whenever used in any clause prescribing or imposing a penalty the term owner as applied to co-partnerships and associations shall mean the partners or members thereof and as applied to corporations the officers thereof

(b) "Property" means and building or structure situate in any city or the first class which is used designed or intended to be used by three or more families or any commercial establishment in which is situate one or more dwelling units

(c) "Agreement of sale" means any agreement or written instrument which provides that title to any property shall thereafter be transferred from one owner to another owner and shall include inter alia written leases which contain options to purchase the leased property and leases which provide that the lessee of the property shall acquire title thereto after the payment of a stipulated number of regular rent payments or after a stipulated period of time

Section 3

(a) In any city of the first class it shall be unlawful for any owner to sell his property or interest therein unless the owner shall first deliver to the purchaser at or prior to the time for settlement a use registration permit or duly certified copy thereof issued by the appropriate city officer indicating the zoning classification and legal use of the property to be sold

(b) Every agreement of sale shall contain a statement as to the zoning classification and legal use of the property to be conveyed and whether the present use of the property is in compliance with or in violation of zoning laws and ordinances

Section 4 A certificate from the appropriate city officer certifying that the property has been approved or designated as a non-conforming use shall be deemed to be compliance with this act

Section 5 Any owner who violates the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than one thousand dollars or undergo imprisonment for not more than one year or both

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WORLEY. I would appreciate having the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Amarando, explain his bill and tell us whether any money will be saved if a return receipt is requested with certified mail.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Amarando, consent to be interrogated?

Mr. AMARANDO. I will, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. AMARANDO. Mr. Speaker, as of June 6th, registered mail, receipt return requested, was increased to fifty-three cents. On June 1st, the postal authorities of this country issued a certified stamp, certified mail stamp, which will serve the same purpose as registered mail, at a cost of fifteen cents for the stamp, three cents for the envelope, seven cents for the return receipt, or a total cost of twenty-five cents, as against the present registered mail cost of fifty-three cents. Total savings of twenty-eight cents per item.

Mr. WORLEY. I thank the gentleman.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affrmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1420, as follows:

An Act amending the act of May 28 1915 (P. L. 596) entitled "An act requiring cities of the second class to establish a pension fund for employes of said cities and regulating the administration and payment of such pensions" providing for retention of rights and benefits under retirement systems of cities of the second class by former employes of such cities who are presently employed by certain free public libraries in cities of the second class providing perequisites for retention of such rights and benefits and imposing duties on certain officials of the free public libraries

Section 1 The act of May 28 1915 (P. L. 596) entitled "An act requiring cities of the second class to establish a pension fund for employes of said cities and regulating the administration and the payment of such pensions" is amended by adding after section 15 a new section to read

Section 16 (a) Any employe who has left or who shall hereafter leave the employe of any city of the second class to become an employe of any free public library located in any city of the second class and having in effect its own pension or retirement plan and who was a contributor to a retirement system in any city of the second class before leaving the city's employ and who is on the effective date of this act or who shall thereafter become a contributor to the free public library pension or retirement plan may add to and retain his full membership rights under the retirement system of the city of the second class to which he contributed upon compliance with the provisions of this section

(b) Any such employe as provided in subsection (a) shall recieve full credit toward his retirement rights under the retirement system of the city of the second class if the following requirements are met

(1) If the employe shall waive in writing and upon a form prescribed by the pension board in the city of the second class all rights and benefits under the retirement system of any free public library in any city of the second class in which the employe is a contributor

(2) If the employe shall produce proof satisfactory to the pension board in the city of the second class that he was employed by the city of the second class and the number of years of his service prior to transfer

(3) If the employe shall produce proof that he is employed with a free public library in a city of the second class which has its own retirement or pension plan and the number of years of his service

(4) If the employe shall pay back in a lump sum or otherwise as may be determined by the pension board of the city of the second class all accumulated deductions withdrawn by him when he terminated his employ with the city of the second class and if he shall pay into the retirement system of the city of the second class the difference if any in the amount he contributed as a member of the retirement system of any free public library in any city of the second class and the amount he would have contributed based on his salary and age during such employment had he been an employe of any city of the second class Provided That if the amount contributed to the retirement system of the free public library was greater than the amount he would have contributed to the second class city retirement system then the difference in amounts shall be credited to the employe's account towards the required back payments of withdrawn deductions or in lieu thereof as a credit towards future contributions in the retirement system of the city of the second class

(5) If the officials in charge of the pension plan of the free public library shall foward to the pension board of the city of the second class all moneys contributed by the employe to the free public library pension plan and if the officials of the free public library pension plan shall forward an amount equal to the amount if any which the city of the second class would have been required to pay towards an additional employe annuity had he been an employe of the second class city during a period corresponding to the period of his employment with the free public library based on his age and salary during such period

(c) Upon the contributor accepting the provisions of this section and if the requirements of subsection (b) are satisfied the officials in charge of the free public library pension plan in a city of the second class shall deduct from the employe's salary the amount of contribution that the pension board of the city of the second class shall prescribe and shall forward to the pension board of the city of the second class on the first Monday of each month the amounts deducted

(d) Any contributor desiring to accept the benefits of this section shall if he is presently an employe of any free library in any city of the second class which has its own retirement or pension plan make application to the pension board of the city of the second class therefor within one year from the effective date of this act Any contributor thereafter separating from the employment of any city of the second class to become an employe of any free public library in any city of the second class having its own retirement or pension plan and desiring to accept the provisions of this section shall make application to the pension board of the city of the second class within sixty days of such separation

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. LIPPINCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a parlimentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. LIPPINCOTT. Mr. Speaker, on page 33 of today's calendar, House Bill 1078, Printer's No. 376, was passed over temporarily. Do I understand now that that will not be considered at today's session?

The SPEAKER. The Chair will reply: we passed over the bill owing to the absence from the floor of the sponsor.

Is the sponsor in the House, or is any Member qualified to speak for him?

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Greene, Mr. McCann.

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I do not say I am qualified to speak for the sponsor, but I would be glad to answer any questions regarding the bill which came from the committee on Education.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman from Delaware desire to interrogate the gentleman from Greene?

Mr LIPPINCOTT. Mr. Speaker, as a matter of parliamentary etiquette, I am satisfied to have the bill go over until next Monday, if that is preferred.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I suggest that the bill do go over until next Monday when the sponsor will be here.

Mr. SPEAKER. Without objection, the bill will go over in order.

SPEAKER THANKS MEMBERS

The SPEAKER. Before the Members begin departing, the Chair wants to convey his thanks to the Members of the House especially today for the way they have stuck by the job in a comparatively un-interesting session. It has been a performance in which you can all take pride. It is a source of gratification to the Chair. Order has made it easier for everybody to know what is going on, and the Chair expresses his thanks to every Member of the House for their conduct at this session. The Chair is genuinely pleased, you have done me a great favor and made my job so much easier.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. BRETH asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr Speaker, I just wish to thank the Speaker for the new policy of sweetness and light.

The SPEAKER. The Chair's reply to that remark would be "down with wild life."

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. 64

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker I desire to call up Resolution No. 64.

The resolution was read considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 25, 1955.

The seventy-five-cent minimum wage established by the Federal Fair Labor Standards Act in 1949 was inadequate when that Law was passed and is now completely obsolete

The establishment by law of reasonable minimum wage rates is essential to the well-being of our Nation for the reasons that (1) persons receiving substandard wages may be unable to purchase the food necessary to maintain their health and that of their families (2) substandard wages produce slums and crime and increase public expenditures (3) low income operates to deprive children of equal educational opportunities by necessitating their going to work before their educations are completed and (4) a higher level of wages helps maintain purchasing power and a sound national economy

Since 1946 approximately 150 textile plants in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania have closed down liquidated or migrated with a consequent loss of mills over twenty-five thousand in number due in large measure to low wage competition of mills in the south and elsewhere

It is not possible for an individual state acting alone to deal effectively with this problem of substandard wages since industries in any one state must compete with industries in other states

The maintenance of decent minimum wages for workers whose jobs affect interstate commerce is a proper responsibility of the Federal government therefore be it

Resolved (the Senate concurring) That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania urge the President of the United States to favor and Memorialize the Congress of the United States to introduce and enact into legislation amendments to the Fair Labor Standards Act providing a minimum wage of one dollar twenty-five cents ($1.25) an hour and extending the coverage of the act to all employes whose employment affects interstate commerce and be it further

Resolved that copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States the presiding officers of each house of the Congress of the United States and to each Senator and Representative from Pennsylvania in the Congress of the United States

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

RESOLUTION NO. 69

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up Resolution No. 69.

The resolution was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 3, 1955.

The opportunity which our Nation offers for a person to freely engage in a small business enterprise is one of our most important beckoning features to those on foreign shores. It is a feature of our society of which we are justly proud, for small businesses have been highly important in the establishment and development of our Nation.

Mergers, consolidations and other jointures have in recent years produced business giants, capable of doing greater volumes of business at far less expense, and as a result thereof, small businesses are badly in need of assistance. Because of the importance of small businesses to our economy and general welfare, it is our duty to insure their survival.

An equitable share of the Commonwealth's business and contracts should be allotted among our small businesses as often as possible. The establishment of a loan procedure should also be considered to encourage the establishment of new businesses and the continuance of existing small businesses. There is also a possibility that the present rates of taxation imposed upon our small businesses are too great; therefore be it

Rsolved (the Senate concurring), That the Joint State Government Commission make a thorough study of the taxes and other problems faced by small businesses within our Commonwealth

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

COMMUNICATION

The SPEAKER laid before the House the following communication which was read by the Clerk:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Department of Justice, Bureau of Correction,

June 3, 1955.

Honorable Hiram G. Andrews
Speaker, House of Representatives
Commonwealth of Pennsylvania
Harrisburg, Pennsylvania

Dear Mr. Andrews:

Each year for the past five years, the Pennsylvania Industrial School Glee Club and Band has presented a musical festival in the Forum of the Educational Building in Harrisburg. This year we are again presenting this festival entitled "Songs Through The Years," on Saturday, June 11, 1955, at 8 P. M.

Enclosed you will find an invitation and it would please us very much if you would convey the invitation to the Members of the House of Representatives to attend our concert as we feel it will be an evening of worthwhile entertainment.

Sincerely yours,

ARTHUR T. PRASSE,
Commissioner of Correction.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. STEBBINS. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn until Monday, June 13, 1955 at 3:30 p. m. EST.

The motion was agreed to, and (at 1:06 p. m. EST) the House adjourned.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Legislative Journal.

Session 1955. 141st of the General Assembly.

Vol. 34. HARRISBURG, PA., MONDAY, JUNE 13, 1955. No. 56.

SENATE

MONDAY, June 13, 1955.

The Senate met at 2:30 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Roy E. Furman) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The chaplain, Rev. WENDELL E. MINNIGH, Pastor of First Methodist Church, Greenville, offered the following prayer.

Almighty God, unto Whom all hearts are open, all desires known and from Whom no secrets are hid, cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of Thy holy spirit that we may perfectly love Thee and worthily magnify Thy holy name. O Thou, before Whom the generations of men pass in triumph or in disaster, reassure us indeed that in Thy hands alone are the destinies of men and the issues of history. If we will it so, nothing is able to seperate us from Thine eternal love.

We do repoice before Thee that Thou hast set us in the community of the nation. We thank Thee for our beloved Country that has sustained and nourished us even unto this hour. Grant, O God, that we may, all of us, be honorable and responsible citizens. Do Thou lay Thy hand upon these Thy servants, leaders in this beloved Commonwealth, that they may decide wisely and well and justly, affecting for good all those who are our families and peoples in this Commonwealth. Grant upon these Thy servants of this State, and servants of the people, that they may have strength of body, vigor of mind and integrity of purpose.

O God, may no selfish motive ever deter them from the fulfillment of Thy holy purposes and Thy holy will. Let each of us, leaders and people, do justly, love mercy and walk in quiet fellowship with Thee. In the Master's Name, Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present, the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. MAHANY and Mr. PECHAN, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

SONNY STIEFEL, COUSIN OF SENATOR ISRAEL STIEFEL, PRESENTED TO SENATE

Mr. DONOLOW. Mr. President, before we get into Leaves of Absence, I want to take this opportunity to introduce to the Senate a young man, Sonny Stiefel, who is the cousin of our distinguished colleague, Senator Stiefel.

This young man, who recently graduated with honors from Merion High School, is a student of government. He is with us today to observe us.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. DERK, who, unfortunately, was stricken with a very serious ailment on Friday afternoon.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 64 REFERRED TO COMMITTEE

He also presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives which was twice read as follows and referred to the Committee on Constitutional Changes and Federal Relations:

CONGRESS MEMORIALIZED TO ENACT INTO LEGISLATION AMENDMENTS TO THE FAIR LABOR STANDARDS ACT

In the House of Representatives, April 26, 1955.

The seventy-five-cent minimum wage established by the Federal Fair Labor Standards Act in 1949 was inadequate when that law was passed and is now completely obsolete.

The establishment by law of reasonable minimum wage rates is essential to the well-being of our Nation, for the reasons that (1) persons receiving substandard wages may be unable to purchase the food necessary to maintain their health and that of their families, (2) substandard wages produce slums and crime, and increase public expenditures, (3) low income operates to deprive children of equal educational opportunities, by necessitating their going to work before their educations are completed, and (4) a higher level of wages helps maintain purchasing power and a sound national economy.

Since 1946 approximately 150 textile plants in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania have closed down, liquidated or migrated with a consequent loss of mills over twenty-five thousand in number due in large measure to the low wage competition of mills in the south and elsewhere.

It is not possible for an individual state acting alone to deal effectively with this problem of substandard wages, since industries in any one state must compete with industries in other states.

The maintenance of decent minimum wages for workers whose jobs affect interstate commerce is a proper responsibility of the Federal government, therefore be it

Resolved, (the Senate concurring), That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania urge the President of the United States to favor and memoralize the Congress of the United States to introduce and enact into legislation, amendments to the Fair Labor Standards Act providing a minimum wage of one dollar twenty-five cents ($1.25) an hour, and extending the coverage of the act to all employes whose employment affects interstate commerce; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States, the presiding officers of each house of the Congress of the United States and to each Senator and Representative from Pennsylvania in the Congress of the United States.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 69 REFERRED TO COMMITTEE

He also presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives which was twice read as follows and referred to the Committee on State Government:

JOINT COMMITTEE TO MAKE A STUDY OF ALL TAXES FACED BY SMALL BUSINESSES

In the House of Representatives, May 4, 1955.

The opportunity which our Nation offers for a person to freely engage in a small business enterprise is one of our most important beckoning features to those on foreign shores. It is a feature of our society of which we are justly proud, for small businesses have been highly important in the establishment and development of our Nation.

Mergers, consolidations and other jointures have in recent years produced business giants, capable of doing greater volumes of business at far less expense, and as a result thereof, small businesses are badly in need of assistance. Because of the importance of small businesses to our economy and general welfare, it is our duty to insure their survival.

An equitable share of the Commonwealth's business and contracts should be allotted among our small businesses as often as possible. The establishment of a loan procedure should also be considered to encourage the establishment of new businesses and the continuance of existing small businesses. There is also a possibility that the present rates of taxation imposed upon our small businesses are too great; therefore be it

Resolved (the Senate concurring), That the President Pro Tempore of the Senate appoint three members of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives appoint three members of the House, and the Governor appoint five men from small businesses who together shall constitute a committee to make a thorough study of the taxes and other problems faced by small businesses within our Commonwealth; and be it further

Resolved, That the committee make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations for appropriate legislation to this Session of the General Assembly within thirty days.

RESOLUTION RECALLING FROM THE GOVERNOR HOUSE BILL No. 719

He also presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read as follows, considered and agreed to:

In the House of Representatives, June 6, 1955.

Resolved (If the Senate concur), That House Bill No. 719, Printer's No 239, entitled:

An Act amending the act of March 10, 1949 (P. L. 30), entitled "Public School Code of 1949," increasing maximum limits on per capita taxes, with certain limitations.

be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

HOUSE CONCURS IN AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL No. 758

He also presented communication from the House of Representatives informing the Senate that the House has concurred in amendments made by the Senate to House Bill No. 758, entitled:

An Act amending the act of June 25, 1919 (P. L. 581), entitled "First Class City Charter Law," changing the provisions for notices of ordinances and elections relating to indebtedness in cities of the first class and the advertising thereof.

HOUSE CONCURS in AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL No. 964

He also presented communication from the House of Representatives informing the Senate that the House has concurred in amendments made by the Senate to House Bill No. 964, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Joint Committee appointed by the Senate and House of Representatives to investigate Laurelton State Village.

HOUSE CONCURS IN SENATE BILL No. 303

He also returned to the Senate, Senate Bill No. 303,

An Act amending the act of March 24, 1937 (P. L. 109), entitled "An act relating to interstate cooperation; creating the Pennsylvania Commission on Interstate Cooperation, as well as committees on interstate cooperation of the Senate and of the House of Representatives; defining the powers and duties of said commission and of said committees; and imposing duties on the Governor and the Secretary of the Commonwealth," increasing the number of the Commission on interstate Corporation.

with the information that the House has passed the same without amendments.

AMENDMENT TO HOUSE BILL No. 5, RECALLED FROM THE GOVERNOR

He also presented for concurrence, House Bill No. 5, entitled:

An Act amending the act of May 3, 1923 (P. L. 134), entitled "An act making the proceedings of the conventions of the Departments of Pennsylvania of the Grand Army of the Republic and the United Spanish War Veterans a part of the public records of the State; and providing for their publication and distribution," including Society of the 28th Division A.E.F., Inc., among the veterans' organizations entitled to the printing of convention reports.

Said bill having been recalled from the Governor for amendment, the votes had on final passage and third reading were reconsidered in the House and the bill amended, in which amendments the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

The PRESIDENT. The bill, as amended, will appear on tomorrow's Calendar.

AMENDMENT TO HOUSE BILL No. 103, RECALLED FROM THE GOVERNOR

He also presented for concurrence, House Bill No. 103, entitled:

An Act amending the act of June 11, 1935 (P. L. 326), entitled "An act relating to counties of the first class; defining deceased service persons; providing for contributions by the county to the funeral expenses for such persons and their widows; providing for the erection and care of markers, headstones, and flags, and for the compilation of war records," authorizing the Italian-American World War Veterans of the United States Incorporated to collect certain data relative to location of burial place of deceased service persons.

Said bill having been recalled from the Governor for amendment, the votes had on final passage and third reading were reconsidered in the House and the bill amended, in which amendments the concurrence of the Senate is rquested.

Th PRESIDENT. The bill, as amended, will appear on tomorrow's Calendar.

AMENDMENT TO HOUSE BILL No. 104, RECALLED FROM THE GOVERNOR

He also presented for concurrence, House Bill No. 104, entitled:

An Act amending the act of June 24, 1939 (P. L. 872), entitled "The Penal Code," prohibiting the unauthorized wearing of insignia of the Italian-American World War Veterans of the United States Incorporated; including such organization among those whose members may wear military uniforms for certain purposes and making certain corrections.

Said bill having been recalled from the Governor for amendment, the votes had on final passage and third reading were reconsidered in the House and the bill amended, in which amendments the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

The PRESIDENT. The bill, as amended, will appear on tomorrow's Calendar.

BILLS SIGNED

PETITIONS AND REMONSTRANCES

Mr. LANE. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, back in our county of Washington, we have quite a number of civic-minded individuals and today I want to pay tribute to Mr. George Beck, of 405, Lookout Avenue, Charleroi, Pennsylvania, for presenting me with a safety brochure. Mr. Beck has gone to the trouble of cataloguing serious automobile accidents over the months, and he has convinced me that we really have a good safety program in Pennsylvania. However, it can be improved upon and, should his program be adopted, I believe it will alleviate quite a number of the fatalities which occur upon the public highways of this Commonwealth.

Last night, Mr. President, I had to drive over the Turnpike because I could not get a plane out of Pittsburgh. I drove in bad weather. On the way to Harrisburg, I saw three accidents. One was a small vehicle from out of the State, whereby a lady was seriously injured. Incidentally, that car passed me and I know it was going seventy-five to eighty miles an hour. Then there was a truck that ran off the road. That truck must have been going seventy miles per hour, and the speed limit is fifty miles per hour. Last but not least, on the Baltimore Hill there was a Dodge sedan upset on that hill. All these accidents occurred because of speed.

I know, as we travel over our public highways, that we see the speed signs, fifty mile speed limits, sixty mile speed limit, but I do not believe that one per cent of our population pays any attention to the speed signs which are erected by the Department of Highways.

Mr. Beck's program, Mr. President, is that where there is a serious automobile accident, the Department of Safety arrange with the insurance company or the owner of that vehicle, which would be a total loss, and have it constructed at the approximate scene of the accident. I think it would be very simple, indeed, because I feel sure that the insurance companies here in Pennsylvania would be glad to cooperate with the Department of Safety in alleviating the numerous automobile accidents which occur daily.

I want to read into the record just a few of the remarks made by Mr. Beck in his brochure, where he sets forth that here in one particular case four teen agers were killed in this truck-car collision on Route 1 in Bradford, Connecticut. That is out of the State; however, it is something that would certainly impress you if you would see this photograph. It is a case of beging in a hurry. They cannot slow up for anything. Here is another one which happened on the North Side in Pittsburgh, where three men were killed and five were injured because the operator was in a hurry. Here is another case where the car was demolished and one was killed. All of these accidents occurred because they were in a hurry. Here is another one in Pittsburgh where three were killed sometime ago because the operator was in a hurry.

Mr. President, what I plan of doing, and what I hope the Senate will support me in, is submitting this brochure to the Department of Safety and if they approve, we should have bipartisan legislation setting up this program. As Senator Dent remarked a few moments ago as we looked over the brochure, at one time, during a heavy snow when there were about sixteen cars collided on the turnpike, he rode by that accident. He told me that that sight certainly slowed him up, because he drove all the way to Harrisburg at a slow rate of speed. I know, too, that when I passed those three accidents last night, it slowed me up. I think it would slow up the public in general if we would take some of these wrecks and put them along the roadside, off the right of way, have them properly lighted and have a sign up, "This person killed —one, two, or three"— what ever it might be. I really believe this has a lot of merit to it.

Mr. President, before I give this brochure to the Department of Safety, I would like the Members of this Senate, on both sides of the aisle, to look this booklet over and I would appreciate your comments.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, since the opening days of this Session of the General Assembly, many important pieces of legislation have been introduced by the Members. Needless to say, a great many of those pieces of legislation are controversial in nature. Regardless of how important other pieces of legislation may be and regardless of how controversial they may be in nature, in my estimation, Mr. President, there is no bill, no piece of legislation more important, more controversial than House Bill No. 582, which is now resting in the Committee on State Government of this Senate.

Mr. President, House Bill No. 582 has to deal with the allocation of the waters of the Delaware River. It is controversial because if enacted into law, it means the wiping out of a large portion of one of the counties of this Commonwealth. That area includes valuable farmlands, as well as individual homes and entire communities. It is important because it involves the entering into of a compact with a neighboring State. It is serious because it is both controversial and important.

Mr. President, a great deal of publicity has been given to the importance of House Bill No. 582 during the past week in certain sections of Pennsylvania. I think it is generally known by now that I oppose the passage of this legislation. Because of the widespread publicity which has been given and because my opposition has been misinterpreted in some quarters, I would like to take the liberty now, with the permission of my colleagues, to explain by opposition to House Bill No. 582.

Mr. President, the problem of the allocation of the waters of the Delaware River is not a new problem. It is a problem which has plagued all of the States involved for many, many years. Back in 1930, it became a matter of active interest when the Supreme Court of the United States assumed jurisdiction over the waters of the Delaware. It must always be kept in mind that the waters of which I speak, the allocation of these waters, is the allocation of waters out of the Delaware River watershed, never to be returned to that watershed again. Thus, in 1930, the Supreme Court of the United States gave to the city of New York the right to take a certain volume of water out of the Delaware River Watershed. Since that time, all of the States have been attempting to work out a fair and equitable portion of those waters. This led, in 1950, to the INCODEL plan. However, the INCODEL Plan was a failure.

Mr. President, the State of Delaware enacted legislation in conformity with the INCODEL Plan. The State of New Jersey enacted their own version of what the INCODEL Plant meant. The State of New York changed the INCODEL Plan in many particulars and Pennsylvania, of course, enacted no legislation at all

Then, Mr. President, in 1952, the city of New York went back to the Supreme Court and asked for an additional allocation of waters from the Delaware River. At that time, and in order to protect their own interests, the States of Pennsylvania and New Jersey injected themselves into that court proceeding. In June of 1954, the Supreme Court granted the petition of the city of New York, but in the decree, in the opinion of the Supreme Court, were placed many safeguards and many conditions. These safeguards included the requirements that New York build a number of reservoirs and dams in order that Pennsylvania and New Jersey's interests would be protected during periods of low flow of the Delaware. Of course, these dams and these reservoirs must be built by New York at the cost of many millions of dollars.

In the same court decree, Mr. President, the Supreme Court of the United States gave to the State of New Jersey the right to take from the Delaware River one hundred million gallons of water a day. However, there was no provision for any safeguard to take care of Pennsylvania during periods of low flow. There was a condition connected with that right of the State of New Jersey to take that one hundred million gallons of water a day. That condition was that the State of Pennsylvania enact into law, before July 1, 1955, similar legislation which the Legislature of New Jersey had enacted in 1953, while that Supreme Court case was going on.

Now, Mr. President, what does this particular piece of legislation involve? House Bill No. 582, of our Session of the General Assembly, is the axact same copy of the legislation which was passed by the Legislature of New Jersey in 1953. What does it do? First of all, we know that the passage of House Bill No. 582 will give the State of New Jersey the legal right, beginning immediately and existing perpetually hereafter, to take from the Delaware River one hundred million gallons of water a day without any provision to safeguard Pennsylvania during periods of low flow. What does Pennsylvania receive in return We receive the right to build a dam; not a perpetual right, Mr. President, but a right which must be exercised within the next fifty years, a right to build a dam at Wallpack Bend. Wallpack Bend happens to be in Pike County, which is a part of my Senatorial District.

Now, Mr. President, what kind of a bargain did Pennsylvania get? First of all, do we need the dam? If someone were to stand here on this Senate floor and say, "Yes, we need this dam and the Leader Administration is readying legislation toward the construction of that dam," then I would have very little to argue about. I am certainly not going to stand here, Mr. President, and oppose the construction of a dam which Pennsylvania or one of its political subdivisions may need. However, so far, nobody has said that we need the dam.

I realize, Mr. President, there is a feeling in some quarters, particular in the Philadelphia area, that although we do not need the dam right now, there is a possibility that we may need the dam sometime in the future. Even the people who are the proponents of that theory refuse to say how distant in the future we may need that dam, whether it will be ten, twenty, thirty, forty, fifty or sixty-five years away.

Therefore, Mr. President, I see no reason why we should give to the State of New Jersey now, and perpetually hereafter, the right to take from the Delaware River one hundred million gallons of water a day in exchange for a dam which must be built within the next fifty years and which Pennsylvania may not need for seventy-five years. For that reason alone, Mr. President, I am convinced that House Bill No. 582 should be defeated. For those of my colleagues who are not yet sufficiently convinced, I would like to point out to them some of the other provisions of this bill and show them how New Jersey has loaded it in favor of that State.

First of all, Mr. President, the bill says that if the dam is to be built at all, it must be built with Pennsylvania money. I understand that the estimates of the cost of construction of this dam are about $60,000,000. However, New Jersey has reserved unto itself the right to absorb up to thirty per cent of the cost of the construction of the dam, taking in return therefor thirty per cent of the waters of the dam. The bill reads further that regardless of whether New Jersey pays one cent toward the cost of the construction of the dam, there is one county in the State of New Jersey, the county of Sussex, which shall have the right to take from that dam the equivalent of twenty-five million gallons of water a day. That is whether New Jersey pays any proportionate share towards building the dam. That is bad enough, but, adding insult to injury, if you read the bill you will discover that even though Pennsylvania may build the dam with Pennsylvania money, the bill specifically says that before Pennsylvania can take one drop of water out of that dam, our State must enter into another compact with the State of New Jersey, determining how much water we can take.

I am willing to admit, Mr. President, and great emphasis has been laid on the fact that the provisions of the bill allow Pennsylvania to have powers of eminent domain over the land of New Jersey which will be flooded out. There is no question about that provision being in the bill. However, if one were to read the bill further, they would discover that Pennsylvania will be required to pay, to the political subdivisions of New Jersey involved, taxes on an annual basis for all of the real estate which is taken during the construction of the dam. Now, here we are going to do something for the State of New Jersey which we have never had the courage to do for our own political subdivisions.

Conceivably, Mr. President, this whole dam could well be built with Pennsylvania money, if it is needed at all. The bill is surprisingly silent as to the ownership of a marginal strip around the dam. As a matter of fact, if you read the bill, you will discover that New Jersey has reserved unto itself the right to have complete jurisdiction over the dam as far as recreational facilities are concerned. This dam would be in length of about thirty miles along the boarder of the State of New Jersey. Any of you who have had the pleasant opportunity to drive on Route 209, from Milford to Bushkill, can well remember that on the Pennsylvania side there are cliffs rising two to three hundred feet in the air for pretty much that whole distance. Certainly this is not conductive to good recreational facilities as far as pennsylvania is concerned. However, you will remember that on the New Jersey side there is rolling landscape, very fine and ideal for recreational facilities. Are we to use Pennsylvania money to build an additional resort area for the State of New Jersey?

I understand, Mr. President, that there is a great deal of pressure being put on Governor Leader to make House Bill No. 582 a part of his administrative program. I am certain, in my mind, that Governor Leader is not willing and ready to have this House Bill No. 582 become a part of his administrative program. If he is willing, in my estimation it will be the biggest give away program since "Break The Bank."

Mr. President, I was amazed one day last week to discover that I, as a freshman Member of this Senate, had done something important enough here in Harrisburg to have my name mentioned, not once but twice, in an editorial in one of the leading newspapers of the city of Philadelphia. Of course, I studied that editorial with great interest. However, another editorial, on the same page as the editorial in which my name was mentioned, soon caught my eye and I read this editorial with great interest, too. I think that this latter editorial will be of great interest to the membership of this Senate. It is a short editorial, and I am going to take the privilege of reading it to you now. It is entitled, "New Jersey Taxes—And Ours," and reads as follows:

"Organized labor in Pennsylvania, strange as it may seem, has indorsed Governor Leader's proposed wage tax. But before the Governor commits his administration irrevocably to that levy, in violation of his campaign pledges—

"It might be a good idea for Pennsylvania leaders generally to take a look across the river, to see what goes on in New Jersey.

"In a current advertisement, the Public Service Corporation of that State points out that New Jersey has the lowest per capita taxes of any State in the United States of America for the 1954 fiscal year. It states further:

" 'New Jersey has no individual State income tax . . . no State corporation tax . . . no State unincorporated business tax . . . no State sales tax . . . and complete exemption of intangible personal property from local property taxes.'

"How does New Jersey do it?

"It might be a good idea for leaders in Harrisburg to find out. Before any more taxes are imposed on the people of Pennsylvania.

"New Jersey's budget, incidentally, is balanced, too."

Now, Mr. President, I do not know the complete secret of New Jersey's success, but if you read that editorial and then you read House Bill No. 582, you begin to get an idea.

Mr. President, for those of you who may be worrying about the State of New Jersey's water shortage problem, and in my estimation New Jersey does have a water shortage problem, I say to you, do not lay awake nights worrying about the State of New Jersey. New Jersey has other plans, New Jersey has other facilities and they have other places in which to get the water. However, that would mean the expenditure of some money and certainly New Jersey is not going to spend that money if Pennsylvania is willing to carry the load for them.

Now back to the editorial in which my name was mentioned. I do not consider myself to be an obstructionist. I realize, Mr. President, that I do not have the opportunity very often to walk down the streets of Market, Chestnut and Broad, and I realize that I do not have the advantage of having my office within the shadow of City Hall, and I realize that I do not have the advantage of living in Rittenhouse Square or in Chestnut Hill, but, Mr. President, I think I know the difference between right and wrong and I think that House Bill No. 582 is wrong. I think it is wrong for the people of Pennsylvania.

Now, Mr. President, is there a solution to this problem? In my estimation there is a solution. I have never been too perturbed about the July 1st deadline. I think that I protected myself adequately early in this Session of the General Assembly, and I think the membership of this Senate protected themselves adequately during the early part of this Session of this General Assembly, because at that time, with the cooperation of Senator Yosko, who I know is vitally interested in this problem and who wants to see the right thing done, we introduced a resolution into this Senate. That resolution called attention to the problem involved, it called attention to the legislation which had been introduced and it called attention to the July 1st deadline. That resolution asked that an investigating committee be appointed to make a study of this whole problem and to have this committee report back to this General Assembly in plenty of time to meet the July 1st deadline as to just how good House Bill No. 582 was. The membership of this Senate evidently seized the problem because on the very same day that this resolution was introduced, the Senate passed it. Unfortunately, that resolution has been lying in the Rules Committee of the House. However, I now understand that the Rules Committee of the House has placed that resolution out on the floor of the House for a vote. In addition, I understand that the New Jersey Legislature, very wisely, has extended the deadline from July 1st for a period of six months.

The solution to this problem is this, Mr. Presidnet, have this investigating committee appointed, have them look into the problem and have them report back to this General Assembly as soon as they possibly can. I will say this. Mr. President. If that investigating committee reports back to this Session of the General Assembly that House Bill No. 582 is fair, that House Bill No. 582, as written, is equitable and that House Bill No. 582, as written, should be passed, I will pledge to the membership of this Senate, although I may not vote for the legislation, that I most certainly will no rise again in protest against it.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, I personally want to thank the gentleman for the very fine explanation of House Bill No. 582. I think that all of us as citizens of Pennsylvania ought to be grateful to him for taking the time to study all the features of this bill and to present them to the Senate in such a fine manner.

Mr. President, I am also happy to announce that the Governor today, in talking to Senator Mahany, myself and Senator Berger, has asked for a meeting next Tuesday morning at ten o'clock, at which he would like to have Senator Scott, Senator Yosko, Senator Mahany and myself attend in order that he, too, may get the benefit of the study made by the two gentlemen who have gone into this matter deeper than most of us have. I am sure that the Governor of this State will take into consideration the benefits which may accrue to Pennsylvania rather than the benefits that will accrue to the State of New Jersey. Therefore, I again want to thank the gentleman for his work on this bill.

Mr. President, I might just take one minute to comment about the two editorials. I might say to Senator Scott that basically the contents of those two editorials point out the basic problem in Pennsylvania The newspapers sometimes fail to realize the eventual cost of the many reforms which they advocate in government, and after they get the people all steamed up about some reform, such as increases in wages and salaries for schoolteachers, such as increases in facilities for school plants, and many of the other reforms which the papers rightfully promote, then when we are faced with a problem of creating the necssary revenue to pay for these reforms that they have instituted, they seem to lose the understanding they had when we needed the reforms or they so thought we needed. If these same newspapers would just take into consideration that they ought to write their editorials with the idea that they, too, must live tomorrow.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I just want to make a few remarks on the question under discussion. I want to make it clear that although Senator Scott may be opposed to House Bill No. 582 in its present form, that in itself is not the reason why the bill has not been reported from the Committee on State Government

Mr. President, I want the Members of the Senate to know that shortly after the General Assembly convened, New Jersey appointed a special committee to confer with Members of the Legislature of Pennsylvania on the water problem of the Delaware River. That group from New Jersey came here to Harrisburg and we met with that group in Senator Mahany's office. After several hours of discussion, I think it was agreed to at the time that the Democrats would support the bill, and Senator Mahany said that he would have to take it up wth the members of his Caucus before he could make a commitment.

A short time after our conference, there was another conference held between the Governors of the States of New Jersey and Pennsylvania, together with their advisors and they came to an agreement on House Bill No. 582. In the meantime, Senator Scott, as I understood from him, consulted some of his constituents in the area involved and they expressed opposition to the bill, because it would destroy some of the land in the area due to the construction of the dam. Therefore, we both agreed that we would have a resolution prepared and after the committee which the resolution called for was appointed, we would consult with the States of New Jersey and New York, that had similar committees now functioning, in order to try to iron out the bugs in the bill, if there were any, and report back to this General Assembly. Senator Scott was right when he said the very day that the resolution was introduced in the Senate, it was adopted and it was sent to the House. Unfortunately, we did not get quick action as we expected in the House because, as Mr. Readinger explained to me, he did not realize the importance of the resolution. When I approached Mr. Readinger last week, I think it was on Wednesday, and explained the importance of the resolution, he immediately reported it out of committee and I think it will be passed today and placed in line for the appointment of the legislative committee to confer with New Jersey and New York on the provisions of the bill itself.

Mr. President, there are a few things that I want to say about the water of the Delaware River. It has been a controversy covering many years. Water, as everybody knows, is essential to all of us. There are a great many things that we can do without, but not water. There are millions and millions of gallons of water flowing into the ocean from the Delaware River everyday, never to be returned. During the rainy seasons, the Delaware is high and it causes floods. During the dry seasons, there is a water famine along the Delaware and that is because the waters of the Delaware are not, at the present time, controlled. Therefore, men with wisdom and foresight organized by the Legislatures of the four States involved, set up what they called the Interstate Commission on the Delaware River Basin, or better known as INCODEL. After years of study, engineering studies and other types of studies which included engineers from the Army, a plan was devised for the construction of a number of dams to control the waters of the Delaware River so that the water from that river could be properly allocated to the States of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Delaware. The plan was incorporated into Legislation and this legislation was adopted by the States of New York, New Jersey and Delaware. When it came to Pennsylvania, at the end of the Duff Administration, Governor Fine, as I outlined on this floor time and time again, objected to the bill and thought it ought to have additional study. Accordingly, Governor Fine appointed an investigating committee, and I do not want to go into the story on that committee. However, this committee made its report and rejeced the INCODEL plan and recommended, among other things, that the State go into the Pocono Mountains and there, as I have said time and again, purchase fifty thousand acres of swamp land, which all experts agreed would be anything but the proper thing to do.

The thing which amazed me at that time, Mr. President, was the fact that when Governor Fine's special committee, which spent $350,000 to make its investigation, filed its report, it has not to this very day, in spite of the $350,000 expenditure, drafted and introduced legislation to carry out its recommendations. When the States of New Jersey and New York found that Pensylvania was not going to go along with the INCODEL plan, New York City filed a petition with the Supreme Court for an additional water supply. Up to that time the City of New York was getting 440,000,000 gallons of water a day. The city applied for 360,000,000 additional gallons, and while the case was pending Pennsylvania filed a petition to intervene and Governor Fine appointed William A. Schnader to represent the Commonwealth.

I might say that Mr. Schnader represented the Commonwealth in every other water matter involving the Delaware, and I wish I had the fees that he received for the many times that he represented Pennsylvania on the question of the allocation of the waters of the Delaware. I bet it is a sizeable sum. When he filed that petition, among other things, he said, "Not one more drop of water for the State of New York from the Delaware River." Of course, when New York and New Jersey found that Pennsylvania was taking that attitude, they joined together because they thought Pennsylvania did not want to cooperate and they, themselves, were going to construct dams and leave Pennsylvania out in the cold. When Pennsylvania found this out, or at least when Mr. Schnader found this out, he entered into an agreement with the States of New York and New Jersey and that agreement is incorporated in the Supreme Court ruling which was handed down, and the legislation that was introduced in the State of New Jersey, all of its provisions, were agreed upon by Mr. Schnader for the State of Pennsylvania so that if there is anything in that bill which is objectionable, then it is Mr. Schnader's fault and the Administration of Governor Fine.

Mr. President, I understand that it was at Mr. Schnader's insistence that the July 1st deadline be incorporated in House Bill No. 582. I understand that the allocation of the cost, seventy per cent by the State of Pennsylvania and thirty per cent by the State of New Jersey, was incorporated in that bill at the insistence of Mr. Schnader. The 100,000,000 gallons of water allocated to the State of New Jersey is correct, and that was agreed upon by Mr. Schnader for the State of Pennsylvania. However, that is not the only question involved there. There was a question of whether or not the State of New Jersey has a right to draw that water from the Delaware River through the Raritan Canal. There is a legal question involved there and by the terms of this bill, Pennsylvania waived that legal question and, as a concession for that, New Jersey is repealing an old statute which would prohibit Pennsylvania from building a dam anywhere along the Delaware River without the consent of New Jersey. What New Jersey is doing is repealing that law and they are giving Pennsylvania the right to build a dam.

Mr. President, I understood, when we had the conference in Mr. Mahanay's office, that New Jersey may even take a greater piece of the canal that is, to be built. They may even want fifty per cent. At least that is what they said at the time. Of course, Pennsylvania would have to agree to it. So far as building a dam with Pennsylvania taxpayers' dollars is concerned, I do not believe that that is true. I think Senator Scott is mistaken about that, because during our discussion in Senator Mahany's office the question of how this was to be financed was never settled. It could be financed by bond issues or it could be financed through taxation, but the thought was at the time that it would be done by bond issues and the water which would be stored in this dam, and would evenly flow down the Delaware, would be sold to the users and the money realized from the users would be used to retire the bonds.

So far as the real estate taxes are concerned, Mr. President, there is a provision in the bill that Pennsylvania would have to pay five years of the value of the real estate taxes on the property which is condemned. Perhaps there should be some adjustment about that; I do not know. One thing, in my opinion at least, that has been wrong about the whole thing is that the Legislature was never properly represented when all of these studies were made and the legislation was drafted.

Mr. President, I think that the resolution that we adopted is a good resolution because it gives the Legislature the representation to which it is entitled. After these conferences are over, we can come back here and give a truthful report that the Members of the House and the Senate can depend on.

Therefore I say, Mr. President, that the criticism of Senator Scott by those who are not acquainted with the facts in the background was, to some extent, unjustified. I hope that as soon as this committee is appointed, conferences will be immediately arranged between the legislative committees functioning in New Jersey and in New York, with the hope that a fair, just and equitable solution can be worked out.

It is important to control the waters of the Delaware, not only for an adequate supply for those who live along the Delaware, but for flood control purposes as well, that periodically cause millions and millions of dollars in damage along the Delaware during flood times.

Mr. SILVERT. Mr. President, I should like to make a few remarks with regard to one of the editorials read by Senator Scott in connection with this water problem. That was the editorial on the New Jersey success and their State taxes, with no income taxes and no sales taxes.

Mr. President, editorials are good things. We learn a great deal from them. However, sometimes they are not studied out sufficiently and based on fact. Far be it from me to disparage Governor Meyner's Administration in New Jersey. I think it is an excellent administration.

I wish to refer, however, to an article which appeared in the Philadelphia Bulletin not so long ago, written by Robert Roth, which was not an editorial, but an article based on study of State taxes and local community taxes. In this article, Mr. Roth wrote that Pennsylvania rates somewhere around forty-fifth in the per capita cost of taxes, when you take into consideration not only the State taxes but your local community taxes and add them together. I do not recall that New Jersey was lower in taxes than Pennsylvania. When you add your local community taxes to your State taxes, and then divide it on a per capita basis, I believe that New Jersey was higher than Pennsylvania. There were only a few States named that were lower than Pennsylvania and they were southern States.

Mr. President, I just thought I would make these remarks for the record, because I have rather become convinced that editorials are not always based on facts, and we can depend more on people who make a special study of a subject like taxes and then print their study in the newspapers.

Mr. McMENAMIN. Mr. President, the problem of INCODEL, as it has become known, is of great interest in northeastern Pennsylvania. I think that Senator Scott has done an excellent job here today in giving the Senate some of the background on this legislation. In my opinion, no piece of legislation that we will have before us in this Session of the Legislature is more important than the INCODEL Plan.

Mr. President, during the past, or the 1953 Session of the Legislature, we had the same plan before us in a bill which never got out of the Committee on Forests and Waters, of which I was a member at that time. It was my feeling, and I think the feeling of the majority of the committee, that we did not know enough and could not get enough information about all of the aspects of this problem in order to present it to the floor for a vote.

Mr. President, this plan, as has been explained here in some detail, involves a compact or a contract with three of our sister States. It will bind the right of Pennsylvania to the water of the Delaware River for all time to come in the future. I think every Senator will want to know all the facts about it before voting either for or against, so that a vote can be cast on an intelligent and logical basis.

Mr. President, in northeastern Pennsylvania there have been many rumors which are, at least, disquieting about some aspects of this proposed legislation. I think it is a measure which rises above personalities and above partisan party politics. I do not think it should be discussed or voted upon on any such basis. I, for one, would like to see full and complete and open public hearings and discussions of this plan in all of its aspects before I want to cast a vote either for or against it. The fact that it has already, in one phase or another, been before the United States Snpreme Court on more than one occasion indicates the tremendous importance of this legislation to many millions of Americans, not only in Pennsylvania but in other States.

I do not believe in deadlines in legislation. I am not at all concerned about a July 1st deadline, with the suggestion that we must vote on it by July 1 or it will be too late. It may be too late if we do vote on it before July 1, too late for the future of many Pennsylvanians. I think such methods, or such clauses in legislation, are sometimes put in as a pressure element in order to try to get us to make up our minds in a hurry.

I would like to say that I think every man in this body has been impressed by Senator Scott's exposition. We have been further informed by others. I think that all of us should withhold any vote until we get a full, complete and arm's length report of all aspects of this bill.

Mr. DONLOW. Mr. President, I should like to get away from water for a moment and speak on behalf of Philadelphia, which is very much alarmed at a condition that is taking place here in the Senate.

Mr. President, I have been asked by the Democratic candidate for Mayor of Philadelphia, Richardson Dilworth, on numerous occasions, to inquire as to the reason that the F.E.P.C. bill, House Bill No. 229, has not come onto the floor, out of committee, as yet. As late as Saturday, he has been in contact with me, as well as, I understand, other Philadelphia Members of the Senate, asking us why the bill from the Committee on Education has not been put on the Calendar.

Mr. President, it is most important to Mr. Dilworth, as it should be to us. He would like to come before the Committee on Education, if they so desire, tomorrow or at any time at their invitation, to speak on behalf of the importance of this F.E.P.C. bill. I, therefore, should like to, at this time, respectfully ask the Chairman of the Committee on Education, on behalf of Mr. Dilworth, who is one of my constituents in my Senatorial District, whether the F.E.P.C. bill, House Bill No. 229, will come out of committee tomorrow.

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. President, I only heard the last couple paragraphs of the gentleman's statement, but it seems to me that the information that he wants could have been gotten, as accurately as is possible to get it at this stage of the game, from any member on our side of the Education Committee. It is a pretty well known fact to everybody off the Senate floor that the Education Committee itself, and its subcommittee, has had a continuing study of this bill and never was any more sincere effort made, in a bipartisan way, to put it in the kind of shape where it would be palatable to those who are reasonable and considerate. Three weeks ago, the 14th of June was set as the day when the committee should take its determinate action. I do not think that anymore specific statement than that, or any further explanation, is desirable at this time.

Mr. President, I understand that Mr. Dilworth, whose name you mentioned, is for it. If you had been at my house during the, last week you would know that Mr. Longstreth is very much for it and wants to see me and everybody concerned, to see what he can do to help pass it. Therefore, we are apparently keeping in step pretty well.

I would say, Mr. President, since unexpetadly I find myself at the microphone, that as Chairman of the Education Committee I have always felt that if that bill ever came to the Education Committee for consideration, because of the historic makeup of the kind of men who are on that committee, it would get a very thorough, a very sincere, a very conscientious treatment.

I cannot say to the gentleman right now what is going to happen to that bill tomorrow morning, but I can say to the gentleman and anybody else who is interested that

I do believe, as of right now, that that bill has received as proper a treatment and as much consideration as any bill that has ever been before the Education Committee of the Senate. Possibly his hopes are not much different from mine and at this time tomorrow, of course, we shall know, but until at least 10:00 a. m., in the morning, I would not make any prophecy about the bill.

Does that answer the question?

Mr. DONOLOW. Yes, Senator.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Schuylkill, Senator Wagner.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Wagner, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WAGNER. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. YOSKO. Senator Wagner, you may have touched on this and maybe I missed it, but will this meeting tomorrow morning be a closed or open meeting?

Mr. WAGNER. Well, it will be the same kind of committee meeting as practically all committee meetings are, Senator. It is not a hearing. The bill has been screened, the proponents of it have had access to the committee in the committee room. There have been conferences, there have been considerations and it is not intended to be a public meeting, if you mean public, sir. It is rather difficult to transact committee business in the presence of the public or out on the square.

Is that what you had in mind?

Mr. YOSKO. Will any one be permitted to go into the committee room and speak for or against this bill prior to the time the committee begins deliberation and takes a vote on it?

Mr. WAGNER. Well, that would be a matter for determination by the committee. If somebody appears at ten o'clock and has a momentous message to deliver from horse back or other vehicle, then the committee would have to decide whether they wanted to proceed with the consideration of the bill as per the schedule, Senator, or whether they would defer it long enough to hear what the visitor might have to say.

Mr. YOSKO. Has anyone asked to be given the privilege of being heard for or against the bill tomorrow morning?

Mr. WAGNER. Not as of now.

Mr. YOSKO. Thank you.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, before I talk about the matter that I intend to talk about, I just want to say that the interrogation by Senator Yosko brough an interesting thought to mind. I read somewhere in the paper today where the Republican candidate for Mayor of the city of Philadelphia was going to come up tomorrow and blast the Republicans because they had not put out the FEPC bill. I was just wondering if he thought that maybe tomorrow morning he could come before the committee and then get so-called credit for bringing that bill out. I might say to him that he will find that the Legislature usually works, perhaps it may appear slowly to some people but in the end it tries to work in an honest manner, and it would be best for him to stay in Philadelphia and tend to his knitting and let the Legislature to that which is best for the people.

Mr. President and Members of the Senate, of recent date we have developed a new technique in this Commonwealth, and I suppose in every other State in the Union, whereas problems that are necessarily of the people and by the people and for the people are aired before the people by the method of communication which we have today called television. We are now in the midst of a tax and budget program and the Governor has been appearing in unrehearsed panel discussions all over the Commonwealth, in an attempt to give the people the side of the story that he feels he represents as the administrative spokesman.

Now, Mr. President, the stations were called upon by the Republican Committee to give that committee equal time in order that it could repudiate, if it could, the statements made by the Governor. However, the television appearances, on the part of the Republicans, have been more or less a triumvirate affair. They have picked three of their most photogenic Members of the Senate and House. They have picked Senator Mahany, Senator Fleming and Mr. Smith, and they are presenting the Republican side of the story. Last week I had a monitor put on so that I would know what was being said, because I am trying to tend to my duties here in Harrisburg and do not have much time for television and when I do have, I rather prefer Jackie Gleason. It is a little higher grade comedy.

Mr. President and Members of the Senate, it seems that last week, in the city of Pittsburgh and also in Lancaster, this trimuvirate got up and spoke for the Republican Committee, as I understand it. If they are not speaking for the Republican Committee of the State of Pennsylvania, then they ought to pay the radio station and the television station for their time, because it is upon that pretext that they are given the free time on the air. I figured that if they are speaking for the Republican Committee, then the policies which they enunciate ought to be properly the policies of the Republican State Committee, just as the policies that are enunciated by the Governor of the Commonwealth are properly the policies of the Democratic State Committee of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Now, Mr. Pesident, I have prepared a resolution and I intend to introduce it on behalf of Senator Fleming, the Republican Senator who is the spokesman on this particular panel and who is the most vociferous. Of course, I hope he knows what that means and does not get mad at me again. You know that is true because, once I remember when I was a kid in the Marine Corps, there was a fellow from up in New Jersey and one day, in just joshing around and having fun, I accidentally called him a vegetarian. He did not know what it meant and it cost me a punch in the nose, and I do not want that to happen now. What I mean by that, Senator Fleming, is that you are a very determined and loquacious man on television, and you speak with force and a great many of your TV fans have asked me to introduce a resolution to allow you to do the things you say ought to be done on television. Since you are speaking for the Republican Committee, I would assume that if this is the Republican policy, having control of your committee and having control of the Senate of Pennsylvania and this is what you think ought to be done, there ought to be no reason whatsoever, once this resolution is introduced on your behalf, that this job cannot be done for the people of Pennsylvania. It is time now, since we are going before the people with our problems, that we ought to stand behind the things that we say.

Therefore, Mr. President, I would like to read a resolution for the benefit and edification of the Members of the Senate:

"Republican Policy Resolution

"Whereas, the Republican Party of Pennsylvania chose Senator Robert D. Fleming of Allegheny County, and others, as its spokesmen last Wednesday night, June 8, 1955, to give its position in relation to taxes and the Budget of Pennsylvania for the 1955-57 Biennium; and

"Whereas, said Senator Fleming did publicly announce on Station KDKA Television Channel 2, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, as well as on the floor of the Senate, the position of the Republicans to be: That the Budge could be balanced by a flat twenty percent cut in payroll across the Board and more specifically he called for a flat cut of twenty per cent on all appropriations for salaries in Administrative jobs in the Commonwealth and I quote from the record

" 'I can assure the Governor that he can cut down the cost of government to that extent by cutting the payroll twenty per cent, because I have figures here which show, from the General Fund, salaries and wages in the amount of $106,000,000.'

"Whereas, said Senator Fleming has also questioned the authority of the recognized labor leaders of Pennsylvania's great labor unions by making a public statement on Station KDKA, that I quote:

" 'I am sure' " said Senator Fleming " 'the union chiefs don't speak for the workingman' and

"Whereas, said Senator Fleming, supported by House G. O. P. Leader Charles Smith, did unequivocally place the Republican Party in favor of a greater and more burdensome and unfair sales tax, publicly on Station KDKA, other radio and T. V. stations;

Mr. President, I present this resolution on behalf of Senator Fleming.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Crawford, Mr. Mahany, will state his point of order.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I presume the presentation of this resolution by Senator Dent is just supposed to be humorous and we should not take it seriously. Certainly, the Senator knows that he cannot present a resolution on behalf of some other Senator without his consent. If Senator Dent wants to present that resolution on behalf of himself, that is one thing. However, I do not understand it when Senator Dent introduces a resolution here, to be taken seriously, on behalf of another Senator without that Senator's consent. I do not presume that Senator Dent has, at the present time, Senator Fleming's consent to introduce that resolution on his behalf.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I undestand that this is a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. A point of order has been raised. I wondered whether the gentleman from Westmoreland, Senator Dent, wanted to answer the point of order.

Mr. DENT. I will be glad to, Mr. President.

Every day of our lives, in the General Assembly, we present Petitions and Remonstrances and we present them whether—there is no restriction against presenting them for a Member of the Senate. All he has to do is to get up and deny that he is for this resolution. That would be all right with me.

The PRESIDENT. In answer to the point of order raised by the gentleman from Crawford, Mr. Mahany, the Chair is of the opinion that the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, is introducing the resolution. However, it is a resolution on behalf of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Fleming.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, Senator Dent said that he was presenting the resolution on behalf of Senator Fleming. He was not presenting it on behalf of himself. If that were true, some Senator could get up here and present a resolution, sponsored by me, you might say, to eliminate the fine town of Titusville.

Dr. DENT. Mr. President, that would be perfectly all right; it might be a good thing.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I want to reciprocate with Jeannette, the city of Jeannette, by the way.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I might say that the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Fleming, has not objected.

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. President, the gentleman from Westmoreland, Senator Dent, said that he hoped I would not get mad. I certainly have no intention of getting angry; in fact, I want to compliment him. I want to say that I think he is an absolute geius at putting a minimum of thought into a maximum of words. I have never seen his equal in all the years I have been down around here and, Senator Dent, I want to compliment you on that.

Mr. President, this is certainly ridiculous. I did say that I thought the Governor of Pennsylvania could effect certain economies. I had no intentions of getting up here and starting that all over again. We have done it on several other occasions. All I want to say to the Senator from Westmoreland is, "Let George Leader do the things that he said he would do and accomplish the platform, the basis of which caused his election as Governor of Pennsylvania." He promised to the people of Pennsylvania that he would effect certain economies. He promised to the people of Pennsylvania that he would cut down the cost of government, that he would reorganize governmental functions and that he would not enact any wage tax or any sales tax. He certainly is seemingly keeping faith on the one premise that he will not sign a sales tax. However, he is not keeping faith when he has over in the House of Representatives—and call it what you will, Senator Dent, it is still a wage tax. It is an oppressive tax to the wage earners of Pennsylvania. Governor Leader cannot justify it.

I want to say to you, Senator Dent, just why the Republican State Committee chose me, along with the other two, to follow Governor Leader on the television network in Pennsylvania, I do not know. I sort of hope—you know we all like to hear things—that you were right. You could not be right, however, because I am not photogenic. Therefore, they could not have possibly chose me for that reason. It would be nice if they had. I want to assure you that we will go across Pennsylvania, following Governor Leader, and we will say to the people of Pennsylvania, "Let George Leader do the things that he promised he would do." We will also say to the people of Pennsylvania, "Let him put in some of the reorganization plans that he said that he would put in that would effect the savings of money in Pennsylvania." We will be for those measures.

I want to say to you further, Senator Dent, that I cannot control what the panel asks. I want to assure you that of the two programs I have been on, they have been completely unrehearsed. I have no idea what the questioners are going to ask. I am positively certain that Senator Mahany and Mr. Smith have no idea of what the panelists are going to ask.

I might say for your benefit, sir, that on last Thursday morning I received a call in Pittsburgh from the manager of the televsion station in Lancaster. He was a little bit disturbed because the Democratic County Chair man, as I understand it—I may be wrong on that—however, the Democrats in Lancaster County had said that this was a loaded panel and that they wanted representation on the panel to question us, the three Republicans. "I said, have no objection to anyone that you put on that panel. You put anyone on you want, sir. I assure you we will be happy to have him on it." He chose the Democratic County Chairman of Lancaster County, a very fine gentleman. He got on the panel and questioned us. We do not have any objection—and I know that I speak for Senator Mahany and Mr. Smith on this—to anyone they put on those panels in any station in Pennsylvania.

Mr. President, I do not want to carry this on a lot longer. I could and, Senator Dent, you know I am capable of doing it. I think this is ridiculous. I certainly do not want you to introduce any resolutions for me. I can introduce all the resolutions I need to introduce.

Mr. President, I am objecting to the immediate consideration of this resolution and ask that it be—pardon me, I now yield to my leader, Senator Mahany.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, certainly we are establishing an odd policy here in the Senate, if the presentation of this resolution is to be taken seriously.

Mr. President, I cannot imagine a time when I could get up here an introduce a resolution on behalf of some other Senator without his consent. I do not think we, in the Senate, want to adopt that policy. If that is the policy, next week I might introduce a resolution on behalf of Senator Dent without his consent and I do not know right now what I might put in it, but it probably would be embarrassing to him.

I would say that as long as I have been a Member of the Legislature, this is the first time that I have ever heard any Senator rise in place and present a resolution sponsored by some other Senator without his consent. I think it is out of order, and I raise the point of order again. I think when you ruled on this, you were under the impression that Senator Dent was presenting the resolution on behalf of himself, which he cleared up and said was not the case.

I raise the point of order again.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Crawford, Mr. Mahany, raises a further point of order about the introduction of this resolution.

Mr. DENT. Not that it matters a whole lot, Mr. President, but I think I was standing here very attentively listening to the gentleman and he asked for a minute to have a side bar conference and the next thing I knew, he had thrown a pinch hitter. I do not remember him asking for the floor, but he can have it if he wants it. He can ask all the questions he wants to because I was, at the moment, going to read the reasons for putting in this resolution and in order that there be no question about the veracity of the statments, I have the tape from the radio and television stations.

Mr. President, I think that if you are going to go before the public of this great Commonwealth and you are going to say that you can cut $200,000,000 off the State budget by doing these very things that you tell the people can be done, then you should be asked to do them. You have twenty-six votes in the Senate. You cut the twenty per cent off the budget, off of the payroll, which is the way you are going to do it. We did not say that. We did not ask to cut twenty per cent. We are trying to raise the revenue to keep the standards high. Let us see what you are going to do with it. You do not have the courage to put the resolution in. So, in behalf of the statments you had the courage to make on television, I am puting it in for you.

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. President, the gentleman from Westmoreland, Senator Dent, said that he could not understand how Senator Mahany had secured the floor. I think the record will show that I said, "I now yield the floor to Senator Mahany." If there is any question on that, I would like the record read back.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, it is not important. You could have had the floor any way.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Majority and Minority Floor Leaders please come to the rostrum?

(The Senate was at ease.)

RESOLUTION WITHDRAWN

Mr. DENT. Mr. President—

The PRESIDENT. For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I rise to request the withdrawal of the resolution to my desk.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman wishes to withdraw his resolution.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, for the purpose of retintroduction.

The PRESIDENT. The resolution will be returned to the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent.

The point of order raised by the Senator from Crawford, Mr. Mahany, I presume will be withdrawn since the resolution has been returned.

Mr. MAHANY. I will not insist that you rule now on a moot question.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained uuanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, at this time I have a resolution entitled, "Republican Policy Resolution," the contents of which are pretty well known to the Members of the Senate. I have been requested to introduce this resolution and, therefore, I will introduce it under my sponsorship, by request.

RESOLUTION REFERRED TO COMMITTEE REPUBLICAN POLICY

Mr. DENT (By request), offered the following resolution which was twice read and referred to the Committee on Rules:

In the Senate, June 13, 1955.

Whereas, the Republican Party of Pennsylvania chose Sen. Robert D. Fleming of Allegheny County, and others, as its spokesmen Wednesday night, June 8, 1955, to give its position in relation to taxes and the Budget of Pennsylvania for the 1955-1957 biennium; and

Whereas, said Senator Fleming did publicly announce on Station KDKA Television Channel 2, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, as well as on the floor of the Senate, the position of the Republicans to be: That the Budget could be balanced by a flat 20% cut in payroll across the Board and more specifically he called for a flat cut of 20% on all appropriations for salaries in Administrative jobs in the Commonwealth, quote

"I can assure the Governor that he can cut down the cost of government to that extent by cutting the payroll twenty per cent, because I have figures here which show, from the General Fund, salaries and wages in the amount of $106,000,000."

Whereas, said Senator Fleming has also questioned the authority of the recognized labor leader of Pennsylvania's great labor unions by making a public statement on Station KDKA, that, quote,

"I am sure the union chiefs don't speak for the workingman," and

Whereas, said Senator Fleming, supported by House G. O. P. Leader Charles Smith, did unequivocally place the Republican Party in favor of a greater and more burdensome and unfair sales tax, publicly on Station KDKA, other radio and T. V. stations.

Therefore be it resolved, that it is resolved;

A. That the Republican controlled Senate immediately pass this Resolution calling for a 20% cut in wages and salaries for all Pensylvania state employees including

Pennsylvania State Police, and officers

Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board employees and members

All departments under the Governor and all Cabinet Officers

Public Utility Commission employees and members

State Public School Teachers and employees who receive State aid

All State Hospital employees

All Highway workers

All Legislators, Senators and General Assembly employees

All members of Commissions, Boards and Special Councils,

Engineers, Architects and Consultants

And any and all others whose salaries or wages are paid in whole or in part from appropriations contained in the Budget.

Be it further resolved;

B. That this Resolution is in effect an endorsement of a more burdensome State Sales Tax to be paid equally by pauper and millionaire, by employee and employer, by clerks and banker by rich and poor by soldier and civilian, widow and orphan, pensioner and profitier and wage earner and relief recipient, and all recipients of unemployment, workmen and occupationational disease compensation.

Be it further resolved;

That the Republican Senate by its action on this Resolution state whether Senator Fleming speaks for the Republican Party when he challenges the Pennsylvania labor leaders rights to speak for their Unions, or whether he speaks for public consumption to fool the people and to build up the usual false promises of the Republican Party, and

Be it further resolved;

That the Republican State Platforms for 1946 and 1950 be inserted in the record with their promises of "no new taxes and economies in Government" with a statement showing the millions of dollars in new taxes under Governors Duff and Fine and the million of dollars of budget increases and,

Be it further resolved;

That said budgets and G. O. P. Party platforms for 1946 and 1950 be designated as required reading by all members of the Republican State Committee and the Republican members of the House and Senate.

RESOLUTION

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I desire to present a resolution at this time.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I will ask the gentleman from Washington County to yield for a moment.

Mr. LANE. I yield to the gentleman from Westmoreland Senator Dent.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. President and Members of the Senate, I have never been more serious in my entire life about a matter that I want to take up. Politicians over the years have enjoyed a very bad reputation in many quarters. One of the reasons, Mr. President, is that a great many things that we say, or are supposed to have said, are ofttimes misrepresented.

Mr. President, I have heard on this Senate floor, time and time again, the statement that George Leader said this and George Leader said that. Every man in a political campaign says many things. I remember distinctly in 1946, when I was on that ill-fated Democratic ticket as a candidate for Lieutenant-Governor, the people of this great State were led to believe by the statements of the candidates against us that there was a $200,000,000 surplus in the treasury of this great Commonwealth. The very first message from Jim Duff, to the General Assembly, was that he called upon us for $124,000,000 of new taxation because there was not a surplus but, in fact, there was a deficit according to him of some $62,000,000.

Now, Mr. President and Members of this Senate, George Leader never said that he would be against a classified income tax. He did say then, and he will say now and I will say for him and for the Democratic Party, that we are against a flat wage tax in the State of Pennsylvania because, under a flat wage tax in this Commonwealth, those who earn $7,000 a year or less, making up over ninety-two per cent of the peoples in this great Commonwealth, would have to pay approximately sixty-five per cent of the tax load. We feel that that is inequitable. Therefore, we have devised a tax plan for which we are willing to accept the full responsibility and for which the Republican spokesmen, according to the tape that I have received containing their voices and I will be glad to play it back to the Senators if they so desire, keep saying is our responsibility.

We stand here ready and willing to assume our responsibility. It is our responsibility, you say, to evolve a tax program. We are willing to do that, but we are not going to be held responsible for a tax program that is subject to the veto and veto and veto until the tax program that is evolved is a tax program which the Republican Majority in the Senate wishes. You see, if you do that then we are not allowed to accept our responsibility; the responsibility has shifted. And so it is with the budget. We accept the full responsibility for the budget demands of this great Commonwealth. We take into consideration the $400,000,000 of mandated revenues which are needed at this time because of mandated appropriations that we must make. We take into consideration the $109,000,000 of new revenue that we are going to try to get in order to increase Pennsylvania's industry potential, in order to take care of the ill in the Department of Health and Welfare in the mental institutions. We take that because we say that the universities of this State need a greater amount of State aid. We say that, in this same breath, Mr. President, it is our responsibility to the people of this State to see to it that government goes forward.

Mr. President, Governor Leader did say that he would not sign a sales tax. Now if these Republicans who insist that Governor Leader—as they say, "Let George live up to his promises"—live up to his promises, why are they trying to cram down his throat, and the Democratic Party's throat, the one tax bill which was contained in the Democratic Platform? If it is just as obnoxious to you to vote for an income tax because you say the Governor said he would not be for a wage tax, then how can it be less obnoxious to you to force the Governor into a sales tax which he said he would not sign?

Now, Mr. President and Members of this Senate, this was no joking matter with me today. This was well thought out, and although I am accused of using a maximum of words with a minimum of though, that can be probably one man's opinion, too. I try not to bore this Senate unles I think about what I am talking about.

You know, Mr. President, years ago my father said that two of the greatest evils that ever struck America were the invention of the safety razor and giving up the habit of chewing tobacco. The reason he said that was because a great deal of our trouble today was caused by the fact that some forty-two per cent of our families end up in marriage breakups of divorce because the men have made themselves so darn attractive by shaving off their beards that the women cannot resist them. The second thing was that when they quit chewing tobacco, they spoke before they took time to spit and when they took time to spit, they had a little time to think and they though out what they were going to say. However, we have developed a new breed of tobacco chewers who do not spit, they just talk.

Mr. President and Members of the Senate, when I brought this resolution here I thought it was the only dramatic way that I could present to the Members of this Senate the inconsistency with the Republican position that they are presenting to the people of this State. They have said, and there are a great many people who believe you, that twenty per cent can be cut from the payroll of this Commonwealth. They have gone out over the air and said that. They have said it here on the Senate floor. They have talked about it on television and radio.

Now, Mr. President, they have twenty-six votes in this Senate. If they believe that twenty per cent can be cut from the budget, it is their duty to the people of Pennsylvania to cut that twenty per cent. We do not believe that it ought to be done and we do not believe in all decency it can be done and, therefore, Mr. President, we did not go before the people and say we are going to trim the budget twenty per cent by cutting it from payrolls of State employees.

Now if you believe that, if you believe that twenty per cent can be cut from the payroll, then it is your responsibility to cut it because we do not believe it. Show us how to do it. Cut twenty per cent from the State Police, cut twenty per cent from the appropriations to the schoolteachers in Pennsylvania, cut twenty per cent from the hospital help in the State of Pennsylvania if you feel that that is right, for you have the votes to do it. No one can stop you. However, I will assure you that we will not vote for that cut because we do not believe that the employees of this State are overpaid.

Mr. President, I do not know whether the gentlemen on the other side read the papers or not, but we are now going through another round of wage increases all over these United States, in the basic industries of this State and they, after all, are the bell cows of our economy. They lead the way in the matters of wages, hours and conditions of labor. They lead our economy either forward or backward. They must believe that we are goin forward because, of recent date, General Motors, in fact this morning, signed a new contract with the United Automobile Workers. Last week the Ford Automobile Company signed a new contract. Westinghouse is negotiating in St. Louis, Missouri, now on the basis of a twenty per cent increase in wages and salaries. Are we then in Pennsylvania to move backward and say to our people in this Commonwealth remember these are the same people whom they want to cut twenty per cent, mind you, in payroll income and stick a two or three per cent sales tax on them after they have cut them twenty per cent. When you realize that fifty-two per cent of all the people in this State making under $5,000 spent more money than they earned last year, the three per cent sales tax become better than a three per cent tax on the greater amount than what they earned. Everything they pay out in sales tax must still come out of the pocket in which they put it after they earned it, Mr. President.

Therefore, Mr. President, this is not a laughing matter; it is a serious matter. These men represent the Republican Party Policy of Pennsylvania. They are telling the people of this State that you can cut twenty per cent from the payroll of this State. If it can be done, go ahead and do it. We have given you the vehicle with which to do it.. We do not object to you living up to what you tell the people, but if you cannot do it stay out of television and tell the people the truth, that you cannot cut twenty per cent. When you do go on television next time and say that you cannot cut the payroll, we will read the resolution at the next television broadcast of ours showing we gave you an opportunity to cut it and you refused to cut the appropriations.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. MAHANY asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I want to be very brief. I was on the same panel with Senator Fleming at the time and, as I remember it, he said that the payroll could be cut twenty per cent. Now that does not mean that the people who are on the payroll would get a twenty per cent cut in their wages. He no doubt meant, as Senator Fleming put it, that he could eliminate twenty per cent of the payroll. According to Governor Leader's campaign promises, he accused the Republican Administration of being wasteful and extravagent and he was going to eliminate some of this waste. Certainly if we had a lot more employees on the payroll than what he thought we should have, he would have the opportunity of eliminating some of these employees.

Why it just came out a week or so ago, Mr. President, that he had saved over $1,000,000 a month. I forget the exact figure over the million, but it ran some $100,000 over a million, over and above the amount that was expended in the last month on the Fine Administration. This saving would approximate about twenty per cent.

As I remember it, the whole payroll of the State runs around $89,000,000 or $90,000,000 a biennium. If we just take his saving at $1,000,000 and make that twenty per cent, that will be $5,000,000 for one hundred per cent and five times twelve is sixty, and multiply that by two for the biennium, and you get $120,000,000 which is more than the payroll.

Am I right or wrong there, Senator?

However, Mr. Presidnt, we are still taking up a lot of time in discussing a problem which is not before us, this tax program.

Now, Mr. President, if we want to discuss things that are being said on television, I certainly do not have any objection to that. I surely want to thank the gentleman for the compliment. I agree with him that at least one of the gentlemen was chosen for his photogenic appearance on television. I thank him for his compliment. I did not say which one it was; I want that to be included in the record.

Senator Dent, one of these days you must tell us how many of the Democratic Senators are for this program. you insist on accusing us of being against Leader's income tax program, but you and I know that you do not have one hundred per cent of the Democratic Senators over on your side. You said that it would be nice if we would get a couple Republican Senators to go along with you. You definitely need more than two. I would like to know how many you would like to have. To date, you have not told us.

I would like to have you tell us some time how many defections you have over there, so that we may be able to figure out how many you might need over here. I do not think it is fair for the Democratic House Members to get the impression from you that you have one hundred per cent of your Democratic Senators behind you on this program, because I do not believe that you do.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, first of all, it is a peculiar thing to me that they tax one per cent, I understand, on wages in this bill and the Republicans call it a payroll tax. When they want to cut twenty per cent off of a payroll, it does not mean that anymore. If you say twenty per cent from the payroll, you must mean the amount from the payroll because if it is a one per cent tax on payroll, it is on the amount which is on the payroll. That is the way I understand this thing. Perhaps I do not understand the kind of language you fellows use. However, if I ever cut my payroll—and I have had to do on occasion—if I have a twenty per cent cut or a ten per cent cut to make on my payroll, Mr. President, there are occasions where you can take a man or two off, but most of the time we have to take it down the line on a percentage cut on all of the people on the payroll if you want to achieve anything.

Now, Mr. President, if they want to change it around—I am only reading the record, Mr. President. It says here $106,000,000 and a twenty per cent cut of that would give the Governor the necessary budget reduction. If he is talking about a twenty per cent cut of peoples, then he should not use the $106,000,000. That is just a technical quesion. He is not going to cut either twenty per cent and if Senator Fleming will allow me, I will present a resolution on his behalf, tomorrow, cutting twenty per cent of the people off the payroll. I am satisfied. If that is what he wants, we will be glad to do it, Mr. President. I think they are about eighty per cent Republicans anyway. Therefore, it would not hurt us too much.

Now, Mr. President, may I finish the question of the gentleman? If the gentleman is so sure that we do not have our votes on this side of the Senate, will he publicly get up and state that they will give us the necessary two votes to pass the tax bill? If he is so sure that we do not have, let him make that promise on the floor.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. WATKINS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. WATKINS. Mr. President, I certainly do not want to enter into any argument with my friend, Senator Dent. I am not prepared today to present my figures on how much I think we can slice out of the budget. However, I want to take exception to one remark that he made.

Mr. President, Senator Dent said that Sentor Fleming was one of the most photogenic Members on the Republican side. To date, I hold that record and I hold that position, and I take execption to that remark.

Mr. DENT. I apologize to the gentleman from Delaware.

RESOLUTION REFERRED TO COMMITTEE

DIRECTING THE AUDITOR GENERAL TO SUBMIT TO THE SENATE CERTAIN INFORMATION PERTINENT TO THE SAMARITAN HOSPITAL

Mr. LANE offered the following resolution which was twice read and referred to the Committee on State Government:

In the Senate, June 13, 1955.

Whereas some four decades ago he General Assembly of Pennsylvania enacted legislation to appropriate considerable amounts of money towards the erection of the Samaritan Hospital in Philadelphia, which is now part of Temple University Hospital and to the University of Pennsylvania towards the erection of several buildings; and

Whereas the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania retained liens upon the buildings that were thus constructed to the full amount of the appropriated sums; and

Whereas certain provisions were made at the time the aforesaid appropriations were advanced directing the nature of the use of the buildings and the collectibility of the aforesaid liens upon failure to comply therewith; and

Whereas no effort was ever made in the past by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to ascertain whether the conditions attached to the appropriated contributions to Temple University and University of Pennsylvania are now being complied with or were carried out in the past at all. It is high time that this should be done; now therefore be it

Resolved that the Senate of Pennsylvania direct the Auditor General of Pennsylvania to prepare and submit to the Senate of Pennsylvania not later than Monday, June 20th, 1955, a statement containing all the pertinent information about the liens of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania upon the Samaritan Hospital and the several buildings of the University of Pennsylvania erected with the money contributed by the Commonwealth.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION TIME OF NEXT MEETING

Mr. WHALLEY offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, June 13, 1955.

Resolved (the House of Representatives concurring), That when the Senate adjourns this week, it reconvene on Monday, June 20, 1955, at two-thirty o'clock, p. m., E. S. T., and when the House of Representatives adjourns this week, it reconvene on Monday, June 20, 1955, at a time to be fixed by the House of Representatives.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented comunication in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which was read as follows:

APPROVED AND SIGNED SENATE BILL No. 150, PRINTER'S No. 57

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governors, Office, Harrisburg, June 13, 1955.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed Senate Bill No. 150, Printer's No. 57, entitled "An Act relating to volunteer fire companies prohibiting any municipality from replacing a volunteer fire company by a paid fire company unless a MAJORITY of the electors of the municipality voting are in favor of the change and providing for referendum to ascertain the will of the electors."

GEORGE M. LEADER

BILL SIGNED

The President (Lieutenant-Governor Roy E. Furman) announced that the Chief Clerk having reported that the following bill had passed both houses of the General Assembly and the same being correct, the title was publicly read as follows:

Senate Bill No. 303, entitled:

An Act amending the act of March 24, 1937 (P. L. 109), entitled "An act relating to interstate cooperation; creating the Pennsylvania Commission on Interstate Cooperation, as well as committees on interstate cooperation of the Senate and of the House of Representatives; defiining the powers and duties of said commission and of said committees; and imposing duties on the Governor and the Secretary of the Commonwealth," increasing the number of the Commission on Interstate Cooperation.

Whereupon,

The President (Lieutenant-Governor Roy E. Furman) in the presence of the Senate signed the same.

CONSIDERATION OF EXECUTIVE NOMINATIONS

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

BILL ON SECOND READING AMENDED

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 179, entitled:

An Act amending the act of April 25, 1929 P. L. 723), entitled "An act regulating the investment of funds by administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers of the State Government," increasing the investment powers of State administrative departments, boards commissions or officers.

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. YOSKO offered the following amendment:

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 1) page 2, line 12 by inserting after "Development"; "which contain an unconditional promise to pay, or an unconditional guarantee of the payment of, the interest thereon regularly, and the principal thereof on or before a specified date, in lawful currency of the United States. Not more than two per cent of the funds in the custody or under the control of the department ,board, commission or officer shall be invested in such bonds, notes or obligations. At the time of making the investment the principal office of the obligor shall be located within the United States."

It was agreed to.

The section was agreed to as amended.

The second section and title were read and agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time, as amended,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading, as amended?

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 179, Printer's No. 103, on second reading, go over in its order, as amended.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT BILL

Mr. SILVERT. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 184, on second reading, entitled:

An Act amending the act of August 5 1932 (P. L. 45) entitled "An act empowering cities of the first and second classes to levy assess and collect or to provide for the levying assessment and collection of certain additional taxes for general revenue purposes authorizing the establishment of bureaus and the appointments and compensation of officers and employes to assess and collect such taxes and permitting penalties to be imposed and enforced" prohibiting the imposition of wage income or occupation taxes on nonresidents and abolishing such taxes heretofore imposed be recommitted to the Committee on Local Government.

Mr. DONOLOW. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

MOTION TO RECOMMIT BILL WITHDRAWN

Mr. SILVERT. Mr. President, at the time I made my motion, I did not know that there was an understanding that, because of the lateness of the hour, the bill would go over in order.

Mr. President, I, therefor, withdraw my motion at this time to recommit.

Mr. DONOLOW. Mr. President, I withdraw my second to the motion to recommit Senate Bill No. 184.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. SILVERT. Mr. President, I now ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 184, Printer's No. 138, on second reading, go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I understand that the agreement was that any motion to recommit would be made tomorrow, and not that the bill would go over in order. We are ready to have the bill read for the second time, and I object to the request that the bill go over in order.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, it was in the interest of expediency that we agree that we would not have anything controversial come up. However, if you want to have a couple hours of debate, it is perfectly all right with me. Go ahead and object to it. I do not care; I am not interested in the bill anyway.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, the threat of a two-hour debate at this time is, I think, quite unfair but very convincing. Therefore, I will withdraw my objection.

The PRESIDENT. Objection to Senate Bill No. 184, Printer's No. 138, having been withdrawn, the bill will go over in its order.

BILL ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 221, entitled:

An Act amending the act of June 27, 1923 (P. L. 858), entitled "An act establishing a State employes' retirement system and creating a retirement board for the administration thereof establishing certain funds from contributions by the Commonwealth and contributing State employes defining the uses and purposes thereof and the manner of payments therefrom and providing for the guaranty by the Commonwealth of certain of said funds imposing powers and duties upon the heads of departments in which State employes serve excepting annuities allowances returns benefits and rights from taxation and judicial process and providing penalties" by permitting certain contributors to change from the one one-hundred-sixtieth (1-160) to the one one-hundreth (1-100) class and defining the benefits to be obtained thereby.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

BILLS OVER IN ORDER

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the following bills, on second reading, go over in their order:

House Bill No. 226, Printer's No. 447; and

Senate Bill No. 235, Printer's No. 121.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 256, on second reading, entitled:

An Act amending the act of April 12, 1951 (P. L. 90), entitled "An act relating to alcoholic liquors alcohol and malt and brewed beverages amending revising consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto regulating and restricting the manufacture purchase sale possession consumption importation transportation furnishing holding in bond holding in storage traffic in and use of alcoholic liquors alcohol and malt and brewed beverages and the persons engaged or employed therein defining the powers and duties of the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board providing for the establishment and operation of State liquor stores for the payment of certain license fees to the respective municipalities and townships for the abatement of certain nuisances and in certain cases for search and seizure without warrant prescribing penalties and forfeitures providing for local option and repealing existing laws" increasing the quota for the issuance of retail licenses.

be recommitted to the Committee on Law and Order.

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON SECOND READING AMENDED

Agreeably to order.

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 262, entitled:

An Act amending the act of May 26, 1949 (P. L. 1828), entitled "An act concerning the investment powers and duties of guardians, committees, trustees, and other fiduciaries, except personal representatives, and prescribing the nature and kind of investments which may be made and retaind by such fiduciaries," authorizing fiduciaries to invest in bonds, notes or other obligations issued, assumed or guaranteed by International Bank for Reconstruction and Development.

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. YOSKO offered the following amendment:

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 3) page 3, line 7 by inserting after "Development": "which contain an unconditional promise to pay, or an unconditional guarantee of the payment of, the interest thereon regularly, and the principal thereof on or before a specified date, in lawful currency of the United States. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MONDAY, June 13, 1955.

The House met at 3:30 p. m. EST.
The SPEAKER (Hiram G. Andrews) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Reverend Harold J. Crouse, Pastor of the Trinity Lutheran Church, York, offered the following prayer:

O God, Who hast called our nation to a place of trust and responsibility throughout the world, we humbly thank Thee for all the servants in government of our great and beautiful State of Pennsylvania. We pray Thee that a wise and humble spirit may prevail in all the councils of our State Government; that those who bear the rule may be delivered from unscrupulous ambition and false judgments. That men of wealth and ease may not miss the true end of life; that men of poor and humble lot may keep their self-respect and be preserved from misery and bitterness of soul; that social life and industry may be so governed that one man's good may not be another man's hurt, and that all may have their fair share of wealth and freedom; and that men and women may eagerly respond to every call of sacrifice and service. Take from us, we pray Thee, all pride and greed and injustice and grant to us the spirit of unselfish service which alone can make us great. We beseech Thee to hear us, O Lord. Amen.

JOURNALS APPROVED

The SPEAKER. Are there any corrections to the Journals of Wednesday, June 1, Thursday, June 2, Monday, June 6, Tuesday, June 7, 1955? If not, and without objection, the Journals are approved.

EXPLANATION REQUESTED BY SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. An explanation is due from the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Waterhouse, a well known potato farmer who should account for his present condition. What potato rose up and bit him, we would like to know?

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, just don't tell anybody that you are going to vote for the income tax. I thought this fellow was a peaceful sort of soul, he just asked me what I was going to do about it and I said, "Oh, suppose I'd better vote for it," and that is all I remember.

The SPEAKER. We knew that the gentleman from Erie was good, but we didn't think that he was that good.

Section 3 Such water utilities are hereby authorized to act as the billing and collecting agents of any such municipal authority which imposes upon the owners or occupants of premises served by such water utilities any rentals rates or charges for the use of a sewer sewerage system or sewage treatment works Upon request of any such authority the water utility may include with its own bills for water or water service such rental rates and charges for sewer sewerage and sewage tratment service [Such] If the water utility agrees to do so such added rentals rates and charges shall be set forth separately from the charge for water or water service but both shall be payable to and collected by such water utility and payment of either may be refused unless both are paid Such water utility shall at least quarter-annually account for and turn over the moneys it has collected to the authority which shall have imposed such rentals rates or charge

Section 4 The authority imposing such sewer sewerage or sewage treatment rentals rates or charges shall pay to every such water utility the reasonable additional clerical and other expenses incurred by it in providing such billing and collecting services The authority or city borough or township which shall request and direct the shut-off of water shall also pay to the water utility the cost of such shut-off services and the estimated loss of water revenues resulting from such shut-off Water utilities are hereby authorized to enter into long-term agreements with such authorities for the performance of such billing and collecting services and with such authorities cities boroughs and townships for such shut-off services which agreements shall be binding upon such water utilities their successors and assigns If a dispute shall arise between any such water utility and the authority city borough or township regarding the cost of such services or the amount of such revenues lost or regarding the provisions of any agreement between them concerning payments for such services such dispute shall be submitted by either party to the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission whose decision unless reversed on appeal by the Superior Court shall be final but this act shall not be construed to grant to the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission any other regulatory power or jurisdiction whatsoever over counties cities boroughs townships or authorities

Section 3 Section 5 of said act as amended by the act approved the fourteenth day of January one thousand nine hundred fifty-two (P. L. 2040) is hereby reenacted and further amended to read as follows

Section 5 As used in this act the term "water utility" or "water utilities" shall be considered to include all cities boroughs townships [and] municipal authorities and public utility companies engaged in the supplying of water or water service

Section 4 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. KAMYK. Mr. Speaker, two sessions ago a pure streams law was passed and to set this law in motion in Allegheny County a sanitary authority was created and at this time, after years of planning and preparation the sanitary authority in Allegheny County is about ready to set their plans into motion.

There is an Act on the statutes today that authorizes cities, boroughs, townships and municipal authorities, engaged in the supplying of water, to shut off the supply of water for non-payment of sewage or sewage treatment rentals. Now, there is such a law right now, but that law, that Act, does not exlude public utility companies engaged in the supplying of water from the provisions of this Act.

This bill was introduced in the General Assembly on behalf of the Allegheny County sanitary authority. This was done at the suggestion of their investment counsellors. There are a number of private water companies supplying water in the municipalities which will be served by the Allegheny County Sanitary Authority. Therefore, it is extremely important to the success of the authority's project that the Act be amended so as to include private water companies within its purview.

The authority has engaged bond council and financial advisers and is getting close to the point, as I said before, of advertising for bids for construction and for the sale of revenue bonds. Both the bond council and the financial advisers feel strongly that the enactment of the bill into law will tremendously enhance the marketability of the revenue bonds and will constitute an important factor in keeping the interest rate at a minimum. On a total bond issue of some $90 million this is obviously a very important matter and this bill is in the public interest and should be passed.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Kamyk.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Kamyk, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KAMYK. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, do I understand that the provisions of this bill are that if a person doesn't pay his sewer rental that they shut their water off?

Mr. KAMYK. Yes, Mr. Speaker, it could be. It is sort of an additional protection for the investors who will buy bonds, and it will also save money for the public who use the water because there will not be as high a rate of interest on those bonds as there might be if this bill does not pass. Remember that the water that is furnished by the cities, boroughs, and so forth is already included in the Act. Remember that. And we haven't been shutting any water off. We are just trying to protect the people from paying a high rate of interest on the bonds that will be sold and we are also trying to get a market for those bonds.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, the point I am trying to get at is this, do these people have any way of disposing of their sewage if this Act passes, with their water shut off?

Mr. KAMYK. Yes, Mr. Speaker, they will have a way to dispose of their sewage if this act passes.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Well, Mr. Speaker, if they shut their water off, how can they dispose of it?

Mr. KAMYK. Mr. Speaker, they will only shut the water off if they have to or must. They might shut the water off for the people who do not pay their bill.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, may I also then ask if that is the case, has this bill been cleared with the Secretary of Welfare, Mr. Shapiro?

Mr. KAMYK. I don't know, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, I sat as a Member on a committee on some of our institutions in this state, and that was a very violent objection of the Secretary of Welfare that we shut the water off in the toilets in some of the rooms of the inmates. Now, are we going to shut it off in the whole community?

Mr. KAMYK. Mr. Speaker, to answer the gentleman, even at the present time, if you shut the water off, and it hazards the people's health in any way, the Health Department can move in and prevent it.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, if they have no water, how can they do it?

I think this is a bad approach to these problems, Mr. Speaker. That is all I care to interrogate the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, if we are going to object to these practices in institutions in private rooms, and we ask this Legislature to extend it to an entire community, if necessary, then I say that we should be against it. If it is bad in one place, it is bad in another, and I certainly will not vote to condemn those practices in an institution and stand on the floor of this House and vote for a bill of this type that will affect the whole public.

Mr. SARRAF. Mr. Speaker, in fairness to the arguments advanced, this condition in Allegheny County, with the exception of one company, has been in existence for the past four or five years. The fear that is being created in your mind that they are going to shut off people's water and in institutions water can be shut off, I do not know where that fear is derived from. But the condition in this bill is this, there is only one company in the entire county which at the present moment does not come under the authority, and all this does is to bring in this one minor group to fit in with the Allegheny County Sanitary Authority.

Now, talking about rooms and hospitals and institutions not getting their water, I don't know where this argument even fits in this bill. This is strictly a bill for only one county, Allegheny. I hope you can see your way clear to vote for this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally

INTERROGATION

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH asked and obtained unanimous consent to interrogate the Majority Leader.

Mr. Speaker, just as a point of information, it is not that we are against these bills, but may I interrogate the Majority Leader?

The SPEAKER. Will the Majority Leader permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. READINGER. I shall Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I intended to bring this up prior to 1332 being voted on, but I think it will serve its purpose at this time.

I wonder if I can find out from the Majority Leader what committee these bills came from?

Mr. READINGER. I believe they came from the Committee on Mines and Mining.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. These increases, Mr. Speaker, that are in 1332, 1333 and 1338, are not they to be paid by the state?

Mr. READINGER. I believe they are, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. May I ask the gentleman, Mr. Speaker, have they been provided for in the budget, the present budget?

Mr. READINGER. I have been informed that they have been.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. May I ask the gentleman, Mr. Speaker, why these bills did not go to the Appropriations Committee to make sure that they were provided for in the budget?

Mr. READINGER. I have been informed that they were provided for in the budget. That is the reason they were not sent to Appropriations.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, in the past, regardless of most of these things, even though they have been provided for in the budget, has not this type of legislation been cleared by the Appropriations Committee?

Mr. READINGER. The practice has been to send them to Appropriations for the purpose of certain bookkeeping, but I have been informed that these items have been noted and taken care of in the budget.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, we are not against these bills on this side of the House, and I do not want to embarrass the gentleman at this point by asking him where in the budget, because I do think he has the information, and he does not have it at his finger tips, but I think in the future it might be a lot better to send this type of bill to the Appropriations Committee, so that rather than taking someone's word that they understand it is in the budget, they know it is, because we are going to look rather silly if we pass this type of legislation without knowing what it is going to cost, and then all of a sudden find out that the money might not be available for these mine inspectors, and the rest of the people covered by this type of legislation.

I think in the future if we would not deviate from the practice we have worked out in the past, it might be a safeguard for these individuals that we are now protecting.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I wish to thank the gentleman for his suggestion, and I think it is a good one.

However, when the Chairman of the Committee from which the bill emanated informs me that it has been taken care of in the budget, I am certainly inclined to take him at his word, and to believe he has cleared it with the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee. So I do not believe in the future we shall be embarrassed by finding that we have not provided for such increases.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, may I further interrogate the gentleman?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. I could be in ignorance of this fact Mr. Speaker, and may I ask, has the Department of Mines been before the Appropriations Committee, this session?

Mr. READINGER. It has not, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. I think it might be appropriate before we pass this type of legislation. Mr. Speaker, to at least have the department in to see if it could be cut to make up for some of this money.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1338, as follows:

An Act to further amend the act approved the twenty-fifth day of April one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 289) entitled "An act providing for the health and safety of persons employed in and about the coal mines of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania the protection and preservation of property connected therewith the appointment of electrical inspectors by the Secretary of Mines with the consent and approval of the Governor the fixing of their salaries and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties and the fixing of the qualifications which shall be possessed by persons appointed to the position of electrical inspector" by regulating the salary of electrical inspectors

Section 1 Section two of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of April one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 289) entitled "An act providing for the health and safety of persons employed in and about the coal mines of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania the protection and preservation of property connected therewith the appointment of electrical inspectors by the Secretary of Mines with the consent and approval of the Governor the fixing of their salaries and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties and the fixing of the qualifications which shall be possessed by persons appointed to the position of electrical inspector" as last amended by the act approved the fourteenth day of January one thousand nine hundred fifty-two (1951-52 P. L. 1942) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 2 The persons appointed to the position of electrical inspector shall not be under 30 or over 50 years of age on the date of their appointment They shall be citizens of this Commonwealth and shall devote their whole time and attention to the duties of their office They shall have had five years experience in gaseous mines of this Commonwealth as electrician or electrical engineer and shall be conversant with the laws and regulations governing the installation and operation of electrical equipment in and around coal mines The electrical inspector shall receive a salary [of six thousand six hundred fifty-two dollars ($6,652) per annum] of seven thousand one hundred eighty-four dollars ($7,184) per annum together with the necessary expenses incidental to the performance of his duties under the law Such salaries and expenses shall be paid from the appropriation made for the payment of the salaries and expenses of the mine inspectors

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

The majority required by the constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 95 as follows:

An Act amending the act of May twenty-seven one thousand eight hundred forty-one (P. L. 400) entitled "An act Relating to the Election of County Treasurers and for other purposes" removing certain eligibility restrictions

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 Section 3 act of May twenty-seven one thousand eight hundred forty-one (P. L. 400) entitled "An act Relating to the Election of County Treasurers and for other purposes" is amended to read

Section 3 No judge clerk or porthonotary of any court register of wills recorder of deeds county commissioner or county auditor shall be eligible to [election] serve as county treasurer during their continuance in office [nor shall any county commissioner or county auditor be eligible until the expiration of one year next after the term for which they shall have been elected nor shall any county treasurer serve in such office for more than two years in any term of four years]

Section 2 This act shall take effect immediately

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I understand this is going to be speech day. I certainly hope both I and the Majority Leader do not bore the House too much, but here goes the first one. We will let him come back on the second one.

Mr. Speaker, a couple of weeks ago when the budget hearings of the House Appropriations Committee began, the majority admited that they had made an error of $7.5 million by including twice the amount needed to pay part of the cost of retirement. We have not said too much about that because it was a mistake, and we believe it was an honest mistake. But regardless of that fact $7.5 million is still a lot of money.

Of course, if the mistake had not been discovered, it would have meant that the wage earners of Pennsylvania would have had to pay Governor Leader's one per cent wage tax for a solid month to provide that extra money of $7.5 million that according to the Governor's original budget he said he would need. If you remember, in the original budget he needed that kind of money and it was $15 million.

Although you have corrected the error and decided it was an error, we have not heard that the Governor has reduced the amount of money he says he needs. He still includes the $7.5 million. He is still asking for the same amount in wage taxes as he did before.

According to the Governor himself, every hundred dollar exemption writen into the wage tax means a loss of $8 million. That was the Governor's figure on television. But I ask you, has he asked that the exemption be made $1,100 instead of $1,000? I have not heard it, nor have I heard any proposal from anybody on your side. If we are saving $7.5 million, let us put the exemption up. Those are the Governor's figures.

That is not the only place that the Governor is asking for more money to do the same thing twice. Let me give you another example.

On March 28th Governor Leader appeared before the General Assembly and presented what he said was his Economic Development Program, which he said would cost $35,700,000. Although the Governor has failed to include this program in his budget, and by that I mean the $35,700,000 is not included in his budget anywhere, he asked for tax funds to finance it. Everywhere that he is appearing in the state he has talked about his $35,7000,000 Economic Development Program.

Now I want to make this clear. In his budget message he told us specifically that this $35,700,000 was in addition to his other recommended appropriations. Those words are taken from his budget message, the $35,700,000 is in addition.

Now we will tell you what was included in that program. There was $20 million for authorities; there was $8.5 million for mine drainage; there was $500,000 for a coal board, there was $1 million for state aid to local groups in the development of industry; there was $5 million to be contributed to redevelopment authorities and there was $700,000 for a complete geological survey of the state.

Let me read to you what the Governor said about this $700,000 in his message to the Legislature on March 28th, and I quote:

> "I therefore request the Legislature to give sympathetic consideration to the preparation of a mineral deposit inventory and I suggest that the Department of Internal Aflairs be granted sufficient additional funds, estimated at $700,000 for this purpose."

Here we have the Governor asking for $700,000 and including it in his $35.7 million for economic development in addition to his budget.

Now let us take a look at the budget. In the budget the Governor asked the Legislature to appropriate $1,907,644 to the Department of Internal Affairs, which is an increase of $571,000 over what was appropriated to the same department for the last biennium. What was the increase for?

If you had attended the hearing with Miss Blatt the other day in front of the Appropriations Committee, and I quote Miss Blatt, who is now Secretary of Internal Affairs, she said that $400,000 of it was for the expansion of the geological survey in the next two years.

The Governor has $700,000 in a statement , she has $400,000 in addition. So here we have Miss Blatt in the regular budget, which is the printed budget, asking for $400,000 and the Governor in his Economic Development Program asking for $700,000 for the same purpose for the same identical purpose.

Now we ask you, who is right, Miss Blatt or the Governor Whose word is the Legislature to take?? Are you going to give the Governor the $700,000 requested by him over and above the budget, or are you going to give Miss Blatt the $400,000 that she is asking for her Department? Or are you going to give it to both of them? We do not know. We do not even know if it is another mistake. But there is money that can be saved.

Two years ago Governor Leader voted to abolish the Department of Internal Affairs, but now that a Democrat holds the office it suddenly becomes very important for, outside of the Governor's Office itself, the biggest percentage of increase in the entire budget is for the Department of Internal Affairs.

The Governor is asking for a sixty-five per cent increase for himself, and now he is asking a forty-two per cent increase for his good friend Miss Blatt. And remember, two years ago as a Senator he thought the whole Department was so useless that he was ready to abolish it.

The other day the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Lopresti, was quite disturbed. He got up on the floor of the House and he was quite disturbed about a statement that he seemed to think I had made. He wasn't hearing correctly. He was quite disturbed about the word "fat" in the budget. I think I am right when I say that he said he was sick and tired of hearing about "fat" in the budget, even though I had not said it.

You know, Mr. Speaker, I am quite a lover of dogs and I have four very intelligent boxer dogs at home at least we think they are intelligent. They stay in the house with us and we try to treat them as nice as possible. You know, when I want a piece of candy, I have to say to my wife, "Can I have a piece of candy?" These dogs are smart.

Mr. Speaker, I don't want to disturb the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Lopresti. more than I have to, and I saw his blood pressure go up considerably the other day, but, Mr. Speaker, there is $700,000, three-quarters of a million dollars, of fat in the budget.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. READINGER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, we stated on this side of the House some time ago that before we started discussing taxes seriously we were going to discuss the budgetary matters before the Legislature of this Commonwealth, and so we are.

I understand in another day or two the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee will have concluded his budget hearings, at which time he will be prepared, and I believe other members of the majority party will be prepared, to discuss any budget matters that the minority desires to discuss.

The gentleman has every right to raise questions concerning the budget, and if there are any duplications or any overlapping we should know it, and we will know it, and we intend to eliminate any overlapping factors.

However, today I am going to make a speech on taxes—or rather, the Honorable Charles C. Smith, our distinguished colleague from Philadelphia, is going to make it for me.

Last week Mr. Smith, together with Republican Senators Rowland B. Mahany and Robert Fleming, made a series of television—

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is not privileged to mention Members of the Senate on the floor of the House.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I am referring to television, a public appearance made by gentlemen of this Commonwealth bearing those names, and, if I am in error under the Rules, I will apologize, but nevertheless they were on the prgoram. These gentlemen, whom I will not name, attempted rather ineffectually to offset the logic of the Governor's arguments in support of a classified income tax.

Mr. Smith, as chief spokesman for the trio, lashed out bitterly at the whole philosophy of an income tax as though it were a horrible conspiracy hatched by the Democratic Party to rob the people blind.

Also, in the newspapers the other day, Mr. Smith was quoted as saying the classified income tax is the "rottenest tax plan" ever introduced in Pennsylvania.

He has made no pretense of his opposition to that form of tax which he has denounced as a wage tax and which he implies literally picks the pockets of the working men and women of this Commonwealth.

Now, bearing all these things in mind, I am going to read you a series of quotations taken from the House Legislative Journal of 1951.

On page 1210, under date of April 3rd, the author of these remarks said:

> I would definitely like to clarify one thing. I do not believe the gentleman is really speaking of this bill. (At that time Representative Lovett had previously described it as a wage tax.) I would like to make this statement, this bill definitely is not a wage tax; this bill is definitely an income tax which is based on all incomes and is not in any sense of the word a true wage tax.

Also on page 1210, under date of April 3rd, we find these quotes:

> We are not taxing anything other than what the Federal income tax is taxing and that has has never, as far as I know, and I do not think the gentleman has ever heard the Federal income tax called a wage tax.
> I would like to remind the gentleman that this is not a wage tax, as he calls it; it is what the citizens of this country call a Federal income tax, and if that is a wage tax then this is a wage tax.

Now we go to page 1214, still April 3rd, when this gentleman said:

> As I said, there has been study of the principles of the bill for weeks. As we all know, it has been talked of in the papers—the newspapers have talked about an income tax. They have compared it with other taxes. As I said, the bill only states the principle, and the administration methods are mechanical.
> I would also like to remind the gentleman that because of the broad base of taxation which everyone has recommended there are only two methods we have to broaden the base. That is an income tax which we had talked about, which the papers have talked about, and a sales tax.

I would say that is good, meaty stuff.

Now ponder that while we go to page 1325, April 4, 1951:

> The gentleman seems to be dwelling on the fact that when we pass an income tax that tax is the only tax that is being susceptible of being increased. I am sure he knows and I know and everyone in this House knows that any tax we impose, no matter what it may be, can certainly be increased, decreased, taken off the books, added to, doubled or anything else done to it by future Legislatures

We now move to page 1326, April 4th, the same man is speaking:

> Everyone seems to think today, from the arguments, that an income tax is a new tax. Well that is not the truth: An income tax is not a new tax. We have had a Federal income tax in this country since 1915, and at the present time, as to today, there are thirty-three states using this type of tax for general revenue purposes and they are paying their bills by this type of tax.
> I would like to say that there are only seven states left in this great Union of ours that does not have an income tax or a sales tax. So Pennsylvania should be different, I suppose, and grab our money out of the air. We have debts; we have promises and we have to keep those promises by getting money to pay them.

That is what we Democrats have been saying. But listen to what the same gentleman says on page 1326:

> Everyone knows that a broad base tax has been recommeended by all tax experts . . .
> We all know that an income tax is fair.
> So we in Pennsylvania come down to two choices. Either a sales tax or an income tax, and there is no man in this House today that will agree that a sales tax is a fairer tax than an income tax.
> . . . an income tax is fair. It hits all types of income. It hits the doctor, it hits the lawyer, it hits every professional man, it hits the small business man and it is fair. It is fair because the larger the income the larger the tax. The smaller the income the smaller the tax. God knows we cannot say that about a sales tax.

And I am still quoting:

> There is no doubt but that of all the broad base taxes, an income tax is the fairest and most just to the working man. Of all the broad base taxes that we know of, it is the easiest to collect. The cost of collection is the lowest because of the withholding features. Certainly that is to be considered in any tax basis, the actual cost of collecting the taxation.
> Every cent of taxation that you pay right to the very penny, is deductible from the Federal Income Tax, penny for penny. You do not lose a cent of it.

The gentleman was in grievious error in that respect, but nevertheless that is what was said.

Continuing to quote:

> I say to every man in this House that this is an honest tax; it is a fair tax, and it deserves the consideration of every man in this House. It is fair to every individual, whether he be rich or whether he be poor.

And here ends the quote for the moment.

That certainly sounds like the speaker was 100 per cent for Governor Leader's tax plan, but listen to this on page 1527, April 11, 1951:

> Our budget and our tax program is in black and white; we have given them to the public, we will back them up two years from now when the proof comes in. I am sure the gentlemen will have to agree that it is difficult enough to get tax experts to agree on forecasting for the future. You cannot get two out of ten to agree. . . .
> Two years from now we will be able to say, 'We told you so.'

And here finally, is the juciest outburst of oratory, found on page 1689, April 18th where he said:

> We as Republicans still feel that of all the broad base taxes, an income tax is the fairest and most equitable to the citizens of this Commonwealth. It is based on the ability to pay and certainly nothing could be fairer than that.

Now, if anyone here today got the impression from those remarks that the speaker was Governor Leader, or the Speaker of the House, or the Democratic State Chairman, or the Senate Minority Leader, he is wrong. The author of those classic lines was none other than the esteemed gentleman from Philadelphia, Charles C. Smith, and it is all down in black and white, just like the Republican budget and tax program of 1951.

Out in Pittsburgh when Mr. Smith was asked to reconcile his 1951 stand for the income tax against his present opposition to one, he said—and I thought he tossed it off with marvelous poise—that times have changed. Just that and nothing more. Times have changed, he said.

The only thing that has changed around here is that the Republicans are out and the Democrats are in. But the money needs are still the same. And that's what we are talking about.

I particularly liked Mr. Smith's concern when he asked if Republicans were supposed to grab the money out of air.

The time has come when we must ask Mr. Smith the same question!

Here and there I am beginning to see a persistent breakdown in Republican opposition to the income tax and I believe the revival of Mr. Smith's 1951 tax philosophy—when he was solidly for an income tax—should be an indication to the Republican side of the House that there is something unmistakably insincere about the Philadelphia gentleman's present attitude, whatever the reason.

Since Mr. Smith, according to the record, was unalterably opposed to a sales tax, and he is on record as favoring an income tax, and he is on record as saying there are only two broad base taxes for raising the huge revenue the state needs, does that not show that deep in his heart the Republican spokesman knows the Governor's tax plan is right?

Mr. Smith in 1951 insisted that a sales tax could not possibly be as fair as an income tax—and I agree with him. A sales tax, to meet Pennsylvania's present needs, would have to be boosted to three and three-quarters per cent—and the truth is that that would hit the pocketbooks of the average family twice as hard as a classified income tax. Mr. Smith, if he were to tell the truth, would have to admit the soundness of that argument.

Actually, it is very difficult to follow Mr. Smith's changing moods on political issues.

While the record is unalterably clear that he was violently opposed to a sales tax in 1951, what do you suppose he said on television the other night in Pittsburgh?

He, together with one of the Senators I can't name, reportedly recommended a twenty per cent budget cut straight across the board and a two per cent sales tax.

Now fancy that, coming from a man who flogged the daylights out of a sales tax in 1951 and who held it up to scorn in his enthusiastic efforts to have this House embrace an income tax.

The Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde attitude of Mr. Smith is unquestionably the most confusing phenomenon to confront this legislative body in a long time. One cannot deny that he approaches the tax problems of the Commonwealth with all the calmness of a man whose house is burning to the ground.

If we were to take Mr. Smith's 1951 tax observations and produce them in a nice little booklet, as propaganda for the income tax, it would establish him—as the Democratic State Chairman said only yesterday—as the best salesman the Leader tax program ever had.

I have heard a lot of speeches by Mr. Smith in the current session of the Legislature, most of them aimed violently against the Leader tax plan, and I believe, if only for the regeneration of his political soul, Mr. Smith should start re-reading his historic statements of 1951.

Then perhaps he would understand, as more and more people are beginning to realize, that the startling inconsistencies of his tax views are the weakest link in the chain of Republican opposition to the Governor's classified income tax program.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I rather hesitate at this moment to take the floor, not holding a Union card, knowing that I am writing the gentleman's speeches. I don't want to cheat our good friend, George Pennington, out of a job. I think too much of him. He has been doing fairly well up until now, but they have thrown him aside for me. Well, George, all I can say is I am sorry, and I had no intention of doing this.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is out of order, is strictly out of order.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. The gentleman will not say it again, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman has the privilege to address only Members of this House.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Well, Mr. Speaker, as I said, I don't want to throw our friend. George, out of a job. And I do appreciate the converts that I must have made through my speeches, because I understand there are about twenty who now don't want to vote for the wage tax. I did pretty well if I converted all of you fellows on that side of the House. But I would also like to say that I wonder, Mr. Speaker, what has made this change of opinion. I don't remember, and I think my memory serves me correctly, any Democratic votes at that time. So I just can't understand why the sudden change on the other side of the House.

I wish I had had a chance to make more notes than I did about the gentleman's speech. May I interrogate the gentleman just a moment, Mr. Speaker?

The SPEAKER. If the gentleman will permit himself to be interrogated, the gentleman from Philadelphia may interrogate him.

Mr. READINGER. No loaded questions.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. I wonder, Mr. Speaker, would the gentleman at this point be for a one-half of one per cent income tax or wage tax?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman I will tell him that I will vote for a one per cent tax among others in the package.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I see I am getting a lawyer's answer. I would just like to know whether he would vote for a one-half of one per cent wage tax at this point in 1955, this biennium rather, '55 and '56.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I have answered the gentleman that combined with other taxes in the program which we are proposing, I will be happy to vote for the one per cent tax.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Then may I ask the gentleman a little further, Mr. Speaker, why he would not vote for the one-half of one per cent tax back in 1953, or 1951, I am sorry.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman I would say that we considered it a very inequitable tax the way it was proposed to us and, therefore, we voted against it.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. I thank the gentleman, Mr. Speaker.

I would like to remind the gentleman that one-half of one per cent flat across the board seems to me to be one figure or one basic figure. Now, I think when we go into one-half of one per cent we should compare that with what we are being asked to pay today, which is one per cent to six per cent. I think it is only a matter of figures but I have quoted before that six per cent happend to be twelve times as much as one-half of one per cent. That is exactly the difference betwen $1 hundred and $12 hundred. Of course, there is a little bit of differnece between $1 hundred and $12 hundred, and that is their present tax program.

Now, the gentleman has been talking about, I believe I understood him right, the working man when I tried to protect him before. I do not say this facetiously. I would like the people of Pennsylvania to judge how this program is affecting the working man. And I say this very sincerely, there are very few working men today that do not own their own homes, and if I am wrong I shall give you a good percentage, you name it. There are very few people today, in this great country of ours who own their homes who do not look forward to progress, who do not look forward someday to going out and buying a better home in a better location, or a larger home.

A good many of those who own their own homes are the "average man.' I wonder if the average man who is not going to be hit except in the wage bracket, according to the Governor, does not realize that he is going to pay six per cent tax. I am referring to a working man.

I wonder if the five per cent on dividends, and many of our working men today have utility stocks because they work for utilities, I wonder if they are not going to be paying a five per cent tax. I wonder who it is who goes to the building and loan, the rich man or the poor man. I wonder who it is, who puts his money in a savings fund account, the rich man or the average working man. Those average working men are going to be taxed on their saving fund dividends, they are going to be taxed on their building and loan dividends. If that is not taking a crack at him from six per cent all the way down to one, I do not know. So, I think there is quite a difference between a one-half of one per cent to the average working man and six per cent and five per cent and four per cent and still stealing it out of his pay envelope at one per cent. So, there is a considerable difference in that.

The gentleman stated that now there is a tremendous need for this tax. I think there was a need back in 1951, just as much as there is today. We were not asking for as much money, we did not have any plans for spending money, we were not making $7.5 million mistakes in our budget and three-quarters million dollar mistakes at that time. If we did no nobody brought them to light. So, I think there is a little bit of difference. When I stated that an income tax was far better than a sales tax I can still say that. The income tax that we suggested at one-half of one per cent was far better than a sales tax the way it was enacted in other states.

For the gentlemans edification, the sales tax in Pennsylvania is the least objectionable sales tax in the nation. We have more exemptions in that tax than has any other state in the union. They like to throw back every once in a while about the poor individual, and we feel sorry for them because unforunately some people are on relief. How is it going to affect the man on relief? I am not defending it, but I say this, that a man on relief does not pay a sales tax. So, there was a big differnece at that time when you compare a three per cent sales tax across the board like some other states have with no exemptions. There is a big difference and I would still make the statement that a one-half of one per cent was far better than a sales stax that was at that time enacted.

Now, another thing that I would like to speak to the gentleman about, either the tape recorder that he is using is not too good or he is not listening correctly, because I did not say some of the things the gentleman said I did. I did not realize that our audience was quite as large as it was. We must have been covering quite a lot of territory. I am not allowed to mention the gentleman's name, but I believe that statement was made by another gentleman on the panel and not me, and if the gentleman doubts my word, we have also taken the precaution to have tapes made. I have a loud speaker in my office and after the session if the gentleman would like to come up and get the accurate quotes, I shall be only too glad to give them to him.

Another thing that the gentleman seemed to be kicking around, as well as the Governor and everyone else, is talking about a three and three-quarter per cent sales tax. That figure is as phoney as the figures that he has been giving us from the very beginning of his administration. Pennsylvania today is a comparable state as far as population is concerned I would say, to California. California has a very few more people, and granted that they have more, I shall let you pick the figures. California brings in under a three per cent sales tax $453 million in a year. Now, let us grant that they are greater in population, and we shall cut $53 mllion off. On a two year basis that is $800 million. What the Governor's trying to do, is to put an ax over the heads of the people of Pennsylvania, a sword over their heads and threatening them with a three and three-quarter per cent sales tax with no exemptions.

I would like the Governor or the Majority Leader or someone else to answer me, why if California could bring in $400 million or $453 million in one year, why Pennsylvania can not bring in $400 in one year, which would be on a biennium basis $890 million. Mr. Speaker, it is an idle threat, it is an untrue statement, and if you put three and three-quarter per cent sales tax in Pennsylvania it would bring in more money than the Governor could ever spend, and he is pretty dog-gone good at spending it, believe me.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, may I take just a moment to reply to the gentleman and I shall be very brief.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Berks, without objection, may proceed.

Mr. READINGER. The gentleman speaks about the budget mistakes made by this administration. I would like to remind him that the last administration, in the last biennium mistook the revenue that it would get from the sales tax by $35 millions and also over estimated the amount it was going to get on corporate taxes by $40 million. Now, I can understand there is some leeway, but it looks to me as though there were some very deliberate miscalulations for the purpose of balancing the budget, which left us a deficit of $75 million to start this biennium.

The gentleman speaks of the California sales tax. I do not have the figures here, but his figure of approximately $465 million for one year on a three per cent sales tax is approximatly correct. Hower, if the gentleman will analyze the California sales tax he will find it is on cigarettes, it is on liquor, it is on many of the things that we do not include in Pennsylvania because we have other specific taxes in connection with these items. If the gentleman would add the liquor store profits and taxes, the cigarette tax and some of the taxes we have on other commodities, and would add those to our figures on the sales tax, he would find that we might total approximately what California does, but he should not compare the California figures for one year with any sales tax in Pennsylvania, when we have separate taxes on those other big items. I think the gentleman will find that to be the explanation to his consternation.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. FILO asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, last week there was reference made to the Speaker as to how he looked on the television program. I might say, Mr. Speaker, when the gentleman said that he looked like a pumpkin, he looked mighty fine in comparison to the way the Minority Leader, Mr. Smith, looked when the Legislative Journal was read to him. He looked like a young boy caught with a cooky jar. I can say this about that panel discussion, it was strictly a one-sided panel discussion. I am not defending the administration, but I do say this, that that panel discussion was strictly a partisan piece of machinery.

I might add this, that one of his colleagues on that same program when asked what he would do, suggested that Governor Leader fire 25 per cent of the personnel in the state.

I might say that I have been here a long time but I have never heard that statement made on the floor of this House during Duff's administration, Fine's administration or up until the present time. I would like to have those gentlemen list the 25 per cent of the Republican payrollers who are now on the state payroll to be dismissed immediately so that Democrats can get the jobs.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. PETROSKY asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

I would hesitate to make this statement today, Mr. Speaker, inasmuch as the hour is getting late. However, since the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Smith, has talked about phony figures, I think I should recall a few figures for the gentleman, and this does not go back four years.

It seems that 1951 is not the only year that the Minority Leader, Mr. Smith, indulged in irresponsible and contradictory statements. Over the week end he politely accused Governor Leader misrepresenting the facts on payroll saving. The Governor stated previously that savings of $1,300,000 a month had been accomplished by the Democrat administration. Mr. Smith countered by saying in a prepared statement that the Governor's announcement was false. The Republican spokesman attempted to show that the general fund payroll for the last half of December 1954 was $4,729,194, and under Governor Leader for the last half of May it was $4,631,656. "That," says Mr. Smith, and I quote, "is a difference of $97,938 in the two payrolls, or approximately $195,000 a month, and not the $1,300,000, which the Governor has erroneously been telling the people he has saved."

I further quote from Mr. Smith's self-trapping statement. "The truth is that while the Governor temporarily reduced the total number of state employes in an all out political drive to dismiss Republican office holders faster than they can be replaced by Democrats, the cost of the payroll decreased less than two per cent."

Now, those are Mr. Smith's own words and he is stuck with them. Actually the state budget bureau tells a different story, one based on fact not guess work. The budget bureau points out, and I hope Mr. Smith is paying attention, that the Minority Leader's figures did not show the entire state payroll which includes the Highway Department, Liquor Control Board, Fish and Game Commission and other agencies not paid out of the general fund. The total state payroll for last two weeks of the Fine administration was $16,455,818 and $15,128,250 at the end of April, or a savings of $1,327,568. No matter how Mr. Smith tries to juggle the figures those are the facts and I believe he owes an apology to Governor Leader for trying to place the tag of prevarication upon the Chief Executive's economy statement.

It is obvious that Mr. Smith just gets up on the floor of the House and says whatever comes into his mind first. His statements of 1951 when he was for the income tax as contrasted with his stand now when he is against it proves he is a gentleman of rare if not flattering inconsistency. He has a dramatic flair for blending half-truths with a creative imagination which if they serve no other useful purpose should be excellent for voice-training. At least, we can all agree it is a sprightly collection of political tommy-rot.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. LOPRESTI asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I desire to inform the Minority Leader that he does not raise my blood pressure. In fact, I do not believe any of the gentlemen in the House raise my blood pressure, I am calm, cool and collected most times. Sometimes I get emphatic, or at least I try to, for the purpose of making a point, but my blood pressure does not increase in the same proportion.

I want to remind the gentleman that we appreciate—in fact, I invited him the last time I spoke to point out to us places where he finds something wrong in the budget. I want to remind the gentleman and the minority that we are giving them every opportunity to investigate our budget. I want to remind the gentlemen on the other side that we are not going to have any budget mysteries. We have nothing to hide. We are letting you see the entire financial picture the same as we see it.

I want to remind the gentleman further that those mistakes, those oversights, that he has noticed have in all probability been noticed also by the majority members of that Committee and when the time comes we invite the cooperation of the minority in presenting a correct budget to the people of Pennsylvania.

In closing, Mr. Speaker, may I say that is something the minority did not do when they were in the majority.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Goldstein, desire to be recognized?

Mr. GOLDSTEIN. I do, Mr. Speaker. I would like to interrogate Mr. Filo, if he so desires.

The SPEAKER. The Chair does not see the gentleman from Allegheny in the Hall of the House.

Mr. SARRAF. He just stepped out, Mr. Speaker. If the gentleman will hold his interrogation a little while, he will be back.

INTERROGATION

Mr. LOVETT asked and obtained unanimous consent to interrogate the Minority Leader.

Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman, Mr. Smith, the Minority Leader?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Smith, permit himself to be interrogated at this time?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman recall the Sterling Act of 1932?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. I believe I do, Mr. Speaker, yes.

Mr. LOVETT. The Speaker, was the gentleman in politics at that time?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, being a very young man and not being the age of Mr. Lovett, I must say that all I could do at that time was barely read the newspapers.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman if he knew Mr. Sterling?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I am afraid that I only met the gentleman a few sessions, and I did not know him personally at that time.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman now know that the Sterling Act, that he talked so much about was a wage tax? Does he consider the Sterling Act in Philadelphia a wage tax?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. If I interpret the Sterling Act correctly, Mr. Speaker, I would not say the Act itself was a wage tax, no. I would not say it was any tax.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, would you say that the Act as it is being administered in Philadelphia is a wage tax?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I would say that the wage tax that is now being administered in Philadelphia under the Sterling Act is a wage tax.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, would the gentleman inform this House that the Republican Party was in power at the time of the Sterling Act?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. There was certainly no doubt about that, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. And that the city administration in Philadelphia was Republican at that time, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. There is no doubt about it, Mr Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman recall the famous 481 Act under the Duff Administration in 1947?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. I remember the 481 bill, yes, Mr Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, would the gentleman say that the wage tax is being enacted throughout the state under Act 481?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I would say in some local municipalities it gave them the right to put on any kind of a tax. It did not specify wage tax, I do not believe. Some local municipalties saw fit at that time to put a wage tax on under 481, but it did not specify under 481 what they should do, only what they could do.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, would the gentleman agree that it was almost a case of necessity under 481 that certain municipalties used what is known as a wage tax?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I agree that a lot of Democratic and Republican municipalties did enforce or put a wage tax into effect under 481, yes.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, would the gentleman agree that the only wage tax that we now have in Pennsylvania is an instrument of the Republican party in Pennsylvania?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I think that that is a rather broad statement to be making at this time. I think, if I remember correctly, and the gentleman, living in Westmoreland County, should be rather familiar with a certain county next to him as a neighbor, which is Allegheny County, I think they have a wage tax on their own volition after they had said there would be no wage tax. I think the Democratic Party in Philadelphia—and I think I am correct on this, if not one of the Members on the other side may want to correct me—I believe they have raised the wage tax in Philadelphia since they have been in office. I think I am correct on that. I see them shaking their heads "no" so I understand they did not raise it. But I also happen to be a Philadelphian and I know that the Democrats have been in power and supposedly giving good government—they say they are, they say they are the party of economy, and I might remind the gentleman that the wage tax is still in effect, it has not been repealed, plus a gross receipts tax which the Democrats put into effect.

Mr. LOVETT. I think the gentleman, Mr. Speaker.

The gentleman has continually spoken of a wage tax. The only wage tax we have in Pennsylvania was given to Pennsylvania under the authority of the Sterling Act, which was passed by a Republican administration in the state and enacted first in Philadelphia under a Republican administration.

Now, my neighoboring city that he talks about, Pittsburgh, did not avail itself of the opportunity under the Sterling Act. We tried for a long time to stay away from this wage tax that he is talking about, and by hook and crook the city administration in Pittsburgh was shortchanged until there was nothing else for them to do except enact a wage tax.

Our school districts throughout the state are likewise compelled to use the wage tax. The greatest problem we have today in enacting a tax in Pennsylvania, a broad base tax, an income tax that taxes all the people of Pennsylvania, is the fact that the Republican party gave to Pennsylvania the wage tax that we now have throughout the state, and that is our biggest problem today. Laying all jokes aside, that is the question. If we had not had 481, if we had not had the Sterling Act, we could enact this tax program in Pennsylvania without a murmur from anybody.

The problem that the gentleman speaks about is the taking out of the pay envelope this tax, and the biggest cry is because we are now taking out of the pay envelopes the tax that was enacted under 481 and the Sterling Act. So the gentleman can blame nobody but the Republican administration that shirked its duties. When they should have enacted a broad base tax in Pennsylvania, when they should have passed the amendment to the constitution and given us the right to have a graduated income tax they continually bottled it in committee, and we now are faced with the dilemma that we are in right now.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. I would like to just say one short thing, Mr Speaker

There are some humorous people that sometimes pass litle cards around with a black cat being followed by some kittens and underneath it says, "You gotta make calls to get results." And, boy, we're getting them.

The SPEAKER. The Chair notes the presence of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Filo, in the House. Does the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Goldstein, desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Filo?

Mr. GOLDSTEIN. I do, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Filo, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. FILO. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. GOLDSTEIN. Mr. Speaker, am I correct in recollecting that the gentleman stated that a strictly partisan panel interrogated our Minority Leader, among others, when they spoke in the city of Pittsburgh last Wednesday?

Mr. FILO. Mr. Speaker, according to what I heard on TV, that was my opinion.

Mr. GOLDSTEIN. Mr. Speaker, that was the gentleman's conclusion, is that right?

Mr. FILO. Yes, it was, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. GOLDSTEIN. Mr. Speaker, would the gentleman classify Mr. Bill Burns, the news editor of our television station in Pittsburgh, as being purely partisan?

Mr. FILO. Mr. Speaker, if I had had an opportunity to listen to Bill Burns' program the prior week, I probably would have said, yes, because at the time that the program was closing, he asked the Governor of this state a question that required an answer and he was never able to have enough time to give the proper answer. As a result of that interrogation, Mr. Speaker, I believe many of the people in the city of Pittsburgh and western Pennsylvania were misinformed.

Mr. GOLDSTEIN. Mr. Speaker, I still ask the gentleman, does he classify Mr. Bill Burns, news editor of that station, as a partisan member of the panel? If you can answer that yes or no, do so; if not, explain.

Mr. FILO. Mr. Speaker, I am sorry I wouldn't—it appeared to me, that's about all.

Mr. GOLDSTEIN. That is your conclusion? Mr. Speaker, that's all.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Legislative Journal.

Session 1955. 141st of the General Assembly.

Vol. 34. HARRISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, JUNE 14, 1955. No. 57.

SENATE

TUESDAY, June 14, 1955.

The Senate met at 1:00 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Roy E. Furman) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. WENDELL E. MINNIGH, Pastor of First Methodist Church, Greenville, offered the following prayer:

O God of Peace, Who has promised that in quietness and in confidence shall be our strength, by the might of Thy spirit lift us into Thy presence that we may be still and know that Thou art God.

Silently, as evening comes, quietly as stars appear, so may some vision of Thy glory and Thy love be given unto us. May our worship of Thee be honest and sincere. Grant that we may not come before Thee with idle words or with mere empty form or rite because it is our custom. Grant that we shall know that we have come from Thee and some day, we know not when, we shall return to Thee, so that while we are here we ought to live and move and have our being in Thee, Whose we are and by Whose grace we are sustained.

We beseech Thee again for our beloved Commonwealth and our Nation. Thou has blessed our land and made her rich; do Thou also make her good. Grant us to know that all good government and true democracy and abundant living first of all begin in being Christian. Grant to us, therefor, leaders and people alike, Christian attitudes and desires.

As the fluttering feather from the sea gull's wing dips gently downward and comes to rest on the bosom of the great sea, so may Thy wisdom, Thy love and Thy peace rest upon these men in all their deliberations both now and always.

In that name that is above every name, Thy Son, our Lord, Jesus Christ, Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present, the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. PECHAN and Mr. YOSKO, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

SCHOOL PATROLS FROM NAZARETH AND STOCKERTOWN, NORTHAMPTN COUNTY PRESENTED TO SENATE

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, it is a distinct pleasure for me to present, and introduce to the Senate, seventy young men and women who are visitors here at the State Capitol today. These seventy young men and women are doing a commendable job in guiding the boys and girls to and from school. They are the school patrols from Nazareth and Stockertown, in Northampton County. They are here with the principal of the school, Mr. Reamly, and also the school crossing guards of Nazareth and Stockertown.

These patrols were organized and are under the supervision of Asher Hahn, of the Nazareth Police Department. I wish them a happy and pleasant stay here, and I wish to present them at this time.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair, on behalf of the Members of the Senate, welcomes this group from Northampton County. We hope you enjoy your visit with us.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Mr. WEINER asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. DERK, due to illness.

Mrs. Kathryn Keithline (Democrat), R. D., Laceyville, to serve until December 31, 1956, and until her successor is duly appointed and qualified, vice Forrest Sliker, Tunkhannock, whose term expired.

GEORGE M. LEADER.

PETITIONS AND REMONSTRANCES

Mr. WEINER. Mr. President, I have been informed that today the Committee on Education of the Senate met in order to take up a bill that had been passed in the House. That bill is popularly known as the F.E.P.C. bill, or Fair Employment Practices. I am further informed that this bill was defeated in committee.

Mr. President, if this had been the first or second time that this had happened, it might be very novel. It might not even be cause for us to speak about it. However, this has been going on for some time. Oddly enough, Mr. President, this bill, and the premise contained in the bill, has been the subject and has been the commitment of both political parties campaign after campaign. Last Session, this bill was introduced by Republican Members in a Republican controlled House. The bill, after a great deal of time, was passed by the House and came over to the Senate and was killed in committee by a secret ballot.

In this Session, Mr. President, the very same bill was again passed in the House, again came over to the Senate and, after spending a number of weeks in committee, the vote was taken today, also by a secret ballot, and the bill was again killed.

As I look around this Chamber, Mr. President, and this is my second Session here, I notice a lot of finely dressed gentlemen sitting around in these finely cushioned seats. Each and every one of them speaks for some group or some moneyed interest or some other popular cause which they are trying to advance. Many of them even develop very fine muscles in their legs, running back and forth between these two Chambers to see that nothing happens to these bills which they are interested in. Not a single one of them, however, speaks for the people. The people have shown, time and time and time again, that they are for this bill. I think that the opinions of the Members who make up this body should be subservient to the opinions of the people. The gentlemen who sit in this august body, especially on the other side of the aisle, are older men, men who have been in the party a long time, men who sit up in the party council and men who, I am sure, helped draft the party platform. Therefore, when they put this in the platform each time, they must have known what was going to be in store when the Legislature met and what would happen to this bill.

Oddly enough, Mr. President, there is nobody here to speak for the people. There is no people's lobby because the people are unorganized. They do not have the money to send up these high class, high powered, high priced lobbyists who can buttonhole the Members of both of these Chambers and get them to go for this bill or that bill or the other bill.

Mr. Presfident, unless some of these Members have some sincere, moral scruples against this bill, discretion would dictate that they vote for this bill. At least, they should let it come to the floor so that the Members of this Senate can stand up and be counted or give their reasons, honestly, why they are against this bill.

As we all know, and I will not bore the Members of the Senate, prejudice is based on ignorance. The very fact that you do not know the next person, or you do not know anything about him, gives you cause to wonder about him or perhaps dislike him. Many times all of us, in our lifetime, have met people whom we have disliked maybe upon the first meeting. Probably after we have gotten to know them, we have realized that we were wrong on our first impression and perhaps have changed or amended our first impression. As long as we do not permit people to get to know each other, and we let this basic prejudice and ignorance stand astride of our economical development, that is the length of time that we will have to suffer, both economically and as a group, these prejudices that are being foisted upon us by ignorant people.

Mr. President, I have not noticed one of these lobbyists sitting around here who has come to me and said, "Gee, it is too bad about the F.E.P.C. bill," or "I think it should be amended," or "I think we should change the F.E.P.C. bill and then perhaps it will have a chance to pass." Not one of them is for it. Yet, they have spoken to me about every other single bill on the Calendar, those affecting railroads, those affecting trucks, those affecting banks, those affecting savings and loans and God knows what else. However, not one of them is interested in this problem. Yet, it affects every industry, every person who works in this Commonwealth.

Mr. President, every one of us has been the victim of prejudice. Maybe some of us have been a little wiser than others in picking our parents and, therefore, we have had the problem of basic prejudice avoided. It is fine when you go for a job and nobody cares what your race, creed or religion is and they hire you on merit. However, some of us are not that fortunate. Some of us are not that wise. Some of us chose parents who happened to be in a position where people discriminated against them, and then the discrimination is passed on to all of us or to our children. What we are doing here is continuing to perpetuate that ignorance and that prejudice. When people are prevented from earning a livelihood, not because they are unqualified, then I think it is time for the people in this Country and we, as trustees of this corporation known as the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, to take some action.

Mr. President, where are the gentlemen who were here a few weeks ago who were so worried about the morals of the people of this Commonwealth? They were so worried about our putting a race track in and they thought the whole Commonwealth was going down the path toward destruction. Where are those gentlemen? If they believe in the word of God and the Christian principles as they were preaching then and hammering everyone here to vote against the race track bill, because God knows what would happen to them if they did not, and who preached the Golden Rule, I am sure, in their churches, where are they today? Why are they not here speaking out for civil rights? The very right to earn a living is a civil right. We should do everything we can to remove the barriers of ignorance and intolerance. We do not suggest that this bill will eliminate prejudice. However, I think we all realize that it is certainly an effective step along the road.

Mr. President, I would also like to point out to the Members of this Senate that this is a Republican controlled body, and I cannot help but be left with the conclusion that if the majority party who controls this Senate had so desired, this bill would today have been reported out during committee reports and would have been on our Calendar in a position for final passage next week.

It seems paradoxical that I, as a Democrat, should stand here talking about F. E. P. C. and civil rights. One of the outstanding Republicans was Abraham Lincoln. Surely, I do not have to go into a long discussion of history or dates or time or places when he reiterated that principle time and time again. He certainly struck a blow toward wiping out ignorance and prejudice.

Mr. President, the Republican Platform, not only of last year and the year previous to that, but for quite a number of years back, has constantly reiterated the support of F.E.P.C. I have been on platforms with gentlemen, who were candidates for office, who arose and reiterated their position and even answered questions specifically given to them from the floor that if they were elected, they would support F.E.P.C. I am not certain that some of the gentlemen sitting on the other side of the aisle have not taken that same position publicly. I am wondering how they are going to explain that action to their people.

Mr. President, the other inescapable conclusion that I am left with, knowing the gentlemen on the other side of the aisle and with whom I have had a very happy relationship, and some of whom I have grown very fond of, is that someone is again pulling the string and, against their wishes, they are being driven to a position which they find untenable, which they would rather not take, but for the sake of supporting someone who they feel has been loyal to them or who has been a big help to the party, they are going along with these outmoded and unprogressive wishes.

Gentlemen, the decision is yours. That bill still rests in committee. I do not think that the harm which has been done is irreparable. I think that the committee can be convened again. I think this bill can be brought before them again, and I think that they can take the proper action. If they are personally against it, I think that the least they owe the people of this Commonwealth is to put it onto the floor so that we can have a chance to discuss it intelligently, arrive at intelligent decisions and then if you are basically opposed to the bill, your right is to vote against it.

However, Mr. President, I certainly think that keeping it from the rest of us who are Members of this Senate, and not allowing us even the opportunity to vote for or against this piece of legislation, is a very undemocratic process and behavior.

Mr. DONOLOW. Mr. President, today is a sad day in the history of Pennsylvania, because the Republican Members of the Committee on Education by their vote moved the Mason-Dixon Line up to the borders of Pennsylvania.

Mr. President, I would like to go a little further than my colleague and put the blame where it belongs. The people of Pennsylvania should know that this Committee on Education consists of six Democrats and twelve Republicans; that when this committee voted today for a closed ballot, the entire six Democratic Members of the Committee on Education voted for an open ballot along with the chairman of that committee, Mr. Wagner, and that all the other members of the Committee on Education, the Republican Members along with the President pro tempore, voted for a closed ballot. The bill was defeated, sir, from coming out of committee by a nine to eight vote.

Mr. President, it is obvious to all the people of Pennsylvania that when a man is in favor of an issue he does not hide his thoughts or opinion either behind a closed door or behind the sealed ballot in an issue so important as this one. There is no room in Pennsylvania, Mr. President, for second grade citizens. There is no room in Pennsylvania for discrimination against any man because of his color, his race or his creed. Those of us who took part in the war and who fought for this Country, and many of us did, know that the bullet which was shot from the enemy gun did not say it was for a white or black man. It was for the man who was standing in front of that bullet. Every man, regardless of his race and color and creed, helped to keep this democracy alive.

Mr. President, for we in Pennsylvania who claim to be so broad-minded and so liberal, for the Republican Party in this State, who year after year in its platform enunciates to the people how liberal they are and that they are for all the people, to take the position which they did in committee is a mockery to the people of Pennsylvania.

Mr. President, I say here today on this Senate floor that the blame is with the Republican Members of this body and that once again, as in the Nation, in this State the Republican Party has demonstrated that they are for the protection of the privileged few, and those who are privileged enough to get the good graces of the Republican Party are protected.

Mr. President, if the Republican Members of this Senate are sincere, then they ought to go back to their committee and take that bill out and let the people of the Commonwealth see the Senators stand up and be counted for or against this legislation.

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. President, personally I have always disapproved and discouraged the debating of a bill before it was on the Calendar, and I never felt particularly inclined to debate one after it had failed to come out of committee and I have no intention of debating this subject this afternoon.

Mr. President, I can well understand that someone who feels in this matter as Senator Weiner apparently feels, and has an understandable reason for so feeling, should express his feeing in the matter and his hope that the situation as it presently stands may be corrected at some future time. By virtue of my recognition of his complete right to so express himself, I think, too, that somebody perhaps had better briefly discuss the treatment of this bill so that, at least, it will be understood by the membership of the Senate and by the visitors in the gallery and by those who read the newspapers, that the Democratic processes of consideration of proposals still stands as it always has here in the Legislature of Pennsylvania.

Mr. President, as I briefly intimated yesterday, no one can ever say that the bill to which Senator Weiner refers was not fully and carefully considered. I have lived with it as Chairman of the Education Committee for about five months, and many of us on and off of the committee have thought about it and talked about and discussed it at great length with various interested peoples. The consideration has been ample. The decision that was made was one that everybody could sense for as long as two months ago, that it would be touch-and-go. As chairman of the committee, I tried to be completely accurate when I prognosticated that the chances for the passage of this bill in our committee were at best fifty-fifty. Everybody knows by now that the vote was nine to eight, which is as close to fifty-fifty as you can get and make a determination.

Mr. President, it was a matter of differences of opinion. There was no choking off of discussion. There was no brushing aside of anybody's opinion. There was ample consideration of everyone's suggestion.

Mr. President, the secret ballot to which the Senator from Philadelphia referred follows the philosophy which I, like he, do not relish. The only way in which the secret ballot became possible was by an open and vocal voice to determine that the vote should so be cast. However, parliamentary procedure was followed. If we did not have any rules, if we did not have any procedures which are generally accepted by those on both sides of a controversial bill, then you proceed from parliamentary procedure to organized chaos or regimented confusion in your procedures. The convictions of the Members were expressed, and I do not know, and neither do the Senators from the other side, whether those expressed convictions were always completely sincere or whether they represented axes which somebody had to grind, and that could be said of votes both pro and con.

Mr. President, these kind of measures always cause heartaches and they always cause disappointment. Bills which are vigorously opposed by people of influence, and those which are intensely supported by folks who burn for the issue, are always the ones which cause disappointment.

I might suggest to the other Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Donolow, that with or without such a bill, I hope we do not jump upon and lambaste minority groups, like the Democrats are doing to the Republicans in the Senate this afternoon, because the difference of opinion on the part of a man of one political party as compared to a man of another political party hardly seems to be justification for abuse or what might approach vilification or complete condemnation.

Mr. President, I do this very carefully because there is always a possibility, when the Legislature is in Session, of a bill being reconsidered and there are proper processes by which that can be accomplished, but may I suggest that there have been probably a variety of reasons for some of the negative votes? I think I can speak freely about this because there is no particular secret about my position on this bill. I did not spend five months on a merry-go-round, reaching for a brass ring that I never expected to get a hold of. A man devotes his time to a matter and he hopes there will be some result from his efforts. However, other Members of this Committee, like I myself, have had a carload of mail on fair employment practices. I can only speak for myself when I say that all of the mail, with hardly any exception, has been gracious; has been in good taste and there has been no abuse or extreme position taken. However, probably ninety-eight per cent of the mail was from Pittsburgh and Philadelphia where they already have fair employment practice ordinances.

I can understand, in trying to be fair, that many Senators would feel that if practically all of the people who are especially burning on this issue live in cities which already have the benefit of such legislation, then possibly the rest of the State or the Districts which they represent, are not too concerned about it. I know there are others who have no enmity and no prejudice, some who are as kind and considerate and fair in treating and dealing with people of minority groups as Paul Wagner, for instance, has ever been, and who am I to sit in judgment upon those people who do have a feeling that relations are improving, that today is better than was yesterday and tomorrow will be far better than today whether or not legislation is used as the method of persuading people to be fair and to be kind and to be considerate of one another?

Mr. President, I would like to express the hope that we do not let this issue deteriorate into a name-calling contest. I would like to suggest, Mr. President, that we do not make it too obvious that we want to capitalize on the fate of this bill to make the other party look bad, because the more we reveal a tendency to selfishness the more we serve to make impossible some more favorable action in the future.

Mr. President, for the record and for whatever satisfaction it is to those who listen to me today, let me say, as I said at the outset, that there was no restriction, there was no move or method of any kind used that kept anyone from full and complete expression of his convictions, and an audience was given to those who wanted to speak out or to write in and express themselves on this bill. Certainly, it must have been seriously considered or we would not have had a vote of nine to eight.

Mr. President, we may as well say here what was said in committee, that nobody would want to go through with this experience every week or every two weeks or every month. The bill has been up, it has run its cours for the time being and it has fallen. When, as and if a majority of the membership of the committee sees fit to ask for its reconsideration, it can be reconsidered. However, until or unless that happens there is no point, neither among members of the committee nor on the floor of the Senate, of shooting at it, sniping at it or quarreling and snarling with and at one another day after day after day.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, a few short weeks ago, the Republican State Chairman was in Northampton County where he made a speech before the Young Republicans. Among other things he said, and I quote from the Easton Express:

"Today, no party can go before the people and try to fool them. We can't say one thing and do another. Today the people think it is better to go down in defeat honestly than to win and have people think the party didn't tell the truth."

Mr. President, applying that to the issue before the Senate now, I do not believe anyone in this Chamber will deny that in platform after platform, in both Democratic and Republican Platforms, it was pledged that F.E.P.C. legislation would be enacted. At every Session which I have attended, such legislation was introduced and each time, to the best of my knowledge, the Democratic Members of that committee in the Senate voted for the release of such legislation while the Republicans at least the majority of them, voted against F.E.P.C. legislation, with the result that the proposal was killed in committee. However, that is not the worst of it. It was not killed like all other bills are killed; the secret ballot was invoked in each Session of the Legislature at which I was privileged to serve.

Mr. President, F.E.P.C. bills in the past were referred to the Committee on Judiciary General, of which I was a member. At the last Session, there was an effort made to assign a House passed bill to another committee. However, in defiance of the Governor's request at that time, the legislation was again referred to the Committee on Judiciary General and killed with a secret ballot. I thought, at least, this time the Republican majority would, in considering the bill, pass upon it as all other bills are passed upon. I understand that the secret ballot was invoked today as it was in the past.

Therefore, Mr. President, when Mr. Horst makes statements about keeping promises and fooling the people, he should have been up here today before this meeting. He should have instructed the members of his party to keep the promise made in the Republican platform and stop fooling the people, because, Mr. President, by fooling the people over a period of years, today we have a Democratic administration in Harrisburg.

Mr. Horst, while in Northampton County, also criticized Governor Leader for sticking to his promise to continue to oppose the sales tax and for presenting to this Legislature a platform promise to sponsor a tax program on ability to pay. Mr. President, I was intrigued by a statement I saw in the newspapers over the week end in which the Republican State Chairman tried to imply that labor's support of the administration's tax program was the result of a secret deal between Governor Leader and the union leaders.

Of course, Mr. President, that kind of a statement by Mr. Horst reveals more effectively than anything I can say the great pain the Republican leaders are suffering because the men of labor decided to back the Governor's tax program because they thought the sales tax worked a hardship on the rank and file of the people. If a charge of that sort, made by Mr. Horst, is the fruit of his political wisdom, someone should tell him the tree is dead. The Republican spokesman demanded to know what the Governor had offered labor in return for its support.

Last week, Mr. President, at his press conference, George Leader made it crystal clear that he had not entered into a deal of any kind to enlist labor's backing. Still, the Republican State Chairman wanted to know, was it another Yalta? I dare say, Mr. President, if anyone asked him, that is Mr. Horst, before he had a chance to look it up, he could not tell us where Yalta is or what it means.

Mr. Horst, like a lot of other Republican leaders, adroitly by-passes the fact that whatever the financial problems before the Leader Administration, we can trace them without any difficulty to the bungling incompetence of preceding Republican Administrations. So instead of carping and bickering and firing from the hip, vocal critics like Mr. Horst had better examine their own political laundry before they start throwing mud in our direction.

Mr. President, it is a little sickening to hear great observations issue from a man of Mr. Horst's dubious talents. He may consider himself an excellent political technician, but he has slipped a gear somewhere. His statements are masterpieces of political trash. Just reading them is a tantalizing adventure into the realm of political foolishness. I imagine that Mr. Horst, by his reckless attacks on the Leader Administration, considers himself somewhat of a political hero. The thunder of his charges can only be imitated by firing a cap pistol into a mason jar.

As for the purported villainy he sees in labor's endorsement of the Leader tax plan, Mr. President, Mr. Horst is following to the letter the corny scripts prepared for him by the Grundy ghost writers. At least, he will have his place in history as the man who followed orders with the dead pan sincerity of a Shakespearian actor reciting Anderson's Fairy Tales. I always pictured him as a sort of horseback diplomat who some day will get up enough nerve to ride out of the barn. In another day and age, he readily could have been the man who lit the lantern for Paul Revere.

Mr. WEINER. Mr. President, not to prolong this discussion because I think it has been pretty well covered, but I think I would just like to say a few words to the gentleman from Schuylkill County, Senator Wagner, for whom I have a great deal of respect, in answer to the remarks that he made.

Mr. President, I am just as genuinely sorry that this matter has become one of name-calling. It is not that type of an issue; it is not that type of a bill. However, as a famous Democrat once said, "Let's look at the record." That record indicates, for all to see, that it was the majority party that killed this bill and laid it to rest.

As a matter of fact, Mr. President, there seems to be a lack of coordination within the party itself, because I believe one of the spokesmen for the party over in the House came out, both publicly and on the floor of the House and also in private discussions, and stated he was for F.E.P.C. and would be for the bill and he thought there would be no difficulty in getting it through this Session. If he was speaking in a private capacity, that is one thing. However, if he was speaking for the Republican Party, and for the group which he represents in the House, I believe that the party hierarchy should get together and find out who is saying what to whom and for what purpose.

Mr. President, I am hopeful that after this discussion, the committee will see fit to sort of lend a deaf ear to some of these gentlemen who are sitting around this Chamber and who, for reasons best known to themselves and their clients,—and I use the word "clients" advisedly —will see fit to bring this bill again before the committee and allow an honest discussion. If it is such a controversial measure that anyone feels called upon to be in any way hindered, I think we should open it publicly and let those people who are against it come here and speak accordingly. Maybe there is something in what they say. Maybe there is some reason for our being against it. Maybe I see this thing wrong, and I certainly would like some one to point it out to me. However, if there is no merit on their side, if their arguments are incogitant and are not on the very purpose about which we are speaking, let us then give the people of Pennsylvania the bill and the act which will put into law those very things which they have been advocating for some time, and the very things that they have been asking for and writing to all of us about and upon which all of us have at some time or another taken a stand as being in favor of this type of legislation.

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President, in common with the previous speakers I have no desire to prolong the discussion of the subject matter of this debate. However, I do want to take this opportunity, Mr. President, to answer one or two things that have been said in discussion by Senators from the other side and, first of all, to say with them that I have admired and enjoyed the treatment of this bill which was given to it by the Chairman of the Committee on Education, Senator Wagner.

Mr. President, I served on the subcommittee which was given the duty of studying the bill and reporting to the full committee our recommendations as to the form the bill should take, if and when it was reported to the floor.

Mr. President, one of the statements which was made here today was that there was a secret ballot behind which, apparently, those who were opposed to this type of legislation were given the opportunity to hide. I want to make it clear, Mr. President, that over my years in the Senate of Pennsylvania I have consistently been opposed to the basic principles of this type of bill, and today, stated publicly in the committee meeting that I was still opposed to it and if it were voted out of committee, I expected to vote against it on the floor. I know that there are other members of the Republican Party, members of the Committee on Education, who take a similar position.

Now, Mr. President, I believe, in all fairness, it should be stated that those who favor F.E.P.C. are permitted to have it. There are city ordinances, and I believe eight of the cities of Pennsylvania enforce F.E.P.C. However, Mr. President, I ask you in all fairness, and the Members of this Senate, whether it is necessary to compel rural counties, where such legislation is not needed, to accept the principles of such a bill. I believe that the answer necessarily must be no.

Mr. President, I believe I have been a member of every committee that has considered F.E.P.C. legislation in the past, up to the present time. I want to say to you that it is the experience, whether the ballot was open or whether it was a paper ballot, that it cannot be truthfully said that all Democrats voted for the bill or that all the Republicans voted against it. I think if there is going to be a great deal of candor about this, it should be stated that inasmuch as my position has consistently been known in this type of legislation, I have had many members of the Democratic Party, both in and out of the Legislature, come to me when the consideration of this bill was eminent and say, "I hope you do not let it out of committee."

Thank you, Mr. President.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, I am not a member of the Committee on Education. As you all know, I am a member of no committee. However, I just want to make one statement. The previous speaker, and I know he is sincere, but perhaps in the heat of his discussion uttered a statement which I am sure he could not possibly mean when he questioned the right of the General Assembly to impose the principles of this bill upon rural communities. The principles of this bill are not new. They are fundamental in America. They are part of those inalienable rights; life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. There is nothing contained in this bill which does not reiterate the principles laid down by the founding fathers of this Country of ours.

Mr. President, it so happens that in our mad rush over the years we have neglected to keep apace in our industrial growth with those fundamental principles. All that this bill is attempting to do, and has attempted to do over the years is to re-establish and reaffirm the fundamental principles upon which this Country has been both created and prospering.

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. President, I did not intend to enter into this discussion, but I thought that I heard the last Senator who spoke from the opposite side, Senator Berger, say that there is no way of knowing, or words to that effect, that all the Democratic Members of that committee voted to bring the bill to the floor. I do not know whether he said that or not, but I made the statement last week that all of he Democratic Members would vote to bring the bill as it stood out of committee. All the Democratic Members did vote that way; all the Democratic Members voted against having a secret ballot. Both of these facts are known to be true to every member of the committee, and I do not want there to be any doubt about those facts.

Mr. President, I would join in what has been said about the fairness with which the chairman of the committee has conducted the discussion of this bill and the vote at all times, and if a dagger has been plunged into the side of FEPC, his hand was not on the dagger. However, I do not think that there should be any doubt left in anybody's mind as to how the Democratic Members of the committee, of which I am one, voted on this matter.

Mr. WEINER. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Potter, Senator Berger.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Potter, Mr. Berger, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BERGER. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. WEINER. Senator, if you feel so inclined, would you care to tell us who the Democratic Members were who voted against this bill. Well, I will say it the other way to make it easier and to make it positively. Who were the Republican Members who voted for the bill?

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President, I am unable to answer that question because the ballot did not so indicate.

Mr. WEINER. Mr. President, I would like to remind the gentleman, probably he was off of the floor at the time, but the vote was announced on the floor by the chairman of the committee.

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President, as I remember it, the numerical count was so announced.

Mr. WEINER. Would you care, Senator, therefore, to name the Republican Members who voted for the bill?

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President, I am unable to do so. The only thing that I can say is that I voted against it.

Mr. WEINER. Mr. President, would the Senator allow himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. BERGER. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. WEINER. Senator, would you then lead us to believe that it is due to a lapse in memory that you do not remember the names of the other Senators?

Mr. BERGER. Why, I did not say any such thing, Mr. President. I fail to understand the interrogation.

Mr. WEINER. Well, I will make the question clear if I might, Mr. President. Will you then name any other member, other than yourself, who voted against the bill?

Mr. BERGER. I cannot answer that question. I did not see the ballots after they were cast and if I had, I would not have been able to tell who voted against the bill, Mr. President.

Mr. WEINER. Then can we conclude from your remarks, Senator, or from your answers to my questions, that it was a secret ballot?

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President, it was a paper ballot and the ballots were marked and returned to, I believe, Senator Ruth and Senator Watson and were counted by them.

Mr. WEINER. Would you then say, Senator, am I correct in assuming from your remarks that that was a secret ballot so that you do not know how anybody voted?

Mr. BERGER. Well, I know how I voted and that is the only one I can say.

Mr. WEINER. And you do not know how anyone else voted?

Mr. BERGER. I am certain that some others voted against it, and I think that I could guess who they were but I cannot definitely say who did or who did not.

Mr. WEINER. Thank you, Senator.

Mr. BERGER. However, Mr. President, if I may interpolate something which might not be called for in my reply, I believe that Senator Seyler's statement saying that he and the other Democratic Members of the Committee voted for the bill is probably correct.

Mr. WEINER. Thank you very much, Senator.

Mr. HOLLAND. First of all, Mr. President, I would like to commend the chairman of the committee, Mr. Wagner, for being very fair and considerate in the meetings of his committee.

Mr. President, in speaking about who voted for the bill and who voted against the bill, I think the motion was for a written ballot. Now anyone can interpret that word "written" in any way. The gentleman who made the motion to have a written ballot said that anyone who wanted to sign their name to their ballot was entitled to do so. There were seven ballots signed. Of the seven ballots signed, six were signed by the six Democratic Membership.

I might add that someone just recently handed me these ballots from out of the wastepaper baskets. The ballots signed were by Joe Hays, Seyler, Silvert, Holland, Ruth, Bane and Mr. Kessler. Six of those ballots, signed by Democrats, voted in favor of the bill. I do not think that Mr. Kessler will object to my stating that his ballot, which he said he was not ashamed about, was voted "no.' I also happened to see Senator Wagner's ballot. I could not help but see it because I was sitting close to him, and he had it open and said that he was not ashamed of it and anybody could see it. He voted for the bill, and that accounts for seven of the votes.

Now, who cast the other vote in favor of the bill, I do not know and that man will have to tell himself. Unfortunately, I have had two or three people tell me, up to date, that they did vote for the bill and if they did vote for the bill, they must have marked their X after the wrong "yes" or "no." Maybe we should, therefore, reconsider the vote and vote again because, as you know, in every election, sometimes at a disadvantage to yourself, when you are the watcher, you will find someone who puts the X in the wrong place. Now maybe someone did put their X in the wrong place on the ballot, and we might possibly have the votes to report the bill out of committee.

As it now stands, there are seven votes, of which we are sure, for the bill and who the other gentleman is, I cannot tell. I understood that a lot of them were going to write their names on the ballot, but for their information there were only seven people who wrote their names on the ballot.

SENATE RESOLUTION REFERRED TO COMMITTEE

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION, SERIAL No. 134, REPORTED FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. MAHANY, from the Committee on Rules, to which was referred resolution offered by Mr. BARR, on May 9, 1955, reported the same without amendment, as follows:

URGING THE RECOGNITION OF THE EASTERN ORTHODOX CHURCH AS A MAJOR FAITH IN THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

In the Senate, May 9, 1955.

The Eastern Orthodox Church is a major faith in America and in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

The Eastern Orthodox Church is not generally included among the religious confessions of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Where anything is said concerning the major faiths, usually only Protestants, Catholics and Jews are referred to.

It, therefore, follows that a religious distinction is being made against the Eastern Orthodox Church, which is contrary to the prevailing liberal and democratic spirit of our Commonwealth; therefore be it

Resolved (the House of Representatives concurring). That the Eastern Orthodox Church be recognized as a major faith in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania;

That it be included among the religious confessions of this Commonwealth;

That the forms and official papers of the Commonwealth and local government units which refer to the major faiths and now limit them to Protestants, Catholics and Jews, bechanged to: Protestants, Catholics, Eastern Orthodox and Jews; and be it further

Resolved, That all media of communication and individuals are hereby requested to include the Eastern Orthodox Church when referring to the major faiths.

RULE 39 SUSPENDED

A motion was made by Mr. MAHANY and Mr. BARR,

That rule 39, which requires resolutions reported from committee to lie over for one day, be dispensed with and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the foregoing resolution.

Which was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

CONSIDERATION OF EXECUTIVE NOMINATIONS

Mr. WATSON asked and obtained unanimous consent for immediate consideration of the nominations reported at today's Session.

FINAL PASSAGE CALENDAR

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 208, entitled:

An Act amending the act of July 10 1935 (P. L. 645, No. 230) entitled "An act imposing certain requirements on certain hospitals receiving State aid authorizing the withholding of appropriations and imposing duties on the Department of Welfare" changing applicability of act by increasing bed capacity of hospitals.

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I intend to vote against this bill and I, for the life of me, cannot understand why such a bill should be on our Calendar.

Mr. President, for the past twelve years, to my knowledge, the State has been apropriating more money each year through a two year appropriation to the medical schools in our State. There must be something lacking if we have to pass a bill such as this bill.

Mr. President, the present law says that you must have a resident physician or intern at any hospital having 100 beds. This bill increases the number to 150 beds. In my opinion, Mr. President, we are either going backwards or we are wasting our money in appropriating this money to the medical schools.

I, for the life of me, Mr. President, cannot understand why the medical profession has not been in here objecting to this bill. I would like if anyone on the other side and, particularly, I would like to ask our friend Senator Pechan, if he could explain to me, why this bill.

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, the purpose of the bill is to allow the hospitals, which may have a bed capacity of 100 or more beds, to be eligible for the State subsidy.

Under the present law, Mr. President, every hospital that has 100 beds should have a resident physician or intern. Now, there just are not enough interns available for these small hospitals. Another thing, a lot of the hospitals in that category are not eligible, or are not qualified, to have an intern or a resident physician. However, all of these hospitals are covered by an OD roster or, I would say and officer of duty. I mean, there is a surgical man, a medical man available at all time, twenty-four hours of the day. The only purpose of this bill is that somebody arbitrarily in the Department of Welfare may say that you do not have a resident physician and because of that, you are not entitled to your appropriation. Now, any hospital would be thrilled to death to have a full time resident physician if he were available. However, our schools do not turn out enough.

Mr. President, in answer to Senator Barr's statement that we are appropriating a lot of money to medical schools, I want to concur with that. I also want to say this, that a lot of our Pennsylvania money, the taxpayers' funds which are used in our medical schools, are not used to educate Pennsylvanians. The University of Pittsburgh, I think, has the finest record, where they train ninety-nine per cent of Pennsylvanians. If you go to Temple, University of Pennsylvania, Hahnemann, Jefferson or Woman's Medical College, you will find that only a small percentage of the students are Pennsylvanians. I think Woman's Medical College of Pennsylvania has thirty-eight per cent Pennsylvanians, and the others come from New Jersey and all over the rest of the United States and yet it is Pennsylvania taxpayers' money that educates these people. We educate them and then they go back into their own States to practice, and for that reason we do not have sufficient physicians to take over in these small hospitals.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I do not want anyone to get the idea that I am trying to jeopardize or endanger the appropriations to the various medical schools, but I think, Senator Pechan, that we are putting the cart before the horse. I remember in the 1945 Session that we called in, down at the Penn-Harris Hotel, the heads of all of the Medical schools in the State and there submitted to them, when a proposition such as this was before us, that those students who are educated with Pennsylvania money should be made to intern in our State of Pennsylvania or that they make the medical school a five year term. In other words, four years in college, four years in the medical school and then their papers would not be given to them until they had interned in this State.

Mr. President, I, for one, would be very happy to cosponsor a bill such as that with you, because I am of the opinion that too many of these boys are getting their education with Pensylvania funds and are leaving the State.

The thing which comes back to my memory concerning this bill, Senator Pechan, is the fact that one evening around eleven o'clock, in Pittsburgh, I happened to be walking along Fifth Avenue, which you know is where the Webster Hall Hotel is located, and I saw a man struck by an automobile. He had been hit by the handle of the door of a car, and the handle had come clear off and the metal part was clear through his wrist. I picked him up and I took him to a hospital, which I am not going to identify by name, and that man was there one hour before we were able to get a doctor to look at him. Knowing a little bit about first aid, with the aid of a nurse, we put all the blankets we could on him, and I want to tell you that the Pittsburgh police were more alert than the physicians. The police were there long before a physician arrived.

Mr. President, I think that we are doing the wrong thing in increasing the number of beds to 150. If we are giving these hospitals State aid, these interns do not cost that much that they cannot afford to hire one intern for a 100 bed hospital and I, for one, think that this is very poor legislation.

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I am sure that the hospital to which Senator Barr referred, in Pitsburgh, is a much larger hospital than we are talking about here. Senator Barr admits that it took an hour to give this person emergency care.

Mr. President, the hospital that I have in mind—not that this bill covers it. It is a situation all over the State. Relative to the hospital that I have in mind, I am sure that if an emergency arises, it may take a half an hour or an hour for a physician to get there. The hospital that I am thinking about does not qualify under the Department of Health and Welfare to have a resident physician. Therefore, we have to depend on the physicians who live within the area, who are on call, and immediately when an emergency comes into that hospital, the person in charge contacts the surgeon or the medical officer, physician, and he is supposed to come over as soon as possible. He may be out on a house call. If he is not there, then before he leaves his office, it is his duty to notify an associate or a fellow practioner that he is not available. However, that hospital is covered twenty-four hours a day.

This bill, Mr. President, merely protects the hospital from somedoby who arbitrarily may, in the Department of Welfare, say "You do not have a resident physician and consequently you are not going to get your appropriation." I am not going to bleed for this bill, Joe, believe me.

Mr. BARR. Don't you think that we are permitting the hospitals to be become more lax than if we pass such a bill as this?

Mr. PECHAN. I did not hear you, Senator.

Mr. BARR. Don't you think we are permitting the hospitals to be become more lax if we pass such a bill as this?

Mr. PECHAN. It is not the hospital, it is the boards of directors of these hospitals that are concerned. It is these people who have to depend on the appropriation that they get each year to run their hospitals. They cannot get these physicians to come in and meet the requirements of the law as it is presently written.

As Senator Wagner has just now said, it is not laxity; it is scarcity.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, the gentleman from Armstrong, Senator Pechan, made a remark which is most alarming. He stated on two occasions that some of the hospitals are not quilified to meet the State requirements or to meet the requirements that will permit an intern to work there. That should require a sweeping investigation of all hospitals.

Mr. President, if a hospital is not qualified to have an intern placed within that hospital, how can it be qualified to receive State aid? There must be something wrong in Denmark.

Furthermore, Mr. President, I can mention a dozen hospitals right offhand that have no doctors between the hours of ten o'clock in the morning until the next morning; on Thursdays, no service whatsoever. It makes no difference to me whether it is a hundred bed hospital or a hundred and fifty. Any hospital that receives State aid should have an intern or a resident physician. One life is just as important as a hundred lives to me. How can Senator Pechan justify his remarks by saying that one hundred people should have no intern or a resident doctor, but one hundred and fifty peopls must? It does not make any sense to me, whatsoever.

I think it is about time, Mr. President, that we in this Commonwealth take time out and have a sweeping investigation of the operations of the hospitals receiving State aid. Such an investigation was concluded recently in New York City, and one is going on right now in Ohio.

Next week, I expect to bring before this body a resolution looking into unnecessary operations, doing surgery, and fee-plitting in hospitals that are not qualified to have interns. I expect to bring in this resolution next week, and hope that every Senator will give it due consideration because right now, in two adjoining States, the responsibilities of some doctors have been uncovered. In a late issue of The American Medical Association Journal, printed in Chicago, they have gone to print and stated that many doctors are being whitewashed when accused of malpractice.

We are well past the time, Mr. President, and I hope that this Session will set up a body, with powers of subpoena, and make a thorough investigation of the hospital practices in Pennsylvania.

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. President, I have listened to the discussion on this and it strikes me that we have had a lot of generalities about this bill without having much factual information. I am also struck with the fact that this presents essentially a pretty serious problem, because it is a question of the proper care of patients in hospitals supported by State appropriations.

In the interest of getting down to some factual basis, Mr. President, I wonder if I might interrogate the sponsor of the bill.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Armstrong, Mr. Pechan, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. PECHAN. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. President, I would like to ask Senator Pechan whether he can tell us how many hospitals there are in this classification affected by the bill; namely, hospitals having between 100 and 150 beds?

Mr. PECHAN. Senator Seyler, I cannot answer that question. This bill was not given to me by any hospital association or the Department of Health. I sponsored it by request, let me put it that way.

Mr. SEYLER. Well, Mr. President, I will excuse the gentleman's lack of knowledge on that score, but we are dealing with a bill here which will have a pretty drastic effect on the health and welfare of patients in our hospitals.

Mr. President, I would like to ask another question which, possibly, he could answer. How many hospitals in this category, between 100 and 150, actually lost appropriation by not having a resident physician or intern?

Mr. PECHAN. I cannot answer that question. When the request was made to me to sponsor this bill, they did not give me any figures and it was given as a matter of protection rather than as a result of a loss of appropriations which they have incurred.

Mr. SEYLER. Well, Mr. President, the point has been made that this is working a hardship on a number of hospitals. All that I am trying to get at are the facts. Is it true? Is there a case for this bill or is there not?

Now another question which I would like to ask the Senator is, I have been told, and I ask the gentleman who sponsored the bill assuming that he would be correctly informed about a matter that I only have by hearsay, that the Department of Welfare has discretion on a matter such as this. I have been told that most of these hospitals have interns for awhile and then they lose them, or they have a resident physician for a while and lose him, and that the Department of Welfare has discretion, if the case is presented to them showing that they are unable for a period of time to secure a resident physician or intern, to waive that if a proper case has been presented so that these hospitals can receive their appropriation for that period if they have a good case.

I would ask the gentleman whether that is correct; whether the Department of Welfare does have discretion in the matter?

Mr. PECHAN. Again, Mr. President, I must say that I am uninformed. I do not know. I could not answer that question.

Mr. President—excuse me, Senator Seyler, you may have a further question.

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. President, the total effect of this lack of information impresses me with the fact that we have one of a species of bills here which, it seems to me, too often we put through without actually having the foggiest notion of what we are talking about.

Mr. President, I do not believe there is anybody on the floor who actually has any factual information on this matter. I am open to conviction, and I do feel that it is an important matter as it affects the health and welfare of patients, of sick people in hospitals, and these hospitals are receiving State appropriations. I do not see why we want to rush in to passing a bill of this sort if we are unable to make a case for it. I have heard nothing but generalities. I do not know how many hospitals there are, I do not know whether they have actually lost appropriations or, if so, how much. I do not know whether they lose their appropriation for the whole year or only for the period they cannot get an intern. I do not know whether or not, if they present a case to the Department of Welfare, they can be executed for a period until they get proper help, but I have been informed that that is the case.

Mr. President, the effect of what I am saying has convinced me, at any rate, that no case has been made for this bill whatsoever and we are putting through something here about which we know nothing.

Mr. President, I would respectfully suggest to the gentleman that he either hold it up until we can get information or, perhaps better still, return it to committee until proper information can be found to give us some factual basis for deciding on it.

Mr. President, I do not know, apparently by his own admission he does not know, and I doubt if there is anyone here who knows or who can tell us some facts on this matter. If there is, I would be glad to hear them.

Mr. President, there is just one more point which I would like to put to the Senator, and that is, if this need is indicated for hospitals having from 100 to 150 beds, what about the hospital which has 151 beds or 152 beds or 160 beds, and which is in the same circumstance? Can the gentleman tell me how many hospitals with over 150 beds have difficulty with their appropriations because of a lack of resident physicians or interns?

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I am sorry that this bill came up today. I did talk to Senator Seyler last week about getting some facts and figures, but I was busy this morning with committee meetings. I had a conference at nine o'clock this morning, and I was unable to attend my Caucus. In my absence the Caucus took action on the bill to let it out for an open vote. However, Mr. President, I will only be too happy to make a motion that this bill be put on the Postponed Calendar until we are all better informed.

Mr. President, I do want to say this, though, in answer to Senator Seyler. It is just as important to me, if you have a thirty bed hospital, to see that those thirty patients are covered, or sixty patients or ninety-nine patients, as it is under the present law where it says that we shall have a resident physician for a 100 bed hospital. Therefore, your question about what happens to the 151 bed hospital is no different than my concern about the little thirty bed hospitals which we have throughout the Commonwealth. I think those thirty people in that hospital should be covered, should have the care just as much and just as well as a hospital that may have, let us say, 1,000 beds.

Mr. President, I now move that this bill—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from York, Mr. Seyler, will state his point of order.

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. President, I think that I still have the floor.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from York may proceed.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. President, I would make two suggestions to the gentleman from Armstrong. One is that he beseech his Caucus to release him from the obligation of having to go through with this bill, and allow him to make a motion to put it on the Postponed Calendar or in some other way delay it. My second suggestion would be that he give consideration to the fact that there may be hospitals with 151 beds or 160 beds and find out whether they are in the same predicament.

The question would then arise in my mind, Mr. President, as to just where we shall draw the line. Perhaps there are hospitals with 250 beds in the same circumstance, I don't know. However, if we are going to make a bill here on the plea that certain hospitals cannot conform, we should include in the bill all those hospitals which cannot conform, because the intent of this bill is the protection of the patients in the hospitals. I agree with the gentleman that a hospital with thirty patients is perhaps in a bad way on occasion if there is not a resident physician on duty. I would point out to him, however, that the higher the number of potential patients, as represented by the higher number of beds, the more likelihood under the laws of chance that there will be an emergency. In other words, I am saying that a hospital of thirty beds will perhaps have one-fifth as many occurrences of emergency, under the law of averages, as a hospital with 150 beds. Therefore, the higher you raise this thing, the more likelihood there is that there will be a serious neglect of some patient in a hospital receiving State appropriation.

Accordingly, I would very respectfully offer those two suggestions to the gentleman from Armstrong.

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I appreciate the gentleman's interest in the bill which is before us and I would suggest to him, and those of you who are not convinced that it is good legislation, that it is needed legislation, that it is important and I am going to try to get the figures between now and Monday from the Hospital Association, and maybe the Medical Society, to justify this legislation. I have not contacted these associations at all. I was going to do it this past week but, as I told you, I have been busy and was unable to do so.

I hope that Senator Seyler, and those of you who are a little leery about this bill, will also go out and get the information in order that we may have it next week. I certainly do not want to minimize the danger of our patients in our hospitals. My purpose is to help them.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I now move that Senate Bill No. 208, on final passage, be placed on the Final Passage Postponed Calendar.

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same without amendments.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 707, as follows:

An Act amending the act of May 22 1935 (P. L. 233) entitled "An act creating and establishing a fund for the care maintenance and relief of aged retired and disabled employees of the Bureau of Police in cities of the second class providing a pension fund for said employees and providing for the payment of certain dues fees assessments fines and appropriations thereto regulating membership therein creating a board for the management thereof providing the amount mode and manner of payment to beneficiaries thereof and for the care and disposition of said fund providing for the payment into this fund by cities of the second class of all monies heretofore payable into any other funds organizations corporations or associations having the same or similar purposes and of such additional monies as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this act" limiting contributions to the pension fund by members in active service changing requirement for eligibility for pensions changing the method of computing pensions and providing a method of paying service increments from the pension fund to employees of the police force after retirement

Section 1 Clause (6) of section 2 and section 10 act of May 22 1935 (P L 233) entitled "An act creating and establishing a fund for the care maintenance and relief of aged retired and disabled employes of the Bureau of Police in cities of the second class providing a pension fund for said employees and providing for the payment of certain dues fees assessments fines and appropriations thereto regulating membership therein creating a board for the management thereof providing the amount mode and manner of payment to beneficiaries thereof and for the care and disposition of said fund providing for the payment into this fund by cities of the second class of all monies heretofore payable into any other funds organizations corporations or associations having the same or similar purposes and of such additional monies as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this act" amended June 25 1947 (P L 919) are amended to read

Section 2 Such fund shall consist of and to it shall be transferred and paid

(6) Sums to be annually paid into said fund by each city of the second class in amounts sufficient to maintain the pensions or compensations and service increments due under this act The public authorities of every city of the second class charged with the disbursements expenditures and appropriations thereof shall annually set aside apportion and appropriate out of all taxes and income of the said cities unto the fund hereby created a sum sufficient to maintain the pensions or compensations and service increments due under this act and to carry out the provisions of this act

Section 10 Each member in active service shall be required

(1) To contribute to said fund five per centum of his rated monthly salary or wages but in no event contributing more than twenty-five dollars per month which shall be deducted from his salary or wages by the city controller from the payroll for the last half of each month and paid into the fund

(2) Substitute employees of the Bureau of Police as classified under subsection (1) of section 8 hereof shall be credited for pension and paid on the basis of actual days served in the Bureau of Police

(3) Regular and substitute employees shall serve at least one day in each month in order to be credited for one month's service for pension under this act

Section 2 Clause (3) of section 13 of the act amended May 11 1949 (P L 1224) is amended to read

Section 13 Members of the fund shall be eligible to receive pensions from said fund as follows

(3) Any member who has become a member of this fund under the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 8 hereof or who has been admitted to membership under the provisions of sub-section (2) or sub-section (3) of section 8 hereof more than sixty days after the effective date of this act shall be entitled to receive a pension from said fund upon written application of such member stating his desire to withdraw from service in said city or that his employment by the said city has been terminated and showing that such member has attained the age of fifty years and has rendered at least twenty years' [continuous] service whether or not continuous to the said city and shall include service in the armed forces of the United States in times of war

Section 4 The act is amended by adding after section 13 a new section to read

Section 14 Pensions paid under the provisions of this act shall equal not less than fifty per centum of the amount which would constitute the average monthly salary or wages as received by the employees of the Bureau of Police during the highest paid five years in which time the employee made monthly contributions to the pension fund prior to his or her retirement No pension shall be computed on a monthly salary or wage in excess of five hundred dollars nor shall a pension be paid for a fraction of a service year A service year shall be computed from the date of employment of the employee Pension payments shall always be payable on the third working day of each month and shall be for the preceding month

Section 5 The act is amended by adding after section 14.1 three new sections to read

Section 14.2 Any member who after twenty or more years service and before attaining the age of fifty years shall be separated from the service by reason of no cause or act of his or her own if such member continues to contribute to the pension fund monthly a sum equal to the last monthly contribution paid while in employ such former employee shall when he or she reaches the age of fifty years be eligible to receive a pension allowance

Section 14.3 Any person who after twenty or more years service retires voluntarily before reaching the age of fifty years shall pay into the pension fund monthly a sum equal to the last monthly contribution paid while in the service until he or she reaches the age of fifty years when such former employee shall be eligible to receive a pension allowance

Section 14.4 In every city of the second class in addition to the pension which is authorized by law and notwithstanding the limitations therein placed upon pensions and upon contributions every contributor who shall have otherwise become entitled to the pension and who has reached the age of fifty years shall also be entitled to the payment of a service increment in accordance with and subject to the conditions hereinafter set forth

(1) Service increment shall be the sum obtained by computing the number of whole years after the completion of twenty years' service which a contributor has been employed by the Bureau of Police and paid out of the city treasury and multiplying the number of years so computed by an amount equal to five dollars for each month of service beyond twenty years of service This sum shall be divided by twelve to arrive at the monthly increment payment In computing the service increment no employment after the contributor has reached the age of sixty-five years shall be included and no service increment shall be paid in excess of one hundred dollars per month

(2) Each contributor from and after the effective date of this amendment shall pay into the retirement fund as the contribution to the increment fund a monthly sum in addition to his or her retirement contribution which shall be equal to one-half of one per centum of his or her salary Such payment shall not exceed the sum of one dollar per month The service increment contribution shall not be paid after a contributor has reached the age of sixty-five years

(3) Persons who are contributors on the effective date of this amendment who have already reached the age of sixty-five years shall have his or her service increment computed on the years of employment prior to the date of reaching his or her sixty-fifth birthday Such person however shall be entitled to the increment only by paying in the one dollar per month contribution for the number of months his or her service exceeds twenty-years but such contribution shall not exceed a total of one hundred dollars

(4) Service increment contributions shall be paid at the same time and in the same manner as pension contributions and may be withdrawn in full without interest by persons who leave the employment of the Bureau of Police subject to the same conditions by which pension contributions may be withdrawn When any person is re-employed by the Bureau of Police after withdrawal of pension contributions his or her prior service shall not be used in the computation of service increment unless the amount of such contributions be repaid into the pension fund subject to the same conditions by which pension fund withdrawals are permitted to be repaid

(5) All employees of the Bureau of Police who are now contributors to the pension fund and all persons who are employed by the Bureau of Police after the effective date of this amendment who are required to become contributors to the pension fund shall be subject to the provisions of this section

Section 6 The provisions of this amending act shall have no application to or any effect on pensions now being paid to persons retired on the effective date of this act nor shall persons on retirement pension on the effective date of this act if re-employed receive any increase in pension as a result of these amendments

Section 7 This act shall take effect January 1 1956.

SECOND READING CALENDAR

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 154, Printer's No. 135, on second reading, go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILLS ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 179, entitled:

An Act amending the act of April 25, 1929 (P. L. 723), entitled "An act regulating the investment of funds by administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers of the State Government," increasing the investment powers of State administrative departments, boards, commissions or officers.

And said bill having been read at length the second time, and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 184, entitled:

An Act amending the act of August 5, 1932 (P. L. 45) entitled "An act empowering cities of the first and second classes to levy assess and collect or to provide for the levying assessment and collection of certain additional taxes for general revenue purposes authorizing the establishment of bureaus and the appointment and compensation of officers and employes to assess and collect such taxes and permitting penalties to be imposed and enforced" prohibiting the imposition of wage income or occupation taxes on nonresidents and abolishing such taxes heretofore imposed.

And said bill having been read at length the second time, and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

BILL ON SECOND READING

AMENDMENTS OFFERED

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 226, entitled:

An Act creating a temporary advisory commission to examine, report upon and recommend reorganizations of agencies and functions of the State government; prescribing its powers and duties; directing cooperation of governmental agencies; and authorizing the issuance of subpoenas.

The first and second sections were read and agreed to.

The third section was read.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. DENT offered the following amendments:

Amend House Bill No. 226, Printer's No. 447, page 3, lines 8 and 9 by striking out said lines and inserting in lieu thereof: "as follows" "(1) Four (4) appointed by the Governor two (2) from the executive branch of the government and two (2) from private life" "(2) Four (4) appointed by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate two (2) from the Senate and two (2) from private life and "(3) Four (4) appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives two (2) from the House of Representatives and two (2) from private life".

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

MOTION TO ADOPT AMENDMENTS

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I move that the amendments to House Bill No. 226 be adopted.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, the amendments which I have offffered to House Bill No. 226, Printer's No. 447, by way of explanation I might say that we are amending page 3, lines 8 and 9, by striking out said lines and inserting the following:

Four appointed by the Governor, two from the Executive Branch of government and two from private life; four appointed by the President pro tempore of the Senate, two from the Senate and two from private life; four appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, two from the House of Representatives and two from private life."

Mr. President, these amendments will restore the bill to its original form. The purpose of this is to try to follow as closely as possible the pattern of the so-called Hoover Commission legislation in the Federal Government. They have found, over the years, that by having direct representation from the House of Congress and the Senate of the United States, they have been able to prepare reorganization plans and have a favorable hearing in the legislative bodies.

Mr. President, the amendments inserted by the Republican controlled Committee would give the Governor the right to name all twelve members of this commission. I do not know what the thinking is behind those amendments, but I do know that the Governor feels that the Legislative Branch is the permanent branch of this government, whereas the chief administrator changes every four years and, therefore, in order to have a continuing membership on that commission from the General Assembly, he has asked that these amendments be re-inserted into the bill.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I rise to oppose these amendments. The reason for my so doing is because I believe that the Governor should have a free hand in appointing the members of this commission.

As you know, Mr. President, the Chesterman Committee and other committees, called survey committees, have done work over the past years in the State of Pennsylvania; the last one being the Chesterman Committee which worked long and hard, and at considerable expense to the people of Pennsylvania, and came up with many findings. Last year, in the Democratic platform, it was stated that they believed certain recommendations of the Chesterman Committee should be adopted which would save up to $100,000,000. Certainly today the Governor has the work of the Chesterman Committee before him, he has their report and he has access to it. One of the fellows who did a lot of work in connection with the Chesterman Committee was Doctor Charlesworth, who is now Assistant to the Governor and is available to the Governor day by day for advice, counsel and suggestion.

Mr. President, if this amendment were adopted it might well be that the President pro tempore of the Senate might appoint two members from the Senate and two from private life, and perhaps he might not appoint people who would work as hard and diligently in connection with this study as the people whom the Governor might appoint as members of this commission. After all, it is the Governor's job to do this work. He stated in his Inaugural, as you remember, that we had been surveyed and resurveyed and now it was time for action. I personally do not feel that he needs this commission at all. I think we certainly have many reports, probably as many reports as are possible to get in connection with this subject.

Mr. President, it was my opinion that if we passed House Bill No. 1, which we did and which gave the Governor the right to reorganize and reshuffle the State government, that would be all of the authority he would need to carry out reorganization. However, it seems that he wants another commission appointed to aid him in this work, and we have gone along with his suggestion and request in line with this bill, but we feel that, after all, he is the one who wants the commission and he, therefore, should be the one to appoint such a commission.

The commission that is to be appointed should work closely with the Governor. He should interview the various ones whom he expects to appoint, to see whether or not they might be interested in this type of work, whether or not they would have the time to devote to it and whether or not they would really be enthusiastic in their endeavors to aid him in this so important work, as he points out. I, therefore, feel that he should have a free hand in picking this commission, and not be saddled with some possible appointments by the President pro tempore of the Senate, who might not work as diligently as others whom the Governor might appoint. That is also true of appointments which might be made by the Speaker of the House.

Mr. President, we feel that the Governor would, perhaps, be able to get a much better committee if he were given the right to appoint all twelve members. Also, should any of these appointments not work out, he could not put the blame on anybody but himself in making the appointments. If they do not work out and they do not do a good job then the Governor, having appointed them, would have the right to remove them from this commission. It would be a fluctuating committee, and he would have the right to appoint others to replace those who might have to resign from the committee because they might not have the time to devote to it.

In addition to that, of course, it is very obvious but I want to put it into the record, the Governor, under the provisions of the bill as it was amended and came out of committee, can appoint Senators, either Republican or Democrat. He can appoint House members, either Republican or Democrat. He is not confined nor limited in any way whatsoever to those whom he appoints. He can appoint all Democrats, he can appoint all Republicans or he can appoint a mixed group representing both Republicans and Democrats, coming from both the Legislative Branch of Government and from private life. We have not tied his hands in any way whatsoever in the ones whom he chooses to appoint to this committee and who will serve on this committee.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I want to make some remarks on the position we are taking in this matter, in being for the amendments.

Mr. President and Members, it appears to me that the purpose behind the amendments put into this bill in the Senate committee appears to be the purpose of having all of the so-called responsibility for reorganization laid directly at the Governor's door.

Mr. President, I do not think that the amendments, which I have introduced, in any way diminish the Governor's responsibility nor does it diminish in any manner whatsoever the efficiency of the Governor's plan. I say that the reason that all of the commissions which we have named over the years in this Senate have failed is because we, the Members of the General Assembly, have failed in our duty in taking our proper position on these commissions.

Mr. President, you will find, if you will look through the records, that the Chesterman Committee report and the bills which grew from that report failed miserably because no person was able to come before the General Assembly and explain to the General Assembly the reasons for the changes suggested by the Chesterman Committee.

If you will all remember back, we started to hold public hearings on the Chesterman Committee reports and after the very first public hearing, we were given a blunt answer by the Chesterman Committee itself that they would not be interrogated on the findings of their committee, nor did they feel obligated to answer questions asked by the General Assembly. If we are to spend State moneys then we, as Members of this General Assembly, ought to be able and willing to assume our responsibilities in this grave matter. The intent of this legislation is to overhaul the entire State government; to go into every department and commission; to develop, if we can, a more streamlined form of administration on the Hill. We intend to try to save as much money as we can for the taxpayers, and at the same time increase the efficiency of government.

Mr. President, we know that it is a hard task. We know that if the Governor names a commission, that commission will find itself coming to bat in the General Assembly with two strikes on it, because those of us who are Members of the General Assembly have a certain suspicion of those who come from the outside of the Assembly Halls and put into the Assembly Halls legislation which they have designed. In every commission that we have named, starting back with the second General

State Authority where we have designated that at least two members of each branch of the General Assembly must serve on these authorities, we have found that they work smoothly, that the General Assembly is not suspicious of their actions, and that their actions are subject to review by Members of the General Assembly because their own membership serves on the Authorities and Commissions which have been created since back in 1949.

Now, Mr. President and Members of the Senate, I know the Governor can name Members of this General Assembly, but let us take the actual workings of that type of a commission. The Governor may want to name four Republicans on this commission, who would be named by the terms of our amendments. However, to whom will he go to receive the names of the men who would represent the Republican point of view? After all is said and done, over the history of this State, you, the Republican Party, have been in power many, many more years than we have been. You have a great deal more knowledge of the intricate workings of the State departments and bureaus and commissions. I think that you are trying to dodge a responsibility.

Mr. President, recently this General Assembly increased the expense accounts of the Members of this General Assembly by the sum of $100 a month. The reason for so doing was because our work has become multiplied over the years. We have so much more to do in tending to the people's business. This is the people's business.

I believe, Senator Mahany, that you can trust Senator Taylor to choose the right caliber of men. I do not believe that you should question the type of men that he would pick, either from the General Assembly or from outside the General Assembly. Senator Taylor's history here in the Senate has always been that on any commission that I have ever had to work with him, he has always tried to name the caliber of men who would suit the job to which he names them. I am sure that he will give the Governor cooperative members on that commission. I do not believe that Senator Taylor should be denied the right to select from amongst his party members the kind of stalwarts that would stand for the thinking that represents the Republican Party in Pennsylvania.

All of us have had, over the years, the experience of having some Chief Executive name a bipartisan commission and in most instances, what happens? They go into the Republican Party, if that happens to be the case of the Minority member's party registration, or into the Democratic Party if the facts are vice versa. What happens? They do not take a stalwart of the opposite party. They go in and take a part member who is registered one way and works the other way. So, you will not get the dynamic leadership on this commission that is so essential to the operation of this commission.

I know you have had caucus action, and I want to tell you right now that I will recommend to the Governor, if you insist upon voting "no" on these amendments, that he select this commission exactly upon the formula of the amendments for which I have asked. I do not know whether he will do that. However, if he does do it, I am going to see to it that he has Senator Taylor name the men that the Republican Party will be represented by on this commission. I believe that is the proper way to operate.

Mr. President, we, the Members of the General Assembly, cannot dodge our responsibilities. It is our responsibility to look into the creation of new commissions, new bureaus or the destruction of old, or the amendment of some department's actions, rules and regulations. This is the method with which we have chosen to do that. I say to all of the Members of this Senate, you are making a very serious mistake here today in not seeing to it that your party is represented. I, for one, if I were a Member of the Republican Party sitting here in the Senate, would demand that recognition be given to the millions of party members in the State of Pennsylvania upon an organization committee that may have such far-reaching results in the future of this great Commonwealth.

I would ask you at this moment, if you can, to reconsider your action of your Caucus, to reconsider in the light of the need of the State of Pennsylvania and not in the light of what may be at the moment appropriate for the Republican Party as you see it.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I have listened to the debate here today and I believe there are several points which have been overlooked here this afternoon.

First, Mr. Prsident, we must all understand that this legislation will be on the statute books after George Leader has finished his term as Governor of Pennsylvania. Secondly, we must remember, too, that after next year one half of this Senate will be elected to office and their terms will expire after the Governor's term expires. Therefore, it seems to me, since we are a continuing body, that we should not by any sense of our imagination or any stretch of our imagination go along with the bill in its present form.

Mr. President, I recall when the Chesterman Committee made its report here on the floor of this Senate, Members on both sides ridiculed those reports because the Members had no actual official status. I recall, too, that members of the Chesterman Commission refused to appear before the Members of the Senate and explain their program as far as State economies were concerned. I think all of you will agree that when the Local Government Commission makes a report, it is respected by Members on both sides of the aisle. When the Joint State Government Commission makes a report, it has an official status as far as we Members of the Senate are concerned. That report is accepted and respected.

Mr. President, I do not know what sort of political chicanery is being played today. I imagine the Republicans have caucused against the bill, and I suppose they are going to vote "no" on the amendments. However, I do say that if they vote the amendments down, they are making a big mistake, because who knows what may happen in the future? Who knows what economies might be affected if we do have a legislative committee appointed to do the job? I have heard it said, many many times, by Members on the other side of the aisle, that the experienced men should have these responsibilities. I think that we have enough talent here in the Senate to do a good job on this committee.

Of course, Senater Dent has said that he will recommend to the Governor that he appoint the committees as outlined in his amendments. That may be all well and good, but at the same time, they are then the direct appointments of the Governor and we, ourselves, are losing our official status and we are surrendering our executive and legislative prerogatives as Members of this Senate.

Therefore, Mr. President, I urge the Republicans and the Democrats of this Senate to support Senator Dent's amendments and if you are not satisfied, let us throw it into a conference committee.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I would like to point out that the Democratic Platform, under "Reorganization of State Government," appearing on page 161 of the House Legislative Journal, they provided that they wanted to pass a Government Reorganization Act modeled after the Federal Government Reorganization Act, compelling the Governor to eliminate waste, inefficiency and overlapping of State services, using as a basis the Chesterman Committee Report, which revealed that after proper reforms, savings of $100,000,000 could be effected each biennium.

Mr. President, under the Federal Government Reorganization Act, as I remember it and as I have been advised, they appointed the Hoover Commission first, just as we appointed the Chesterman Committee. The Chesterman Committee was known sometimes as the "Little Hoover Commission." They did that work and they have a report made and the Governor certainly has access to it. He can use all of the recommendations made in the Chesterman Committee Report and put them into his plans. If he finds that there may be somthing that is not included in that report, then this committee which he wishes to make up can look further into it or he can do it himself, personally.

I have no doubt that if we pass this bill as is, without amendments, if he asks Senator Taylor to cooperate with him in recommending Senators to serve on this, Senator Taylor will be happy to cooperate with the Governor.

Mr. President, I also would be happy to cooperate with the Governor in aiding him in making some selections, but I think, after all, that the Governor is taking the responsibility and should have the responsibility of naming the men or ladies to this commission. If he wants to appoint Senators, as I have said, he has the right to do so. If he wants to appoint House Members, he also has the right to do so. We are not limiting him or tying his hands in any way whatsoever. It is his committee; it is his responsibility. There is no political chicanery involved.

We feel that he wants the job of doing this and he should have unlimited power to appoint the committee, to appoint members to this committee who will be responsible to him. If they do not do the job well or they tire of their efforts, then the Governor should have the right to have others fill the places of those who might like to resign. In that way, he will be, we might say, in charge of the whole matter and certainly he cannot pass the buck to us and we cannot pass the buck to him. He will be the one responsible for it.

Mr. LANE. Mr President, I listened to the Majority Leader's expression of opinion here and his concern for the success of this present Administration. I might say, too, that since he feels that perhaps the Governor might pass the buck onto the Republican side, that in the event we pass these amendments, pass this bill, those on the Republican side can refuse to accept these appointments. There is nothing wrong with that.

Mr. President, if you look in the bill and see where the amendments were struck out, you can see that Members of the General Assembly will serve without any additional compensation whatsoever, while if the amendments are kept in the bill, which the Republican Party put in there, it is going to cost us a considerable amount of money to keep this commission in operation.

Therefore, Mr. President, if the Majority Leader is concerned about economy, I would say to the Members of the Senate that they certainly should support Senator Dent's amendments.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

TUESDAY, June 14, 1955

The House met at 1:00 p. m. EST.
The SPEAKER (Hiram G. Andrews) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Reverend Harold J. Crouse, Pastor of the Trinity Lutheran Church, York, offered the following prayer:

Bless, we beseech Thee, Merciful Lord, our country and all its people. Give Thine abundant grace to our President, and to all who bear office throughout the land, to the Speaker of this House, to the majority and minority leaders of the House, and to all the Representatives as well as to those who are here employed, that in all things we may be governed righteously and in Thy fear. Grant unto us, not only such outward prosperity as is according to Thy will, but, above all things, such virtue and true religion, that Thy holy Name may be ever glorified in the midst of us. Through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVAL POSTPONED

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection, the approval of the Journal for Monday, June 13, 1955, will be postponed until printed. The Chair hears none.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. ISAACS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. ISAACS. Mr. Speaker, on June 6 I was present in the Hall of this House and voted "aye" on House Bill 876. On page 1886 of the Legislative Journal I am recorded as "not voting" on this bill.

I think, Mr. Speaker, I vote in a clear and distinctive tone, yet for the past three consecutive weeks I have had to take the floor on a question of personal privilege to correct the Journal.

NAZARETH AND STOCKERTOWN SCHOOL PATROLS WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. The Cair welcomes to the Hall of the House a delegation of seventy-nine members of the school patrols from the Nazareth and Stockertown schools of Northampton County who are here under the supervision of the Principal of the Stockertown school, Mr. Remaly. They are the guests of the Members from Northampton, Mrs. Reibman, and Messrs. Gaffney, Pacchioli and Bucchin.

The school crossing guards of Nazareth and Stockertown are also present. They are Mrs. Solt, Mrs. Hoffert, Mrs. Simmonds, Mrs. Keller, Mrs. Dorshimer and Mrs. Bortz. The patrols are under the supervision of Patrolman Hahn of the Nazareth Police Department.

Members of the delegation will understand that at the present time the Chair and the House are simply conducting routine business. We have not arrived at the point where we are dealing with the calendar.

BILLS ON SECOND READING POSTPONED

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar, by Mr. VERONA.

The House resumed the consideration on second reading of House Bill No. 907, entitled:

An Act providing for and regulating the licensing and practicing of public accountancy creating and imposing powers and duties on the State Board of Licensed Public Accountants prescribing unlawful acts and imposing penalties.

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. McCORMACK. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Professional Licensure for the purpose of further study.

Mr. THOMAS H. W. JONES. Mr. Speaker, if a second is necessary, I would like to second the motion of the gentleman from Philadelphia.

The SPEAKER. No second is required. The question occurs on the motion to recommit.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. VERONA. Mr. Speaker, I rise to oppose this motion. This bill has been on the calendar, for three or four weeks.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. McCORMACK. I rise to a point of order, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. McCORMACK. Is it correct that I can now request a division

The SPEAKER. The gentleman had his opportunity, and the Chair waited and waited and waited for a call for either a division or a roll call. The chair asked for an aye and nay vote, the nays had it, and the Chair ruled that the motion fell.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. McCORMACK. I rise to a point of order, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. McCORMACK. Mr. Speaker, is there any parliamentary maneuver that can be made at this time?

The SPEAKER. The bill is before the House. We are not disposed to conduct a parliamentary instruction school. The gentleman could make a motion to lay the bill upon the table. He could make various motions.

Mr. McCORMACK. Well, then Mr. Speaker

The SPEAKER. From now on the gentleman is on his own.

Mr. McCORMACK. Mr. Speaker, I would like to point out that I do not have the benefit of a parliamentarian here to help me. I might be a little ignorant of the rules, for which I apologize, in regard to the various parliamentary questions that I can raise, and I for that reason, asked if there was such a motion that I could make at this time that would enable me to get a roll call vote on the motion to recommit.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would inform the gentleman, first of all, that knowing no parliamentary law, he would make a good Speaker and he would have a good parliamentarian at his elbow. The only motion the chair would know that would be dilatory in nature, and might serve the gentleman's purpose, would be to lay the bill upon the table. Otherwise, the Chair would know no recourse at this time.

Mr. McCORMACK. Could I be recognized at this time, Mr. Speaker, for purpose of moving to lay the bill upon the table?

The SPEAKER. The Chair is always willing to recognize the gentleman from Philadelphia. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia.

MOTION TO LAY ON TABLE

Mr. McCORMACK. Mr. Speaker I move that House Bill 907 be laid on the table, and in connection with that motion I ask for a roll call.

Mr. T. H. W. JONES. Mr. Speaker, I second the roll call.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. SARRAF. Is this motion, Mr. Speaker, debatable?

The SPEAKER. A motion to lay upon the table stands by itself and is not debatable.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Messrs. McCORMACK and THOMAS H. W. JONES and were as follows:

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1021, as follows:

An Act amending the act of March 10 1949 (P. L. 30) entitled "An act relating to the public school system including certain provisions applicable as well to private and parochial schools amending revising consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto" granting the right to a hearing and appeal before the State Council of Education on the creation or change of a third or fourth closs school district

Section 1 Section 228 act of March 10 1949 (P. L. 30) known as the "Public School Code of 1949" amended May 11 1949 (P. L. 1089) is amended to read

Section 228 Approval or Disapproval of Creation or Change of Third or Fourth Class Districts (a) If the newly created city borough or township or independent school district or union school district or the part of a school district remaining after the separation would constitute a school district of the third or fourth class the receipt of said certified copy shall be deemed an application for the creation of a new school district of the third or fourth class or change in the boundaries of an existing school district of the third or fourth class and the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall within sixty days thereafter cause the State Council of Education to be convened The council shall [thereupon consider such application and] fix a time and place for hearing the application notice of which hearing shall be sent to the school districts which will be affected by the council's decision At the hearing the proper official of or the counsel for the districts shall present to the council the reasons for approval or disapproval of the application and the council shall then determine whether such new school district or independent school district or union school district or change in the boundaries of an existing school district of the third or fourth class is desirable and whether the welfare of the pupils within the territory affected thereby will be promoted by the creation of such district or change in the boundaries of such existing district

(b) If the council shall approve such application it shall certify its findings and its approval of such new district or change in such existing district thereon and transmit a certified copy thereof to the clerk of the courts or other proper officer from whom the application was received who shall file the same in such original proceeding whereupon the new city borough or township will become a new school district of the third or fourth class or the school district of the third or fourth class remaining after such annexation shall constitute a separate school district as so changed

(c) If in the judgment of the council the application should not be granted it shall endorse thereon "not approved" and transmit a certified copy thereof to the clerk of the courts or other proper officer from whom the application was received who shall file the same in the original proceedings In such event the boundaries of the existing school districts shall remain unchanged Provided The State Council of Education may for causes shown upon subsequent application by ten taxables of school district of the third or fourth class not coterminous with a city borough incorporated town or township vacate such refusal and may approve the creation of such new district of the third or fourth class or change in boundaries of an existing district of the third or fourth class and thereupon the same proceedings shall be had as herein provided upon the original application and with like effect

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 669, as follows:

An Act amending the act of April 14, 1905 (P. L. 162) entitled "An act regulating the method and procedure in the erection of line or partition fences" authorizing surveyors appointed by judges of common pleas courts to act as fence viewers

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1. Sections 1 and 2 act of April 14, 1905 (P. L. 162) entitled "An act regulating the method and procedure in the erection of line or partition fences" amended April 6, 1949 (P. L. 393) are amended to read

Section 1. Be it enacted &c That from and after the passage of this act owners of improved and occupied land shall erect and maintain an equal part of all line or division fences between them nor shall any such owner be relieved from liability under the provisions of this act except by the consent of the adjoining owner And if any owner of such improved and occupied land shall fail or neglect to erect or maintain his her or their share of such line or division fence the party aggrieved shall notify the county surveyor or if there is no county surveyor in the county then a county surveyor of any adjoining county or if the county surveyor in any adjoining county refuses to act a surveyor appointed by a judge of the court of common pleas who shall act as a fence viewer and whose duty it shall be to examine such line or division fence so complained of and if he finds said fence sufficient the complainant shall pay the cost of his service but if he finds such fence insufficient he shall so report to a justice of the peace or alderman residing in the county where such fence is located designating points and distances of such fence whether a new fence is required or whether the old one can be repaired and the probable costs of a new or the repair of the old fence and said justice or alderman shall notify the delinquent owner of such improved and occupied land of the [county] surveyor's report and that his part of said fence as found by the [county] surveyor be erected or repaired within forty days from the date of such notice and if such notice be not complied with the aggrieved party may cause said line or division fence to be erected or repaired and the costs thereof collected including the charge of the [county] surveyor from the delinquent owner of such improved and occupied land as other debts are collected by law The [county] surveyor shall be entitled to such payment for acting as a fence viewer as he may fix not however exceeding twenty-five dollars Where the [county] surveyor reports that he finds the fence complained of sufficient the amount payable to the surveyor shall be paid by the complainant but where he reports the fence insufficient the amount payable to him shall be paid by the delinquent owner of such improved or occupied land Provided [however] That no owner of improved land shall be compelled to build or repair fence during the months of December January February and March And provided further That nothing herein contained shall be construed to apply to railroad companies

Section 2. Where an owner has improved up to and erected upon the line a division fence and an adjoining owner subsequently improves and occupies up to said line he shall become liable to the former for such part of the cost of said fence as is just and reasonable taking into consideration the quantity of the fence the length of time it had been erected and its condition And in case the parties fail to agree on the amount to be paid the owner who erected said fence may complain to the [county] surveyor aforesaid who shall assess the amount which in his opinion the other party should pay which amount together with payment to the [county] surveyor as in section one provided may be recovered as provided in section one of this act

Section 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

Mr. MORAN. I would like to inform the Speaker that it is impossible for us to hear the Speaker. I don't know whether he is too far away from the mike or what's the matter, but we can't distinguish what the Speaker is saying in the back of the House.

The SPEAKER. Was the gentleman from Allegheny listening intently?

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I have been listening very intently and I stood it as long as I could before getting up. I thought maybe the Chair would realize it himself and I would not have to tell him about it.

BILL PASSED OVER

There being no objection

House Bill No. 794, Printer's No. 454

was passed over at the request of the SPEAKER.

Agreeable to order,

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I would like if one of the ponsors would explain just what the bill does.

The SPEAKER. Will one of the sponsors explain what louse Bill 857, Printer's No. 455, does?

Mr. SIGMAN. As one of the sponsors of this bill, I ould like to explain this bill to the gentleman from Vestmoreland.

This is a bill to establish speed limits in the City of hiladelphia only. We amended the bill yesterday, doing way with radar implements. This bill now reads that mits within the City of Philadelphia shall be 25 miles, except where there is a safety zone, or where there are cars stopped to discharge passengers, at which time the speed limit shall be 10 miles. On state highways or federal highways the limit is 35 miles. All this bill is designed to do is to establish speed limits in the City of Philadelphia.

Is there any other question that the gentleman from Westmoreland would like to ask me?

Mr. LOVETT. I would like to ask the gentleman just one more question, Mr. Speaker.

This applies to the City of Philadelphia, is that correct?

Mr. SIGMAN. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. And the City of Philadelphia is the County of Philadelphia?

Mr. SIGMAN. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. And with regard to state highway routes through the County of Philadelphia, this would give them an opportunity on all state highways, anywhere in the County of Philadelphia to set the speed limit at 25 miles an hour?

Mr. SIGMAN. At 35 miles an hour.

Mr. LOVETT. At 35 miles an hour.

Mr. SIGMAN. That is correct, Mr. Speaker, and the act reads so that if they desire to reduce the speed limits or extend the speed limits, they may do so.

Mr. LOVETT. I thank the gentleman, Mr. Speaker.

I do not object to the City of Philadelphia or any city or borough regulating their speed limits in certain sections on state highways through their cities and boroughs, but the City of Philadelphia takes in the entire County of Philadelphia, and I question the advisibility of whether or not we should allow the City or the County of Philadelphia to regulate the speed limits all over the County.

Mr. TOLL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to clarify the remarks made by my colleague on the other side regarding the speed limits on state highways. I also would like to make this observation for the gentleman from Westmoreland. If he will examine the bill on both pages 3 and on page 4, he will see in large letters that have been underlined, that restrictions as to speed on expressways and limited access highways on state highway systems shall be established by the Secretary of Highways. On page 4 he will see that no speed restriction less than 35 miles an hour shall be setablished on any state highway without first obtaining the consent of the Secretary of Highways. I do not think you will have any problem in the city of Philadelphia as far as state highways are concerned and I hope you will support the bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Less than the majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the negative and the bill falls.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1056, as follows:

An Act to further amend the act approved the twenty-ninth day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 1107) entitled "An act providing for the construction erection and maintenance of roadside rests adjacent to State highway routes providing for the acquisition of interests in land by gift purchase or condemnation granting powers to and imposing duties upon the Department of Highways the Secretary of Highways the Governor and the Department of Property and Supplies authorizing rules and regulations and providing penalties for violations thereof and making an appropriation" by removing the limitation on the number and cost of roadside rests

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. STRAUSSER. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

Amend Title, page 2, line 2 of Title, by striking out "by removing" and inserting in lieu thereof "changing"

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 1), page 3, line 1, by striking out the bracket before "not"

Amend Sec. 3 (Sec. 5), page 4, line 9, by striking out the bracket before "NOT"

Amend Sec. 3 (Sec. 5), page 4, line 9, by inserting a bracket before "TWO"

Amend Sec. 3 (Sec. 5), page 4, line 9, by inserting aa5

Amend Sec. 3 (Sec. 5), page 4, line 10, by inserting after "($225,000)]" "eight hundred four thousand dollars (804,000)"

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the offering of amendments at this time? Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. STRAUSSER. Mr. Speaker, believe it or not, the purpose of these amendments is to protect the Governor and his Secretary of Highways. It is also intended to prevent this innocent looking bill from becoming a discriminatory measure.

To accomplish this same purpose, I believe I was responsible for the establishment of ceilings in the "roadside rest bill" when it was sponsored by a Member on this side of the House during the 1953 session.

Mr. Speaker, the amendments just offered provided generous new ceilings to be placed on the construction of roadside rests. Compared with the old ceilings contained in this bill before it was amended last week, removing all ceilings, these amendments provide for 134 roadside rests instead of sixty-seven in the original bill; a $6,000 unit price for each roadside rest instead of $5,500 each; and $804,000 total ceiling in place of the old $225,000 ceiling in the original bill.

Without these amendments just offered there would be no ceiling placed on the number of roadside rests, there would be no ceiling on the unit cost of each roadside rest there would be no ceiling on the total cost of all roadside rests.

In other words, if these amendments are not adopted the Secretary of Highways, with the approval of the Governor, could decide to build one roadside rest or he could decide to build a thousand or more.

Without these amendments, the Secretary of Highways with the Governor's approval, could decide to spend $1,000, $10,000 or a $100,000 on one single roadside rest.

Without these amendments, the Secretary of Highways with the Governor's approval, could spend a million dollars of fifty million on roadside rests throughout Pennsylvania

These figures might sound fantastic, but did anyone ever stop to think that without these amendments this House Bill 1056, Printer's No. 402, could become an instrumen by which influential politicians could pressurize the Secretary of Highways and the Governor into using it to fill abandoned coal strippings, adjacent to our highways, thus converting ugly eyesores into beautiful roadside rests.

I am told that in the soft coal area these abandoned strippings could be converted into artifical lakes by flooding them with water.

This, of course, could not be done in the hard coal regions because this would defeat the purpose of the Anthracite Mine Drainage Bill recently passed by this House. However, these hundred feet deep abandoned anthracite strippings could be backfilled with rock, earth and top soil; trees, shrubbery and grass could then be planted, thus converting these eyesores into beautiful roadside rests. The cost of such a single operation could be anywhere from $10,000 to $100,000.

As I said before these amendments establishing new ceilings would protect the Governor and the Secretary of Highways against any such unreasonable demands. I hope that such demands have not already been made. If so, I can understand the reason for the removal of ceilings otherwise, I can't understand the reason for the removal of all ceilings and so exposing the Governor to such demands as mentioned.

I mentioned that this bill without these amendments could become a discriminatory measure. The ceiling price of $6,000 per roadside rest as provided in these amendments would give the Members of this House some measure of assurance that their respective districts would receive equal consideration as to the location and quality of roadside rests. One district would not get a $50 job as compared with a $100,000 job in another district, hence such discrimination would be avoided by these amendments.

Mr. Speaker, I urge all Members of this House to weigh these thoughts carefully before voting on these amendments, and I ask for a slow roll call vote.

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, I rise to oppose the amendments offered by the gentleman from Columbia, Mr. Strausser. I believe he narrated a written fantastic statement relative to roadside rests.

Personally I have more confidence in the departmental operation of our various departments, whether they be under prior administrations which were Republican, or under future administrations, whatever they may be.

There are certain limitations that the department must prescribe to in order to receive public acclaim for the project which we are speaking about here today. Primarily, the reason that the limitations were removed was the fact that for the various arteries of transportation we have in the state of Pennsylvania under the original Act the number of sixty-seven was incorporated into the legislation, and then the tenor of the legislation seemed to point out that one roadside rest would be set up in each county. This, of course, is not a feasible item in this type of legislation inasmuch as roadside rest may be needed to the extent of five for a certain county and other counties would not need any.

In opposing these amendments, Mr. Speaker, I am not going to speak at length on the bill but I oppose them for the particular reason that the statute for roadside rests should be upon the law books of the Commonwealth as a statute that will stand up by itself. The amount of money spent for roadside rests can be controlled by the appropriations for the particular project in the budget.

Every two years we have come back here since the original passage of this Act. I believe in 1945, when the cost of roadside rests was limited to 1,000 for each rest, we found from the records that not one roadside rset was established in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania because of this limitation. We further moved in a later year, 1947, to raise the ceiling for roadside rests to $3,500. We found then that several roadside rests were erected on locations where the cost of grading was not too high, and we were able to place several roadside rests into the program of the state.

In 1953 this limit was raised to $5,500, and we found that quite a number of roadside rests were placed into this particular project in Pennsylvania. Now we find that where roadside rests are needed the placing of this $6,000 limit will hinder the program inasmuch as in the southwestern, the south central and the eastern counties of Pennsylvvania the terrain is such in the particularly adaptable areas for roadside rests that this limitation curtailed the operation of this program.

The gentleman further has in his amendments a top ceiling of $804,000 as the expenditure for roadside rests. Under all the recommendations of the gentlemen, who have had years of experience in setting up these roadside rests in the Department of Highways, and they are from the prior administration's experience, they contemplate spending not half of this amount of money. Their recommendation is to have a hundred roadside rests in Pennsylvania on the arteries of traffic that are heavily travelled for the accommodation of the public.

I do not believe I would like to see the limitation raised to $804,000. The Governor in his budget message asks for $300,000 for this particular purpose, and you can see from the program during the discussion of the bill and the amount spent for roadside rests that prudence certainly was used.

There is a good plan set up for the rests. The maintenance of them and the low cost of them in the way they are set up and established show that they are a necessity for the Commonwealth and, therefore, I would ask the House to vote down the amendments and to move the bill on for final passage.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, I, too, want to oppose the emendments, but for a little different reason than the gentleman from Westmoreland.

I wish to oppose the amendments because I think they are, in my opinion, too liberal. Allowing $800,000 to be used for roadside rests in my opinion is far too liberal. It has been pointed out that ever since the passage of this bill every two years we have had to wrestle with the problem of roadside rests.

Mr. Speaker, that is exactly the way I would have the situation remain. I think that this Hous should retain control over expenditures when it comes to things such as roadside rests.

Frankly, it is my opinion that these amendments should be voted down, and it is also my opinion that the bill should be voted down and then should be recalled and amended in a proper manner. I believe that it is the duty of this Legislature to regulate the expenditure of state funds and I certainly would not be for a bill similar to the one that we have before us now, which provides as follows:

> Acquisition, construction and erection of such roadside rests shall be paid out of the monies in the motor license fund and such monies as may be necessary for this purpose are hereby specifically appropriated to the Department of Highways.

Mr. Speaker, in my opinion, that amounts to a blank check, and I am opposed to giving a blank check to anyone. Further, this bill, if enacted, will continue to remain in effect for a period of many years and, while we may have confidence in our present Secretary and while we may have confidence in our present Governor, there may come a day when unscrupulous individuals could erect memorials to themselves, using highway funds to erect parks instead of roadside rests.

Personally, I am in favor of roadside rests. I want to see them erected, but I want to see them erected and constructed under the watchful eye of the Legislature and to be erected over a period of years under our supervision.

Mr. STRAUSSER. Mr. Speaker, if I heard correctly, the one gentleman referred to this as an appropriation. Understand the Highway Department allocates money for various purposes.

There was another reference made to the $804,000 as being too much. Well, Mr. Speaker, this is a ceiling, they do not have to spend that $804,000. I was just being generous. Let the Governor and the Secretary have sufficient funds to build roadside rests throughout our state.

As to the sixty-seven mentioned as one per county, I do not think there is anything in the bill—I may be mistaken, on that. In other words, sixty-seven, as I understand it, could be built right around Harrisburg, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, or wherever you want to build them.

I would like to clarify this $804,000. It was intended that this would include the money already spent for roadside rests that have been built. You have damage to these road side rests. Hurricane Hazel came through removed roofs and did other damage, and it was not my intention that $804,000 should be spent on new roadside rests. You have repairs and maintenance on the ones already constructed.

I, too, believe in roadside rests, I am in favor of them. I think we are discussing the amendments now, not debating the bill, and I would like to have a slow roll call on these amendments.

BILL AND AMENDMENTS LAID ON TABLE

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I think it might be well to have further consideration of this matter, and, therefore, at this time I am going to move that the bill and the amendments be laid upon the table.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

On a rising vote more than 106 Members having voted in the affirmative, the motion was agreed to and the bill, together with the amendments were laid upon the table.

BILL PASSED OVER

There being no objection

House Bill No. 1078, Printer's No. 376

was passed over at the request of the SPEAKER.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1124, as follows:

An Act amending the act of May 1, 1929 (P. L. 905), entitled "An act for the protection of the public safety regulating the use of highways and the operation of vehicles tractors street cars trackless trolley omnibuses bicycles pedestrians and the riding of animals upon the highways of this Commonwealth providing for the titling including liens encumbrances and legal claims registration of certain vehicles and licensing the operators thereof upon payment of prescribed fees prescribing and limiting the powers of local authorities to deal with the subject matter of this act conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue the Department of Highways peace officers mayors burgesses magistrates aldermen justices of the peace the courts and the clerks thereof owners of vehicles and garage keepers providing that records are admissible as evidence imposing upon owners counties cities boroughs incorporated towns townships within the Commonwealth liability for damages caused by the negligent operation of their motor vehicles imposing penalties imposing certain costs upon counties providing for the disposition of fines forfeitures fees and miscellaneous receipts making an appropriation and providing for refunds" increasing jurisdiction of aldermen and justices of the peace in civil actions arising from use of vehicles

Section 1 Section 1208 act of May 1, 1929 (P. L. 905) known as "The Vehicle Code" amended June 22, 1931 (P. L. 751) is amended to read

Section 1208 Civil Actions for Damages All civil actions for damages arising from the use and operation of any vehicle may at the discretion of the plaintiff be brought before any magistrate alderman or justice of the peace in the county wherein the alleged damages were sustained if the plaintiff has had said damage repaired and shall produce a receipted bill for the same properly sworn to by the said party making such repairs or his agent or action may be brought in the court of common pleas of said county and service of process in either case may be made by the sheriff of the county where the suit is brought deputizing the sheriff of the county wherein the defendant or his registered agent resides or where service may be had upon him under the existing laws of this Commonwealth in like manner as process may now be served in the proper county No action involving more than one hundred ($100.00) dollars shall be brought before any magistrate in cities of the first class and no action involving more than three hundred ($300.00) dollars shall be brought before any allderman or justice of the peace

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the lady from Clinton County, Mrs. Donahue, to explain the bill?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Westmoreland Mr. Lovett, asks the lady from Clinton, Mrs. Donahue to explain the bill.

Mrs. DONAHUE. Mr. Speaker, I am very happy to explain the bill, it is very simple.

In 1929 in Section 1208, according to that section of the Motor Vehicle Law, justices of the peace and magistrates may settle civil cases, that is, damage to automobiles, only to the extent of $100. Now that bill is outmoded for this reason, at that time you could buy a fender; today if you have an automobile accident yo must buy the side of a car, and you know the cost is much greater.

Another thing, I know we have insurance men here in the House and I know they would approve if their bill was being paid. But at the same time, there are often insurance companies that question the amount of damage and, when the receipt is taken in for the garage repair, it must be taken into court in order to collect anything over $100. That requires a lawyer, and that would be an added cost.

There is something else I would like to explain which was not explained in caucus yesterday, and that is this, it also states that this bill shall be in effect in all districts with the exception of first class cities. The reason for that is this, in first class cities they have their own magistrate courts.

Mr. Speaker, I wonder if they would like to know anything else. I would be happy to answer.

Mr. MAXWELL. Mr. Speaker, I think the lady gave an excellent explanation of this bill and, therefore, I am going to be forced to vote for it.

Mrs. DONAHUE. I thank the gentleman, Dr. Maxwell.

The SPEAKER. Incidentally, the lady says in some instances it would be necessary to select an attorney. It would not only be necessary, it would be a calamity.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I also want to thank the lady for her very clever description of the bill.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, this being ladies' day, also want to compliment the lady. I also want to defend this bill and to defend us lawyers. I want to assure the Members of the House that we lawyers have been growing fabulously rich on these hundred dollar cases.

However, this is a very sensible piece of legislation, something that should have been done years ago, and here is our opportunity to do it. Let us vote for this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

BILL PASSED OVER

There being no objection

House Bill No. 1342, Printer's No. 429

was passed over at the request of the SPEAKER.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1344, as follows:

An Act relieving attorneys-at-law from any liability because of failure of a prothonotary clerk or other officer of the court to index or docket an item after being requested to do so

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 An attorney-at-law who has requested a prothonotary clerk or other officer of the several courts of this Commonwealth to index or docket any item shall not in any manner be held liable because of the omission or failure of the prothonotary clerk or other officer to transcribe the item into or enter it in the proper index or docket

Section 2 This act shall take effect immediately but shall not apply to any omission or failure occurring before its effective date

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1392, as follows:

An Act amending the act of May 10 1939 (P L 111) entitled "An act relating to and providing for the promotion and development of business industry and commerce in the Commonwealth conferring powers and duties upon the Department of Commerce and other agencies of the Commonwealth abolishing the Pennsylvania State Publicity Commission terminating the terms of its members and conferring its powers upon and transferring and appropriating the balance of its current appropriation to the Department of Commerce and repealing certain laws" granting to and imposing certain powers and duties on the Department of Commerce relating to planning programs assistance and other work heretofore administered by the State Planning Board and transferring records and equipment relative thereto

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, will the Majority Leader permit himself to be interrogated?

The SPEAKER. The Majority Leader will permit himself to be interrogated or we will find out why.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, as a point of information I wonder if the gentleman would give us a short explanation as to just what this bill is going to do and the need for it.

I have been looking at the bill and for the gentleman's information, I notice on page 3 it says the "urban planning assistance." Is that a board that we now have or is that a board that is going to be created? That is one of the questions I would like to have answered.

Mr. READINGER. May I ask the Printer's No. of that?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Printer's No. 433.

Mr. READINGER. May I request the gentleman to restate that question?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. I would like just a brief explanation.

On page 3, line 18, I notice it says the "urban planning assistance." Is that a new board that is being created, or do we have that now, or just what is the reason for this bill and what is the reason for this board

Mr. READINGER. This bill, as I understand it, Mr. Speaker, places the State Planning Board, which is now in the Department of Commerce, in the Governor's office, so that there will be a more direct relation between the State Planning Board and the other departments, and the other departments do not have to deal directly with the Department of Commerce, but can achieve greater coherence by having this State Planning Board in the Governor's office and not in the Department of Commerce.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I am still not clear. I am not saying this to be facetious or to mousetrap the gentleman but if he will look at page 3, and read line 8, it says, "Section 3, the Department of Commerce shall have the power and its duty shall be," and then all the rest of the material is new matter. I never heard of an Urban Planning Assistance Board. That was just questioning to find out why it was not done in the original reorganization plan. It is something that we don't know anything about.

Mr. READINGER. Well, it is necessary to designate some agency of the Commonwealth to receive certain federal funds, which are available for our surveys and planning, and so forth, and I understand that this bill is designed to specifically designate the Department of Commerce as the agency to take care of that work. That would include "urban planning assistance."

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. In other words, Mr. Speaker, the State Planning Board does not have jurisdiction over that?

Mr. READINGER. No, Mr. Speaker, the State Planning Board which now I believe has jurisdiction over some of these functions, will no longer have it. The remarks I made a moment ago were in error because they related to some other bill I had in mind.

We did take the State Planning Board out of the Department of Commerce in another bill, and I say my original remarks were in error and did not apply to this bill at all.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, we won't insist on it, but would the gentleman be kind enough to hold the bill over until we can get a better explanation. We don't seem to be able to explain it on our side of the House either.

Mr. READINGER. I will be happy to pass it over until next week.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. I thank the gentleman, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. SPEAKER, when the gentleman understands it, will he please advise me?

BILL PASSED OVER

The SPEAKER. The Chair withdraws its decision that this bill has been agreed to on third reading, and without objection the bill will go over in order. The Chairs hears none.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1411, as follows:

An Act amending the act of May 11, 1921 (P. L. 522), entitled as amended "An act relating to dogs and the protection of live stock poultry and game birds raised in captivity from damage by dogs providing for the licensing of dogs by the Secretary of Agriculture providing for the enumeration of dogs by assessors regulating the keeping of dogs and authorizing their destruction in certain cases providing for the protection of licensed dogs and for dogs temporarily imported for trial show and breeding purposes prescribing certain privileges for hunting dogs and dogs owned or used by the Board of Game Commissioners providing for the assessment of damages done to live stock poultry and game birds by dogs and for live stock killed by or dying from rabies and for the illegal killing of licensed dogs and the payment of such damages by the Commonwealth imposing powers and duties on certain State county city borough town and township officers and employes directing the payment of all moneys collected into the State Treasury and providing penalties" further regulating the keeping of vicious dogs prescribing penalties and requiring bonds

Section 1 Section 22 act of May 11 1921 (P. L. 522) known as the "Dog Law of 1921" amended May 6 1927 (P. L. 833) is amended to read

Section 22 Any person may kill any dog which he sees in the act of pursuing worring or wounding any live stock or wounding or killing poultry or attacking human beings whether or not such dog bears the license tag required by the provisions of this act There shall be no liability on such persons in damages or otherwise for such killing

Any unlicensed dog that enters any field or any dog that enters any field or inclosure where live stock or poultry are confined shall constitute a private nuisance and the owner or tenant of such field or their agent or servant may kill such dog while it is in the field or inclosure without liability or responsibility of any nature for such killing

Licensed dogs when accompanied by their owner or handler shall not be included under the provisions of this section unless caught in the act of worrying wounding or killing any live stock or wounding or killing poultry or attacking human beings

Any person who has been attacked by a dog or anyone for such person may make a complaint before a magistrate alderman or justice of the peace charging the owner or keeper of such dog with harboring a vicious dog A copy of such complaint shall be served upon the person so charged in the same maner and subject to the same laws regulating the service of summons in civil suits directing him to appear for a hearing of such complaint at a time fixed therein If such person shall fail to appear at the time fixed or if upon a hearing of the parties and their witnesses the magistrate alderman or justice of the peace shall find the person so charged is the owner or keeper of the dog in question and that the dog has viciously and without cause attacked a human being when off the premises of the owner or keeper such official shall order the said owner or keeper to henceforth keep such dog securely confined

For his services in such proceedings the magistrate alderman or justice of the peace and the constable shall be entitled to the same fees they are entitled to for performing similar services in criminal cases In all proceedings under this section such official shall place the costs upon either party as he may determine

It is unlawful for the owner or keeper of any vicious dog after receiving such order to permit such dog to run at large or to appear on the public highways unless in leash Any such dog found running at large may be killed by any constable or police officer without liability for damages for such killing

Any owner or keeper who does not keep a vicious dog confined when so ordered shall upon summary conviction be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) and not more than three hundred dollars ($300) The magistrate alderman or justice of the peace shall also require the owner or keeper of the vicious dog to post bond with sufficient surety in the amount of five hundred dollars ($500) to insure payment of damages or injuries caused by the vicious dog

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

RESOLUTION

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I call up from page 22 of today's calendar Senate Resolution Serial No. 121.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

SENATE MESSAGE

Senate Resolution Serial No. 121.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, March 30, 1955.

The equitable distribution of the waters of the Delaware River among the states of Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey and Delaware that abut the river has been a subject of controversy for years.

The Interstate Commission on the Delaware River a few years ago made a study and presented a plan for the diversion and use of the waters of the Delaware, which plan was ratified and adopted by the states of New York, New Jersey and Delaware, but has not been ratified by Pennsylvania.

Pursuant to litigation before it, the Supreme Court of the United States has entered an order defining the rights in the Delaware River water.

In the light of this order and in an effort to proceed thereunder the state of New Jersey has adopted legislation intended to form a basis of a compact with Pennsylvania for the building of dams and reservoirs and the diversion, storage and use of water therefrom. The law adopted by New Jersey by its terms is contingent upon the acceptance of its provisions by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania on or before the first day of July, 1955.

A bill is now pending in the Senate of Pennsylvania, the purpose of which is to accept the proposal of the state of New Jersey for the allocation of water rights between these two states.

Question has been raised whether or not the proposal made by New Jersey is advantageous to this Commonwealth and whether the members of Pennsylvania's General Assembly are sufficiently acquainted with the facts involved to pass judgment at this time, therefore be it

Resolved, (the House of Representatives concurring) That a Study Commission be created consisting of seven members, 3 of whom shall be Senators appointed by the President pro tempore, 3 of whom shall be Members of the House of Representatives appointed by the Speaker, and one of whom shall be a citizen of Pennsylvania, not a member of the General Assembly appointed by the Governor of the Commonwealth, and that it shall be the duty of the committee to study and examine the various plans developed for the distribution of water from the Delaware River and the effect of the decision of the Supreme Court of the United thereon, as well as the effect of the legislation adopted by the State of New Jersey and the proposed acceptance thereof by Pennsylvania. The committee shall confer with the legislative committee and other proper persons in the states of New Jersey, New York and Delaware and shall resolve the problem equitably and impartially to all of the states affected, and be it further

Resolved, That the commission make a report with its recommendation to the Governor and to each house of the General Assembly as soon as possible.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

The SPEAKER. For the information of the Members, this Resolution can be found on page 152, of the Senate History. It is not in print because the Senate does not print the resolutions.

Does the Majority Leader desire to comment upon this Resolution or outline its purpose?

Mr. READINGER. The purpose of this resolution is to provide for the appointment of a seven member committee to study this matter of the use of Delaware River water.

Just recently the state of New Jersey extended for six months the deadline by which a compact could be entered into between Pennsylvania and New Jersey on this problem.

As you know we passed a bill in the House some time ago which is still being processed in the Senate in relation to this compact or agreement between the two states, and this seven man committee can now sit down with a similar group from New Jersey and possibly work out an even better solution that has been achieved up to the present time, or has been suggested up to the present time.

Therefore, I hope everybody can vote for this resolution to set up this committee.

On the question recurring,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

It was concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

COMMUNICATION AND BILL TAKEN FROM TABLE

Mr. FLINT. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 640, Printer's No. 172 together with communication from the Governor be taken from the table.

The motion was agreed to.

The communication was read by the Clerk as follows:

COMMUNICATION FROM GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

APPROVAL OF HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION RECALLING HOUSE BILL NO. 640 FROM GOVERNOR

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives, of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed House Concurrent Resolution recalling from the Governor House Bill No. 640, Printer's No. 172, for the purpose of amendment.

Accordingly, the original bill is herewith returned.

GEORGE M. LEADER.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE

Mr. FLINT. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed be reconsidered.

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Potter, Mr. Flint, vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. FLINT. Mr. Speaker, I voted with the prevailing side.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Petrosky, vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, I voted with the prevailing side.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

Mr. FLINT. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. FLINT. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

"(b) Upon petition presented to him by the warden, superintendent or other official in charge of any county penal or correctional institution, said Deputy Commissioner for Treatment may transfer as aforesaid any prisoner confined in such institution whose penalty for crime has been fixed at death by a jury or court either before or after formal sentence has been imposed.

"(c) The prisoner shall be confined in the institution to which he had been transferred pending further proceedings. If his presence is required for any reason in the court wherein he was condemned he shall be temporarily returned to the county penal or correctional institution upon order of the court directed to the warden of the State penitentiary wherein he is confined. When the presence of the prisoner is no longer required in the county for court proceedings he shall be returned to the penitentiary to which he was originally transferred. Transfers and returns shall be effected by the sheriff of the county in which he was condemned.

"(d) The petition shall include (1) the name of the prisoner, (2) the crime for which punishment is fixed at death, (3) the date of the jury's verdict or the court's adjudication, and (4) shall have annexed thereto a photograph of the prisoner and his fingerprints.

"(e) The expenses of transfer, returns and maintenance of the prisoner shall be borne by the county in which the prisoner was condemned and shall be paid by the county in like manner and pursuant to the laws relating to the payment of costs of prisoners sentenced to State penal or correctional institutions."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the offering of amendments at this time? Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, that the bill as amended lie over for printing.

RESOLUTION

FLAG DAY

Mr. WALSH asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer a resolution and for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, June 14, 1955.

On June 14, 1777, the Continental Congress adopted, as the symbol of our then young and struggling colonies, a new flag, composed of thirteen stripes, seven red and six white, with a union of thirteen stars on a blue background. The first flag after the authorization of this new design was hand sewn by Betsy Ross under the direction of George Washington. All the States of the Union celebrate the anniversary of this day as "Flag Day," a day upon which we pause to survey the wondrous glory of our great banner of freedom. As we look back over the history of our Nation and the symbol which represents us, we have a feeling of deep pride in the advancement which our flag has seen us through from its humble beginning. The field of stars has grown to forty-eight, with the contemplation of an addition of several more in the near future. The standard which originally represented a struggling colony now waves with the greatest of dignity over the most powerful nation in the history of the world. That symbol to which all nations of the world look with awe and respect has led the youth of America into battle against the forces of evil, time after time, always to emerge victorious; therefore be it

Resolved, That we pledge anew our allegiance to that beautiful banner of democracy, the flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands; and be it further

Resolved, That we shall forever strive to uphold and advance our Nation and the colors which we so proudly bear.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mrs. VARALLO from the Committee on Education, reported as committed, House Bill No. 1243, entitled:

An Act amending the act of March 10, 1949 (P. L. 30), entitled "An act relating to the public school system, including certain provisions applicable as well to private and parochial schools; amending, revising, consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto," providing for annual payments by the Commonwealth to school districts and vocational school districts on account of expenses for educational television broadcasts by non-profit educational television stations; and making an appropriation.

BILL SIGNED BY SPEAKER

Bills numbered and entitled as follows having been prepared for presentation to the Governor, and the same being correct, the titles were publicly read as follows:

SENATE BILL No. 95.

An Act amending the act of May twenty-seven one thousand eight hundred forty-one (P. L. 400), entitled "An act Relating to the Election of County Treasurers and for other purposes" removing certain eligibility restrictions.

Whereupon,

The SPEAKER, in the presence of the House, signed the same.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. READINGER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, yesterday Mr. Smith and I were discussing the matter of sales taxes versus income taxes. I stated, as I recall, that California's three per cent sales tax raises about $465 million a year for the reason that many items that we exclude here in Pensylvania from a sales tax are included in California's. For example, we have a separate cigarette tax which during the 1953-1955 biennium brought in $87,513,000; we have a liquor tax which raised during that biennium $42,294,000; and the liquor store profits received by the state amounted to $85,500,000.

If we had a three per cent sales tax in the state of Pennsylvania with no exemptions except take-home food, and estimating that one per cent of that would bring in $75 million a year, or $225 million on a three per cent tax—which I do not believe it would—we would then have from that source $456 million in a biennium, and adding the other items I just mentioned to that would give us for a biennium $665 million, approximately, and dividing that in half to bring it down to one year would give us about 330 or 335 million. I just give the gentleman, the Minority Leader, those figures so that he can mull them over for future discussion.

Yesterday the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Smith, spoke of the converts his 1951 statements had made for the income tax. Obviously, while trying to convert us, he unconverted himself. Now he is plumping for a sales tax—or, at least, that is the impression a great many Pennsylvanians received watching him orate on television.

Still, yesterday, when he gave a floundering explanation of his vociferous stand for an income tax in 1951, he indicated that he did not consider it so bad after all, and he tried, rather unconvincingly, to demonstrate its superiority to Governor Leader's classified income tax plan.

On the basis of his amazing inconsistency, I might ask the gentleman from Philadelphia, if he had his choice between a stepped up sales tax and the income tax he championed in 1951, which would he prefer?

If the 1951 income tax were before us now, would he or would he not vote for it? He asked me a similar question yesterday, and I put the same question to him today.

I take the thesis to an even further degree and ask him if a two or three per cent sales tax were before us now, would he or would he not vote for that?

Apparently his political devotion has swung to a boosted sales tax, but yet one never quite knows about Mr. Smith. He is so ambidextrous in jumping from one tax to another, what he said yesterday could very well be ancient history today.

Moreover, when he tried yesterday to paint a glowing picture of the California sales tax and asked why it could not be applied to the tax situation in Pennsylvania, I answered him by stating the California sales tax included many commodities which are exempted under the existing Pennsylvania sales tax.

I wish to point out to Mr. Smith today that California not only has a sales tax, which covers everything under the sun, but it also has an income tax. And that, it seems to me, is a state where a man of Mr. Smith's fluctuating tax views would find a happy sancutary. There he could revel in the glories of both the sales tax and income tax, and no one could shoot holes in his position.

Over in the Senate yesterday, a gentleman who appeared with Mr. Smith on the television programs supposed to offer rebuttal to Governor Leader's tax views made an incongruous spectacle of himself when he refused to be pinned down for the official record on whether or not he stated on TV that he favored a twenty per cent budget cut straight across the board and a two per cent stales tax as a means of solving Pennsylvania's financial predicament.

If he didn't say it, then the newspaper reporters covering his television appearance——

The SPEAKER. The Chair does not want to be too severe in enforcing the Rules, but it is absolutely contrary to the Rules of this House and the Rules of the Senate that occurrences in the Senate be discussed on the floor of the House.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I was discussing something that——

The SPEAKER. By unanimous consent and no one raising a point of order the gentleman could proceed, but for the dignity of the Rules it is necessary for the Chair to acquaint the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Readinger, with the Rules.

Mr. READINGER. I thank the Chair.

Mr. Smith is in a similar position to the gentleman to whom I shall not again refer. Likeable as he is——

The SPEAKER. In the English Parliament they have set the precedent of "things that have occurred in another place." Everybody understands that the "other place" means either the House of Lords or the House of Commons, so if the gentleman will say "occurrences in another place," he will be in order.

Mr. READINGER. I thank the Chair. I will edit my speech.

Likeable as Mr. Smith is, he sometimes gives me the impression he has been riding the merry-go-round too long. He has been grabbing any tax ring that comes along, and he does not seem to care particularly which one he grabs so long as it is diametrically opposed to the tax philosophy of the Democratic Party.

And I must admit that in the process of admiring the tax plan he currently favors, he approaches it with all of the delicacy of a piano mover.

Mr. Smith is indeed an unusual political technician, and I have the greatest admiration for his political eloquence. At times he can be a roaring lion, and I have always had the feeling that if Robert Montgomery could catch one of his performances an entirely new career in the field of dramatic art would open up for the Philadelphia orator. There are times, too, when he completely dazzles us with charming and tender political thoughts that could originate only with one to whom breakfast in bed is one of the miracles of our age.

Whatever else we might say about Mr. Smith's curious political philosophy, we cannot deny that he enlivens the sessions of the House. In days past John Barrymore used to be my particular idol of the theater. Now, I admit, with a complete baring of the soul, that Charlie Smith tops the list of my favorite actors. I never cease to marvel at his skill and the consummate ease with which he can walk in two parades, both going in different directions.

That is real political artistry, and I dare say a man of my humble talents would be unduly presumptuous to ever accuse Mr. Smith of reading his lines badly or incorrectly.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to warn the gentleman that he can not win me by flattery, even though it is the truth.

Mr. Speaker, I think that it might be advisable for you, the next time something is said about the gentleman from Berks being just a wee bit out of order, not to use your gavel and gavel the gentleman down. I think it might be a better idea to talk to a certain ghost that we have around here. I used to think the ghost was a good friend of mine, but it seems that—I don't know—he is probably taking the attitude of "Get Smith Day," or something.

The SPEAKER. Since the Chair does not permit the Majority Leader to talk with the ghost, I don't know that we can permit the Minority Leader to do so.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Well, a spirit is a spirit, Mr. Speaker.

I would like to say to the gentleman I think he is a little bit wrong on some of his figures. To be a little serious, I hold in my hand here a Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Department of Revenue, Bureau of Statistics, on the sales tax. I think it has been issued February, 1955. Probably the Majority Leader has not yet received one. But for his information—if he would care to look, it has been issued under Governor Leader—California on a three per cent sales tax took in $46 illion in one year on liquor, food and restaurants. hese are their figures, not ours. They took in $13 mil-on on cigarettes, according to their sales tax, which ieans $59 million. I said yesterday $453 million in one ear. If you subtract your $59 million, you still have 394 million. I am $6 million wrong, I said we will take i $400 million.

According to the figures, here they are they are pro-ided by the Governor, they are not ours, the press an get them, they are accurate figures, $394 million with ie exemptions taken off for liquor and cigarettes in ne year. That still gives us roughly $800 million, so we annot be too far wrong according to the Governor's gures.

The gentleman said I am going around the state talk-ig about the sales tax. I would like to straighten ne thing out, I am not advocating the sales tax in one ense of the word, and I will try to give him ver-atim what I have said.

I have said on television that the responsibility of he sales tax is not ours. When we were in power we n the Republican side of this House accepted our re-ponsibility. We put into effect a broad base flexible tax vhich will meet all of the revenues needed today. If he Governor sees fit to destroy a broad base tax ystem, it is his responsibility and he is not going to lace the baby back on our doorstep. He is destroying t, not us.

So I think that should be called to the Governor's at-ention and to the gentleman's attention, we are not ad-ocating a sales tax, we are merely stating what our osition was and what we handed to the Governor.

In fact, we could not advocate any kind of a sales ax until such time as the Governor changes his attitude. When the Governor says that he is wrong, that he is sking for too much money, when the Governor says ie will not veto a sales tax, as he said during the ampaign—let u;s hope we have one of these things ccurate—then we might be able to suggest the sales ax, but the Governor has to go not only the first nile that he talks about, but the second mile and the hird mile and come in front of the people and say he was n error.

I think he is making a bad mistake and I think the najority party is making a serious mistake in trying to ut the whole blame of this back on the Republcans. f there is any blame, as I have said before, we are will-ng to share it, but I think the people of Pennsylvania re men and women with enough intelligence to know if a nan has made a mistake. The Governor seems to have nade one in the many, many, promises he made prior to is election. Let him go before the people and say he nade a mistake, and then let him come back and riticize us. But let him go the third mile and admit is mistakes and not try to cover them up by placing hem back on us.

He sat for four years in the Senate. If he didn't know vhat the needs were, he was a poor Senator. I say that vith all seriousness and without any disrespect. But let is be men and admit we made a mistake. If we make hem, we will admit it, I hope. I admire any man that nakes them, and I think you people on your side of he House admire a man that will have the courage to admit a mistake. It takes more courage to admit a mistake than it does to try to shift the blame, like a little boy who falls and then tries to say somebody pushed him, when he fell himself. I think that is one philosophy we should really adhere to.

If the gentleman thinks this is such an excellent tax he is suggesting, I think it is in the Ways and Means Committee completely controlled by the Democrats. I suggest that he hold a meeting this afternoon and bring it out and see if he has the votes to pass it. I see in the papers it is going over to June 27th—I guess to use the hammer of patronage and to use a lot of other hammers. Go ahead and use them, but don't talk until you have the courage to bring the bill out. Bring it out and we will vote on it and let your own Members vote on it and then see where it is. Then we can make our comments as to where we are going from there.

Mr. READINGER. Just a few more words and then I will conclude my remarks for the day.

We will bring our tax bills out when we are ready to bring them out, whether that be next week, the following week, or any other time we see fit. And when the gentleman suggests that we might be using strong-arm methods, perhaps he knows what he is talking about because he engineered the passage of that iniquitous sales tax in 1953 and has had plenty of experience with that type of operation. However that may be, we are going to talk about budgetary matters and give every Member of this House the full story on the budget before we start trying to push any tax bills through this House.

Whether the Governor has made a mistake or not is something the people will determine. We say he has not made any mistake in saying he is going to eliminate and veto a sales tax.

The gentleman goes to great lengths to say how grand it would be for the Governor to come before the Commonwealth and admit he made a mistake in saying he is going to eliminate the sales tax. But it is not a mistake. The matter of how people should be taxed in order to carry on essential functions of the government is a matter of opinion, and it is our opinion that our tax program is a great deal more equitable than the sales tax, despite what the gentleman says and despite what the minority party thinks. We believe we have a much more equitable tax program and we are going to fight for it.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, in those mistakes that the Governor is making, I do not only say the sales tax. There is a tremendously big mistake that I think should be conveyed to the people time and time again, the Governor said he will operate this Commonwealth $100 million cheaper than it was operated during the last administration. Let the Governor come and say he was wrong in that, too, when he is making these statements, because $100 million less than the last administration would not require any new taxes whatsoever. According to the Governor's figures, the sales tax is only bringing in $100 million, so let him forget the sales tax and let him keep his word and operate $100 million less, and he can operate without any new tax.

I am sure the people of Pennsylvania would love to have him keep his word, and we on this side of the House will go along with him 100 per cent to eliminate the $100 million when you see fit on the other side of the House to put that type of legislation in.

Mr. WOOD IN THE CHAIR

PRAYER

The Chaplain. Reverend Harold J. Crouse, Pastor of Trinity Luthern Church, York, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, who has ever been gracious to us as a nation, make us a people worthy of Thy gracious protection. Preserve us from every enemy within and without. In Thy mercy, O Lord, help us so to build upon the foundations laid by our fathers, that we may ever know and seek those things which belong unto our peace and be a Christian nation to the praise of Thy name and the good of all mankind.

Bestow Thy grace upon the presiding officer, the members and servants of this body. Give them such a passion for the freedom and justice of all men that they shall humbly turn to Thee, the Truth, which shall make all people free.

Now, most gracious Father, we place all these Thy children present here this morning in Thy care and keeping. Bless them every one. Be with us all through this day and so journey with us in our work and play. In Jesus' name.

AMEN.

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEE TO MEET DURING SESSION

Mr. POLEN asked and obtained permission for the Committee on Appropriations to meet during the session of the House.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. FROST. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. FROST. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have the following remarks placed upon the record.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection the remarks of the gentleman will be noted in the Journal. The Chair hears none.

Mr. FROST. I am a co-sponsor on House Bill No. 1318. This bill I jointly sponsored by request of the proposers.

At the time the bill was introduced, because of the arrival of the deadline for the introduction of bills in the House, the proposers were anxious for it's introduction. Consequently I had little opportunity to consider this proposed legislation.

Had I realized the import of this measure on a large number of my constituents, I would not have co-sponsored this bill. Therefore I respectfully request, without prejudice to the other sponsors, that my name shall not appear on the bill should future printings of the bill be made.
